Local and Miscellaneous.

The "Beautiful Snow," quick to come and slow to go.

Now the bottom will proceed to fall out of the roads.

The Utica Schools have been closed on account of the prevalence of diphtheria.

Dr. Gordon reports a dangerous outbreak of the diphtheria near Utica.

The beautiful snow has mostly disappeared and now you may hang your sleigh up in the haymow.

A substantial iron bridge is being erected on the B. & O. R. R. between Utica and Louisville in Licking county.

Earl A. Disney, infant son of Rev. B. A. Disney, of Cleveland, and formerly of Milfordtown this county, died Tuesday.

A washout on the B. & O. R. R. between Utica and Louisville made it necessary to transfer passengers and baggage the first of this week.

Mayor Brown has had but little business of importance since our last report. Some four or five cases for intoxication have been disposed of.

Stanley Africans will invade Africa again. Whether as a missionary to abolish the slave trade or an explorer with elephant gun in hand and beads to conciliate the natives, is not stated.

The Rev. Messrs. Iam and Burrows both get a blast this week and we hope will both feel complimented. We fear that quarrying out theological fossils is a poor way to raise the dust nowadays.

Detroit Free Press: Huxley walked on all fours, but he doesn't mean that at all. He was only taking down the carpets or setting out onions. Huxley never jokes.

The First National Bank of Granville has closed its career. Too deep speculations in Perry and Athens county coal mines did it. Of course there were no losses except what are borne by the officers of the bank.

Norristown Herald: Eggs forty cents a dozen. Aro has struck an adjoing dwelling occupied by Mr. Gus Fink, baggage master at the B. & O. R. R. depot. The ball passed through the weather-boarding and plastering and striking a small mirror fell into a sink underneath. Mrs. Fink was confined in cleaning a lamp not over two feet from where the ball entered the room. She was considerably startled but fortunately escaped uninjured.

The above report shows sixteen successful applicants out of a class of nineteen. As the grading is by the same rule it shows a decided improvement in preparation.

In Memoriam. Millie H., the only son of W. L. and Lou B. Parrot, aged 11 years, 4 months and 14 days, died January 24th, 1879.

Dear Millie, a sweet, engaging and gifted child, the light and joy of this Christian home, was very unexpectedly called away. The opening had emitted but a little fragrance there, and was removed to hasten onward toward perfection, and from glory to glory on the palmist and tearless shore. My only son, Millie, he sustained by the Divine Hand, and ultimately met where we shall "know as we know."

"Safe in the arms of Jesus, Safe from controlling care, Safe from the world's temptations; Sin can not harm him there."

Economic Aspect. The economic aspect is a strong point in favor of Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts. They are three times the strength of the ordinary extracts; the bottles hold nearly twice as much as those sold for the same price.

A Former Mt. Vernon Boy Gone.

The friends and acquaintances of General C. P. Buckingham will regret to learn that he has been killed.

He was killed at the General's residence, 575 Fullerton avenue, Chicago, on the 19th of January, Mr. Charles Buckingham, at the time of his death, was in the thirtieth year of his age and occupied the position of cashier of the Chicago Steel Works, which place we learn he filled with ability and faithfulness.

He was attacked by typhoid fever about Christmas time and bore with patience his sufferings during his sickness spending his last breath in loving addresses to the members of his family and in prayer.

His death is greatly lamented by a large circle of friends outside of his immediate family connections.

On Friday night the residence of Mr. John S. Ringwalt, on North Main street, was entered by burglars and property to the amount of $200 carried away.

The thief or thieves entered the house through a window on the first floor, which had been left unfastened, and after rummaging through the drawers of the side-board in the dining room, entered a spare bed room and took from the bed a silk dress which Mrs. Ringwalt had just laid aside for the night, having been in attendance at the party at Mr. Greer's, and also some fine clothing belonging to Henry M. Morgan, of New York, who had left it whilst making the tour of the State in the interests of his New York store. The robbers left by the front door and have not been heard from. The silk dress was valued at $150.

A Family Poisoned. The Rev. P. B. Stroup and family enjoyed a hearty supper of mush and milk on last Friday evening, and toward midnight he, his wife, three children and the servant girl, had symptoms of having been poisoned, and Dr. B. B. Scott was called in. The Doctor pronounced the sickness the effects of some poisonous substance, and took immediate steps to relieve his patients. Dr. Scott after relieving his patients, examined the meal and found small quantities of lead in it. The meal was ground at the mill of Cuykendall & Selzer, Fredericktown, and the only theory now is that it was contaminated in the stones had been filled with lead, as is too often the case, and that the first round had pulverized the lead which may have protruded above the level. We are glad to state that all are in a fair way of recovery.

Settle or Die. ATHENS, O., January 28.—A warrant was sworn out Tuesday evening for the arrest of Charles Zeph, of Athens county, charged with shooting with intent to kill Robert Dunlap, both of whom are of the same township, this county. Mr. Dunlap states the circumstances as follows: Brown rode up to my house and asked the little boy where his father was. On being told that I was at harmony, he immediately put off. I had left Harmony about a quarter of a mile, driving with a heavy load of lumber, when Brown met me and says he, "Good evening! You are the very man I am looking for." I said "All right, sir." "Now," (says he), "I want to know whether you are going to settle or law?" I answered him, "Law!" And with another oath he says, "I'll kill you right here!" He pulled his revolver and fired as I jumped from my wagon. I ran around the wagon and he fired again. Again he fired as I was scrambling up a bank, and twice after that. He then rode off. Mr. Dunlap was not hurt. It was nearly dusk at the time of the shooting, and Brown was somewhat intoxicated. The affair grew out of a family matter, as it appears. A preliminary trial was held this afternoon before Judge in default of $500 bond.

A Cat on a Specie Basis.

The Corrugated Metal Company of East Berlin on a recent day placed a five dollar gold piece in the envelope of each employee.

One of the persons thus paid thought to surprise his wife, and dropped the coin within a doorway through which she knew she would shortly pass. But the family cat perceived her mistress through the entrance and caught up the bright coin between her teeth. In tossing it about playfully and biting it pussycat accidentally swallowed the treasure.

Various suggestions have been made to the owner of the cat for the recovery of his money, but none seem practicable. The village butcher offers two dollars and a half for her. The owner says she is not for sale.

Settling Bill. And now it would seem that our esteemed contemporary Sittling Bill is really on his way to rejoin us. He is starving and freezing in Canada, he says, and with 5,000 lodges of his people has decided to come to the United States and trust to Uncle Sam's benevolence, and also to Uncle Sam's inability to help him, should he feel that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. One thing which makes it quite impossible to enjoy the Bill's society, is the fact that he is never happy unless he is scolding somebody, and on this account he will probably find the pale face, but little disposed to give him a free, a full, and an ample welcome. However, he may be his promises of good behavior.
