11:00 - 11:25: Legal Alien

- Icebreaker: Team Name and Alliterative Nicknames (5 min.)
 - Brainstorm a team name and have each student come up with an alliterative nickname (i.e. Frowning/Frog Felicity)
- Summarize and review "All Summer in a Day" (5 min.)
 - What did we learn about last time?
 - Review: Plot, Conflict, Climax, Setting, Theme
 - What was the main conflict?
 - What happened to Margot?
 - Why did the students make fun of Margot?
 - How did Margot feel? Did she feel different from the other students?
- Introduce Legal Alien (5 min.)
 - The story is written by a Mexican-American author and she speaks both Spanish and English.
 - She grew up in the border of Mexico and Texas.
 - We are going to read a story written in both languages Spanish and English
- Hand out "Legal Alien" and "Extranjero Legal" (10 min.)
 - Read through Legal Alien and pass out the poem packets with the definition
 - Who is the Narrator? Is this in the first person? Third person?
 - What is the poet trying to say?
 - What is a poem?
 - Has rhythm, sometimes organized into stanzas, tells a story or narrates emotions, etc.
 - How do we think the poet feels by the end of the poem?
 - Do you know any words in Spanish?
 - o Read Extranjera Legal
 - What do you think about the author using both English and Spanish? Why does the poet do this?
 - Do you think this author ever feels like Margot? Why?
 - What are some of the borders in this person's life?

11:30 - 12:00 A Rice Sandwich

- Read A Rice Sandwich (5 min.)
 - Call on students to read a couple lines throughout
 - o Define words (anemic, Spartan)
 - Anemic: pale and weak
 - Spartan: hardy, disciplined person, like the Spartans of ancient Greece
- Questions about A Rice Sandwich:
 - What perspective is this story told from? First-person? Third-person?
 - Which students eat in the school's "canteen?"
 - Why is this story called "A Rice Sandwich"? Why is the sandwich important?
 - Does the narrator live close to the school? How does she feel about her home?
 - How did the narrator feel when the nun scolded her?
- What do the narrator and Margot have in common?

Doodles and Discussion (10 minutes)

- Margot and Sandra meeting or
- A picture of Margot's or Sandra's neighborhood/school
