10. Each student may take out of the Library three volumes a week, and such others, as the professor, to whose department the books relate, may authorize in writing.

PREPARATORY QUALIFICATIONS & COURSE OF STUDIES.

1. The literary qualifications for admittance into the Junior Class, are, a knowledge of the general principles of Natural and Intellectual Philosophy and Rhetoric, and such an acquaintance with the Latin and Greek as will enable the Student to construe and parse Sallust, Cicero's Orations, Virgil's Aeneid, Jacob's Greek Reader, or the Cyropedia, and the four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, especially the two last.

In order to enter a higher class, the candidate must have passed a satisfactory examination on the studies of the lower.

2. The full course of study in this Seminary shall occupy three years, the Junior, Middle and Senior; each year comprising two terms, and the Students shall be divided into three classes corresponding with these years, and indicated by the same names.

3. Of each class the Studies shall be as follows:—

JUNIOR CLASS.

Stuart's Hebrew Grammer, Hebrew Chrestomathy and Hebrew Course. Biblical Antiquities, Biblical History, Principles of Interpretation. Septuagint, Stuart's Grammer of the New Testament Dialect, Newcome's Harmony of the Gospels. Introduction to the Old and New Testament. Evidences of Christianity.

MIDDLE CLASS.

The Interpretation of the Old and New Testaments will be continued by this class under the instruction of the Professor of Biblical Learning, and the systematic study of the Doctrines of Natural and Revealed Religion will be commenced with the Professor of Systematic Divinity. The study of Ecclesiastical History also will be begun, with the instructor in that department.

SENIOR CLASS.

This class will attend, principally, the Professors of Systematic Divinity, of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, and of Pastoral Duty, and occasionally the Professor of Biblical Literature, under such arrangements as may be made by the Faculty.

In addition to the regular instructions given by the Professor of Pastoral Duty to the Senior Class, occasional exercises will be assigned by him to all the classes.

4. The details of this course may be altered and arranged at the will of the Faculty.

5. There shall be two public examinations in each year, one at the end of each term.

6. At the conclusion of a full course of study faithfully pursued, each Student shall receive a testimonial of the same signed by the President and Professors.

Theological Students are charged $50 per annum, which covers the expense of board in Commons, Room, Physician's Services and incidental charges.

No charge is made for Instruction or use of Library.

Several Scholarships have already been established equal to the present demand and others as they may be called for, will, we doubt not, be established by the liberality of the Christian public, to defray the expense of board of all such Students as may require it. No young man therefore need hesitate to apply for admission into the Seminary on account of the want of funds.

* * The small number in the Junior Class is in part owing to a change made in the Course of Studies.

It will be observed that there is but one Student in the partial course in College. The Trustees have decided that none shall recite with the College Classes, unless they pursue the full course of study. Students who wish to pursue a partial course, can do so to any extent in the Senior Preparatory Department.

A STATEMENT OF THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION, EXPENSES, &c.

IN THE
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE DIOCESE OF OHIO, KENYON COLLEGE, AND KENYON PREPARATORY SCHOOLS.

This Institution was originally chartered as a Theological Seminary. Subsequently an additional charter was granted, conferring upon the Institution the name and all the privileges of a College. For the convenience of those intending to become members of the College, or of the Theological Seminary, as well as to prepare young men to engage in the active duties of life, without taking a full College course, a Grammar School has been established, divided into a Junior and Senior Preparatory Department. So that the Institution now consists of four distinct departments: the Theological Seminary, the College, the Senior and Junior Preparatory Schools.

The location of this Institution contributes much to the attainment of the ends for which it was established. It is situated nearly in the centre of Ohio, at a distance from any city or village, in an elevated and healthy position, and in a neighborhood peculiarly free from the temptations and dangers to which young men are often exposed. The authorities of the Institution have the exclusive control of the lands, belonging to the Corporation, extending about a mile and a half in each direction from the College buildings. No portion of these lands can be sold; but are leased on such conditions and to such persons, that, it is confidently believed, no influence from this source of an injurious tendency will be exerted.

It may also be proper to state that facilities for Manual Labor are, to some extent, afforded; which, it is expected, will be increasing. Land of the best quality is devoted to this object:—Labor may be performed on this land by Students at such times and in such manner as shall be prescribed; the avails of which will be subject to their own disposal.

From experience it is found that a student skilful in any branch of mechanical labor, may, without difficulty, pay all his College bills.

JUNIOR PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

Spelling, Reading, Writing, Geography, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Book-Keeping, Latin and Greek, Declamation, Composition, Sacred Music and the Scriptures.

The following Text Books are used in the School:—

1st and 2d Class Books, Malte Brun and Olney's Geography, Smith's and Davies' Arithmetic, Smith's English Grammar, Adam's Latin Grammar, Jacob's Latin Reader, Glass' Life of Washington, Cicero's Select Orations, Virgil, Valpy's Greek Grammar, Jacob's Greek Reader, Bible.

Spending monies, designed for the use of the boys, must be deposited with the Principal.

The pupils are entirely separated from the students in the other departments; the Hall being at the distance of a quarter of a mile from the other buildings. They lodge and board in the same building with their Instructors—their clothes are in the charge of a person employed for this purpose—they study under the eye of their Instructors—attend morning and evening prayers—are instructed in the Scriptures once a week, and attend Church with the other students.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

English Grammar; Arithmetic; Ancient and Modern Geography; Latin and Greek Languages; Book-Keeping; Algebra; Geometry; Trigonometry; Surveying; Natural Philosophy; Chemistry; Rhetoric; Logic and Declamation.

Text Books used.

Murray's English Grammar; Davies' Arithmetic; Woodbridge's and Willard's Geography; Gould's Adams' Latin Grammar; Jacob's Latin Reader; Virgil; Cicero's Orations; Anthon's Valpy's Greek Grammar; Jacob's Greek Reader; Greek Testament; Marsh's Book-Keeping; Conversations on Natural Philosophy; Conversations on Chemistry; and in other branches the same books as are used in the Collegiate Department.

Students in this Department room in the College building, furnish their own rooms with furniture, and supply themselves with fuel, lights, &c. They are required, however, to study six hours each day, in a school room, under the eye of an instructor. For those, who design to enter College, a regular course of study is prescribed. Those, not designing to pursue a full Collegiate course, can pursue any particular branch of study to any extent they may desire.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class are examined in Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar, Gould's Adams' Latin Grammar, Anthon's Valpy's Greek Grammar,* six books of the Æneid of Virgil, 12 Orations of Cicero, Jacob's Greek Reader, the Gospel of St. Matthew and the Acts of the Apostles, with Latin and Greek Prosody.

Persons admitted to an advanced standing must pass an examination in the studies pursued by the class they wish to enter, or an equivalent.

The stated time of examination for admission is on the day preceding Commencement, but persons may be examined at any other time in the College sessions.

* The deficiency of most candidates for admission, in the Latin and Greek Grammars, Geography and Arithmetic, makes it necessary to remark, that the examination in these subjects will be strict and comprehensive; and that no student will be admitted, who is not well acquainted with them.

Testimonials of good moral character are in all cases required; and twenty weeks from the date of admission will be a season of probation, during which the Faculty will judge from the deportment and diligence of a student, whether it be expedient that he remain at the Institution.

Every Student in the Collegiate and Preparatory Departments is required to sign a promise, that while a member of the Institution he will neither use profane language, nor gamble, nor drink ardent spirits.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

BY-LAWS.

OF THE PROFESSORS.

1. The instructions of this Seminary shall be carried on by the following Professors, viz:—

1. A Professor of Pastoral Theology and Pulpit Eloquence.

2. A Professor of the Evidences of Christianity and Systematic Divinity.

3. A Professor of Oriental and Greek Literature and Biblical Interpretation.

4. A Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government.

2. These Professors, including the Bishop of the Diocese, who is ex-officio President, shall have the exclusive government of the Theological Students; and shall, for the maintenance of discipline, and for securing the full benefit of the prescribed course of theological study, hold meetings from time to time, and adopt such regulations subordinate to these by-laws, and in consonance with them, as may be thought advisable.

OF THE STUDENTS.

1. Any candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, may, on examination, be received as a student in this Seminary; or any other person who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character.

2. Every Student shall, on his admission into the Seminary, subscribe the following declaration in the matriculation book of the Seminary;—"We the subscribers, Students of the Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio, do solemnly promise, with reliance on Divine Grace, that we will faithfully obey the laws and prosecute the studies thereof, endeavor to promote the reputation and interests of the Seminary, and make daily effort by pious reading, self-examination, and secret prayer, to cultivate all religious and moral dispositions and habits, and grow in those graces which should characterize the Christian and the Minister of the Cross."

3. No Student shall be admitted, or expelled, or receive a regular dismission, without the approbation of the President.

4. On the admission of a Student, his name shall be entered in a book to be kept by the Faculty for that purpose, with the time of his admission. When he leaves the Institution, the time of his departure also shall be registered.

5. Every Student, unless excused by the President, shall attend morning and evening prayers at the Chapel of the Institution, with the members of the other departments.

6. No Student shall absent himself from recitation, without first obtaining permission from the officer to whom he was to recite.

7. Every Student in this Seminary must be a member of one of the classes, and engage in all the studies which appertain to that class.

8. No Student shall absent himself from a public examination of his class, unless authorized by the President, without forfeiting his standing in the Institution.

9. Theological Students may attend, gratuitously, any recitation in the Collegiate department of the Institution, which they choose, provided it do not interfere with their other engagements.

10. Each Student may have from the Library, at any time, any number of volumes, not exceeding ten, exclusive of text books in the Greek and Hebrew languages.

PREPARATORY QUALIFICATIONS AND COURSE OF STUDIES.

1. The literary qualifications for admittance into the Junior Class, are, a knowledge of the general principles of Natural and Intellectual Philosophy and Rhetoric, and such an acquaintance with the Latin and Greek Languages as will enable the Student to construe and parse Sallust, Cicero's Orations, Virgil's Æneid, Jacob's Greek Reader, or the Cyropedia, and the four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles, especially the two last.

In order to enter a higher class, the candidate must have passed a satisfactory examination on the studies of the lower.

2. The full course of study in this Seminary shall occupy three years, the Junior, Middle and Senior, each year comprising two terms; and the Students shall be divided into three classes corresponding with these years, and indicated by the same names.

3. Of each class the Studies shall be as follows:—

JUNIOR CLASS.

Stuart's Hebrew Grammar, Hebrew Chrestomathy and Hebrew Course; Biblical Geography; Biblical Antiquities; Biblical History; Principles of Interpretation; Septuagint; Stuart's Grammar of the New Testament Dialect, Newcome's Harmony of the Gospels. Introduction to the Old and New Testament.

MIDDLE CLASS.

The Interpretation of the Old and New Testaments will be continued by this class under the instruction of the Professor of Biblical Learning, and the systematic study of the Doctrines of Natural and Revealed Religion will be commenced with the Professor of Systematic Divinity, who will also give instruction to the class in Ethics and the Evidences of Christianity. The study of Ecclesiastical History also will be begun, with the instructor in that department.

SENIOR CLASS.

This class will attend, principally, the Professors of Systematic Divinity, of Ecclesiastical History and of Church Government and Pastoral Duty, and occasionally the Professor of Biblical Literature, under such arrangements as may be made by the Faculty.

In addition to the regular instructions given by the Professor of Pastoral Duty to the Senior Class, occasional exercises will be assigned by him to all the classes.

4. The details of this course may be altered and arranged at the will of the Faculty.

5. There shall be two public examinations in each year, one at the end of each term.

6. At the conclusion of a full course of study faithfully pursued, each Student shall receive a testimonial of the same signed by the President and Professors.

Theological Students are charged $50 per annum, which covers the expense of board in Commons, Room, Physician's services and incidental charges.

No charge is made for Instruction or use of Library.

A Library has just been commenced in connexion with the Leighton Society in the Theological Seminary, for supplying Theological Students gratuitously with text books.

Several Scholarships have already been established equal to the present demand, and others as they may be called for, will, we doubt not, be established by the liberality of the Christian public, to defray the expense of board of all such Students as may require it. No young man therefore need hesitate to apply for admission into the Seminary on account of the want of funds.
