"An honest man, the noblest work of God."—William Allen.

The Leviathan Salary Grabber of the age—Edward F. Noyes.

Delano has another rival for U. S. Senator—General Garfield—and he is said.

William Allen never robbed the people by taking illegal fees—Edward F. Noyes did.

If you wish to put a quietus to the Delano Ring vote for Allen J. Beach for Representative.

The money grabbers will all vote for Edward F. Noyes for Governor. He's one of them.

Where was Charles Baldwin during the war? Copying of muster rolls to elect Delano to Congress.

It is about time that Ohio had an honest man in the gubernatorial chair—William Allen will fill the bill.

Vote for the Farmer of Ross County, and you will have an honest man in the gubernatorial chair of Ohio.

Delano, aided by all the low cunning of Charles Baldwin, can't get things fixed to his liking in Coshocton county.

Edward F. Noyes fished from the treasury of Hamilton county over $13,000 for work that should not have cost over $800.

Where was Noah Boynton during the war? Serving his country in a lively stable, and talking politics on the corners of the streets.

We have a report that James W. Bradfield, the Republican nominee for Auditor, has sent in his resignation.

Senator Sherman appears to be taking no part in politics this campaign. Is he disgusted with the Great Salary Grabber, Edward F. Noyes?

William Allen has a record that any man may well be proud of. But the record of Edward F. Noyes—not a Republican will dare to defend it.

The back room of the Post-Office is the headquarters of the Delano Ring, where all the landlards are connected against the people's favorite, Allen J. Beach.

If you wish to keep Columbus Delano, the Simon Cameron of Ohio, out of the U. S. Senate, vote for Daniel Paul for Senator, and Allen J. Beach for Representative.

The last Republican was a reprint of all the filthy things that have appeared in its columns since the Reverend Hamilton, the sermon-thief, assumed the control of the paper.

The Reverend Hamilton this week publishes the names of his associate editors. They are a beautiful set of Christians. "You pay your money and takes your choice."

Delano is believed to be worth five millions of dollars. It was Dean Swift that said, "You see what God Almighty thinks of riches, since he bestows them upon the meanest of mankind."

The Delano Ring meet punctually at 8 o'clock each evening at their den in the back room of the Post-office, to fabricate falsehoods against Democrats and to "spite" citizens who do their own thinking.

Delano's white boy, Charles Baldwin, is working more earnestly than usual in behalf of his master. As to the style of his labors refer to the columns of the last Mud Machine.

Ben. Butler never spoke more truthfully than he did in his Worcester convention speech when he said: "The Republican party is wholly responsible for the grab" and added "I can stand it as long as they can."

When the Reverend Hamilton asserts that the BANNER copies local news from the Republican he says what every reader of the two papers knows to be a falsehood. But a man who will steal sermons is mean enough to say anything.

President Grant came very near being killed by a Railroad accident near Pittsburgh on Thursday last. If he would spend a little more time at Washington instead of roaming over the country in palace cars, he would be less liable to accidents.

The resignation of Monroe J. Simons, the Republican nominee for County Treasurer, has been in the hands of the Republican Central Committee for several weeks past, and yet his name is kept up in the Republican in violation of his wishes and instructions. This is practising a fraud upon the Republican voters of the county.

The Cleveland Leader, a Radical journal repudiates the action of the Republican Convention of Cuyahoga county as "a disgrace to the party," and refuses to support the men nominated by it.

The President returned to Washington on Monday, and stopped at Willard's Hotel. It is reported that he and other prominent officials who had deposited in Cooke's First National Bank, were taken care of and suffered no loss.

Two bullies, Mike McCoolle and Tom Allen, fought a prize fight about 14 miles above St. Louis, in Illinois, on Tuesday. Seven rounds were fought, lasting 20 minutes, and Allen was declared the victor. McCoolle's face was cut to pieces, while Allen was only slightly punished.

The St. Louis Republican, of the 12th inst., says: Chicago is beginning to tremble at the growth of the grain trade in Milwaukee. Tuesday 493,000 bushels of wheat were received at the latter place, being 168,000 bushels more than the receipts of the former.

If the Radical papers could bring anything forward against the character of the farmer statesman of Ohio, Hon. William Allen, they would do it. But they cannot, for his record is purely itself. Can the same be said for the seven-dollars-and-a-half-per-hundred-words Noyes?

We hope that every Republican in Knox county will procure a copy of this week's Mt. Vernon Republican, and carefully put it away for future reference, as a specimen of the elegant literature, the high-toned refinement, the morality and religion of the Reverend J. H. Hamilton. It will be a curiosity some day.

President Garrett, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has negotiated in England a million pounds sterling, equal to $5,000,000, of the company's 6 per cent. bonds at 90. The revenue of the company for the quarter ending with August was $4,113,483, an increase of nearly half a million.

The Delano organ wishes to know where William Allen was during the war. He was in Ross county, superintending his fine arm, and raising wheat, corn, potatoes, &c., to feed the hungry. Where was Delano during the war? Speculating in pork and beans, and fighting for his country in a commissary's office.

Joe Holt having denied that Mrs. Sarritt was manacled during her trial in Washington, Mrs. Jane G. Wiswisher, an earnest and truthful lady, sat beside Mrs. Sarritt while the trial progressed, declares most positively that she was manacled, and that the clank of the chains could be distinctly heard every time she moved her feet.

Bear in mind that Columbus Delano, who is an aspirant for the U. S. Senate, had his Hood, a soldier's widow, removed from the Mt. Vernon Post-Office, and a big, lazy, able-bodied man, who never smelt gunpowder on a battle-field, appointed in her place. Voters, "spot" this oppressor of the widow on the second Tuesday of October!

If anybody deserves censure for the shameful robbery perpetrated by the salary law, it is President Grant; and when the Massachusetts Republican State Convention singled out members of Congress for its anathemas and let the prime mover and principal beneficiary in the infamous business to go scot-free, it most sadly failed to come up to the requirements of the occasion.

A recent assertion of Senator Morton is thus fittingly and summarily disposed of by the Springfield Republican:—"When Oliver P. Morton, Senator of the United States and would-be-President, says—as he did at Dayton last week—that the Tammany Society of New York City 'made the nomination of Horace Greeley,' Mr. Oliver P. Morton lies and the truth is not in him."

The Urbania Union says: None of the Administration papers dare deny the charges that are made against Governor Noyes, their candidate for Governor. It is a scandal proven that he has been as great a scoundrel in office as any of the Credit Mobilierites or Congress salary grabbers. The charges are sufficient to defeat him for any office of public trust among honest and intelligent voters.

Says the Illinois State Register:—"Why should the farmers repose any faith in the Republican party? What reasons have they for hope from it? They have held power for ten or twelve years, and aggressions upon the rights of the industrial classes have accumulated. The honest farmers who once belonged to the Republican party are tired of empty promises and pledges that have forever been broken."

The St. Louis Democrat, we fear, is in a fair way to lose caste. It doesn't appear to be orthodox in its Republicanism. For instance:

"We make a point of order against Matt. Carpenter. He is going about making anti-monopoly speeches to the agriculturists. We submit that he is not entitled to the floor as a reformer until he refunds his share of the salary grab. All that a salary-grabber says about reform is as 'sounding brass and tinkling cymbal.'"

The following item from an exchange will be especially interesting to the Reverend gentleman who edits the Grant organ in Mt. Vernon:

The demand for ready-made sermons has become so great in England that they are to be had nearly lithographed for the small price of two shillings per dozen.

There is no use for Hamilton to steal sermons from old volumes, when he can buy them for the low price of two shillings per dozen. That is "dirt cheap."

About the first of each and every month Grant receives an order on the Treasury of the U. S. for $4,106.67 nearly one thousand dollars per week, including the time he is loafing and smoking at Long Branch. He is never checked and draws his pay with frightful regularity. This is just double the amount paid to Gen. Washington and all the other Presidents, but then they never looted for or signed a bill to increase their pay as did President Grant.—Pittsburg Post.

The following circumstances (says the Statesman) are rather characteristic of the two candidates for Governor: When Mr. Allen was an office-holder he refused to receive from the treasury several thousand dollars awarded him as increase of pay, by a law of Congress, because he thought the money did not belong to him according to the strict rules of justice. Mr. Noyes, while Probate Judge in Hamilton county, exacted and secured to himself between twenty and eighty thousands of dollars in three years, a large amount which was obtained through downright fraud.

A MONETARY CRASH!

Failure of Jay Cooke & Co.

Several Other Bankers Yield to the Pressure.

On Thursday last, the celebrated Banking Houses of Jay Cooke & Co. were compelled to suspend payment and close their doors. The Philadelphia House was the first to give way, owing, it is said, to heavy advances to the Northern Pacific Railroad. The New York branch, in consequence of advances to the Philadelphia concern, also closed its doors, and the First National Bank of Washington, owned by the same parties at once "followed suit." The London establishment, of which Jay Cooke, McCullough & Co. are the proprietors, it is said, will continue business as usual, having abundant means to keep itself from sinking. The liabilities of Jay Cooke & Co. cannot, at present, be ascertained, as it will take some time to make a statement of their affairs. Their creditors are mostly banks and bankers, there being but few individuals in the list.

When the fact of this suspension became known, the most intense excitement prevailed in financial circles, and other large banking houses, were compelled also to close their doors. Among the most prominent of these were Fisk, Hatch & Co., Jacob Little & Co., E. B. Randolph & Co., bankers of the Pennsylvania Railroad, W. H. Conner, Whitmore & Allison, George B. Alley, Theodore Bedell, M. Kidder, Hay & Warner, Day & Morse, George B. Allen, Greenleaf & Korns, W. H. Warren, Thomas Reed & Co., E. T. Jackson, and about a dozen others.

Secretary Robinson declares that the Government will not lose a dollar by the failure of Jay Cooke & Co. It is further stated that the National Life Insurance Company, of which Mr. Cooke was a leading member, will in no wise be affected by his failure, nor will the solvency of the company be impaired by the present financial troubles. This will be good news to those who hold policies in that organization.

The result of these failures, has been to create quite a panic throughout the country, and timid people, in nearly every city, have been withdrawing their deposits from their bankers, even where they had no connection with Jay Cooke & Co. There was a great run upon the Washington Savings Bank and the Bank of Washington. In Philadelphia there was also a great run upon the Deposit Bank.

SATURDAY'S FAILURES.

New York, Sept. 20.—The Union Trust Company suspended at half past ten. Edward Haight & Co. have been announced as suspended.

The National Bank of the Commonwealth has suspended.

E. C. Broadhead was the right name of the broker that failed, not E. C. Moorehead; and the proper name of White is given now as C. G. White.

Brown, Wadsworth & Co. have failed; also Tonsing & Fisher, P. M. Myers, Miller & Walsh, Laurens Josephs, Fearing & Dellinger, Williams & Boastwick, Ketchum & Balkman, E. C. Broadhead, and C. G. White & Co.

The leading foreign exchange firms, such as Brown Brothers, August Belmont, Henry Clews & Co., and Morgan, Drexel & Co., do not give any signs of feeling the pressure of the past three days' crash.

The Bank of North America has not suspended.

On Monday, the panic of the previous few days subsided, and commerce began to return to business circles. The New York Banks are paying greenbacks on legitimate checks, where there is no suspicion of a run, and all others are sent to the clearing house.

Pitt Cooke and Hugh McCullough, of the London House of Jay Cooke & Co., arrived in New York on Monday, and learned for the first time that their New York was in ruins.

On Tuesday, the large Banking House of Henry Clews & Co. closed doors.

Noyes, the Champion Grabber.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is entitled to the thanks of every voter in Ohio for bringing to light the enormous robberies committed by Edward F. Noyes, the Radical candidate for Governor, when Probate Judge of Hamilton county. The Enquirer has produced the record proof of this stupendous larceny, which no friend of Noyes has pretended to deny, from which it appears that Gov. Noyes while Probate Judge of Hamilton county, Ohio, from 1867 to 1870, drew illegally from the County Treasury the sum of for which there was no lawful provision whatever, and for indexing work that, if necessary, could have been done by any competent clerk for from $800 to $1,000.

In addition to this enormous illegal grab, he drew another illegal warrant on the Treasury, for the sum of for making up one year's report of births and deaths, for which the law makes no provision whatever.

Here is a monstrous grab of

taken from the people of one county by this political humbug.

The Enquirer publishes a fac simile of the bill Noyes presented to the Auditor of Hamilton county for making the record of births and deaths. It is as follows:

The State of Ohio, Hamilton Co., ss.
PROBATE COURT.

To George S. Larue, Auditor of Hamilton county, greeting, I, Edward F. Noyes, Judge of the Probate Court within and for said county of Hamilton, hereby certify that Edward F. Noyes, is entitled to draw from the County Treasury the sum of twelve hundred and ninety-four 94-100 dollars as his fees for making up report of births and deaths for the year ending July 12th, 1869, as is evidenced by the bills of items hereto attached:

12,945 births and deaths at 10 cents each.

Edward F. Noyes, Probate Judge, by Albt. Padock, Deputy Clerk.

If the people of Ohio wish to put the seal of condemnation upon this Monster Salary Grabber, let them vote for Honest William Allen for Governor on the second Tuesday of October.

Hamilton County Nominations.

The Democracy of Hamilton county met in Convention on the 17th inst., and made the following nominations, which they mean to elect: Senators, Wm. P. Wallace, John A. Shank, Vachel Worthington; Representatives, J. M. Bruns, Wm. S. Gordon, E. W. Miller, G. W. Boyce, Chas. O. Archer, A. P. Newell, Thos. C. Sater, John M. Patterson, W. L. O'Brien, John J. Gaghan; Member of the Constitutional Convention, Judge J. L. Miner; Treasurer, Ross H. Fenton; Auditor, Wm. S. Brown; Clerk, Jos. P. Carberry; Probate Judge, Isaac E. Matson; Recorder, Paul Williamson; Commissioner, J. Baumgardner.

A Demoralized Party.

The Republican party in Knox county is in a most deplorable condition. In their County Convention, about one-fourth of the townships were not represented, which showed that the rank and file of the party were wholly indifferent as to the movements of the leaders. And it was a difficult matter to get men to consent to the empty honor of having their names placed upon a ticket merely for the purpose of being defeated. Colonel Cooper, the most popular man in the Republican ranks, knowing that there was no earthly chance of an election against Mr. Beach, positively declined to allow his name to be presented as a candidate for Representative. After some reconnoitering, it was finally agreed to place the name of our old friend Wm. McClelland upon the ticket, with the full knowledge that he was not a candidate, and would not even if there was any possibility of his election, leave his business, to spend his time and money in Columbus. Mr. McClelland takes no manner of interest in the election, and if he should go the polls to vote, it is more than probable that he will vote for Mr. Beach.

Mr. M. J. Simons, upon hearing that his name was placed upon the ticket for Treasurer, promptly sent a letter to the Republican Central Committee, declining the empty honor; but as no man has been named who is willing to take his place, his name is kept on the ticket contrary to his wishes.

Mr. James W. Bradfield, the Republican nominee for Auditor, is anxious, we are told, to have his name taken off the ticket, but the Delano Ring will not consent.

As yet, no nomination has been made for State Senator. Overtures have been made to Wm. Bonar, Esq., the Prohibition candidate for that office, to consent to run on the Republican ticket; but as he despises the Delano Post-office ring, he will have nothing to do with them, and we understand that the Central Committee in the four Counties are "negotiating" to place some gentleman in Wayne county, (whose name we have forgotten) upon the ticket, for Senator, provided he will pledge himself for Delano, and "shell out" plenty of greenbacks for electioneering purposes. At latest advices, no bargain had been concluded.

The truth is, the honest yeomanry in the Republican ranks are utterly disgusted with the scurvy politicians who assume the leadership of the party, and squirt their filth at paper and better men than themselves through the columns of the Mt. Vernon Republican.

NEWS ITEMS.

Internal Revenue receipts since the beginning of the present year exceed those of the same period last year by about $1,000,000.

The Texas editorial excursionists spent Tuesday in Louisville. Fifteen members of the party will extend their tour to the Eastern cities.

Wm. Packard and Hermann Franks were drowned in San Francisco Bay on Sunday while endeavoring to reach the wreck of the Costa Rica in a sail-boat.

President Grant, after spending two days at Washington, returned to his old quarters at Long Branch on Tuesday, accompanied by General Babcock.

The paper mill of G. F. Hollingsworth, at East Walpole, Mass., was burned on Monday, with the machinery and stock house. Loss about $40,000, insured for $85,000.

There were twenty deaths by yellow fever at Shreveport on Tuesday. The disease is spreading in the suburbs, and is attacking acclimated persons and the blacks, who are generally exempt.

A stage between Silver City and Winnemucca, Nevada, was robbed on Tuesday by three masked men. Colonel Moore, U. S. A. Paymaster, was also robbed, but the amount is not yet known.

Among the rumors current in the Stock Exchange on Monday was one that the Bank of England holds $300,000 of Jay Cooke & Co.'s acceptances, and that Rothschilds have $100,000 of the same paper.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have reduced the number of hours for laborers and road-men to eight per day, and the pay-rolls will be reduced accordingly. The laborers strike against the new rule.

Delano and another Indian Grab—Another Phase in the Peace Policy. It has just come to the surface that Tim. Howe, a United States Senator from Wisconsin—the colleague of Matt. Carpenter, the most disgraced prodigal that ever occupied a Senatorial chair—in collusion with a combination of other knaves in the attempt to remove the Winnegobies from the State. The first step taken by Howe, Rusk & Co. was obtaining an appropriation of $35,000 of Winnegobian money with which to remove these Indians, and the next step was the appointment of a man named Hunt, at eight dollars a day, to expend the money. Hunt was appointed Jan. 9, 1873, and by promises and threats has succeeded in getting eighteen Winnegobies to Nebraska, where, according to the statement of Deora, a Nebraska chief, whom he brought with him to persuade the rest to go, he left them to starve on the plains. There is no authorization of the employment, and the removal of the Wisconsin Winnegobies, and if Secretary Delano has ordered a company of troops from Fort Snelling to force them to Nebraska, then he is preparing to shed blood without sanction of law.

Gov. Noyes as a Grabber. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer relates that when Gov. Noyes was Colonel of the 39th Ohio, one company from Adams county and one from Clermont county re-enlisted, and forty three soldiers were credited to Williamsburg township, Clermont county. This Township gave $100 a local bounty. The soldiers were drawn in line, and Col. Noyes distributed $50 to each one (they being in ignorance of the $100 local bounty) telling them that was a donation from Cincinnati. Some of the boys have commenced suit to find out about the other $50.

If the people of this State choose Noyes for Governor after the exposures which have been made of his conduct as Probate Judge, from 1867 to 1870, there is no use of seeking a reform in the political and personal stealings of the day. The worst robberies of the people of which we have an account have been honest compared to the illegal fees of Noyes of fifteen cents a name for copying old indexes, when it should only have been one-fifth of a cent per word. Noyes received by these fraudulent charges $13,000 back pay, when it should only have been $1,000. If this passes for nothing what would arouse the people?—Enquirer.

The Licking County Fair takes place Sept. 29th, and October 1st, 2d, and 3d.

The officers have our thanks for two "complimentary tickets."

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Joseph Johnston, who offers his splendid farm on the Columbus Road at public sale on the 1st of October.

A lady writer in a fashion magazine says: "The present is the age of sensible dress for women. What they wear when the foolish age comes around?"

It may interest those of our readers who have ninety days paper maturing to know that the days are about one hour shorter than they were when that class of paper was given.

The Columbus Journal says: "The addition of the Cleveland, Mt. Vernon and Columbus cars thickens up the picture in the old Union depot. The new road is already doing a business that counts."

The Rev. Mr. Knight has sent in his resignation as pastor of the First Methodist Church in this city, for the purpose, as we understand, of assuming the editorship of the workmen's paper in the City of Pittsburgh.

The ALBION, for October, is a magnificent number both in its letter press and illustrations, some of which are equal to the finest line engraving. Published by James Sutton & Co., New York.

We call attention to the advertisement of our friend Sam Clark, who has removed his Saddle Shop to Vine street, in the rear of Woodward block. Sam is a good workman and deals fairly with all his customers. Give him a call at his new quarters.

Mt. Vernon has not been affected in the least by the failures of Jay Cooke & Co., and other Eastern Bankers. One of our citizens, it is said, had a deposit account of $15,000 with Jay Cooke & Co., but drew it all out, with the exception of some $800, a few weeks ago.

The loss of Mr. Seals by the recent fire on High street, was greater than at first reported to us. Indeed, we are informed, nearly all his clothing, with the exception of what the family were wearing, was destroyed. Mr. Seals has had considerable trouble with the Fire Fund.

James Purdy, Esq., of Mansfield, celebrated the 50th anniversary of his birth-day, by giving a splendid entertainment to his old bank associates and his personal friends, on Monday week, at the North American House. It was a very enjoyable affair. Mr. P. gave an interesting account of his establishment of the first newspaper in Mansfield, and also of the various bank-enterprises in that thriving town.

The residence of Mr. Wallace, about one mile below Howard, was accidentally burned last Saturday. It was partially insured in the Farmers Ins. Co., of Jellow.

Miss Cassie Lipey, an interesting young lady of eighteen, and daughter of the late Jacob Lipey, of Harrison township, died last week of brain fever.

The Cleveland Accommodation train ran over a cow belonging to Joseph Trimble, last Monday night, near Gambier, breaking a leg and damaging her so much that it was feared she would have to be killed.

Death from Exposure.

On last Sunday morning, about 7 o'clock, an old man about 55 years of age, was discovered lying upon the sidewalk opposite the Cabinet Manufacturing of McCormick, Willis & Banning, in an unconscious state, and to all appearances in an intoxicated condition. On being aroused by gentlemen passing, it was found that he had evidently been lying there all night, and was suffering from bodily oppression. He was given a cup of coffee by the occupants of a house near by, and was then taken to the lumber yard across the street. On being questioned, in half-articulate words the by-standers were enabled to understand that he boarded at Mr. Cochran's on the Public Square. Parties were despatched for physicians and the man had breathed his last. He was recognized as being a saddle-maker in the employ of Wm. Thompson, by the name of John Fye, and that he had been missing from his boarding house and place of business since the Thursday evening previous. His sudden death created the suspicion that he had taken his own life, or been foully dealt with. An examination of his clothes disclosed a letter addressed to the Corner of Knox County.

A jury was immediately empaneled with Justice Greer acting as Coroner. A post mortem examination of the remains was made by Drs. Stamp & Taylor. The stomach was removed, and a careful analysis failed to discover any indications of poison. All the vital organs were found to be in a more or less diseased condition, thereupon the jury returned the following verdict: "After having heard the evidence and examined the body, and having a post mortem examination by Drs. Stamp & Taylor, we do find that the deceased came to his death by reason of Fatty Degeneration of the Heart, hastened by exposure, and not from any violence." The evidence further showed that he was not a man of intemperate habits.

His remains were taken in charge by Mr. Thompson, his employer, and on Monday were sent to his daughter Ida, who resides at Sharonville, Hamilton county, this State. She is his only child, and is spoken of as a young lady of great excellence and bright intellect, having but recently graduated from College.

A Savings Bank in Mt. Vernon.
The Secretary of State has granted a charter to a company of gentlemen to establish a Savings Bank in Mt. Vernon, with a capital of $50,000. The names of the incorporators are Jared Sperry, Oscar M. Arnold, Col. Alex. Cassil and Samuel Israel, Jr.; and it is their purpose to secure the necessary amount of stock as speedily as possible, and have the institution in operation within sixty days. At present no location has been fixed upon, but it is the intention of the directors to secure the most eligible position that can be obtained in our city.

An institution such as that proposed will be of great benefit in this community, as it will encourage mechanics, laboring men, clerks, and all others, to save their surplus earnings, and deposit them in safe hands, where they will draw interest, and be ready when needed, to meet any emergency. A dollar saved in a week is $52 a year; and five dollars saved in a week is $260 a year. A young man who is industrious, by practicing economy, can always save something above his expenses, and this, if placed in a Deposit Bank, will soon increase into a sum sufficiently large to start business with. The wealthiest and most successful business men in the country are those who started life by taking care of their small earnings.

Another advantage of a Savings Bank in our city is this: It will enable men of limited means to obtain accommodations to aid them in business, when such accommodations cannot be had elsewhere. The mechanic who can save $200 a year, may need another $200 for a limited period to make an addition to his house, or to improve his premises, and the Savings Bank, where he makes his deposits, and where he is known as an honest and frugal man, is the very place to go to procure the money needed.

Great care should be taken, in the management of the proposed Savings Bank, to popularize it—that is, it should be made a PEOPLE'S BANK, where the poor man, if he is honest and industrious, will not be turned away, any more than the man of wealth. Indeed, we would advise all the mechanics in our city, who are able to buy one or two shares of stock to do so, so as to have a voice in its management.

Incendiaryism at Mt. Holly.

Meeting of Citizens.
At a meeting of the citizens of Mt. Holly and vicinity, on the evening of the 17th inst., pursuant to notice, to take action concerning the burning of the bridge over the Mohican river at that place, JAMES THOMPSON was chosen Chairman, and Wm. DONALD, Secretary.

After the object of the meeting being stated, a committee was appointed to draft and report resolutions, expressive of the sense of the meeting. After consultation the committee reported as follows: That our bridge having become unsafe for travel, on account of unsound timber, the Commissioners, upon examination, directed one of their board, Mr. Halsey, to repair the same, who commenced at noon of the 16th inst., with help and lumber, and repaired the first span to our entire satisfaction, making it safe for travel, when at about 4 o'clock the next morning the bridge was in flames and ashes its whole length; and we hereby denounce the act in unmeasured terms, and recommend that the Commissioners offer a sufficient reward for the apprehension and conviction of the incendiary, and pledge ourselves to pay the one-half, and further represent that the stream is unfathomable a greater part of the fall, winter and spring, cutting off the travel between the East and West, and preventing a large section of country from reaching our grist and saw mills, woolen factory, foundry, shops and stores, the depot and warehouse on the Railroad; and that we hereby earnestly recommend and urge our Commissioners to take immediate action for the erection of a new bridge.

Upon motion the resolutions were unanimously adopted, and it was ordered that they be published in both the papers in Mt. Vernon.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

JAMES THOMPSON, Chairman.
JAMES DONALD, Secretary.

Free Exhibition of Wild Animals.
To the people of Mt. Vernon, surrounding towns, and Knox county generally.

My Exhibition, known as "Adam Forepaugh's Menagerie, Museum and Equestrian Aggregation"—is to exhibit at Mt. Vernon, Monday, September 29th, afternoon and evening. I hope the public will not consider me egotistic when I assert the universally admitted fact, that my collection of animals and birds is the largest and rarest on this Continent. I have therefore adopted the plan of giving a FREE EXHIBITION OF WILD BEASTS AND RARE BIRDS, in number and variety exceeding the collection of any Menagerie that has visited Ohio this season, has exhibited for an admission fee. A mammoth tent is set apart for this purpose, in addition to the four main show pavilions, and everybody, old and young, rich and poor, without restriction, of creed, color or previous condition, is invited to visit this great free Menagerie without money and without price. It is free to everybody.

This Free Menagerie is not a catch penny affair, it is not exhibited free as an inducement for persons to visit my other four exhibitions.

I own more Animals and Birds than any man in America, and in order to protect myself from the humbugging concerns now flooding the country, advertised as "Menageries, Museums and Circuses," I present this Free Wild Animal show to the people in order that they may form an idea of the magnitude and merit of my five great exhibitions, assuring the public that no one visiting the Free Menagerie is solicited to attend the other exhibitions.

If they feel inclined so to do, I shall be pleased to entertain them, but I wish it distinctly understood that Free Exhibition is in the nature of a gift to the general public, who have so liberally sustained me during the many years of my managerial life.

Any manager can put on paper, a show equal to mine, but no man has thus far put on the road, an exhibition, in the remotest degree approaching in extent, variety, elegance and cost to the "Great Forepaugh Show." In proof of which come and see my Free Menagerie.

Respectfully, the public's obedient servant,
ADAM FOREPAUGH,
Sole owner of the Great Forepaugh Show.

Villainous Incendiaryism.
The long wooden bridge over the Mohican river at Mt. Holly having become somewhat dangerous by constant travel over it, the Commissioners of our Co. authorized one of their number, Mr. D. F. Halsey to proceed to Mt. Holly and place it in good condition for travel. He repaired it and commenced work on the 16th inst., with plenty of hands and lumber. But some time during the following night, some of the devilish people of that town, whose names are at present unknown, set fire to the bridge, and destroyed nearly the entire structure. The fire was noticed by the watchman of the C. Mt. V. & C. Railroad, and some others, but it had progressed with such rapidity as to render it impossible to extinguish the flames.

The law abiding citizens of Mt. Holly, as may be supposed, are justly indignant at this outrage. They held a meeting the next day, (the proceedings of which we publish in this week's BANNER), where the incendiaryism was condemned in strong language, and the Commissioners of the county were requested to offer a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the incendiaries, which they will no doubt do.

The burning of this bridge leaves the people of Mt. Holly and vicinity without any means of crossing the river during high water, and the construction of a new bridge becomes an absolute necessity.

"Throw Phisic to the Dogs."
"The Graphic" recently gave an illustration of the new chromo issued by the Murray Hill Publishing Company, 129 East Twenty-eighth Street, from Bingham's painting—"Throw Phisic to the Dogs." The subject is a little girl phisicing various specimens of the canine race. The scene is a laughable one, and the different attitudes of the dogs are exceedingly pleasing.

I was designed to illustrate Dr. Foote's aversion to drugs, and accompanying copy of his well-known work, "Plain Home Talk and Medical Common Sense." The Doctor's practice is thoroughly "New School," and in this way he stands prominently out from the profession a successful practitioner.

The book is a volume of 912 pages and 200 illustrations, filled with facts and reasons relating to mankind, and their social and physical status. The Graphic says of it: "It is an encyclopedia of useful knowledge." A noted clergyman of this city has said: "It is a book that every family library is itself." The Franklin Register, of Chambersburg, Pa., speaks of the picture as "a beautiful chromo, very pleasant, and so enjoyable as to be almost good company."—A. Y. Express.

A Mammoth Show.
During the forenoon of exhibition day the entire establishment will appear in procession in the street. The musical "car of the mimes," drawn by twenty Arabian horses, a herd of camels, a drove of ponies, 175 galley-comparisons, horses, drawing nearly two miles of brilliantly ornamented cages, the "Goddess of Liberty," personated by a beautiful maiden, seated in a canopied car, upon the back of the elephant Romeo, Jr., and the famous Herr Darius in an open cage, surrounded by a pair of lions and tigers, the very animals from which he so narrowly escaped being devoured a few weeks since. A hall of fattening, opened to public view, the mechanical Lancers, performing from the top of the hippopotamus den, constitute some of the leading features of this grand street parade.

This combination is all under the control of Mr. Adam Forepaugh. He has both the ability and experience necessary to successfully manage so large a concern, and besides this, he has the reputation of advertising no promises he does not fulfill. Don't forget the day and date, Monday next, Sept. 29.

Knox County Farmer.

Feeding Swine.
One of the great mistakes in the fattening of pork, and, indeed, the rule will hold good in fattening any kind of farm stock, is not commencing early enough in season. The faster the fattening process goes on, when once commenced, the more economical it will be accomplished. The colder the weather the greater the waste of animal heat. This heat takes fat to feed it. We believe in grass for all farm stock, in the season of it, as being not only the cheapest, but as containing all the constituents for forming bone, sinew, muscle and fat. It will feed all herbivorous animals into a fleshy state but not fat. Swine, in a state of nature, are omnivorous; and although they thrive on a certain variety of plants, clover being one of the chief of these, they also eat flesh and insects largely when they can get them. In a wild state they fatten on roots, and nuts of trees which, like the grain, are concentrated food. Therefore, if swine are to be grown and fattened to the best advantage, they should have, in connection with the succulent grass which should always be furnished, what corn is necessary to at least keep them growing fast and in good flesh.

As the pasture grasses dry they should have sufficient frames to take on the necessary fat to fit them for the butcher. The fatter they are the more money they will bring; and, just here is where many farmers make a great mistake. They wait too long before they really commence fattening, and the consequence is, the swine are not fit for the butcher until January, and, perhaps, not until Spring.

Many farmers imagine that animals should be kept in a "stagnant" condition, in a low condition, they are less susceptible to disease than when in high condition, but this is fallacy and not borne out by facts. On the contrary, an animal of any kind, when in full flesh (not fat) and in full feed, ought to be healthier than the thin and indolent one. The drove or pen of hogs that are really in full flesh, when they are taken from the pasture, become fat winter sets in, and then, if prices do not suit, they may be still further increased and at less cost than the half fat animals, for the simple reason that, the fatter the animal, the less susceptible it is to atmospheric changes.

These hints are thrown out, not with a view to add anything to what is already known about fattening animals, but as a reminder that, in nine cases out of ten, the farmer who commences fattening early is he who fattens at the least cost. These animals will pay to animals intended to be kept over winter. Just so much flesh as they are allowed to lose in the winter, so much will have to be put on again the next season; or, in other words, the weight loss is a dead loss.

Wintering Bees.
Cells are by some thought to be just the thing, but many who have tried think less of them than they did they put a live into the usual depositories of apples and potatoes. In such places it is claimed that the bees brood earlier than if left out doors; but is that a benefit? To have a brood it is necessary that the bees be active and also that a large share of honey and bee bread should be consumed, for baby bees, like other babies, need considerable feeding, and the nurse will eat more when employed than when drowsy and half torpid in a hive out of doors. Besides, it is not a matter of experience that such cellar-protected hives are generally in worse condition by the beginning of summer than those left out of doors.

Some people instead of storing their bees in cellars, put them under ground. Unfortunately the largest share of such buried hives come out in condition worse than if filled with frozen bees, for the combs are a mass of mold, unfit for anything but making wax of, and poor wax at that. The advocates of the system will say, is owing to defects in the putting up, or shall I say down?

What is the use of making so much fuss about so simple a matter, for bees will fly about as during the winter out of doors, provided there is such a circulation of air in the hive as will carry off the damp; and any one may secure this by boring a two inch hole in the back of the hive near the top, and, for protection against bee enemies, covering it with wire cloth. A few years ago ventilation was the rage, but some over-did it, for they might as well have hived entire hives of wire cloth, as the queer things designed the same. It was such kind of ventilation as one would like to enjoy in summer-time, but bees, like men and women, like cozy quarters when the cold wind blows.

I speak of bees in Northern Ohio, not in New England or somewhere up in the region where Sir John Franklin was frozen in and died. But one thing I may hazard to say, and that is, bees will live out of doors in properly constructed hives whenever they will live wild in the woods.
