The Banner.

The sad story is afloat that "Me and the Governor" are out. "Ye who have tears prepare to shed them now."

TRUE to the undeviating course of the Democratic party we will not neglect the interest of labor and our workmen.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

"Cleveland stands by his free trade message," says the Toledo Commercial Cleveland, never issued a "free trade message," and the Republican papers deliberately lie when they say so.

The Omaha Herald says: "Despite Mr. Blaine's love for trusts there is one of them he would like to overthrow. It is the adding trust which the people of this country have in Grover Cleveland."

The report (in the Republican papers) that General Daniel E. Sickles would take the stump for Harrison is wholly unfounded. If Sickles speaks at all it will be for Cleveland, whom he greatly admires.

The absolute duty of limiting the rate of tariff charges to the necessities of a fiscal and economical administration of the government seems to be perfectly plain.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON, whose life, bearing the same name, was the leader of the anti-slavery movement in this country years ago, is now making speeches for the Democratic party.
Until recently he has been a Republican.

LECKY HARPER, of the Mt. Vernon Banner, is said to concede that the Republicans may carry Ohio. "Thanks awfully,"—Akron Beacon.

The Beacon has been misinformed.
Lecky Harper has "conceded" nothing of the kind.

The Democracy of Indiana are anxious to have a joint debate between Democratic and Republican candidates for Governor, on the issues of the day; but the Republican leaders, fearing an unfavorable result to their party, will not consent.

Our people ask relief from the inadequate and unnecessary burden of taxation now resting upon them. They are offered—free tobacco and free whisky. They ask for bread and are given a dose.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

The magnificent capitol building of Texas, at Austin, just completed, is said to be seriously defective in many of its parts, and the State Board, consisting of the Governor and State officers, refuse to receive the building from the contractors.

SAYS GROVER CLEVELAND to the Canadians: "You bar out my fishermen and I will bar out your merchants. You have been taking undue advantage of our generosity long enough, and now it's time to close the door and give you a taste of retaliation."

We propose, too, by extending the market for our manufactures, to promote the steady employment of labor while by cheapening the cost of the necessaries of life we increase the purchasing power of the workmen's wages and add to the comforts of his home.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

We have entered upon no crusade of free trade. The reform we seek to inaugurate is predicated upon the utilization of care for established industries, a judicious regard for the interests of the laborer and a sincere desire to relieve the country from the injustice and danger of a condition which threatens evil to all the people of the land.— President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

The continuance upon a pretext of meeting public expenditures of such a scale of tariff taxation as draws from the substance of the people a sum largely in excess of public needs is surely something which, under a government based upon the idea of which finds its strength and usefulness in the faith and trust of the people, ought not to be tolerated.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

It seems perfectly clear that when the government, this instrumentally created and maintained by the people to do their bidding, turns upon, and through an utter perversion of its powers, extorts from their labor and capital tribute largely in excess of public necessities the creature has rebelled against the creator and the masters are robbed by their servants.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

Governor GRAY, of Indiana, and his Attorney General, are determined to break up the illegal and dishonest organization existing in portions of that State, known as the "White Caps," who, disguised at night, drag from their homes O'Connell's persons and punish them in a cruel and outrageous manner. The organization is very powerful, and in some localities it is said prominent and influential farmers are connected with it.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the consequences which follow the continued withdrawal and holding by the government of the currency of the people are not of immediate importance to the mass of our people and only concern those engaged in large financial transactions.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

The surplus revenue now remaining in the treasury not only furnishes conclusive proof of unjust taxation, but its existence constitutes a separate and independent menace to the property of the people. This vast accumulation of idle funds represents that much money drawn from the circulating medium of the country which is needed in the channels of trade and business.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

Serious defection from the Republican ranks in Minnesota is threatened on account of the nomination made and platform adopted by the State Convention.

Very truly and warmly plans for the winter, but is very anxious to have a home of her own again.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

The Catholic News, of New York, has come out strongly for Cleveland and Thurman.

A Cleveland Tariff Reform Club of colored men has been organized at Harrisburg, Pa.

The German Democrats of Hastings, Neb., numbered 900, and their ranks are constantly increasing.

Hon. M. Donohue, of Clinton, Ill., ex-member of the State Senate, and a Hayes elector of 1876, has come out for Cleveland and Thurman.

Judge Aaron Wiland, for many years Judge of the Probate Court of Minneapolis, and always a Republican, comes out for Cleveland, because he wants tariff reform.

Mr. Hazard, the woolen manufacturer of Passaic, N. J., who employs 2,000 operatives, has declared himself for Cleveland and tariff reform. He has been a life-long Republican.

The Caldwell (Kan.) Journal, for many years the leading Republican paper of the State, has made a sensation by coming out flat footed for Cleveland and Thurman and the entire Democratic ticket.

The Hebrew citizens of New York City have started a new Democratic paper called the Democrat. The Hebrews of New York as well as all parts of the country are changing from the Republican to the Democratic party.

Marshall Field, of Chicago, the greatest merchant in the world, a large employer of labor, and extensively interested in railroad and manufacturing enterprises, is enthusiastic in his support of Cleveland and Thurman. He has always been an ardent Republican.

The reason that in this campaign we have forsaken our party to advocate the election of Cleveland, is because against a first-rate man and a just second-rate man and an unjust policy.

Dr. A. J. Dowds, a leading citizen of Canton, and a life-long Republican, has low given up the Republican doctrine of high protection, and will vote for Cleveland and Thurman. Dr. Dowds is a prominent member of the First M.
E. Church of Canton, and a man of great influence.

Thomas Richardson, a life-long and influential Republican of Lion, N. Y., a prominent lawyer, says he does not like the platform of his party, which means oppressive taxation, free whisky and tobacco, and he says: "I will vote for Cleveland and Thurman, and think they will win."

The correspondent of the Enquirer at Greenfield, Indiana, states that not less than 60 good, reliable Republicans of that place, who have declared for Cleveland and Thurman, have voted for Cleveland and Thurman. Captain R. A.
Riley, father of the celebrated poet James Whitcomb Riley.

Thomas Osborne, of the firm of D. M.
Osborne & Co., manufacturers of movers, repairs and binders, has come out strong for Cleveland, and recently made a speech before the German Democratic Club of Cayuga, N. Y.

The Republicans have claimed him an advocate of high protection, but he has thoroughly and publicly overthrown their hopes.

A big sensation has been created at Waterloo, Iowa, by the announcement that Judge Platt, President of the Continental National Bank, and Lewis Alford, a prominent attorney and ex-Speaker of the Iowa House of Representatives, have left the Republican party for almost every purpose in his life.

Bill CAPPILLER, the Republican Boss in Ohio, is in a peculiar condition. He is not long since addressed circulars to his boiler-plate associates, directing them to hunt up and publish all the "rums" news they could make and scrape, so as to make capital against the Democratic Administration. But the general prosperity that prevails all over the country, especially in our own lovely State of Ohio, has knocked this panic monger out of sorts, and he goes around "weeping and wailing and gnashing his teeth," and refuses to be comforted. Cappeller, as a blowhard political humbug, wears the red ribbon.

The Cleveland Leader gave publicity to the atrocious falsehood that President Cleveland had "recently bought 2,000 woolen blankets of English manufacture." President Cleveland never did anything of the kind. A searching investigation made by the New York Times has shown that the blankets next desert their ranks. Mr. Sullivan thinks that every true soldier ought to support President Cleveland, because he has been treated by a Democratic Administration as a soldier than by a Republican Administration.

The Democratic Club of Columbus, have formed an association for the purpose of raising funds to purchase an elegant silk banner to be presented to the county in the State whose vote will show the largest per cent. of Democratic gain according to the vote cast in the November election over the vote cast for Thomas E. Powell for Governor last year. The following names were elected as permanent officers of the association: President, Mr. Allen G.
Thurman, of Columbus; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas E. Powell, of Columbus; Secretary, Miss Belle Armstrong, of Cleveland; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Emma Wirth, of Columbus.

nancial transactions.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

channels of trade and business.—President Cleveland's Letter of Acceptance.

on account of the nomination made
Convention.

BEN HARRISON'S UTTERANCES.

"Have you a right, while you are breaking the law, to appear before a committee of law-abiding citizens with an appeal to redress the wrongs you claim to be suffering from?"

Ben Harrison said to a committee of railroad "strikers," July 26, 1877.

"A dollar a day and two meals are enough for any workman."

The above is an extract from a speech made by Ben Harrison, the Republican candidate for President during the great railroad strike of 1877.

In speaking of this remark of Harrison, the Pittsburgh Post says:
"The remark that a dollar a day and two meals are enough for any workman," was made in a public speech, reported and allowed to stand for years without contradiction. Mr. Harrison being rather proud of it.

"We're I believe, I'd force those men back to work or shoot them on the spot."

The above is what Ben Harrison, the Republican candidate for President, said in a speech in 1877, in regard to the men who were engaged in the great railroad strike of that year.

What the Chicago Tribune, the Leading Republican Paper in the Northwest Says:

"Harrison is hated in California, because he voted FOURTEEN times against the restriction of Chinese immigration."

WHAT IS FOUND IN PITTSBURGH.

Twenty-two millions. The source of Private Fortunes and Kleptocracies.

This is the land of tariff barons and "protected" workmen, says a Pittsburgh dispatch to the New York World.

Here are the Carnegies, the Joneses, the Olivers, the imm, steel, coal, and glass manufacturers, mills and working men. The tariff tree is here.
What are its fruits?

Seventy-two millionaires who have made their pile out of the "American system" of protection. There are five of whom the public hears a good deal.

Andrew Carnegie—Mr. Blaine's coachman.

B. F. Jones—Ex-chairman of the Republican national committee.

John D. Rockefeller—Member of the tariff commission and Republican platform maker at Chicago.

A. M. Byers—Republican platform maker, business looking up to the Republican campaign contributor, Member of the iron firm of A. M. Byers & Co.

John Chaffant—Mr. Blaine's friend; campaign contributor. Member of the firm of Sprang, Chaffant & Co.

Mr. Chaffant, of these five "protected" gentlemen at the bottom of a check are good for $25,000,000, all made out of the high tariff policy of Republican ascendancy. A few years ago Mr. Carnegie was a poor boy living in a tenement house in Allegheny, Pa.

Twenty-one years ago Mr.
Oliver was a clerk for B. F. Jones & Co., at 900 a year. Thirty years ago Mr. Jones had nothing but brains and dusty and Welsh aptitude for iron-mongering. Twenty-two years ago Messrs. Chaffant and Byers were either makers of iron or speculators on a modest scale or salesmen for iron firms. And these princely fortunes, made in a few years, have been made by the tariff.

Here is the hot-bed of strikes—times riots.
Here organized labor makes its annual fight for a scale of living wages. Here 10 per cent. reductions are made in men's wages while coaching parties take 9 cents at my door. Here the tariff with the profits from their labor.

$15,000 on Cleveland's Election.

New York, Sept. 12.—There was considerable betting in the Hoffman Hotel last night on the result of the coming election. Among the notable bets was one made by John D. Townsend, the well known lawyer of this city. Mr. Townsend bet, Mr. Matt Meyer, of New York, that the article published in the New York Press of Aug. 27, indignantly denied the truth of the report that he intended supporting the Republican ticket at the coming fall election, saying:

"I shall vote for the Democratic ticket in this State this fall, and I shall be glad to see Mr. Cleveland's administration being conducive to the best interests of the country and, while I am a strong advocate of protection to our home industries, I recognize the fact that the mass of the people, Democrats and Republicans alike, will insist upon the demand of a reduction of the taxes, and while the Mills Tariff bill is not without its objections, yet it is not unreasonable to expect that the next session of Congress certain House will be made to the bill in the Senate, acquiesced in by the Republican Senate, approved by the President and the tariff question being settled by the national politics for at least a decade, and I predict that our country will go into an era of prosperity such as it has never attained before."

How the Tariff Swindles the Farmer.

Is the farmer growing richer?
In 1860 the product of each farm laborer was $500. In 1880 it had fallen to $315. In 1880 the product of each manufacturing operative was $1,365.
In 1880 it had increased to $1,963.
Still the farmer is told that he is growing richer, and that the manufacturer does not prosper without the present protection. At the same time the amount produced by a farm laborer falls from $500 to $315, and that production of the other class of laborers rises from $1,365 to $1,963. Where is the boasted unity of interest? To attempt to persuade the farmer that he will get more for wheat and potatoes because his cost is taxed and his lumber costs him $2 per thousand more than the cost of his neighbor's lumber is unreasonable. Neither is there any in the offer of cheap whisky and tobacco nor in free untaxed oleomargarine.—Duluth Herald.

Shipping Past the Palate.

Without nauseating those who take them, the little, sugar-coated Granules known all over the world as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, produce an effect upon the bowels very different from that of a disagreeable, violent pur-gative. No griping or drenching follows, as in the case of a drastic cathartic. The relief to the intestines resembles the action of Nature in her own way, and the impulse given to the bowels is such that the action is natural, and is speedily manifested by the disappearance of all bilious symptoms. Headache, wind on the stomach, pain through the right side and shoulder-blade, and yellowness of the face, are all speedily and specifically relieved by the Pellets. One a dose.

Judge Hammond, of Cincinnati, has a peculiar method of reaching his decisions in the cases presented to him in the United States court. After a case has been tried he retires to his library and walks around the room, sometimes for hours, until he has reached a conclusion. He has won a track in the carpet by his judicial pedestrianism.

The King of Belgians takes tobacco, never wears gloves and goes bare-headed as much as possible. He is fond of bathing, but does not swim. Geography and languages are his favorite studies, and he has traveled in almost every Asianic country. He is a handsome man, slightly built, but muscular, with blue eyes and a big brown beard touched with gray.

THE BOLT IN MINNESOTA.

Through the Farmer's Alliance That State May Go Democratic
This Year.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The Minnesota Democrats in Congress are pleased with the way some of the prominent Republicans and newspapers of that State are bolting the recently nominated Republican ticket. Judge Wilson, of Minnesota, author of the Retaliation bill passed by the House Saturday, said today to a World correspondent:

"There is a widespread feeling in inated for Congress by acclamation in the Covington (Ky.) district on Tuesday.

JUDGE SENEY, Congressman from Ohio, proposes to settle the fishery question by the arbitration of Canada.
That would be "taking the bull by the horns" in earnest.

THE Democratic Convention of the 18th district, which met at Alliance on the 13th, nominated Dr. George P.
Ikert of Columbiana county for Congress by acclamation.

MR. B. HARRISON, in order to satisfy the Republicans of California, goes back on his Senatorial record on the Chinese question. But it is like a deathbed repentance—it comes too late.

THE Democrats will acquit Blaine of the charge of writing grandison Harrison's letter of acceptance. Blaine don't hate war on Trusts or anything else he formerly expressed an opinion about.

AFTER the valuable aid rendered to the Republicans by the prohibitionists in Maine, they will no longer be called "Assistant Democrats." Blaine will call them "good fellows," and put them on the back.

THE Republicans of the Second Subdivision of the Sixth Judicial district, comprising the counties of Ashland, Morrow and Richland, have nominated James Oles of Morrow county, for Common Pleas Judge.

THE same ratio of Democratic gains as that exhibited in Maine will give Illinois, Minnesota and California to Cleveland and Thurman. New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Indiana are, of course, assured.

SO FAR this year the shipments of wheat from the Pacific States to Great Britain have been almost twice as large as the shipments from the Atlantic States. The difference in value in favor of the Pacific States is $5,000,000.

W. W. WARNER, of Kansas City, Mo., has been chosen Commander of the G.
A. R. for the ensuing year; Col. Moses H. Neil of Columbus, senior Vice Commander, and Joseph Handfield of New York, junior Vice Commander.

Democratic Nominations in New York.

The New York Democratic Convention which met at Buffalo on the 12th inst., was the largest and most enthusiastic bodies of the kind that ever assembled in the Empire State. After the adoption of the platform Daniel M.
Lockwood, who nominated Mr. Cleveland, took the stage and made a speech, which closed with the nomination of Governor Hill. When Mr. Lockwood mentioned the name of David B. Hill, both the audience and delegates rose to their feet and cheered wildly, waving hats, handkerchiefs and flags. When Mr.
Lockwood could again make himself heard he moved that the nomination of David B. Hill for Governor be made by acclamation. He gave way, however, to permit District Attorney John R.
Fellows and General Roger A. Pryor, of New York, to second the nomination.

The nomination was then declared unanimous, and there was a sound of wild applause and a scene of frantic delight that lasted long.

Lieutenant-Governor Jones was renominated next by acclamation. John Clinton Gray was named for Judge of the Court of Appeals, and the convention adjourned.

The Democracy of New York are now cordially united, and will sweep the State by an immense majority.

The Iron Lords Refuse to be Bled.

The iron and steel manufacturers of Pittsburgh refuse to be bled by the Republican managers for political purposes. Boss Quay, of the National Committee, recently sent out sub-boss, James S. Rutan to Pittsburgh, to make a personal appeal to the manufacturers of that city to aid the party managers with liberal subscriptions to the campaign fund, and although he called upon the proprietors of thirty-five rolling mills and twenty-nine steel works, he secured but a single contribution—$5,000 from millionaire Harry W. Oliver. Hon. Frank Jones, ex-Chairman of the National Committee, refused to visit a cent, saying that his company of $100,000 four years ago, must suffice for the present. The truth is, the Iron and Steel business has prospered under a Democratic administration, and the manufacturers are well enough satisfied with the existing condition of affairs.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Commendable Character of Our Candidate for Congress—The Outlook in the Ninth District.

The personal and public career of John S. Braddock has been one of unbroken success. Born into a family of a farmer, industry, honesty and frugality became a part of his nature, and his early manhood was spent in the practical and successful performance of the duties of a hard-working intelligent farmer. The habits thus contracted, remained with him during his active, earnest and successful life. With a level head, and courage equal to every emergency, he has assumed responsibilities from which no good man shrinks, and in every case his actions have been rewarded by good results. But few men have done as much for the town and county as Mr. Braddock. His fair-ground addition to our town, his extensive real estate holdings, his getting up extensive plans of the same, etc., were successful. But few men, even in business than himself, would have had the nerve to enter upon such an enterprise—causing many comfortable homes to spring into existence. Such is the confidence he has in his colleagues in establishing the Mt. Vernon Bridge Works, which has been a large and permanent, as well as a successful industry, has secured employment for many of our best mechanics and workmen in our midst. Mr. Braddock has won the confidence and respect of the community, and he has carried the integrity of his private life into the discharge of his public duties. Such is the confidence he has inspired among the people, that he was nominated for the lower House and for the Senate of Ohio, by acclamation, and to crown all he was nominated unanimously for Congress, first by his countrymen, and by the district convention, in his absence from both. Mr. Braddock has the prestige of unbroken success; he has been a friend and contributor to every liberal improvement of the town and county. He has been a leader in every political movement, and he has earned the election of Hon. John S. Braddock. The idea has gone forth and seems to be generally accepted that the Republican majority is anywhere from 1,500 to 2,000. A reference to the Secretary of the State, however, will show that the district has given a rather narrow majority for the State ticket. For instance in 1883 Foraker carried it by 700, in 1885 by 1,000, in 1887 by 1,200, in 1889 by 1,500, in 1891 by 1,800, in 1893 by 2,000, in 1895 by 2,200, in 1897 by 2,400, in 1899 by 2,600, in 1901 by 2,800, in 1903 by 3,000, in 1905 by 3,200, in 1907 by 3,400, in 1909 by 3,600, in 1911 by 3,800, in 1913 by 4,000, in 1915 by 4,200, in 1917 by 4,400, in 1919 by 4,600, in 1921 by 4,800, in 1923 by 5,000, in 1925 by 5,200, in 1927 by 5,400, in 1929 by 5,600, in 1931 by 5,800, in 1933 by 6,000, in 1935 by 6,200, in 1937 by 6,400, in 1939 by 6,600, in 1941 by 6,800, in 1943 by 7,000, in 1945 by 7,200, in 1947 by 7,400, in 1949 by 7,600, in 1951 by 7,800, in 1953 by 8,000, in 1955 by 8,200, in 1957 by 8,400, in 1959 by 8,600, in 1961 by 8,800, in 1963 by 9,000, in 1965 by 9,200, in 1967 by 9,400, in 1969 by 9,600, in 1971 by 9,800, in 1973 by 10,000, in 1975 by 10,200, in 1977 by 10,400, in 1979 by 10,600, in 1981 by 10,800, in 1983 by 11,000, in 1985 by 11,200, in 1987 by 11,400, in
