MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 3, 1882.

Hon. "Sunset" S. Cox, of Ohio and New York, is now a candidate for his thirteenth term in Congress.

The Ohio Patriot, New Lisbon, has this "leader" in its last issue: "For President in 1884—Gen. W. S. Hancock."

Charley Foster, the Ohio demagogue, has gone to Indiana to assist in the work of defeating the Republican party.

Hon. Phillip B. Swing, of Batavia, Judge of the United States Court for the Southern District of Ohio, died on Monday.

John Sherman has "home organ," the Mansfield Herald, has undertaken the foolish job of boomer for the Presidency.

The so-called "Facile" Commission having completed its work of taking "testimony," is now engaged in preparing its report.

If the Republicans will keep their ears open next Tuesday night, they will be apt to hear thunder in New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana.

Next Tuesday's elections will give the death-blow to the Republican party in this country, and will pave the way for a Democratic President in 1884.

Hon. Martin A. Foran, Congress-man-elect from the Cleveland district, has been doing good work for the Democracy of New York during the past week.

Herbert Spencer came over here yesterday a little while in a mild, speculative sort of a way, and then was ready to give "exhaustive" views of the country and its people.

Ex-Gov. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, is seriously ill from senile gangrene in the third and fourth toes of the left foot, and grave doubts are entertained about his recovery.

A Republican lawyer in New York writes to Grover Cleveland: "Allow me to congratulate you. I shall vote for you and so will hundreds of other good Republicans in this city."

Dick Harrington, who is still under indictment at Washington for the safe burglary affair, intends to be elected to the United States Senate in case the Republicans capture Delaware.

Mrs. Langtry was met by a whole army of reporters, who showed their gallantry by trying to stare the Lily out of countenance and by repeating in concert every little giggle she gave utterance to.

Mrs. Seville, (Guiteau's sister) who was adjudged insane by a Chicago Court, skipped out before she could be taken to an asylum, and it is said that she is secreted in Canada, under an assumed name.

The campaign of this year is but a preliminary skirmish for 1884. And while the Republican party is getting badly licked in said skirmish, it isn't weeping about it.—Adron News (Rep.) A corpse never weeps.

The elections in New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana, take place on Tuesday next, Nov. 7th. The indications are that the Democracy will carry all three States—the first named by an overwhelming majority.

The Mobile Register asks: "Who would have thought fifteen years ago that Ben Butler would have been the candidate of a Democratic Convention? The Massachusetts Democrats like the idea—his glory has departed."

The Republicans have been claiming that they had elected two Congressmen in West Virginia. It turns out that they have only elected one, Wilson, Dem., having a majority of 120 votes in the Republican candidate in the 2d district.

"Brick" Pomeroy, after following the Greenback ignis fatuus for several years, announces that he is going to receive Pomeroy's Democrat, and make it a red-hot Democratic newspaper.

"Brick" Pomeroy, after following the Greenback ignis fatuus for several years, announces that he is going to receive Pomeroy's Democrat, and make it a red-hot Democratic newspaper.

Mack, of the Sandusky Register, took occasion during the late campaign, to "speak his mind" in regard to that political fraud, Boss Foster, and now we have a report that another Republican paper will be started in Sandusky. Mack will make it hotter a time than for the concern.

The Albany (N. Y.) Journal, a Republican paper, says: Here in Albany a friend of Judge Folger, at that gentleman's request, has visited the Republican clergymen of the city to ask their assistance and moral support and says he could not find a single one who intended to vote for Folger.

Col. Tom Buford, of Louisville, Ky., who murdered Judge Elliott, and after being sent to the penitentiary for life, was adjudged insane, and sent to a lunatic asylum, escaped on Monday, and crossed the river to Jeffersonville, Ind. It is said there is no law under which he can be arrested and taken back to the asylum.

A number of our Republican exchanges are trying to find comfort, by saying that the late defeat of their party in this State did not amount to much, and the Democrats did not achieve much of a victory after all. All right, friends, if you can take any comfort from that kind of argument, we are perfectly satisfied, and are willing to give you the same chance next year.

"We will spend a million of dollars, if necessary," said one of the President's party lieutenants in New York, in reply to an enquiry whether they thought they could "get through" with the President's candidate for Governor. "We intend to elect Folger if we have to move heaven and earth." The doings of partizan politicians who intend to carry an election by the lavish use of money may indeed move heaven—with indignation.

The report circulated that Major McKinley, Republican Congressional candidate in the 18th district, would not accept the certificate of his election, on the ground that votes thrown out that were cast for Wallace had been counted, turns out to be untrue, and will take the office in the face of all his friends.

The Park Theatre, New York, was completely destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon, while the tickets were being sold for Mrs. Langtry's performance that evening. Fortunately no lives were lost, but a large amount of valuable property, beautiful scenery and expensive wardrobe were consumed. This misfortune did not cancel Manager Abbey's contract with Mrs. Langtry, and arrangements have been made with the proprietor of the Grand Opera House for the use of that large establishment for one week, commencing on Monday evening next, so that the public will not be disappointed in seeing and hearing this distinguished English beauty.

A destructive rain and hail storm visited the neighborhood of Davenport, Iowa, on Monday last, doing great damage to property. Three houses were blown down, and a number of barns. Mrs. Geo. Fenne was buried in the debris of her house and killed. Two other occupants of the same place were seriously injured by falling timbers. Six or eight others were slightly injured, but the fatalities will not reach more than three.

During the past week all kinds of reports were circulated as to changes in the ownership of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis ("Nickel Plate") Railroad. It was claimed, successively, that Gould, then Vanderbilt, next the Hocking Valley, and lastly the Lehigh Valley, were the purchasers. But the truth is, nothing definite on the subject seems to be known.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Tribune considers the result in Ohio a rebuke to the administration.

Senator Allison, of Iowa, is sure that Pennsylvania and New York will go Democratic.

Representative Springer thinks that the next House will have a Democratic majority of forty.

Senator Beck, of Kentucky, counts on a Democratic majority of thirty or forty in the next House.

One Congressman gained in West Virginia for the loss of eight in Ohio.

General Rosencrans has opened a lively campaign in California, which State he expects to carry for the Democrats.

Mr. Geo. Zapp is running for Congress in the 8th district of Texas on a protectionist and justice for Mexican veterans platform.

An Indianapolis dispatch says that fully 1,000 Germans in that city who voted for Garfield in 1880 will vote the Democratic ticket this fall.

The Boston Post says: The Hon. Horatio G. Parker, on being called upon for a speech, merely said "Ohio" in a loud voice, which was received with tremendous applause.

The Mobile Register well remarks that men going to some churches in Northern cities now is in a state of uncertainty whether he is going to listen to a sermon or a stump speech.

J. F. Cane, who has been nominated by the Mormons for Delegate in Congress, is a bigoted Churchman, but not a polygamist. He is city clerk, manager of the Mormon theatre, and part owner of the Salt Lake Herald.

The Wheeling Register claims the election of Wilson, Dem., to Congress in the 2d district of the State over Mason, Rep., by a majority ranging from ten to fifty. Republican gains in the mountain counties were over estimated.

The Kansas Democrats are imagining that the tidal wave started in Ohio will prove strong enough to reach that State and sweep away the Republican majority.

They estimate that there are 20,000 Republicans who will refuse to vote for St. John.

THE CANVAS IN INDIANA.

Prospects of a Sweeping Democratic Victory—Gains of Congressmen Predicted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—In spite of the efforts of the Republican leaders in Indiana, the Prohibition question seems to be the only issue in the campaign.

The result is that nearly the entire German vote in the State will be cast on the Democratic side, and there are but few Democrats who will vote with the Republicans on account of their temperance sentiments.

The indications are that the Democrats will not only carry the State by a handsome majority, but gain three, if not four members of Congress, and elect a majority in both branches of the Legislature.

The Germans are more anxious that the Legislature should be carried than the State ticket, so that the proposed Prohibition amendment should be strangled in its infancy.

The Democrats are almost certain to carry sixty out of the one hundred members of the House; but the task is more difficult in the Senate.

That body is composed of fifty members; fourteen Republicans and nine Democrats hold over from 1880. It is believed, however, that the Democrats will carry seven Senatorial districts, which will give them the Senate.

The Senators elected this year will hold their offices for four years, which will allow them to vote for a United States Senator in 1885.

Largest Circulation in the County

MOUNT VERNON, NOV. 3, 1882

LOCAL AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Gas bills are now increasing. Coal is still advancing in price. Taxpayers time has again arrived. Corn husking time is near at hand. Christmas comes on Monday this year. "Wet ducks" may not be killed legally. Yellow furs will be much worn this winter.

Thanksgiving day is the next legal holiday. Quail shooting commenced on Wednesday. Next year's almanacs are ripe enough to pull. The early bird catches a glimpse of the comet.

Call in and pay what you owe on subscription. Oysters are beginning to taste good, since the frost. Kid gloves are now nearly as long as stockings.

Auditor S. H. McBeth, of Jefferson county, has been here.

Four comets have been discovered thus far this year. Sausage and buckwheat cakes now tickle the throats of epicureans.

The man who pays his debts is a friend to the community in which he lives. Advertisements are the straws which show the way the trade winds blow.

Journalists say that "Gath" is going to edit the new Cincinnati daily. The whipping party in our public schools is known as the branch establishment.

Lazy farm boys coincide that the prophetic "corn-husks cling tighter than ever." Chestnuts are in the market. The crop in this neighborhood promises to be large.

A letter put off until to-morrow what you ought to have done today yesterday. The little daughter of Mr. Sidney Wood died from membranous croup on Monday.

One of the culinary delusions of the day is pumpkin pies made out of yellow squash. A hint to our business men: "The biggest advertisers always make the most money."

Lay in a good stock of fuel, for if it gets half as cold as the weather prophets predict, you will need it. The man who can put a stove together without using strong adhesives, is hard to find now a days.

The Episcopal Church at Gambier has been recently carpeted—the carpet being the gift of Mr. Bedell. "Cleveland, of New York, and Geddes, of Ohio," is the Londonian Democrat's Presidential ticket for '84.

A machine has been invented to work button holes by electricity. Now, if it could only sew on buttons the bachelor's cup of joy would be full. Some of our Democratic exchanges did not get a chance to show enough of their poultry the week of the election, and were at it again last week.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl in the dark; you know what you are doing but nobody else does. The Republican appeared in a "new dress" last week, and looks as proud as a distinction at a county fair, with a red card attached to its head.

There is a fair reserved seats for the Osgood Concert, at Cassill's book-store, and from indications the Opera House will be crowded on the occasion. There are some curious things about corn; and one is, where do the red ears and the speckled ears come from, when you don't plant any but white corn; and another is, why don't we find an ear with an odd number of rows on it? You can find a four-leaf clover, but you never found the odd row on an ear of corn yet. It is always fourteen, sixteen, or twenty, or some other even number, and we would like to understand what corn knows about mathematics, and what objection nature has to odd numbers.

A LITTLE TOO PREVIOUS.

"The Best Laid Schemes of Mice and Men Gang Aft Aglie."

It is related that a certain well known young fellow of this city, who enjoys the distinction of being an officer of the 17th regiment, Ohio National Guard, had won the heart of a fair young damsel and the date of the nuptial event was set for last Friday evening. The girl had but recently passed her birthday, and the would-be Benedict secured a written order from the mother, not to let the girl marry until she was twenty-one.

The order was given to a mutual friend of the prospective groom, who presented himself at the office of the Probate Court, and applied for a license. Judge Pealer on learning of the bride's age refused to grant a license, under the law as set forth in section 6384 of the revised statutes, which requires that a male must be over 18 years, and a female over 16 years, before they can be joined in wedlock.

The young man retired, but not being as deeply interested as the contracting parties, did not "make his returns" until evening, when the wedding guests had assembled, the banquet spread, the minister arrived, and all in readiness for the ceremony. The announcement that a license could not be obtained, disturbed, in part, the program arranged to be carried out. The feast was served, but the wedding was postponed until a twelve month has rolled around.

The District Convention of the 13th S. S. District, Delaware, Franklin,

An Agents Good Fortune.

A GRAND AUDIENCE—ENDORSED BY THE PRESIDENT—A CHANCE FOR OTHERS.

Messrs. F. Myers & Co., of 653 Broadway, have just received a remarkable and magnificent engraving, entitled "Our Presidents, 1789-1881" (which has been duly copyrighted, etc.) It presents in one of the grand saloons of the White House, all our presidents, from Washington to Arthur, artistically portrayed in natural attitudes, in full length figures, each one clad in the style peculiar to himself in his day. The portraits are telling and life like, and will recall the memories of all. A singular effect is produced by thirteen evenly spaced faces, the custom of their times, while the four of the twenty-one wear the now popular moustache. The high merit of the picture is established in the beauty of its conception, which has here caused to be assembled in figures, for the first time, our twenty-one presidents, giving audience to the great nation over which they have been honored to preside. On the walls of the saloon hangs a well-executed picture of the surrender of Cornwallis, which in itself accurately illustrates that great historical event. From the window of the room appears a fine view of the National Capitol Building, surrounded by the golden of liberty. The picture is 22 x 38 inches in size, and affords an elegant and admirable subject for the homes of the people.

On the afternoon of October 10th, a copy of the plate was presented to President Arthur at the Presidential Mansion, 123 Lexington, New York, just before the President's departure for Boston. After carefully examining the picture, the President said: "It is a novel and a fine conception, and I am pleased to have it and I shall place it in my library." On being asked whether a copy would be acceptable for the Reception Room of the White House, the President replied: "Yes, I shall be pleased to accept one for that purpose, and on my return to Washington I shall not forget to write my acknowledgments, also my approval of the picture, to F. Myers & Co."

The sale of such a work will no doubt be something unprecedented. It is sold through canvassing agents, and we understand that the publishers will introduce this fine work, full particulars with an agents outfit, including the engraving, will be sent to those who apply, and a view to an agency, and who at the same time remit one dollar to pay costs. All communications must be addressed to F. Myers & Co., P. O. Box 523, New York City. We advise those of our readers who become interested in the subject to send for an outfit once for their own advantage, also that may, through such agencies, procure themselves copies of this happy production.
