LOCAL AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

—Examine your furs.
—Thanksgiving comes next.
—Buckwheat cakes are coming.
—Put your cellar in order for winter.
—Farmers are now busy husking their corn.
—The weather prophets predict a mild winter.
—Sunday was the first real winter day of the season.
—The fair sex should remember that 1880 is leap year.
—Fatten your turkeys for Thanksgiving and Christmas.
—A hungry man cannot buy a loaf of bread in Canton on Sunday.
—By their advertising shall ye shall know them—the enterprising business men.
—Next February, although the shortest month in the year, will have five Sundays.
—The Pan Handle Railroad is preparing to build a new depot at Newark. Glad to hear it.
—The practice of barring the teacher out of the school house is said to be over 1600 years old.
—The Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad is being ballasted with stone its entire length.
—Let your children have free access to newspapers; they are a great source of practical education.
—Gray squirrels are reported to be very plenty this year in the regions where hickory nuts abound.
—Immense quantities of wheat are being shipped from Mt. Vernon every day, mostly for Baltimore.
—The Fredericktown Free Press got off some good head-lines in its account of the whisky riot that took place there.
—Bring your Job Printing to the BANNER office. We will do it cheaper and better than any office in the county.
—Those subscribers who wish to pay in wood will please bring it in immediately, while the roads are in good condition.
—We will not publish any communications unless of very great importance, if they are not handed in before Tuesday noon.
—The game law does not permit the shooting of quail this season, and no dealer in game can legally expose the birds for sale.
—Horse thieves have opened business for the season in Guernsey county, by capturing two valuable horses on Thursday night last.
—Ase Dagon, of Millersburg, had his arm broken in two places, Monday night, by being thrown from a wagon by a runaway horse.
—A Millersburg man who has five marriageable daughters complains that the young men have converted his home into a court-house.
—The worst comb and brush in Christendom can be found in the average photograph gallery and the worst pen in a telegraph office.
—The long winter evenings are now approaching and every family in the country should take a country paper—let it be the BANNER.
—Mr. Henry Ewalt, one-half mile west of Mt. Vernon, will offer for sale Friday, Nov. 14th, horses, cows, farming utensils, and other articles.
—Mr. R. E. Thompson, one of the most substantial citizens of Delaware, was on Sunday stricken with paralysis and his recovery is doubtful.
—The Pan Handle road, on Wednesday of last week, delivered at Pittsburgh 579 loaded cars, and hauled west from Pittsburgh 579 loaded cars.
—Now is a good time for those subscribers who sold their wheat for $1.25 per bushel to call at the BANNER office and settle that old account.
—Beasley Bosworth, an old engineer on the Cleveland and Mt. Vernon road, has resigned, and accepted a position on the Cuyahoga Valley road.
—The Park Hotel, at Columbus, has been closed, and Governor Bishop, who boarded there has gone back to his old quarters at the American.
—The Gambler Herald, not proving a paying venture has been discontinued. Its proprietor, Mr. W. C. Fant, is now engaged on a Columbus daily.
—October this year has presented almost the two extremes of temperature, the mercury throughout the month ranging from 25 to 90 and 95 degrees.
—A new sawed-stone sidewalk is being placed before the store of Wm. Bird, Jr., and Mrs. Norton & Kindred, the work being done by Robert Blythe.
—See advertisement of the Cleveland Herald in another column. The Herald is Republican in politics, but is in all respects a first-class newspaper.
—The show is rapidly coming into favor for evening wear. Besides being warmer, it is better than a corset or cloak to cover up the young man's arm.
—As evidence of a business boom and better times in Licking county, Probate Judge Grasser issued forty-one marriage licenses during the month of October.
—Tax-payers should not forget to bring their road-tax receipts with them when they come to pay their December taxes. It is important that all should remember this.
—The man who can edit a newspaper without making enemies is not fit for the business. If an editor does what he knows is right, he is sure to tread on somebody's toes.
—Dr. W. H. Beaumont, a well-known citizen of Cleveland, and a class-mate of President Hayes at Kenyon College, died at his residence in that city on Friday last.
—The fly is doing serious damage to the wheat crop all over Richland county, and the continued drought will materially affect the prospects for an average crop next year.
—Rial & Draper's company in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," at Kirk Opera House, on Tuesday night, were greeted by a large audience, and the entertainment gave good satisfaction.
—The Licking county Grand Jury that indicted the Republican candidate for Commissioner for violating the Seitz law, was composed of nine Democrats and six Republicans.
—As will be seen by our report of new cases in the Common Pleas Court, James Kelly has commenced civil action against the Fredericktown women, who were engaged in destroying his saloon. We understand he places his damages at $1,200.

—Oh, the snow, the beautiful—well, let it snow, or rain, or anything, for a change.
—Regular meeting Mt. Zion Lodge, F. and A. M., Friday evening. Work in M. M. degree.
—They expect to commence laying iron on the Mt. Gilead Short-Line Railroad next week.
—Judge Dickey, at Mt. Gilead, on Tuesday, sentenced James Ryan to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, for burglary.
—The Zanesville molders, to the number of 30, struck on Tuesday for an advance of 15 per cent. in their wages, which was not allowed, and they quit work.
—John S. Braddock, Esq., has purchased the Arthur Greer property at the head of Main street, and intends erecting a handsome new dwelling house in place of the old one.
—On Thursday night of last week the grocery store of Mr. Kline, at Martinsburg, was broken into and some goods stolen along with $30 in cash found in the money drawer.
—An independent military company, called the Wooster City Guards, has been organized at Wooster. It has already a membership of fifty, which will be increased to one hundred.
—It frequently happens that men forget to pay back small sums borrowed money, while remembering to keep away from the person who should be paid. Of such are freaks of memory.
—The official report of the Receipts and Expenditures of Knox County for the past fiscal year, will be found on the first page of this week's BANNER. It will be interesting reading to tax-payers.
—While two boys were playing near the depot at Wooster, on Monday, one named Brumler was shot at by Dan Hoff, who was loading cars at the time, but fortunately he escaped injury.
—Printing paper has advanced from one to two cents per pound within the last ten days, and it is expected to go still higher. The subscription price of the BANNER will remain the same however.
—It is claimed that Guernsey county produces more chestnuts than any equal territory in the United States. The present crop is estimated at 5,000 bushels. We guess Knox county will not be far behind.
—Those of our Republican friends who desire the "Grant boom" at Chicago are requested to read the announcement of the reliable C. M. V. & C. Pan Handle routes, that is printed in another column.
—The report that Hon. H. D. McDowell had purchased the Holmes County Republican, and would make it an independent paper is wholly without foundation. Henry would not do such a foolish thing as that.
—Counterfeit silver dollars are in circulation. They are very skillfully made of pewter, silver-plated, and are not easily detected. The milling of the edges is bad, however, and they weigh less than the genuine. Look out for them.
—At Akron, on Monday, while James Saunders was engaged in removing the snow from a scaffold at the new addition of the Buckeye Works, his foot slipped and he fell to the ground, a distance of 30 feet, causing serious injuries.
—Mr. John J. Lennon of this city has formed a partnership in the practice of the law with Col. D. H. Lasley, of Columbus, and is located in the Huntington Block, where he will be glad to see his friends when they visit the Capital City.
—The next regular meeting of the Knox County Medical Society will be held at the Y. M. C. A. room, in this city, on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, at 1 p. m. Essay, read Dr. J. F. Hess, subject—"Pyemia." A full attendance is earnestly solicited.
—The New York Police Gazette, in its last issue, gave what purported to be a picture of those Fredericktown women in the act of smashing things in Kelly's saloon. The artist took the figures from Madame Demorest's fashion plates, and added the hatchets, the barrels and beer bottles.
—Colonel E. L. Blount, proprietor of the American Hotel, Columbus, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Central Asylum, has been chosen Steward of that institution, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Col. Isaac Anderson. It is said that he will retire from the hotel business at once.
—On last Tuesday, while Mrs. John Boyer, living near Wells Creek, Coshocton county, was washing, she left her twin babies in the crib near the fire. She went out of the house, and while gone the clothing in the crib caught fire and both of the little ones were burned to death. The father was in Coshocton at the time.
—The American, the Republican organ at Newark, says: Some women of Fredericktown organized, not a praying band, but a fighting band, and went through the several saloons in that town, demolishing decanters and wasting the liquor. People who complain of others as violators of the law should not themselves be breakers of the law.
—A Mt. Vernon correspondent of the Columbus Dispatch says that Dr. Kirk will be an aspirant for Congressional honors when the Republican Legislature re-meets the State, and jocularly adds: "Mr. Kirk is deservedly popular and has never done any of those little nasty things which count so largely against a man when a candidate."
—Miss Adelaide Neilson, the most charming and brilliant actress that ever appeared on the stage, is announced to appear at the Opera House, Columbus, December 1st and 2d. No doubt arrangements can be made with the C. M. V. & C. road to run a special train to accommodate the people between Mt. Vernon and Columbus.
—Mrs. Granger, an old lady residing at Westfield, Morrow county, was seriously injured by being thrown from a buggy, two miles south of Mt. Gilead, caused by the running away of a team of horses frightened at boys throwing dust in the road. Mrs. Granger was thrown against a fence, and was carried unconscious to a farm-house near by.
—Wednesday night of last week the house of Mr. T. R. Head at Gambier, was entered by burglars by the aid of outside nippers, who gave the apartments a general overhauling. They took from his bedside his pants, which contained some $50 in currency. Although articles of value and two gold watches were on the bureau, nothing else of the pocket-book was taken. No clue to the thieves.
—Mr. F. G. Belt died on Wednesday morning at his home in Monroe township, from lock-jaw. One day last week he accidentally ran a husking-pin into his hand. The arm swelled up terribly, and he died as above stated. He held a certificate of membership in the Ohio Relief Association, and was a member of the team of horses last summer in the prescribed time, and his family will lose the benefit of it.

LOCAL PERSONAL.

—Mrs. John Myers and daughter, are visiting at the residence of Mr. A. G. Gilliam, in Allegheny City, Pa.
—The Misses Carrie and Ella Pyle entertained a few friends very pleasantly, at their home on Wednesday evening.
—A very pleasant surprise party was given to Miss Millie Sturge, at her home on Gambier street, Monday evening.
—An 8 pound "episode" of the male persuasion occurred in the family of Hon. John K. Haiden, at Centerville, on the 28th ult.
—We are indebted to Clark C. Hyde, of Leadville, Colorado, for a recent copy of the Chronicle, published at that famous mining town.
—Miss Susie Crawford, a most agreeable and attractive young lady of Chambersburg, Pa., is a guest of the Misses Alsford, West High street.
—Miss Annie Runyan, returned to her home in Mansfield, on Saturday, after a pleasant visit of two weeks, at the home of Mr. C. G. Cooper.
—Mr. Henry Ewalt, of Clinton township, leaves for Wm. Keeney, Kansas, in about two weeks, where he expects to make his future home.
—Miss Minnie Sprague, of Newark, is the author of a novel just issued from the press entitled "An Earnest Trifler," which is highly spoken of by the critics.
—Miss Lida Morrison, of Dayton, a young lady who is well known and has many friends in Mt. Vernon, was married on Wednesday evening of this week to Mr. Holland, of New Hampshire.
—Mr. William Shields, Jr., of Newark, was married last week to Miss Mame Rea, of Wooster, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the late Judge Rea. The happy couple will hereafter make their home at Shawnee, where Mr. Shields is engaged in business.
—Mr. Joseph Johnston, proprietor of the Kerr House, Marion, was married to Miss Sadie C. Seymour, on Wednesday, at the home of the bride's mother, "Prospect Hill," the Rev. Thompson, of the Episcopal church, officiating. The wedding was a private affair.
—Knox County Pioneers.
Mr. EDITOR—Wishing to obtain a perfect list so far as possible of the old residents of Knox county, of the age of 60 years and over, I have for some time past, been collecting the names and dates of birth of all within my reach. So far I have collected 217 names. Will our old citizens aid me? I want information from those 60 years and over as follows: Name—place of residence—year of birth—where born—date of settling in Knox county. It is work of time and trouble for me alone; but comparatively easy where those interested will render aid.
The Nativity of the 217 is shown by the following table:
Pennsylvania.....63 New York.....20
Ohio.....14 District of Columbia 2
Virginia.....10 Ohio.....10
