

Kenyon College

Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange

---

Borders in Play Columbia Elementary Student
Engagement Reflections

Borders in Play Columbia Elementary Student
Engagement

---

Fall 2017

Ferguson Class Reflections

Amy Ferguson
Columbia Elementary

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/bordersinplay\_cese\_reflections

Part of the Curriculum and Social Inquiry Commons, and the Modern Languages Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Ferguson, Amy, "Ferguson Class Reflections" (2017). Borders in Play Columbia Elementary Student Engagement Reflections. Paper 2.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/bordersinplay\_cese\_reflections/2

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Borders in Play Columbia Elementary Student Engagement at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Borders in Play Columbia Elementary Student Engagement Reflections by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

Kenyon Borders Project

Made with charm

AMY FERGUSON OCT 26, 2017 09:23AM

Share your thoughts about our learning about cultural borders with Kenyon.

Tyler Ing

My thoughts about learning about cultural borders with Kenyon students are that I got to draw pictures and I got to share my opinion. I think that it was really fun and really cool that we got to experience this and we learned 6 Spanish words too. It is an opportunity that was AWESOME.

Grace Jackson

The thing that I liked the most about the Kenyon Collage students is that they were super nice! I loved to do all the projects with them. All the poems that they shared with us were super fun! I loved to work with my group! They were so fun! We made a book about three banana kids, a vampire, a ghost, and a narrator. I was the narrator, and I loved it. They made everything funny, they made compliments about our drawings, and ask us about our weekend. They also tell us about there weekend. The Kenyon Collage students changed my life, and I love them for that!

Chase Temple

I liked when the Kenyon students read to us the most!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Reece Fletcher

I liked when we drew pictures about the story.

Kiedis Monteith

What I liked most about the Kenyon students visiting was that I got to meet all of them. I had a lot of fun. They were all very nice to all of us. I had a lot of fun when they come every Tuesday. The best experience with them was when we learned Spanish. We learned about different cultures and I choose the Mexican culture.

Jordan Willits

What I liked most is when we read and drew what we read. I also liked getting to know the Kenyon students and I looked forward to them coming on Tuesdays.

Haley

What I like about Kenyon is they are nice and funny. They make me smile when they walked in. I loved my Kenyon student partners. They are some of the best people I've ever met.

Grayson Brokaw

I like my Kenyon friends because they are funny. We also did fun projects. They are funny and nice. I like my friends.

Riley Fowler

I liked the Venus book that we read with the Kenyon College students. We learned about 5 Spanish words.

Dalton

What I liked about Kenyon was when we got to draw about the books we read. Also, I enjoyed how the Kenyon students all had a good attitudes and were always happy. They always explained what the words in Spanish meant.

Tyler Ing

My thoughts about learning about cultural borders with Kenyon students are that I got to draw pictures and I got to share my opinions. I think that it was really fun and really cool that we got to experience this and we learned 6 Spanish words too. It is an opportunity that is AWESOME.

Elionna Young

What I liked most was to work with the Kenyon students! I also learned Spanish.

Aric Lust

What I liked best was the Kenyon College students and the fun activity's. I loved working with other 5th graders and Kenyon people. They had the best poems and the best stories. I learned some Spanish. I am so happy that all the Kenyon students came and helped.

Brock Jones

Everything we did was the best! I loved the drawing and the stories!!!!!!!

Felicity Rowlen

What I liked most about the Kenyon students (Claire and Eric) is that they were so nice. I also loved that they complemented my drawings a lot. When they walked in the room, they made me smile.

Case Armstrong

What I liked the most is that when we drew what we thought about the stories we read. I also like when we read the stories and the poems. I also like "All Summer In a Day" because the story was the first one we read. I liked when we got together and told what happened in each story.

Shawn Wolfe

What I like about Kenyon is when we did poems. It was fun. I loved to read our stories.

Mrs.Ferguson

I enjoyed watching the children learn about different languages and cultures along with all the collaboration that went on among all the students.

Jada Coey

Meeting with the Kenyon students was the best experience in fifth grade yet! My favorite time of the week was Tuesday because I loved the stories and poems they shared. They cheered me up on a sad day and I always had so much fun! The best thing ever was reading the stories and drawing and coloring. One of my favorite things was when we made a story about the three banana kids, a vampire and a ghost.

*****