REV. MILLER TO SPEAK

"Roughing It" At Cavallo May Prove A Failure Financially

Reports from the Y. M. C. A. at Cavallo speak of nothing but time. The reports, however, meagre, more so even than dire-ports from the European battle probably because the boys are so enjoying their week of camp arranged by Maurice H. Mitchell "ator" of the camp.

Secretary D. M. Spence of the C. A. is enjoying himself with young men at Cavallo. Every that comes from the secretary is as enthusiastic as those of the b

There may be a dark side to lo when the party returns, howev the small amount that each boy l pay to be included in the outing tend to darken the side that is enjoyed now. The Y. M. C. A. run a few dollars "shy" on the but it is hoped, nevertheless, l be held again next year. This " will probably necessitate the r of the price to each boy next The Y. M. C. A. will be requir bear the extra expense.
