Do you work in the field of Pilgrimage Studies?

By Dee Dyas, Centre for the Study of Christianity and Culture

A new Online Database created at the University of York is designed to bring together information about pilgrimage-related publications, resources and research projects across all periods, cultures and regions. Disciplines represented include Art History, Archaeology, Architecture, History, Geography, Literature, Psychology, Religious Studies, Sociology, Social Anthropology, Tourism and Heritage Studies. The database is intended as a resource for researchers, teachers, students and practitioners.

You will find the database at <http://www.pilgrimagestudies.org.uk/>

If you would like to upload information about your own work, or that of others, or help us to test and improve the database, please email info@pilgrimagestudies.org.uk for a user account.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the homepage of the Database of Pilgrimage Resources. The browser's address bar shows the URL www.pilgrimagestudies.org.uk. The page header includes the University of York logo and the title 'Database of Pilgrimage Resources'. Below the header, there is a navigation menu with links for 'Home', 'About the Project', 'Search the Database', and 'Contact the Project'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a 'Welcome to the Database of Pilgrimage Resources' section with introductory text and a 'Please note' section. The right column contains a 'User login' section with input fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Log in' button, and links for 'Request a user account' and 'Forgotten password?'. The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows several open windows and the system clock indicating 7:07 PM.
