

THE KENYON NEWSCOPE

Volume I, Number 19

Wednesday November 18, 1970

NEWS HEADLINES

(Saigon)--Allied military officials plan to offer cash rewards to civilians for information on booby-trap hazards in Quang Ngai Province in South Vietnam.

(Washington)-- Congressman Fletcher Thompson of Georgia blames the Huntington, West Virginia plane crash on the lack of a glide-scope system; he wants such systems installed across the country.

(Washington)--The Senate has passed a bill that would direct the Secretary of Labor to set health and safety standards for American workers within two years.

(Fort Hood, Texas)-- The Defense has recalled two prosecution witnesses at the court-martial of Staff-Sergeant David Mitchell in an attempt to discredit the testimony of a third.

(Washington)--The U.S. Space Chief has praised the Russian success on the first unmanned moon-walker.

* * * * *

ON CAMPUS

TODAY - WEDNESDAY

4:00 p.m. - CAMPUS SENATE

LOWER DEMPSEY

TOMORROW - THURSDAY

12:15 p.m. - FACULTY LUNCH

LOWER DEMPSEY

2:00 p.m. - LAW SCHOOL INTERVIEWS -- Dean Roy I. Steinheimer, Jr., Washington and Lee University, School of Law will hold individual interviews with students interested in his school. Appointments should be made with Mrs. Rohler in the PACC.

NORTON ROOM
RANSOM HALL

3:00 p.m. - LAW SCHOOL INTERVIEWS -- Peter A. Winograd, Assistant Dean, New York University, School of Law will interview students interested in attending law school. Please make appointments with Mrs. Rohler in the PACC.

NORTON ROOM
RANSOM HALL

4:00 p.m. - Contemporary Applications of Undergraduate Mathematics: "POPULATION BIOLOGY - COMPETING SPECIES" by Mr. Finkbeiner.

MATHER 101

10:00 p.m. - CHAPEL SPECIAL -- Val Cox, '74 will present a special audio-visual program on the organ.

CHAPEL

* * * * *

CAMPUS NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

On Saturday, November 21, a pre-law panel entitled "What Contribution to Society Does the Lawyer Make?" will be held followed by a question and answer period. The panel will be held in Lower Dempsey Hall and lunch will be served. Anyone wishing to attend should make reservations with Mrs. Rohler at the PACC.

BASKETBALL RESERVE SEASON TICKETS ON SALE AT THE FIELD HOUSE to students, faculty and staff (for personal use only). 10 games @ $5.00. General admission to faculty, students and staff by showing pass or I.D. card, as usual.

Kenyon students who plan to remain in Gambier during the Thanksgiving Vacation are reminded that they must so inform the Dean's office before Friday, November 20.

There will be a MUSIC CLUB meeting at 4:00 p.m. today (Wed.) in Rosse 2-4.

ALL FRESHMEN going out for INDOOR TRACK, please sign up with Coach White at the Field House some time before the Thanksgiving holiday.

A reminder to the students enrolled in the Experimental College course on the history of Kenyon and Gambier: WE WILL BE LEAVING THE LOBBY OF THE LIBRARY AT 3:45 TODAY TO TOUR KOKOSING HOUSE.

On Friday, November 20, at 4:00 p.m. in Philo Hall Professor David J. Singer from the University of Michigan will give a lecture on: BEHAVIORAL APPROACH TO THE STUDY OF WAR: 1816-1968.

NEW SWIMMING POOL HOURS: (previously 10 to 12 a.m. on Mon. and Wed.) Sunday thru Saturday 2:00 - 3:30 p.m. Evening hours the same. Special note: Physical Education and Athletics have priority

The Knox County Branch of the NAACP is sponsoring a panel of the 1970 Elections: WHAT DO THEY MEAN? Participants: Mr. Grant Hutchins, Cooper-Bessemer, and Professors Harry Clor and John Elliott, Thursday, November 19, 8:00 p.m., The Mount Vernon YMCA.

The Harcourt Parish Rummage Sale will be at Colburn Hall on Friday (20th) from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. There will be an Auction at 4:00 p.m. of special items. In addition, to the rummage, there will be a plant sale. If you have clothing, books, records, etc. to contribute, bring items to Colburn Hall on Wednesday (from 1-4 and 7-9 p.m.) Anyone wishing to volunteer to set-up beforehand or help at the sale should call Mrs. Klein (427-2702).

LAW SCHOOL APPLICATIONS: Now that the LSAT scores have been reported, will all prospective law school applicants please give the following information to either Mrs. Dunn or Mrs. Rohler: 1. a list of schools to which they are applying. 2. a list of faculty members they wish to contribute to their composite letter of recommendation. Further information about composite letters and law school entrance data is posted in the PACC Bldg. and outside Mrs. Dunn's office in Stephens Hall.

LOOKING FOR CHRISTMAS AND NOTE CARDS? The Choirs will be selling Christmas Cards with three snow scenes of the Kenyon campus (Chapel, Old Kenyon, and Middle Path), and note cards with art work of Kenyon. Prices and samples will be out in the near future. Students and Faculty keep us in mind, and wait to buy your cards!

GAMBIER CHRISTMAS SALE OF HANDCRAFTED ARTICLES -- Anyone interested in participating in this sale to be held on December 5, should pick up an information blank from either Jude Ross (Room 232 - Dorm #2) or the switchboard (Ransom Hall). Please send completed form and fee (students - 25¢, all others - 50¢) to one of the chairmen listed on the form immediately.

There will be a Drama 200 production of THE TIGER by Murray Schisgal, directed by Dennis O'Connell in Colburn Hall this Friday (20th), Saturday (21st) nights at 9:00 p.m. Tickets will be on sale all week during lunch at Pierce Hall. Tickets are 50¢ for students and $1 for all others.

* * * * *

CLASSIFIED

NEEDED: Ride for two to Lancaster, evening of Nov. 19 to hear Virgil Fox organ recital. Please contact Jim Carson, Lewis 19 or Ken Heick, Lewis 21, PBX 281.

NEEDED: Ride to OWU evening of Thurs., Nov. 19 to see Chicago concert. Contact Lisa Mitchell PBX 367.

NEWSCOPE will feature notices for RIDES AND RIDERS WANTED OVER THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS in this Monday's issue. Material for this Monday's issue must be dropped off at the Switchboard by 4 p.m., Sunday. Material may also be dropped off during office hours at either Dean's office.

* * * * *

TELEVISION AND MOVIES

Walt Disney's classic film, FANTASIA, starts tonight at the Vernon. Performances nightly at 7 and 9 p.m. THE BALLAD OF CABLE HOGUE starring Jason Robards opens tonight at the Granville Opera House. Performances at 8 p.m. only.

ON THE WATERFRONT (1954) will be shown tomorrow night at 11:30 p.m. on channel 10. Marlon Brando and Eva Marie Saint both won Oscars for their performance in this film about labor racketeers on the New York waterfront.