THE BANNER.

Editor and Proprietor.
PAPER OF THE COUNTY.
T. VERNON, OHIO.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 1885.
There will be no "Second Tuesday" of election in Ohio any more.
The election in New York and Virginia will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 3d.
The Ohio man is now a conspicuous figure in the hotels and on the streets of Washington.
The two out of eight counties in Ohio gave George Hoadly a majority for governor.
The miners in the Monongahela valley, above Pittsburgh, have concluded to go to work rather than starve.
By an explosion of mine gas at Plymouth Junction, Pa., three were killed and thirteen injured—several fatally.
The first eighteen wards of Cincinnati voted and Foraker had the same number of votes—20.
GEORGE FORAKER is stumping New York but he fails to tell the people whether he is for or against Prohibition.
ROBERT DOXEY, charged with the murder of his wife, was taken from the jail at Holly Springs, Miss., and hanged as a mob.
A gas explosion in the Raccoon pits at Clover Hill, Va., on Friday, killed two men and did considerable damage to the mine.
The President has declined to attend the Virginia State Fair, which is a great disappointment to the people of the Dominion.
Most of the Prohibition vote in Madison county came from the Democratic party, is the opinion of the Madison county Democrat.
We fail to see any mention of the movement in New York to raise funds for the erection of the proposed Grant Monument in that city.
The Republicans of Cincinnati and Hamilton county, fairly and squarely beaten, are making their throats sore howling about "fraud."
HON. C. D. MARTIN, Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge, led every man on the ticket in his own county of 210,000 votes.
Two Republican daily papers in "unfaded" did not make the slightest intimation against the solid Democratic Union in Old Richmond.
CRAWFORD county gave a good round Democratic majority of 1940 at the late election. There is no discount on the Democracy of Crawford.
THERE will be no Republican reorganization and redistricting at Columbus this winter. A Democratic Senate will stop that kind of legislation.
JOHN G. WARWICK, for Lieutenant Governor, received a majority of 505 in his own county of Stark. While he was deserving of a still larger vote.
THERE are some Republicans who are already talking about Mr. Foraker as a candidate for President in 1888. This is unkind towards Mr. John Sherman.
NEW JERSEY temperance women in convention at Trenton propose to procure a law forbidding the licensing of liquor sellers within a mile of a school.
The Republicans made loud professions of "reform" if they elected Foraker and secured a majority in the Legislature. We will now see what we will see.
HENRY R. WEST, editor of the Woodfield Spirit of Democracy has been appointed Indian Agent in Montana. He is a sterling and hard-working Democrat.
JOHN SHERMAN, on his way to Virginia, was serenaded in Washington on Saturday night, and made a political speech. Ben Butterworth paid the fiddler.
The fourteen Southern States report the expenditure of $2,386,000 within the present year in organizing mining and manufacturing enterprises or enlarging old plants.
It is amusing to hear the men who stole the Presidency in 1876, by the most bare-faced fraud and villainy, talking about "frauds" in Columbus and Cincinnati.
JENNIE CLAFIN, sister of Mr. Woodhull, has married an English "nobleman" named Visconde De Montserrat. American girls appear to be sought after by English shobs.
MR. BENDER has taken the stump against Mr. Hill, the Democratic candidate for Governor in New York. The Republicans will now forgive him for supporting Cleveland.
THE Zanesville Signal says there can be no question that if the Democrats of Ohio had been as well organized as were the Republicans, the State would today be Democratic.
JOHN SHERMAN opened his bloody-shirt campaign at Mt. Gilead, and the people of that staunch old Republican county responded by electing a Democrat to the Legislature.
If the Democracy of Franklin county had not been saddled with an obnoxious ticket they would have had their usual majority and the Legislature would have been Democratic.
ALEX O'NEALS has turned his attention to "lecturing," and is telling what he knows about Judas Iscariot. It is worthy of record that Judas has at last found a friend and defender.
AFTER all, John Sherman has no assurance that his "calling and election" to the Senate is a certainty. Charles Foster and hoodlums will be around when the Legislature assembles.
THE vote at the Soldiers' Home, near Dayton, was as follows: Hoadly, 1,807; Foraker, 1,728. This completely disproves the Republican assumption that the soldiers were all Republicans.
GEN. JONES, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York was the leader of the first volunteer regiment that rushed to the defense of Washington at the call of Lincoln.

President Johnson and General Grant.
A Miscellaneous and Unevalued for Publication.
Mr. Chauncey M. Depew, in response to a request from Col. Fred Grant, gives his recollection of an after dinner conversation with Gen. U. S. Grant, in regard to certain interviews between President Johnson and Gen. Grant, immediately after the close of the war, in which Johnson is presented to the world in a very unfavorable light, contrary to the character he sustained before the American people during his administration. The substance of the story is, that after the war closed, Johnson told Grant that he wanted to have the leaders of the rebellion hung, and that Grant protested against it, declaring that it would be dishonorable and wholly inadvisable, especially after the rebel generals had been paroled, laid down their arms, given up the fight, and had gone to their homes. According to the Depew story the scene then changed: Johnson sought to cultivate the friendship of the rebels, particularly the aristocracy, and at once bringing the states in rebellion back into the Union with a full delegation in Congress, as before the war. Against this, also, Grant made decided opposition, when Johnson, finding he could not use Grant to carry out his schemes, proposed to send him to Mexico in some official capacity, in order to get him out of the country. To this Grant objected, and there the matter dropped.
This publication of Depew, although indorsed as correct by Col. Fred Grant and General Horace Porter, has called forth dissenting expressions of opinion from men who held intimate personal and political relations with President Johnson during his administration. And first, comes Colonel Moore, who was Johnson's stenographic secretary and is now Cashier of the Metropolitan Bank of Washington. Col. Moore says that in his opinion Gen. Grant rested under a radical misapprehension as to the essential points in Mr. Depew's statement—first, the trip to Mexico; second, Johnson's relation to southern aristocracy. As to the trip to Mexico, Col. Moore turned to stenographic notes now in his possession of the correspondence between President Johnson and Gen. Grant upon that subject, and he says that these notes show that Johnson in tendering this mission to Mexico, whatever it was, to Gen. Grant, stated that the latter would not be required to be absent from Washington longer than the meeting of Congress. This, Colonel Johnson during his administration, disposes of this part of the story. As to the charge of Johnson's association with the southern aristocracy, Col. Moore says that from his personal observation no man could be freer from such an accusation, that he was emphatically a man of the people, and that his whole course in the White House refuted this charge.
Mr. W. W. Warden, who was the assistant private secretary of President Johnson, being questioned on the subject, said that he was inclined to think that Mr. Depew had unintentionally given color to the statements made to him by Gen. Grant. "There is no question that Mr. Johnson said that treason should be made odious, but I do not believe that Mr. Johnson wanted to go as far as this statement of Mr. Depew's would indicate was his intention. Mr. Johnson, in his younger days, was much opposed to the aristocracy of the south, but I think that his mature views were changed in this particular."
To the above we may add that Ex-Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, and Ex-Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, both of whom had intimate friendly relations with President Johnson, say that they never heard anything about the Depew story and they do not believe it is true.
Mr. Hugh McCullough, formerly Secretary of the Treasury, has been interviewed relative to this matter. He said: "This is all new to me. I never heard anything of the kind before. It is a complete surprise and challenges my credulity without argument. What makes me doubt the correctness of the statement is that the personal relations between President Johnson and General Grant were of the most friendly character up to the time at which General Grant, as acting Secretary of War, yielded his chair to Secretary Stanton, and that was a year or more after these occurrences are reported to have taken place."
It strikes us that Fred Grant has acted unwisely, if not foolishly, in causing this matter to be dragged before the public, immediately after the death of his father. No possible good can grow out of it, and it may be productive of much mischief, as it raises questions of veracity between the living as well as the dead.
THE Republicans of Cincinnati, finding that they are fairly and squarely beaten, now talk about contesting the election of the Democratic Senators in Courts, hoping thereby, to secure control of the next Senate. All it will amount to will be to raise a smoke, and give a job to some hungry Republican lawyers. There is nothing in the case for the courts to adjudicate. The man who received the highest number of votes, and are elected, will take their seats in the Senate, as a matter of course. Under the Constitution each branch of the Legislature is the sole judge of the eligibility of its members, and the Senate will have a clear Democratic majority is not probable that the howl raised by disappointed and beaten men will have any influence whatever in that body.
If President Johnson was guilty of "treason," as is now charged, long years after his death, it is very singular that the matter was not brought to light during the impeachment trial. Ben Butler hints that he knew something about it at the time, but says "there was no legal or proper evidence by which it could be proved." This is strange, when it is known that the ablest men in the Republican party were then ready and anxious to bring to light every little fact, incident and circumstance their ingenuity could suggest, to prove something against Johnson that would drive him in disgrace out of the White House. We never had any particular love for Andy Johnson, but we believe in the force of the old maxim, "give the devil his due."
The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette is demanding that Republicans shall boycott the Enquirer. We have no particular love for the Enquirer, as our readers are well aware but it strikes us that this movement of the C. G. is idiotic in the extreme. These two "great" papers have for some time past been engaged in a most disgraceful personal quarrel, in which the vilest of language has been employed on each side, but from a disinterested standpoint we are clearly of the opinion that the Enquirer has done the best of it.
The bloody-shirt having proven an important factor in Ohio politics, during the late campaign, the Republicans of New York are trying their best to "rally round" the unsanitary garment, believing it will lead them to victory.

Mr. L. D. THOMAS, Civil Service Commissioner, has sent in his resignation, which has been accepted. Mr. T. is in trouble. He bought a fine house in Washington, which he paid for in Indiana school bonds, which are pronounced bogus and worthless. The gentleman who took the bonds for his property, after full investigation, concluded they were good. Thomas says he received the bonds for good bonds, and means to hold on to the property. A law suit will probably be the result.
LORD LORKE, who married one of Queen Victoria's daughters, has turned politician, and is running as Liberal candidate for Parliament some where in England. The other day he went out to make a "speech," but he met with a warm but not cordial reception, as he was pelted with all sorts of missiles, including rotten eggs, and he was compelled to beat a hasty retreat for a railroad train. The "cow-boy" out of Wexford could have behaved worse than these Tory Hengisthmen.
The Episcopal Church Convention at New Haven, Conn., has been engaged in discussing the Tariff question. The disputants were the high dignitaries of church, and they appeared to be equally divided in sentiments, like unto worldly-minded people. Bishop Dudley and Prof. Sumner took the Free Trade side of the question. The latter held that the protection policy was a violation of the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."
BELIEVING that they will have control of the next Ohio House of Representatives, the Republicans have already commenced a contest for the Speaker. The prominent candidates are Thomas Cowgill, of Champaign, Henry C. Taylor, of Columbus, and John C. Entekren, of Chillicothe. "Sticky John" will get there, if promising to put every Republican in the House at the head of a committee, will do the work.
The Republicans in New York appear very confident of the election of Ira Davenport, their candidate for Governor, and this confidence is mainly predicated on the fact that he possesses enormous wealth, and will use it to buy votes among the purchasable gang who are very numerous in that State. One Ohio Quaker says he cannot support Davenport for the reason that "he is a millionaire and nothing else."
MR. ROBINSON, the Government printer at Washington, still holds on to the position, because the President has not as yet been able to decide upon the proper person for his successor. Among the applicants for the place are Mr. O. Keating of the Memphis Appeal, Mr. Stahl, of South Bend, Ind., Senator White, of the Defiance (O.) Democrat, and several other gentlemen. It is a "fat take" for the incumbent.
GEN. KENNEDY, Lieutenant Governor-elect, will, of course, be the presiding officer of the next Senate, but as the Democrats will have a majority in that body, they will elect the President pro tem. The probabilities are that the venerable William Lawrence, of Guilford county, a sterling old school Democrat and an experienced legislator, will fill the honorable position.
THE Chinese cigar makers in a large factory in San Francisco are on a strike for higher wages. These people were brought to this country to work at "pauper wages," and run out the white flag, who wished to earn enough money to live decently. But the Chinese soon learn the ways of the "Melleman man," even the prevailing custom of going on a strike.
If John Sherman goes back to the United States Senate, he has to thank Allen O'Myers for the distinguished honor, for the defeat of the Democracy of Franklin county gave the Republicans a majority on joint ballot, and Mr. Sherman is expected to reap the benefit of the political victory. He can afford to be liberal towards "Johnny McLean's bad boy."
THE Philadelphia Times states the case briefly and pointedly: General Grant was for peace because he fought and knew the evils of war. General John Sherman is for war because he never knew what war was, but knows the evils of peace. There are soldiers and demagogues, and of the former Grant led and of the latter John Sherman is chief.
THE defeat of the Democracy of Franklin county, (which usually gives from 1,500 to 2,000 Democratic majority,) was the result of bad nominations, bad party management and the disgraceful quarrels among the party leaders. Two of the Democratic papers in Columbus kept up a furious personal fight during the entire campaign.
THE Crawford County Forum remarks that the Republicans of Ohio feel very much like the man who committed a murder, was convicted of the crime and realized that he merited hanging, but was granted a respite on the eve of execution. They hardly expected it, but are willing to enjoy the fruits.
THERE is no doubt of the fact that the poll books in Precinct A, of the 13th Ward of Columbus, were tampered with, and it is earnestly to be hoped that the guilty party or parties may be discovered and punished to the utmost extent of the law. We want no Florida or Louisiana rascality in Ohio.
THE New York Star, Ex-Lieut. Gov. Dorsheimer's paper, says that all the persons are known into whose hands went the money of Grant & Ward, and "every cent of the accused profit can be traced." It threatens an exposure unless they make restitution to the Grant family.
THE Republicans, who promised the people another dose of Scott law, or as the Senate will have a clear Democratic majority will now have a chance to show their hands. The Ashland Times and other Republican papers now say, "Let the Scott law be re-enacted with a $500 tax."

PARIS advices from Tonquin say that French troops recently made reconnoissances from Songha and Huan-quan and found formidable numbers of Black Flags in the vicinity of those places. Three thousand reinforcements are about to start for Tonquin.
A PARTY of buncoists dropped into Delaware a few days ago, and tried their smart game upon the Rev. Dr. Merrick, the well-known Methodist preacher, but he was too sharp for the rascals. One of the gang named Hood is now in jail; the others escaped.
THE man Cox, the Republican candidate for Clerk of the Court in Cincinnati, who is the proprietor of a disreputable gin-mill, has been badly beaten, although "the law and order" democracy made a vigorous fight in his behalf.
THE Democracy of Pennsylvania feel very confident of success this year. It is not only the Republic corruption and Boss rule in that State were overthrown. Pennsylvania was once the "keystone" of Democracy.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.
A Democratic Senate and a Republican House of Representatives.
The long agony is at last over, and the terrible wrangle and the protracted and exciting count of the vote of Hamilton county has come to a close, and the result is what the Democrats predicted and claimed from the beginning, the election of the entire Democratic ticket in that county, with the single exception of the candidate for Commissioner. As great interest has been felt in this result all over the State, and indeed all over the United States, we give below the corrected totals and pluralities, determined by the official count, copied from the Telegram, a Republican paper: George Hoadly, D..... 34,702 Joseph B. Foraker, R..... 34,145 Adna B. Leonard, R..... 1,376 Hoadly's plurality..... 557 SEATERS. Pluralities. Moses F. Wilson, D..... 34,802 James C. Hople, D..... 34,802 Robert Kuehner, D..... 34,608 John Brasher, R..... 34,604 James C. Richardson, R..... 34,601 Anzi McGill, R..... 34,253 Frank Kitchner, R..... 34,254 George W. Hardacre, R..... 34,118 REPRESENTATIVES. Pluralities. A. P. Butterfield, D..... 34,702 Charles A. Howe, D..... 34,612 Frank A. Greer, D..... 34,604 Stephen P. Sands, D..... 34,643 C. A. Zimmerman, D..... 34,508 C. A. Johnson, R..... 34,495 James Maloney, D..... 34,576 James Maloney, D..... 34,576 Wm. Bolmer, R..... 34,529 Phil. Baer, R..... 34,438 John Eggers, R..... 34,441 Oliver Outalt, R..... 34,431 Theodore F. Neman, R..... 34,402 Byron S. Wyman, R..... 34,389 James F. Bailey, R..... 34,383 John W. Hartness, R..... 34,381 Thomas W. Graydon, R..... 34,392 Henry Brockman, R..... 34,381 Robert Harlan, R..... 32,982 The majorities on the county ticket were as follows: Common Pleas Judge, 800; Clerk, 3,484; Prosecuting Attorney, 2,064; Treasurer, 402; Recorder, 2,521; Commissioner, (Rep.) 278; Member Board of Control, 196; Inferior Director, 223. Hoadly's total vote was 34,702, as against 31,621 two years ago, while Foraker's vote was increased from 29,900 in 1883 to 34,145. Hoadly's majority this year is 557, against 2,331 two years ago. The Legislature will stand as follows, as appears by the official count in the State: Senate—Democrats..... 20 Republicans..... 17 Democratic majority in Senate..... 3 House—Republicans..... 58 Democrats..... 52 Republican majority in House..... 6 Republican majority on joint ballot..... 1 Thus it will appear that neither party has a victory to crow over, with the exception of the fact that the small Republican majority on joint ballot will enable that party to elect a United States Senator. No partisan legislation can be successfully carried through, as each branch will be a check on the other. Gov. Foraker will find his hands securely tied. The Vote in the State. The tabulated returns of the late election in the eighty-eight counties of the state as made up in the secretary of state's office from the official abstracts shows the following totals: Foraker, R..... 337,061 Hoadly, D..... 340,752 Leonard, P..... 28,024 Hoadly's plurality..... 3,691 Total..... 705,837 Foraker's plurality over Hoadly..... 19,329 Foraker is in a minority of 14,468. The total vote for governor shows an increase of 7,520 over the total vote two years ago. Foraker's vote in 1883 was 347,154 or 9,917 less than he received this year. Hoadly's vote two years ago was 329,693, or 18,241 more than he received this year. The total vote of number county is given as sent out by the associated press from Cincinnati. Where is the twenty-five thousand claimed by the Republican committee? THERE has been a big boom in the iron and nail works during the past two weeks, which indicates a speedy settlement of the long standing difficulty between the mill owners and the operatives, with a resumption of work and good wages. So note it be.

THE Serbian army has invaded Bulgarian territory, and a skirmish has taken place between Bulgarian and Serbian pickets. An immediate crisis seems inevitable.
The Delaware Herald says that there is no doubt but that one half of the increased Prohibition vote in that county, at the election last week, came from the Democratic ranks.
Miss MARTIN, of Pleasanton, Kan., informed her father that she had been criminally assaulted by a young man named Reed Johnson. She then retired to her room and shot herself.
The Imperial Privy Council of England has refused to interfere with the decision in Canada in regard to Riel, the rebel, and there is now but little doubt that he will be executed.
"Da." Delana Smith of Cleveland, who produced an abortion upon the person of Carrie Franklin, which resulted in death, has been found guilty, and will have to go to the penitentiary.
PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has sent his check for $1000 to the Democratic Committee in New York, which completely disproves the story that he takes no interest in the result of the election in that State.
THERE is a large reserve of respectable Republicans in Pennsylvania who will not vote for Boss Quay, the Ring candidate for State Treasurer. It is to be hoped that they can muster enough strength to defeat the corruptionist.
SOME of the Republican "decency" out at Springfield showed their ill-feeling towards Rev. Dr. Leonard by throwing all kinds of trash into his door yard after the election; but instead of getting angry about it, he only laughed and took it as a compliment.

THE Loudonville Fair, according to the Democrat, was "a perfect gambling hell," where lotteries, faro banks, three card monte, wheels of fortune, sweat boards, and all kinds of gambling devices, were carried on in open defiance of the law. Many innocent people were robbed in open daylight.
Dr. SMITH, the Democratic candidate for Representative in Hardin county, has served notice on Ingram, his Republican opponent, that he will contest his seat, on account of irregularities in Buck township and in Ada precinct, where some fifty students voted, contrary to the law. If the illegal vote is thrown out Dr. Smith will have a majority of 30.
