During the whole College Course, a portion of the Greek Testament on Monday mornings; Religious exercises and Bible recitations on Wednesday afternoons; frequent exercises in Composition and Declamation.

Persons, not candidates for a degree, can attend to any branch of the College-course, in connexion with the class attending to that branch at the time: The charge to them will be the same as to the members of the class.

There are two public examinations—one at the close of each session: At these examinations, the Students are examined in all the studies of the past session in such a thorough and exact manner, as to exhibit, as far as possible, to the Trustees and friends of the Institution, the acquirements of each individual.

SESSIONS AND VACATIONS.

The year is divided into two sessions, each consisting of twenty weeks. The first begins eight weeks after Commencement, which is on the first Wednesday of September. There is a vacation of four weeks between the two sessions.

EXPENSES

For forty weeks term time, including board, tuition,

Room-rent, fuel and light, for a Theological Student Fifty Dollars: For a College Student, Seventy Dollars. In addition to the above, each Student pays into the Treasury two dollars, which entitles him to the attendance of the College Physician when sick during term-time.

N. B. These expenses to be paid in all cases, in advance. Incidental expenses to be paid at the end of each term. If Students remain during vacation, their expenses will be increased in the same proportion, and they will be subject to the same rules of order, as in term time.

If any Student leave on account of sickness, or for any other reason be dismissed, the balance due him will be refunded.

Necessary articles of clothing, and books used in the Institution can usually be procured at the College Store. It is desired that parents and guardians may be explicit in stating the kind and amount of expenses which they wish their sons and wards to incur.

ROOMS.

The Students all room in the College buildings, and board at the College table.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

Every Student is required to be present at morning and evening prayers in the Chapel—to attend every exercise of public worship regularly on the Lord's Day. In case the parent or guardian shall request, in writing, that his son or ward attend the worship of any other denomination, he is permitted to do so.
