ELECTION NOTES.

Which Democrats Can Take Without Any Discount.

Geeddes' majority over Horne is 1671!

There is every encouragement now for Democrats to remain in Ohio.

Every township in Holmes county went Democratic at the late election.

Isn't Mr. Koons ashamed that he is a member of the Fokker Legislature?

The official vote in the 12th (Ross) district, gives Neal (Dem.) a majority of 3.

Pike township has a mighty big Democratic majority, but it seems hard to get it out.

While the Republican majority in Huron county was 1,100, Geeddes beat Horne 27.

The "Ohio cyclone," as it is called, has already been felt in New York and Pennsylvania.

The last Holmes county farmer was handsomely illustrated. Estill felt "good all over."

The Democratic gain in the Seventeenth (Updegraff) district is 2261 over the vote of last year.

To quote a remark of several of our exchanges: "Governor Foster didn't know it was loaded."

Democratic bolting in Holmes county has been tried frequently, but it has never been successful.

Quite a large number of colored men voted an unscratched Democratic ticket at the late election.

The "grand old Republican party" cannot "talk with pride" to their late overwhelming defeat.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: It seems that Foster ran so fast that Everett couldn't keep up.

The "Independent Temperance" party in Wayne county polled over 1200 votes at the late election.

Charley Foster got well rebuked for his insult in calling the Democrats "drunkards" and "prostitutes."

There was close sharing in some of the Ohio districts. Three were carried by less than two hundred votes.

Now, come on with your Thanksgiving Proclamation, Governor Foster. The Democrats will all attend.

A few words about the "dead Democracy" would be interesting reading in the Republican papers just now.

The Philadelphia Times makes the remark that "the Ohio pretzel seems to have taken the Prohibition cake."

Deat Hubbell's "loot" saved Jim Robinson's bacon, but it didn't save eleven other Republican candidates.

What will be the next Republican "loot"? What new device or scarecrow will the humbuggers try out?

One clown by the name of Horne will be enough in Congress. The other will be permitted to "cheese it" at home.

Crawford county gave a Democratic majority ranging from 1899 to 1944. Why didn't they make it an even 2000?

The Democratic gain in Hamilton county was fourteen thousand. Thanks to Deacon Smith and Charley Foster.

The "rebellion" was a little too formidable to be put down by Foster's tongue. He should have called out the militia.

A report comes from Cleveland that Deacon Ed. Cowles is going to quit politics, and become a minister of the gospel.

We think Clark, of the Newark American, had better stop running for Congress. They have fooled him twice too often already.

The Pittsburgh Post asks: Has the Hubbell corruption, blackmailing scheme proved a paying investment? Let Ohio answer.

The Democrats all over the State are jubilant over the result of the late election. They feel good, and have a right to "holer."

The crop of Democratic chickens this year has been immense. They commenced crowing as soon as they were out of the shell.

Dr. Updegraff's official majority in the Jefferson-Belmont district is 770. Two years ago it was 2,800—a falling off of over 2,000.

The Democrats will hereafter occupy the court room on election nights, and will not have to stand down in the hall or out of doors.

It took $1,200 to get Gen. "Jumbo" Robinson 42 votes in Knox county—that being the number he received more than Mr. Townsend.

The Seneca Advertiser brought out its entire crop of rosters last week—54 of them, and all Tiffin was startled by their terrific crowing.

Geeddes' majority in Ashland county is 1003, while the balance of the Democratic ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 692 to 886.

Charley Foster will not succeed George H. Pendleton in the Senate, nor will George K. Nash step into Foster's gubernatorial brogue.

Kelser was beaten in Springfield, where he lives, nearly two hundred, while the Republican State ticket had nearly four hundred majority.

The "Free Trade and Pauper Labor" scare, which was tried in some of the manufacturing districts, didn't make a single Republican vote.

The defeat of Ben Butterworth, the Congressional blackguard, is a source of rejoicing to decent men of all parties throughout the country.

Mack, of the Sandusky Register, attributes Tuesday's surprise party to "a fool legislator, unwise leaders, and demagoguery of Charley Foster."

The Cleveland Herald (Rep.) says that "a Republican would go four blocks out of his way to dodge a bass drum or procession," on election night.

Richland county elected the entire Democratic ticket, by majorities ranging from 1080 to 2500. The result for Congress was simply Horrible.

Lots of Republicans have come to us and said: "We didn't vote for Beach, but we were glad he is elected. We want the BANNER to do the advertising."

Foster says the Republicans failed to get out their votes. This is not the case. They were all out; but a large portion of them voted the Democratic ticket.

The Cleveland Leader says "whisky has won." This is a beautiful compliment to some thirty thousand men who have heretofore voted the Republican ticket.

The Republicans blame the Prohibitionists with being the cause of their defeat.

feat. The Prohibition party existed when C. Foster was running the saloons.

The Chillicothe Advertiser is jubilant over the redemption of Ross county.

The average Democratic majority is about 450—being a gain of 670 since last year.

Perry county is the only dark spot in Ohio. It gave Townsend a majority of 23, being a Republican gain of 522.

What's the matter down there, any how?

The Knox county Greenbackers are becoming "small by degrees and beautifully less" every year. The highest vote they were able to poll at the late election was 23.

Townsend's majority in Morrow county (official) is 200. Robinson's majority is 191. The entire Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 10 to 449.

We congratulate our friend Dave Page of Akron, upon his election to Congress from the Twentieth district, which had a Republican majority of nearly 3,000. His majority is 116.

The Defiance Democrat was the handsomest pictorial Democratic paper received at this office since the late election, it having no less than thirty-six appropriate illustrations.

Bro. Matthews, of the New Philadelphia Democrat, assigns to Hon. M. A. Foran, of Cleveland, the position of "Congressman-at-Large." We think LeFevre is the largest man of the delegation.

A desperate fight was made against our young friend Bob Montgomery, the Democratic candidate for Prosecuting Attorney in Franklin county, but he was sailing through by a majority of 1,085.

Doc Taylor will hold an inquest over the remains of the "late lamented" Republican party, and will string together two columns of words to tell about the "deep damnation of its taking off."

"Circumjacent" McClure now wishes that he had remained at the respectable business of editing a county newspaper instead of attempting to break into Congress in the Democratic State of Ohio.

The Democrats made a gain of one hundred in Delaware county, while they elected their Prosecuting Attorney, and came within 23 votes of electing the Judiciary Director. Powell's majority was 9 votes.

The Result in Knox County.

The official abstract of the vote polled in Knox county at the late election is given on the fourth page of this week's BANNER. It will be seen that while most of the townships did splendidly, others failed to do their duty, by the Democratic vote not being all out.

Pike has heretofore been the Banner Township in the way of giving the largest Democratic majority, but to Harrison township, this year, belongs that distinguished honor, having rolled up a majority of 134, for Secretary of State. The majorities in the large Democratic townships at the October election were as follows: Harrison, 134; Pike, 110; Jackson, 98; Butler, 68; Brown, 50. Pike could, and should, have given a majority of from 140 to 150 for the entire Democratic ticket, had her Democracy done their whole duty, but from some cause or other it appears that some 40 Democrats failed to put in an appearance at the polls.

From the table found in the Reports of the Secretary of State, we gather the following figures in regard to the vote of Pike township since 1872:

Dem.	Rep.	Dem.	Rep.
1872—Secretary of State	207	69	138
1873—Governor	207	63	144
1874—Governor	206	63	143
1875—Secretary of State	165	30	135
1876—Governor	213	60	153
1877—Governor	224	81	143
1878—Governor	203	55	148
1879—Secretary of State	196	49	147
1880—Governor	233	79	154
1881—Governor	234	84	150
1882—Secretary of State	177	69	110

We present these figures for the consideration of our friends in Democratic Pike, and we hope they will ponder them well and made up their minds that hereafter they will bring up their gallant township to the proud position it occupied in former years.

The Election of Judge Geddes.

The election of Hon. George W. Geddes in the Fourteenth district by a majority of 1900, is the grandest political victory on record. That district was carved out by Senator Horne for the express purpose of legislating Judge Geddes out of Congress, and giving his seat to the Wellington cheese dealer, who fondly imagined that the usual Republican majority of 2183 would surely pull him through. But Judge Geddes represented a good cause, and was personally popular with the people, while Horne represented a corrupt sinking party, and had hosts of enemies in the Republican ranks. The Republican papers in the district, more particularly the Mansfield Herald, teamed with the vilest abuse of Judge Geddes, while the Democratic papers treated Mr. Horne with fairness. The result was that Geddes ran ahead, while Horne ran behind in every precinct in the district—the most notable change being in the strong Republican townships in Lorain and Medina counties. Well may Judge Geddes and his friends in all parts of the State feel proud of such a splendid victory. Higher honors yet await him.

Gov. Foster is working like a Trojan. When victory comes, the Governor must be allotted his full share of the honor.—Cleveland Herald, before the election.

Yes, Governor Foster "worked like a Trojan," he made an "issue" for his party in direct opposition to the decision of the Republican Supreme Court of Ohio, and his blind followers imagined that he would lead them on to victory. And surely Foster will be "allotted his full share of the honor" of burying his party so deep that the hand of resurrection will never be able to find it.

John I. Davenport thinks he has discovered the man who forged the Morey letter. That is the same old story. He had better try and discover the rascal whose forgeries nominated Judge Folger in New York.

The scrub women and messenger boys in the Departments at Washington, who are asked to contribute to the Pennsylvania corruption fund, complain that too much of their money was wasted in Ohio.

McKinley and his friends are very angry in the Columbian district, and they threaten to "spot the bolters in the future." But the bolters are going to keep up their organization, and put them at defiance.

It is stated by authority that Secretary Folger has not tendered his resignation, and will not before the last of December, and only at that time in the event of his election as Governor of New York.

The Cincinnati Commercial (Rep.) calls Charley Foster "an extinct volcano." Wouldn't a "punctured gas-bag" be a more appropriate designation?

The thingamabob who writes letters to the Enquirer over the signature of "Eickaway," asserts that Knox county defeated Mr. Powell, our candidate for Congress. This is not true. Notwithstanding the expenditure of thousands of dollars of Jay Hubbell's "loot" by the friends of Robinson, in Knox county, Powell only ran 7 votes behind Newman. Had the election been two weeks later, Powell would have been elected, as he was gaining ground every day. It was not Knox, but Hardin, that did the mischief. The Hardin county Democrat says: "Gen. Robinson owes his election to the three hundred Democrats who voted for him in Hardin county. They ought to be ashamed of themselves."

At the regular meeting of the Congressional Church Association, in the Brooklyn Tabernacle, last week, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, after delivering an address, started his audience by announcing from the pulpit that he then and there severed his connection with the Congressional Church, owing to radical differences in religious views between himself and the great body of his congregation. An effort has been made to induce him to reconsider and withdraw his resignation, and it is believed it will succeed. Notwithstanding Mr. Beecher's "eccentricities," he is very popular with his congregation.

Col. Bob Ingersoll, one of the attorneys for the Star Route, has published affidavits going to show that Government agents were engaged in the hellish work of bribing the jurors in the late trial at Washington, offering as high as $2,500 if jurors would vote for a conviction. The probabilities are that money was offered and paid on both sides in these cases. The only way to stop this infernal business is to drive the Republican party from power.

The Cleveland Herald says that the BANNER "discusses the election results with unexpected bitterness and anger." Our friend on the Lake Shore is mistaken. He has read the BANNER through cross-eyed italics goggles. The editor of the BANNER is as serene as a summer's morning, and inexpressibly happy over the result of the late election.

Hon. Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, delivered a speech in Fremont Temple, Boston, a few evenings ago, in which he charged that the Republican party was responsible for the murder of President Garfield. Mr. Woodford has frequently been brought to Ohio to help the Republican party when its prospects appeared gloomy.

Foster says the fight shall go on, as he "will take no step backwards." And some of the Republican leaders declare that Foster must be repudiated and thrown overboard, if the party is to succeed hereafter. Oh, no! don't treat Foster that way. He's the Republican Boss, and he will run the machine to suit himself.

The Chillicothe Advertiser has entered upon its 524th volume. The present editors and proprietors, Messrs. Harper & Hunter, state that since they took possession of the paper the subscription list has increased nearly 50 per cent. This will be pleasing news to the friends of the young gentlemen.

The Cleveland Herald says that Judge Geddes "has the wish of his heart—to represent Oberlin in Congress." Good came out of Nazareth, and there is hope even for Oberlin. If they listen to the teachings of Judge Geddes, the people of Oberlin may yet have the scales removed from their eyes.

The Columbus Journal (Rep.) had a pretty string of editorial words about "October," on the day after the election, which moves us to ask: "Why is the Republican party like the present month? Do they give it up? Because—"

"It falls as the leaves fall, And dies in October."

The one hundredth birthday day of Daniel Webster was celebrated at Marshfield, near Boston, Mass., on Thursday last. It was a grand and imposing affair. Among the distinguished strangers present was President Arthur. A number of addresses were delivered.

A conference of the three branches of the Democratic party in the City of New York, after a long and earnest consultation, has agreed upon Mr. Franklin Edson as the Democratic candidate for Mayor. He is an active business man of high standing.

The following "big figures" represent the Democratic majorities for Secretary of State in several counties: Hamilton, 10,717; Cuyahoga, 2,694; Monroe, 2,114; Crawford, 1,903; Holmes, 1,699; Franklin, 1,621; Montgomery, 1,806.

We suppose we will have to "condone" Ben Butler, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, General Woodford, and the rest of them, who have acknowledged their past political sins, and have sought refuge in the Democratic life-boat.

Ohio will have a very able delegation in the next Congress. Such members as Geddes, Converse, Pollett, Hurd, Foran, LeFevre, Hill, Seney and Warner, will be an honor to their constituents and to the great State of Ohio.

When the Republicans assert that the "saloon influence" was exerted in behalf of the Democracy at the late election, it is simply an admission that heretofore the "saloon influence" kept the Republican party in power.

Murat Halstead is fearful that through the Ohio Waterloo the Republicans have lost control of the House of Representatives and possibly the Presidency, and lays the blame on Dick Foster and Charley Smith.

The Government employees who gave their money to Jay Hubbell to beat the Democracy, will surely not complain if they are invited to retire when the Democracy come into power.

When Charley Foster drove the whisky and lager beer drinkers out of the Republican party, he knocked down the props that have heretofore kept the party in power in Ohio.

Mrs. Langtry, the alleged English beauty, has sailed for New York. The fools and flunkies will now step to the front.

We know exactly how the Republicans feel since the late election. We have been there several times ourselves.

About half the Republicans you meet say they expected it, and are not sorry for the result.

Congressional Nominations.

Hon. John G. Carlisle has been re-nominated for Congress by acclamation in the Sixth district of Kentucky, by the Democrats.

The Democrats of the Second (Connecticut) district have nominated Charles L. Mitchell for Congress.

Mayor Lovering, of Lynn, has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Sixth (Massachusetts) district.

The Republicans of the Thirty-third (New York) district have nominated Dr. F. B. Brewer for Congress.

The Democrats of the Eighteenth (New York) district have nominated A. L. Ingham for Congress.

The Democrats of the Eighteenth (Pennsylvania) Congressional district nominated Francis F. Kimmel.

Portland Dispatch: "The Democratic Convention of Washington Territory nominated Judge Thomas Burke as delegate to Congress."

The Missouri Democratic State Convention ratified the nomination by the Republicans of James Gillilan for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Democratic platform declares for such a revision of the existing tariff as will bring about a gradual and systematic reduction of duties, and without injury to existing interests, will eventually result in the establishing of free trade as the permanent commercial policy of this country.

Election frauds are not to be tolerated hereafter in New York city. District Attorney McKoon is investigating the frauds that have been perpetrated within the past few years—those that are not outlawed—and especially those of 1880, with the intention of prosecuting the offenders. He asserts that he will prosecute without mercy any one, little or big, against whom he can procure evidence.

It is announced that the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate) Railroad, will be formally opened on Monday next, October 23d, between Buffalo and Chicago. Henry Monett, Esq., for many years prominently connected with the Pan Handle road, is the General Passenger Agent of the Nickel Plate, with headquarters at Cleveland.

On the "face of the returns" McKinley (Rep.) has a majority of 8 over Wallace (Dem.) in the Twelfth (Columbiana-Stark) district. Enough ballots were cast for "Major Wallace" to elect him but they were thrown out by the Republican trustees. Major Wallace will contest the election and a Democratic Congress will no doubt give him his seat.

Attorney General Brewster says that Bob Ingersoll's publications about the Government attempting to bribe the jurors in the Star Route trial, "is all a lie," and was put out for the purpose of breaking the force of an exposition that will come from the other side. They appear to be a sweet set, all round.

If the Democrats secure a majority in Congress, it will be another Golden Age for the Confederate Brigadiers.—Cleveland Herald. It's a wonder you didn't add that they would pension rebel soldiers and pay the rebel debt!

We are to have another session of the "Polter Legation"—if it does, as well for the Democracy next winter as it did last, there will be nothing left of the Republican party in another year.

The report that Dr. Updegraff, Congressman-elect from the Seventeenth district, died the day after the election, of Bright's disease, was erroneous. He is still living, although very feeble.

The tidal waves still rolls on. It will soon pass over the mountains of Pennsylvania, and rush through the hills and valleys of New York, until it mingles with the billows of old ocean.

The news from Ohio has created great enthusiasm among the Democrats of Pennsylvania, and the rejoicing was almost as enthusiastic as if they had carried their own State.

President Arthur has been doing a good deal of perambulating and hand-shaking during the past three weeks; but it will all be of no avail when he comes to ask for re-election.

Senator Mahone is having every Republican office-holder in Virginia removed who does not endorse his repudiation doctrine. Arthur seems to "stand in" with Mahone.

The poor Government clerks who were "looted" for the benefit of the Republican party in Ohio should sue Jay Hubbell for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Archbishop Percell, on the 13th of October, celebrated the forty-ninth anniversary of his consecration as Bishop, which took place in Baltimore in 1833.

The Steubenville Gazette, one of our best exchanges, comes to us in a beautiful new dress, looking as bright as a young maiden attired in her wedding toggery.

The Cincinnati Commercial has come to the sensible conclusion that "the Congressional districting of a State seems to be a dangerous business."

Those dreadful stories about Jim Newman being a "Vallandighamite" didn't scare anybody worth a cent. That bugaboo has played out.

The election of Hon. Frank H. Hard to Congress, in the Toledo district, is highly gratifying to the Democracy all over the country.

The corn crop in the Scioto Valley will average fully 25 per cent. more in yield and quality than was anticipated a month ago.

The Sidney Sentinel nominates Hon. Ben LeFevre for next Governor of Ohio. He would fill the chair admirably.

The project of erecting a Children's Home in Jefferson county was carried by a majority of 1,694 votes.

Ex-Speaker Randall says of the Ohio election: "It makes the House Democratic."

Charley Foster takes his schnapps straight now, without being perfumed with cloves.

The Republicans have now a definition of "sumptuary laws."

The income tax suits against Mr. Tilden have been dismissed.

St. Louis Editor Kills His Assailant.

A terrible tragedy occurred in the office of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch on Friday evening last. It seems that quite an antagonism existed between Colonel A. W. Slayback and the Post-Dispatch, growing out of the candidacy of Mr. Broadhead (Slayback's partner) for Congress. Slayback, in a public speech, denounced in very bitter terms the paper and the parties concerned in its management, whereupon Col. John A. Cockrell, the managing editor of the paper, reproduced a card, written by a lawyer named John M. Glover, a year ago, in which he denounced Slayback as a coward. Although Slayback never sought satisfaction from Glover, for reasons best known to himself, yet he undertook to punish Col. Cockrell for so impudently publishing an old document that he passed over in silence when it first appeared. Accompanied by a friend on the day the offensive article appeared, Slayback went to the office of the Post-Dispatch, and entering the private room of Col. Cockrell, in a highly excited state of mind, drew a pistol with the intention of killing him, but the editor was a little too quick for him, and fired first, shooting him would be assassin through the heart, killing him instantly. The affair has created intense excitement in St. Louis, but public opinion seems to be on the side of the editor, who is generally believed, acted in self-defense. Mr. Cockrell was an one time editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and has frequently been in St. Louis, the guest of his friend Frank Hurd. He is an amiable, pleasant man, but when assailed is fearless and aggressive. The funeral of Col. Slayback took place on Sunday afternoon, and was one of the largest ever witnessed in St. Louis. The expressions of regret at the death of the Colonel, and sympathy for the bereaved family were universal and sincere.

COLONEL COCKRELL'S STATEMENT.

ST. LOUIS, OCT. 15.

Colonel Cockrell, at the Corner's inquest yesterday, gave the following account of the shooting of Alonzo W. Slayback: "A few minutes past five o'clock I was sitting at my desk, talking with Mr. McGuffin, the business manager of the paper, and Mr. Cole, the foreman. The door was closed. My pistol was lying on my desk, for I had intended to place it in my pocket on changing my coat and leaving the office. Suddenly the door opened and two men entered, closing the door behind them. I was facing the door. I recognized Colonel Slayback and Mr. Clifton, who had a few days before assaulted two members of his profession in his private office. I realized that I was to be assaulted, and arose from my chair. Colonel Slayback's bearing was that of a man bent upon violence. His first words were: 'Well I am here.' He started as if to draw off his coat. I was in a corner next to the front window. Instinctively I moved my hand toward the weapon on the desk. He said, 'I suddenly readjusted his coat and said: 'Is that for me?' At the same time throwing his hand to his hip pocket, he drew his pistol. But I secured my weapon as he drew his. He presented it at me, and I heard him cock it. I shouted, 'Don't do that,' and at the same time, while his weapon was pointed at my breast, I fired, believing myself at the moment a dead man.

"I knew nothing of the effect of the shot, for he closed with me and thrust his revolver against my side. At the same time Clifton approached me from behind and tried to wrest my pistol from me. I shouted to Mr. McGuffin: 'Don't let them kill me!' He tore Colonel Slayback's pistol from his hand and pointed it at Clifton's head, under the impression, I presume, that he was trying to shoot me. At that instant Colonel Slayback released his grasp upon me and I realized for the first time that he had been hurt. I left the room while Mr. Clifton was calling for a doctor. My head was bleeding from a cut received when I was forced against the window, and I went into the lower office to wash myself."

Tom Young to C. Foster.

Ex-Governor Tom Young sent the following ironical letter to Charley Foster, the hero of the "liquor dealers' rebellion," immediately after the great battle:

CINCINNATI, OCT. 12.

CHARLES FOSTER, GOVERNOR:

Congratulations on your only victory in any rebellion. What do you think of your achievements? The G. A. R. recognize your efforts in the behalf of the soldier element of our party, and the Germans in this and other cities in Ohio will appreciate your services in their behalf.

T. L. YOUNG.

Foster replied that he will "take no step backward, and will fight it out on this line." Foster, like Tucker and Deacon Richard Smith are going to organize a new "God and Morality Party" of their own in the future. None but the "truly good" will be admitted.

The following correspondence took place the other day between Amos F. Larned, one of Grand Master Salswartz's ("3068") and Henry Ward Beecher:

DEAR MR. BEECHER:—You made an ass of yourself yesterday.

AMOS F. LARNED.

SIR:—The Lord saved you the trouble of making an ass of yourself by making you an ass at the beginning—and His work stands sure.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

The Sandusky Register, a straight Republican paper, thus speaks its mind:

The Republican party deserved defeat; and it has got it. The so-called statesmen have made fools of themselves, and the party is forced to suffer the consequences. Such men as Foster attempted to palm themselves off as reformers, forced a senseless issue with the people, and brought the party into contempt with the men of sense.

Senator Sherman sent the following remarkable dispatch to the New York Tribune the day before the election:

"I am very hopeful of success, but there are such elements of uncertainty in the contest that I will risk no opinion as to the majority. JOHN SHERMAN, 'MANFIELD,' O., October 9."

Mr. John Kelley has written a letter to a friend in Troy expressing confidence in a Democratic triumph in New York this fall. He says New York city will give a large Democratic majority, and expects that a union of all the factions on a county ticket will be secured.

The Republicans in Indiana have already given up the contest. They admit that the result of the coming election in that State will be similar to the result in Ohio; that the Republicans will lose the German vote, and that the Legislature will be largely Democratic.

Several of the defeated Republican candidates for Congress in Ohio might obtain situations as base ball players—the salary being in some places $3,000 per six months, for good players.

The Republicans profess to derive comfort from the fact that they made some gains in West Virginia.

Boston, November 26, 1882.

Brown Chemical Co. Gentlemen:—For years I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried all) until acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefited by Brown's Iron Bitters, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking Brown's Iron Bitters, everything I ate distressed me, and I suffered greatly from a burning sensation in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking Brown's Iron Bitters, all my troubles are at an end. I can eat any time without any disagreeable results. I am practically a new person.
