Army Beef, Gen. Eagan and Incidentally the Administration.

CALLS EAGAN BLACKGUARD.

And Says That He Was Rewarded For Attack on Miles.

REORGANIZATION BILL STILL UP.

Effort Fails to Set a Time For a Vote on the Measure—Proceedings of the House—Washington News.

Exclusive to The Daily Banner by the American Association.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Just at the close of dreary discussion of technical details of the army reorganization bill Mr. Teller of Colorado, speaking of an amendment he had offered, delivered a sensational denunciation of General Eagan, former commissary general of the United States army. His statement included also the administration, because General Eagan had been retired, according to the Colorado senator's charge, as a "decoration and a reward" for his attack upon the commanding general of the army. In an appeal for the early passage of the pending bill, Mr. Carter of Montana declared that delay now would mean an additional expenditure of $500,000 a day. He asked that a time be set for a vote, but Mr. Teller objected.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Teller to that section of the bill which authorizes the president to retire any officer who has been suspended from duty either by sentence of court-martial or by executive order in mitigation of such sentence, striking out the words "has been," and substituting therefor "shall be hereafter." Mr. Teller adverted to the case of General Eagan at some length. Of the beef furnished the army, he said it was "boiled and canned, and of very ancient lineage, some of which had made a trip to Europe and back, being fed to our soldiers after it had been condemned by European governments." Mr. Teller denounced General Eagan in sensational language. "As an officer of the United States army," said the senator, "he made an exhibition of himself and showed himself to be a miserable blackguard."

Rivers and Harbors.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The house postponed District of Columbia business until next Monday and proceeded with the river and harbor bill. Good progress was made, 59 of the 97 pages of the bill being completed. Many amendments were offered, but without exception all of them failed.

This extension of the military telegraph system connects for the first time the large and important island of Mindanao with Manila and the rest of the world.

Fight For an Office.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 15.—A hand-to-hand fight for possession of the county treasurer's office took place at the courthouse between the forces of A. L. Smith (Rep.) and George Mudgett (Dem.). Smith's forces took possession first, locking all the doors. Mudgett jumped in through the window and let in his deputies. He then tried to enter the treasurer's private office. A scuffle resulted, during which the vault was locked, Smith's men holding the keys. Both men are now camping in the offices, each with a full force of deputies.

Says the Boers Will Win.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Jan. 15.—Boer Delegate Wessels, who addressed a large pro-Boer meeting here, spoke on the Boer invasion of Cape Colony. Said he: "Our supporters there include many English. Dewet has been in touch with the movements since September. We will win, if not this year, then next year. We will never submit to the British flag. The British market is already affected, and we hope Wall street will be also, until commerce joins with the common people in demanding the end of the war."

Hay About.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Hay was at the state department for the first time in a week, and although able to direct affairs, he still shows signs of the severe cold he has had for some time.

Awaits the Imperial Seal.

Peking, Jan. 15.—Prince Ching has notified Senor De Coloman, the Spanish minister, who is the doyen of the diplomatic corps, that the agreement has been signed, but that he did not expect to be able to present it to the foreign envoys before Wednesday owing to the difficulty of obtaining the imperial seal, which, he asserted, is in the Forbidden City, and in the private apartments of the emperor. He said also that a personal order from the emperor would be required before those who have the seal in charge would deliver it even to Prince Ching.

Bent on a Lynching.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 15.—Fred Alexander, the negro who assaulted Miss Eva Roth in this city last Saturday, was formally charged with the murder of Pearl Forbes, the factory girl who was assaulted and killed by her assailant in this city Nov. 6. While the excitement aroused by the assault on Miss Roth has abated somewhat, the vigilance committee is determined to lynch Alexander when he is taken from the penitentiary.

Pittsburg Miners.

Pittsburg, Jan. 15.—The coal miners of the Pittsburg district opened their annual convention here with 88 delegates present. Nothing was done beyond organizing and appointing committees. After adjournment President Dolan said an advance on machine mining would certainly be asked, but whatever scale the Ohio men secure the Pittsburg men will be satisfied with.

Scaffolding Gave Way.

Jamestown, N. Y., Jan. 15.—A serious accident occurred at the Jamestown waterworks pumping station. Nine men were at work on a scaffolding over a deep reservoir when the framework gave way and they fell 30 feet into the reservoir, which was only shallow water. Nearly every one had broken bones and bruises, four being fatally injured, it is feared.

PATTERSON WON OUT.

Colorado Fusionists' Candidate For United States Senator.

Denver, Jan. 15.—The joint caucus of the fusion members of the legislature decided to support Thomas M. Patterson of Denver for United States senator to succeed Senator A. E. Wolcott. There are 91 fusionists in the legislature, including Democrats, Populists and Silver Republicans, and of these there were 76 present. Surprise was occasioned by the announcement that ex-Governor Charles S. Thomas, who has been Mr. Patterson's leading opponent, had withdrawn from the race. His name did not go before the caucus. The total vote of the legislature on the joint ballot is 100. Mr. Patterson was born in Ireland, Nov. 4, 1840, and with his parents he came to America in 1853. He is an attorney by profession, and owns a controlling interest in the Rocky Mountain News. He served in congress as a territorial delegate from this state. Mr. Patterson is a Populist and an ardent advocate of the white metal.

Situation in Delaware.

Dover, Del., Jan. 15.—Two distinct caucuses were held over the contest for United States senators from Delaware. The Democrats met and nominated Willard Saulsbury for the senatorial vacancy. For the full term to succeed United States Senator Richard R. Kenney, Mr. Kenney was nominated and the Democrats resolved to stand together. It is believed however, that on a deal with the regular Republicans to beat Addicks, the Democrats will go into caucus again for a Democratic nominee to run with the regular Republican nominee. The 29 Republicans did not come to any agreement, and a long deadlock seems inevitable.

Professor Resigned.

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 15.—The recent dismissal of Dr. Ross, professor of economics, from Stanford university, has a sequel in the resignation of Professor George F. Howard, head of the department of history. During the Ross incident Professor Howard took a strong stand in Ross' behalf, asserting that his dismissal was due to corporate influence. President David Starr Jordan addressed a letter to Dr. Howard requesting a satisfactory apology for what he (Dr. Jordan) considered a breach of courtesy. Dr. Howard declined and tendered his resignation.

Attacks of Wolves.

Men Have Ugly Case on Hands.

TOLD BY THE CABMAN.

Midnight Ride of Jennie Bosschietter and Its Revolting Termination.

PATERSON MURDER CASE NOW ON.

Jury Secured Without Delay and Important Witnesses Examined. Day's Record of Crime and Casualty.

New York, Jan. 15.—The trial of Walter T. McAllister, Andrew Campbell and William A. Death, three of the four men accused of the murder of Jennie Bosschietter, a mill girl of Paterson, N. J., under circumstances revolting in their utter lack of humane considerations, commenced before Judge Dixon in the Passaic county (N. J.) court of oyer and terminer. George J. Kerr, the fourth man under indictment, was not in the court, as he has been granted a separate trial on the ground that he was not present when the fatal dose was administered to the girl.

Before the trial was begun it was expressed that at least two days would be necessary to complete the jury, but Judge Dixon carried the proceedings on with such vigor that within an hour after the court was called to order he had impaneled his 12 jurors and heard the opening lines of the address of the prosecuting attorney. The remainder of the day saw four of the principal witnesses in the case questioned. Mrs. Nina Bosschietter, the mother of the unfortunate girl, was one; her daughter Susie another. Christopher Saal, the proprietor of the saloon where it is alleged the drug was administered to the girl, was the third, and Gus Schultorpe, the hack driver of the horrible midnight ride, was the last. Mother and daughter told of Jennie's prosaic life at home and at the mill. Christopher Saal testified that he owned the saloon at Bridget and River streets. McAllister was in his place the night of Oct. 18. Campbell was with him. McAllister ordered drinks and carried them into the rear room. Later on he went into the rear room. McAllister, Campbell, Death and a girl were seated at a table. McAllister ordered a bottle of champagne. Witness carried it and glasses into the room. He then had to go to the cellar, and when he emerged the party was gone. "McAllister, the next morning, said to me, 'that girl is dead,' I said, 'I have nothing to do with it.' McAllister said I would not give them away if any one came around. He said even if a big reward were offered I should stick by him."

Hackman Schultorpe said on the night of Oct. 18 a young man came to him and engaged his victoria. The man was George Kerr. Kerr told him a party of four would use the hack and ordered him to drive to Saal's saloon. In a little while the four men, McAllister, Campbell, Death and Kerr, came out carrying a woman. The woman was placed in the rear seat. The witness was told to drive out along the Goettle road. The place where he was ordered to stop was a clear one with no bushes. All four men left the carriage. They lifted the girl out about as they lifted her in. He had thrown the blanket on his horse. One of the men took it off and it was carried into the darkness where the woman had been borne. Kerr only was exempt from participation in the assault which the hack driver described. Then the girl was carried back to the hack and placed on the rear seat. At that time the girl's head was hanging far back. The witness then told of the drive back to Paterson, of the examination by the physician, which ended with the remark: "Boys, I can do nothing for you."

The men ordered him to drive back across the river. The witness then told of the disposal of the body where it was found. He drove the four men back. McAllister and Kerr left the hack first, and the former handed him $10 and said: "You know what to do, keep your mouth shut."

Ocean Telephony.

New York, Jan. 15.—According to the statements of Michael Idvorsky Pupin, adjunct professor of mechanics in Columbia university, the American Bell Telephone and Telegraph company has paid him instead of the $200,000 as originally stated, nearly $500,000 for his recent invention of a system by which ocean telephony is made possible. This is in addition to the annual royalty of $25,000 during the life of the patents. Professor Pupin discovered that the insertion of eight induction coils to every mile of wire would overcome all resistance to the currents.

TO HAVANA

Suspect Neeley Will Soon Be Taken For Trial.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The United States supreme court announced its decision in the case of C. W. F. Neeley, charged with the embezzlement of the public funds of Cuba while acting as financial agent of the department of posts of that island, holding that Neeley is subject to extradition. Cuba is held to be foreign territory and the military occupation by the United States; constitutional. Steps will now be taken by the war department to secure Neeley's removal from New York to Havana for trial.

Defies the Troops.

Troyes, France, Jan. 15.—An enormous crowd gathered at Saint Savain near the house of the man Coquard, who, last Friday, when pursued by the police, shut himself in the garret with a quantity of arms and ammunition and threatened to kill any one who approached. The house is now cordoned by troops and gendarmes at a distance of 500 yards. The killing by Coquard Sunday of a citizen who, on his own responsibility, attempted to make terms with the fugitive, has terrorized the spectators. The gendarmes fired shots into the building in the hope of inducing him to appear, but there was no response, and it is believed he escaped or hanged himself.

Extradition of Kentuckians.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 15.—The question of whether or not a requisition will be presented to Governor Durbin of Indiana at once asking for extradition of ex-Governor W. S. Taylor and other Kentuckians now in that state accused of complicity in the assassination of William Goebel is being agitated, now that Governor Mount is out of office. It is generally believed that Governor Durbin would not honor a requisition. It is the general opinion that no steps will be taken till a decision is rendered in the Howard and Powers cases now pending in the court of appeals.

Fighting at West Point.

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 15.—The committee of the house of representatives resumed their investigation into hazing at West Point. Cadet Lewis Brown, Jr., of Rhode Island, one of Cadet Keller's seconds in his fight with Oscar Booz, was examined at great length, but no new evidence was brought out. Witness defended the West Point fighting code, but admitted that fighting would cease if cadets knew they would be expelled for taking part in fights. He thought also that an oath against fighting would stop the practice.

Vessels Driven Ashore.

Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, Jan. 15.—A hurricane swept over this island and during the storm a number of vessels were driven ashore. Among these was the French steamer Irouaddy (from Marseilles Dec. 10 for Mauritius), which had a hole stove in her bottom, and the British steamer Mutra (from Calcutta Nov. 30 for Colombo and Mauritius). The others were smaller craft. The damage inland was not serious.

Newfoundland Fisheries.

St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 15.—Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, has applied to the colonial ministry to renew for the present year the modus vivendi respecting the French shore question in order to enable negotiations to be conducted with France during the coming summer for a settlement of the question. The cabinet is not willing to agree to this suggestion unless some definite proposals are made.

Kitchener's Charge False.

Grand Rapids, Jan. 15.—Loutser Wessels, one of the Boer envoys to this city, said regarding General Kitchener's dispatch as to the flogging of three peace commissioners by General Dewet, near Lindley, last week, and the shooting of one of them: "I am certain the report is false. Such an act is contrary to Dewet's character and contrary to the nature and policy of the Boers."

IT'S JUST LEAKING OUT.

British Suffered Heavily as Result of the Boer Attacks.

SUPPRESSED BAD NEWS.

The Official Report of the Fight at Belfast is Bad.

BRITISH LOST NEAR TWO HUNDRED.

This Does Not Include the Losses at Other Points Where Simultaneous Attacks Were Made by the Boer Forces.

Exclusive to The Daily Banner by the American Press Association.

London, Jan. 15.—The official list of the British casualties in the recent fighting at Belfast shows 29 killed, 53 wounded and 72 missing. This does not account for the British losses at other points of simultaneous attacks by the Boers, namely, Wonderfontein, Nootgedacht and Wildfontein, and shows that affairs in that quarter were more serious than Lord Kitchener reported them to be.

Fight Prospects Bright.

Cincinnati, Jan. 15.—The promoters of the Jeffries-Ruhlin contest here Feb. 15 are having their inning. The Evangelical alliance called off their jollification meeting as premature. The Saengerfest Athletic association are proceeding with their work at the hall. But the most important development was the signing of a petition by over 100 members of the chamber of commerce in favor of pulling off the fight here as scheduled. The business men are nearly all with the Saengerfest club for the fight. Unless the political leaders now give an ultimatum against the Saengerfest Athletic club the fight will be pulled off here.

Public Halls Closed.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—The city council adopted an ordinance closing all theaters, halls and other places of amusement or gathering in Chicago, until such buildings have been inspected by the building department and pronounced safe. The step was taken in consequence of the panic in the West Twelfth street Turner hall last Saturday, when five persons were killed and nearly 40 injured.

Cuban Convention.

Havana, Jan. 15.—Several members of the Cuban constitutional convention assert that one of the delegates has received a letter from a recognized authority in Washington saying that, if the committee completed the draft of the constitution before the middle of February and presented the same to congress, it would be considered during the present session. The receipt of the letter appears to have stimulated the convention to an extra effort to bring about an immediate conclusion of its labors.

Vicious Bout.

Louisville, Jan. 15.—Dave Sullivan of Brooklyn and Kid" Broad of Cleveland fought a 25-round draw at the auditorium here. They weighed in at 126 pounds, and from the start the men seemed evenly matched. At the end of the last round Tim Hurst, the referee, said he had nothing to do but call the fight an even break. The men punched each other viciously.

East Indian Army.

London, Jan. 15.—"Owing to the drain for South Africa," says the Calcutta correspondent of The Times, "the India army is now 9,000 below its normal strength and contains 15,000 men who ought to have been relieved and sent home. There are also 5,000 others who will soon be in the same position."

Town Burned.

Santiago de Cuba, Jan. 15.—Banes, a small town on the railroad between Gibara and Holguin, was totally destroyed by fire. Some 50 houses and warehouses were burned. Chicago, Jan. 15.—Another ocean-to-ocean railway scheme is reported to be taking form. It involves two Chicago lines, the Grand Trunk and the Wisconsin Central, the former being the father of the movement, and provides for the Grand Trunk's assumption of control of the Wisconsin Central. This is the route in mind; Portland, Me., to Chicago, Grand Trunk; Chicago to Ashland, Wis., Wisconsin Central; Ashland to Duluth, Northern Pacific or a new line; Duluth to Winnipeg, line proposed by a syndicate headed by William McKenzie, and Winnipeg to Vancouver, line projected by James Dunsmuir.

Special to The Daily Banner.

Mt. Liberty, Ohio, January 14.—Last week a number of gentlemen from Lock visited the farm of Mr. Tom Thatcher, on the hunt of English sparrows. Two young men of Lock had gotten up a club of men for the purpose of killing English sparrows. There were 16 men on a side and the side that got the least number was to pay for an oyster supper. Thursday night the contest closed and it was found after the birds had been counted that one side had 1,595 birds, the other 1,025, making a total of 3,220 birds killed. It has not been decided yet as to what date the supper will be had, but it is expected to be in the near future.

AMUSEMENTS.

A Royal Box. Considerable interest is being manifested over the presentation in this city of The Royal Box which is to be seen at the Woodward theater Thursday evening, Jan. 17th. Mr. Andrew Robson portraying the title role. It is now about three years since this clever adaptation of Charles Coghlan's was presented, and upon that occasion it made one of the most pronounced successes of the season. It will be remembered as the romantic play founded on Alexander Dumas' celebrated drama Kean. The late Charles Coghlan adapted, remodelled and re-wrote the piece until finally placed before the critics of both press and public, it was pronounced one of the rarest dramatic successes in years. For four months in New York it crowded the Fifth Avenue theater, and then entered into another successful run in 1898 at the Garden theater. The Royal Box is an episode in the life of one of England's most distinguished actors, and who was called in the play James Clarence. The scenes are varied and intensely interesting, taking the audience as they do, through diplomatic halls, taverns, green rooms and the stage of the famous Drury Lane theater. Its characters are of all classes from the Prince of Wales, actresses, inn-keepers, down to the common constables. Its serious interest is the real life of the man, whose profession is the mimicry of life for the enjoyment of others, and its end is to show the effect upon a naturally noble nature of the sham favors of a selfish coquette and the true affection of a royal innocent girl. The leading part in the play is that of the actor Clarence of the Drury Lane theater in 1810 and who at the time the play begins is, or who fancies he is in love with the wife of the Swedish Ambassador at the Court of George III, who makes an appointment with her in his dressing room at the theater. His jealousy is aroused by the admiration of the Prince of Wales for the countess, and he publicly insults the Prince of Wales at the performance. Incidentally there is a remarkably clever scene in which a stage struck girl, whom her guardian is trying to force into a detestable marriage, comes to Clarence for help and advice and he gives her a sound wholesome lecture, which has been quoted by the press of this continent as being one of the brightest and most valuable thoughts that has ever been given to the stage for many years. While the company will be of a strength befitting their play, special reference should be made here to the fact that Mr. Andrew Robson, a rising young romantic actor, plays the leading role.

A Good Sale. The seat sale for The Royal Box, which appears at the Woodward Thursday night, was opened at Tissot's Monday morning. The sale started with a rush, and is by far the best advance sale of the season. There yet remains a number of good seats, but persons who expect to attend the performance had best not delay in securing seats.

Worthington Butler, by his attorney, Lewis B. Houck, on Tuesday began a proceedings against Mary R. Butler, asking divorce and custody of a minor child. In his petition he makes the allegation that they were married November 7, 1896, and that one child, now three years of age, was born. He charges his wife with willful absence, alleging that she left her home in Union township over three years ago, and has since refused to live with him, or care for their child. Besides divorce and custody of the child, he asks the court to invest him securely in all property which is now in their name.

Lawrence C. Penn has filed an answer to the suit of Charles S. Fischer to recover $205 alleged to be due on a piano sold to Penn. The answer brings out an unusual phase. Mr. Penn avers that he purchased the piano August 23, 1899, on terms by which it was to be shipped to him for thirty days for inspection and approval. He then states that he never received the piano, that on September 17, 1899, while the piano was in the possession of the C. A. & C. railroad, it was consumed by the fire that destroyed the freight house of the railroad company in this city. He therefore asks to be discharged from further connection with the suit. Lewis B. ## The Park as a Site at Granville Has Been Looked at—However the Board is In Favor of Meeting Here as Long as Mr. Chase Controls Hiawatha Park.

The Baptists will not purchase Lake Hiawatha park. Such was the conclusion reached at the meeting of the executive board held in Granville Monday afternoon.

Rev. C. J. Rose of this city was present at the meeting and states to the Banner that the sentiment all over the state seemed to be opposed to the purchase. As stated in the Banner Monday the replies to the cards sent throughout the state showed there was much opposition in the matter. The executive board thought it would not be wise to purchase the park for several reasons. Last year many persons all over the state subscribed for the endowment fund and as several have not yet paid their pledges the board thought it would be unwise to ask for more money.

The members of the board were heartily in favor of continuing the meetings at the park as long as the grounds could be secured. The Baptists all over the state are also in favor of this. Manager P. B. Chase has assured the executive board that as long as he controls the park the Baptists will be permitted the use of it, but in case he should sell then new grounds will no doubt have to be secured.

In view of this the board visited grounds at Granville, Monday, which Rev. Rose says can be put in excellent condition. If the assemblies should be held there it would be a great advantage as a summer school could be held and the Denison college buildings could be used. In case the park is sold this location may be selected.

Rev. Rose says next summer's meetings will be held at the park without a doubt, and the best program ever given has been arranged.

Bet of 1848 is Recalled by a Letter

Written by Jacob Jewell, of Decorah, Iowa, to Mr. Lewis Britton, of Howard—Former Resident.

Mr. Lewis Britton, of Howard, is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Jacob Jewell, of Decorah, Iowa, which will be read with no little interest by a number of the older residents of Knox county, who yet remember Mr. Jewell when he was a resident of this county. The letter runs:

Decorah, Iowa, January 4—I often wonder what has become of some of the old time friends in Knox county. I would like to know if old Daniel McGugin is living, likewise Barnet Fletcher, and if so, where. Is Horace Critchfield still living in Howard, and how is he?

We are all well here. I am taking it easy, do a few chores in the morning and go to town almost every day. My three boys are all living and married. My oldest boy, Ben, is living on a farm of his own and one of the boys is living on the farm where I lived when you were here. The third boy lives at home on the farm with me. They all have families and are getting on well.

I suppose Millwood is there yet, and nearly dried up. Give my regards to William White. Well, we were cleaned out on Bryan, but I guess we will have to stand it. I suppose you remember the betting we did one night at Sam Welker's tavern back in 1848.

Uncle Jim Headington died Friday morning and was buried Sunday. A large number of people were there, mostly relatives, there being present a number of great-grandchildren. He was past 89 years, so you see he had lived to a good old age. Give my regards to all old friends and tell them I would like to be with them again to talk over old times.

Very truly,
JACOB JEWELL.

Judge Evans of Columbus Was One Of

The Pair, and Judge "Kansas" Smith the Other—Wide Publication of Sells Case Instrumental in Renewing Friendship.

[Columbus Press-Post]

Away back in the early 60's, two men now occupying important positions of trust and honor were schoolmates and college chums together at Kenyon college. The two men referred to are Hon. Eli P. Evans, senior judge of the common pleas court of this county, and Hon. W. R. Smith, associate justice of the supreme court of Kansas. Since 1867 these two men have never met nor have they had any communication with one another until a short time ago. Eli Evans and "Kansas" Smith, that being the name the present associate justice went by while at college, were great chums in old Kenyon college and their experiences as related by Judge Evans were very entertaining if not to say interesting. In speaking of them Judge Evans said that "Kansas" Smith was a handsome, brilliant and jolly student, having all his classmates as friends.

A few days ago Judge Evans received a letter postmarked Topeka, Kansas, and bearing the stamp and seal of the Supreme court of that state. The letter was addressed to Hon. Eli P. Evans, judge of the Common Pleas court, and signed by W. R. Smith, associate justice of the Supreme court of Kansas. In the letter the writer stated that he had observed in certain papers that one Judge Eli P. Evans was trying the Sells divorce case, and he wrote to inquire if this Eli P. Evans was the same one who attended Kenyon college in 1866-67. If it was, the writer, who at that time was known as "Kansas" Smith, would like to open up a correspondence with the Columbus judge, as they were schoolmates together in college.

Judge Evans answered this letter today. Among other things he informed Justice Smith that he was well acquainted with "Kansas" Smith, who attended school at Kenyon in 1867, but he did not know Justice W. R. Smith, and if "Kansas" and Justice were the same, he was to a certain extent surprised. Justice Smith asked Judge Evans to identify himself and from the tone of the letter sent to the Kansas justice, there is no doubt but the Franklin county official has established his identity beyond a doubt. In his letter to Justice Smith, Judge Evans recounted a great many of their experiences together in old Kenyon, experiences that will long be remembered.

Thirty-three years have gone by and thus today in the going down of their lives, after both have attained honor and distinction at the hands of their fellow citizens and have made records both should feel proud of, two men who have not met one another for over thirty-three years, have again in spirit at least met and have renewed old acquaintances.

home. His brother, John, found him in a helpless state of intoxication near the house and brought quilts and comforters to him, when he found it impossible to get him to the house.
On Saturday morning Mrs. Matheny found him dead, and it is supposed that he froze to death.

FILIPINO CHIEF QUILTS.

Surrenders at Iloilo With Officers, Men, Arms and Ammunition.

BEGINNING OF THE END ON PANAY.

Marauding Still in Progress There, But Unorganized—Military Men Hopeful—General MacArthur's Dispatch.

Washington, Jan. 15.—General MacArthur reports the surrender of Delgado, commander-in-chief of Iloilo province, Panay, surrendered Jan. 11 to Brigadier General Robert P. Hughes, with 4 officers, 21 men and 14 rifles. His command is much scattered. Other surrenders are expected during the next few days. "This signifies the end of organized armed resistance in Iloilo province, Panay."

The dispatch gave much satisfaction to the war department, although the command surrendered by Delgado is not a large one. It also was noted by the officials that the assurances were for the end of "organized armed resistance," indicating that there was considerable of the unorganized marauding still in progress.

Military Hopeful.

Manilla, Jan. 15.—Optimism is taking the place of conservatism among the military men here, the cause being the numerous surrenders, captures and destruction of insurgent camps, coupled with the increasing understanding of the Americans' intentions among the natives. The cutting of communications and supplies has destroyed the remnants of the insurgents' organization. The inhabitants of the towns are disinclined to any longer contribute secretly to a hopeless cause, and it is generally believed that the pacification of a sufficient number of provinces to inaugurate a general scheme of provincial government will be accomplished before many more weeks have elapsed.

Deported Filipinos.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Root said that all the Filipino insurgent leaders deported to Guam will be placed in the custody of the naval forces in control of that island, who would be responsible for their control and safe keeping. He said he had no idea of the number of such prisoners, but did not believe it was large enough to necessitate any increase in the naval force for guard or other duty in connection with their captivity.

Looks Like Quay.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 15.—There is every indication that the bitter struggle for United States senator will terminate with the election of Colonel M. S. Quay, the nominee of the joint Republican caucus. The Democrats will vote for Colonel James M. Guffey of Pittsburg, and the anti-Quay Republicans are expected to distribute their votes among the several "favorite sons."

After Five Years.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—After a search of five years George Lepper was arrested here by federal officers on a charge of violating the treasury laws. He is wanted on the charge of raising $1 and $2 bills to notes of $5 and $10 denomination. Lepper forfeited his bail while awaiting trial in federal court in 1895.

$5,000 REWARD

Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass., $5,000 which will be paid to any person who will show that the following testimonials are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writers' special permission. —LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

How shall a mother who is weak and sick with some female trouble bear healthy children? How anxious women ought to be to give their children the blessing of a good constitution!

Many women long for a child to bless their home, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs, they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the parts, curing all displacements and inflammation.

Actual sterility in women is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all expectant or would-be mothers.

Mrs. A. D. Jarret, Belmont, Ohio, writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I must write and tell you what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. Before taking your medicine I was unable to carry a babe to maturity, having lost two—one at six months and one at seven. The doctor said next time I would die, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I did not die, but am the proud mother of a six months old girl baby. She weighs nineteen pounds and has never seen a sick day in her life. She is the delight of our home."

Mrs. Whitney's Gratitude.

From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my mind to try your Vegetable Compound, and was soon relieved. The doctor said I never would be able to go my full time and have a living child, as I was constitutionally weak. I had lost a baby at seven months and half. The next time I continued to take your Compound, and I said then, if I went my full time and my baby lived to be three months old, I should send a letter to you. My baby is now seven months old, and is as healthy and hearty as any one could wish. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I was so bad that I did not dare to go away from home to stay any length of time. Praise God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and may others who are suffering do as I did and find relief. Wishing you success in all you do in the past, and may many homes be brightened as mine has been.—Mrs. L. Z. WHITNEY, 4 Flint St., Somerville, Mass.

The medicine that cures the ills of women is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A RAW YOUNG LAWYER.

His First Case Introduced Him to Contempt of Court.

Some of the members of the bar were discussing contempt cases because of a recent notable event in the state, and one of the little coterie related a personal experience.

"I read law at home and had my examinations through a little country lawyer who knew a great deal, but never had a big case and was notorious for his ability in abusing justices of the peace. It may seem a preposterous statement, but I had never heard or thought of such a thing as contempt of court when I had my first professional experience in a common pleas court. No sooner had the opposition attorney made an objection than the judge ruled against me.

"I proceeded to inform him that he was wrong, that he knew he was wrong and that I wished he would quit his pettifoggery. The lawyers in attendance were temporarily petrified; the venerable judge glared at me over his glasses, finally smiled in a forgiving sort of way and told me to proceed. Very soon there was another well taken objection, and again he ruled against me. This practically took the props from under my case, and I went at the judge as my instructor had been accustomed to go at a justice of the peace in a back township.

"Your honor," I declaimed, 'is a political accident. In the eternal fitness of things you should be digging coal or cleaning out underbrush. You have no more sense of justice than a Zulu chief of mercy. Thank heaven there is a higher judicial tribunal in this state that—' But there I was halted by a fine of $200 or 90 days in jail. The judge took me to his private room, where he learned my story and remitted the fine. To pay $200 at that time would have paperized me. I now have quite a reputation for never rubbing the court the wrong way."—Detroit Free Press.

Particular About His Name.

"Don't drag my name into print in connection with this absurd affair!" cried the indignant citizen. "But if you do be sure to spell out my middle name in full."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Man With a Paper.

The man with a paper during the morning and evening hours in New York city is legion. There are about 400,000 of him. A man without a newspaper on an elevated train, in a street car, aboard a ferryboat or in a railway coach, morning or evening going to or from business is conspicuous.

He is a rare bird indeed, and looks as though he were wrecked and floating alone on a sea of tossing papers. He is sure to feel lonesome and almost outside the pale of civilization, for his fellow men, with their faces to their regular diet of daily news, hardly notice him.

If you have time to spare a moment from your morning paper, just look about you, in car or boat, observe and listen. You will see every mortal man—with often hundreds in view at one time—religiously bowing at the altar of the news in silence that is only broken by a continuous rustle as the scores of leaves are turned. There is no more devout newspaper reading community than is found in the metropolis.—New York Herald.

Even Buds Grow Old.

According to Professor Adam Sedgwick, says The Youth's Companion, there is reason to believe that buds share in the growing old of the parent plant. He illustrates his meaning in this way: Suppose the average life of an individual plant—say a tree—to be 100 years, then a bud removed when the parent plant is 50 years old will also be virtually 50 years of age, and if transplanted by grafting will be able to live on the graft only 50 years more.
