Regulations of the Theological Seminary.

Any candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the United States, may, on examination, be received as a student in the Seminary; and any other person, who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character. The candidates for admission, not Bachelors of Arts, will be examined in the Latin and Greek Grammars, Sallust, Cicero's Orations, Virgil's Æneid, Jacob's Greek Reader, and the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles; and on the general principles of Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetoric.— They will also be required to read an original composition.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing, must pass an examination in the studies which the class they desire to enter has pursued.

Every student, on admission, must subscribe the following declaration in the matriculation book of the Seminary:—

"We the subscribers, Students in the Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio, do solemnly promise, with reliance on Divine Grace, that we will faithfully obey the laws and prosecute the studies thereof, endeavor to promote the reputation and interests of the Seminary, and make daily effort by pious reading, self-examination and secret prayer, to cultivate all religious and moral dispositions and habits, and grow in those graces which should characterize the Christian and the Minister of the Cross."

The course of study occupies three years, including vacations, which are the same as in other departments.

The subjects of study during the Junior Year, are Hebrew, Biblical Geography, Biblical Antiquities, Septuagint, Historical Books of the New Testament, the Principles of Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, and the Antiquities of the Christian Church.

The subjects of study during the Middle Year, are Hebrew and Interpretation of the New Testament continued, Christian Ethics, the Evidences of Christianity, Systematic Divinity and Ecclesiastical History.

The Senior Class is occupied with the study of the Scriptures, Systematic Divinity, Ecclesiastical History, Church Polity, the Composition and Delivery of Sermons, and the Duties of the Pastoral Office.

Students are allowed to attend gratuitously, any recitation in Kenyon College which they may choose, provided they do not interfere with the appropriate duties of the Seminary.

A public examination of students takes place at the close of every term.

No charge is made for Instruction, Room rent, or use of Library. Indigent students are aided from scholarships, and from the funds of the Missionary and Education Committee of the Diocese.

Laws and Regulations of Kenyon College.

ADMISSION.—Candidates for Admission to the Freshman Class must be prepared to pass an examination in the following books and subjects, viz:

In Greek. Anthon's GREEK GRAMMAR,
Anthon's Jacob's GREEK READER.

In Latin. Gould's Adams', or Andrew's' and Stoddard's, LATIN GRAMMAR.
Six Books of VIRGIL'S ÆNEID.
Anthon's CICERO'S Select Orations.

In English. ARITHMETIC.
ENGLISH GRAMMAR and GEOGRAPHY.

An equivalent will be taken for any of the above Latin or Greek books.

Candidates preparing for the Freshman Class are advised not to anticipate the studies of the College course, either in the Mathematical or Classical department. In the former particularly, the attempt to learn the elements of Algebra or Geometry, before admission, is found in most cases, to be a hindrance to the Mathematical discipline of the College. A better course for the candidate is, to direct his attention chiefly to the elementary Classics; let him study these faithfully, analyzing the construction, and parsing every sentence, until he shall have made himself thoroughly and practically acquainted with the grammatical forms and rules of both Languages. He will then realize the true benefits of the Classic discipline in his College course, and be able to maintain a respectable standing in that department without engrossing so much of his time as to prevent him taking a very full and complete course of pure and mixed Mathematics.

Candidates offering for advanced standing, will be examined in the studies of the College course corresponding to such standing.

No candidate is admitted into the Freshman class under the age of fifteen.

The stated Examination for the admission of candidates, is on the day before commencement annually. Examinations, however, may take place at other times, if circumstances render it necessary.

MATRICULATION.—No student even after his admission to residence, is allowed to matriculate, until he shall have sustained a satisfactory probation of at least twenty weeks, and established a personal claim to the confidence of the Faculty; failing in which he is liable to be dismissed. Matriculation alone gives accredited membership in the Institution, and renders the student upon whom it is conferred a proper candidate for degrees and honors. Should any student after Matriculation, abuse the confidence on which that act proceeds, he may be degraded, i. e. reduced again to the condition of a Probationer, and then further disciplined as the occasion may require.

PATRONAGE.—Each student, after his admission, is required to choose, and in failure to choose for himself within a reasonable time, the Faculty will nominate for him, some one of their number to act as his College Patron. To this person, thus connected with him, he is at liberty, and is expected to apply, as to a friend, whenever his inclination or circumstances may lead him to seek advice or information on any subject connected with his academic standing and pursuits, or with his personal welfare.

The patron, on his part, is required to take an active concern in behalf of the client thus committed to his care: exercising a parental guardianship over him, and giving him advice and caution as he may see occasion. In doing this he will consult the wishes of the Parents as well as the interests of the Institution, and will take care to be advised of both.

RECITATIONS AND ACADEMIC EXERCISES.—There are generally, during the first two years of the course, sixteen regular recitations PER WEEK; the third year, fourteen; and the fourth, thirteen; not including Compositions, Declarations, and other occasional or appointed exercises, which occur, more or less, through the whole course.

These Recitations are appropriated among the different subjects of the respective years as follows, viz:—

FIRST AND SECOND YEARS.—Four Recitations PER WEEK, in Latin; four in Greek; five in Mathematics; two in Classical Antiquities and History, and one in the Scriptures.

THIRD YEAR.—Four Recitations PER WEEK, in Latin or Greek; three in Mechanics, and Natural Philosophy; four in Logic, Rhetoric, and English Literature; two in History, and one in the Scriptures.

FOURTH YEAR.—Four Recitations PER WEEK, in Latin and Greek; three in Astronomy and in Chemistry; five in the President's course, [Philosophy of Mind, Evidences of Christianity, Analogy of Natural and Revealed Religion, and Moral and Political Philosophy,] and one in the Scriptures.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Sallust, Virgil's Georgics, Xenophon's Anabasis, Eschenburg's Classical Manual, and Davies' Bourdon's Algebra.

SECOND TERM.—Folsom's Livy, Herodotus,
Davies' Legendre's Plane Geometry,
Keightley's History of Greece.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Horace's Odes, Epistles and Satires,
Æschines and Demosthenes,
Solid Geometry and Plain Trigonometry,
Davies' Descriptive Geometry,
Keightley's History of Rome and Hallam's History of the Middle Ages commenced.

SECOND TERM.—Cicero de Officiis, Homer's Iliad, Davies' Surveying, Davies' Analytical Geometry and the Conic Sections, and Hallam's History of the Middle Ages completed.

JUNIOR YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Homer's Odyssey, Tacitus' Agricola and Annals,
Olmsted's Natural Philosophy and Mechanics,
Whately's Logic, Whately's and Campbell's Rhetoric.

SECOND TERM.—Plato's Crito and Phædo, Optics, Electricity, &c.,
English Literature from Blair and others,
History throughout the year.

SENIOR YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Quintillian's Institutes, Olmstead's Astronomy,
Kane's Elements of Chemistry commenced,
Upham's Philosophy of the Mind,
Paley's Natural Theology, and Butler's Analogy.

SECOND TERM.—Sophocles' Œdipus Tyrannus,
Kane's Elements of Chemistry completed,
McIlvaine's Evidences,
Wayland's and Paley's Moral Philosophy.

Resident Graduates, in addition to the foregoing studies, and other ordinary privileges of the Institution, may have the benefit of a course of exegetical and critical readings in the higher Classics under the Professor of Languages, or of higher Geometry and Analytics under the Professor of Mathematics.

EXAMINATIONS AND PUBLIC EXERCISES.—There is a regular examination of all the classes at the end of each Term, and also in the middle of the winter Term, immediately preceding the Christmas holidays.

Students who, by sickness or any other unavoidable necessity, are prevented from appearing at the regular examination, may be examined separately; but no student, under any circumstances, is deemed to have made good his standing, or kept his term till he has passed a proper examination.

MARKS OF SCHOLARSHIP.—Every Student at each recitation is marked, according to his performance, from 0 to 3: the first symbol indicating a total failure and the last a perfect recitation. When any one absents himself from a recitation, if excused, he is marked in proportion, otherwise, 0. Perfect recitations in any one subject, during a whole term, give the maximum number attainable in that subject; and the performance of each student is estimated by the comparison of his actual number with that maximum.

A similar grade in Conduct is also made out at the end of each term, founded upon the observance of the following College requirements, viz: 1. Punctual attendance at all recitations. 2. Attendance at morning and evening prayers and at public worship. 3. Remaining in room, and preserving order therein, during study hours.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.—Of the Junior Class at the close of the first Term. Commencement on the first Wednesday in August.

VACATIONS AND TERM-TIME.—The first Vacation, from Commencement,—8 weeks. The first Term,—26 weeks. The second Vacation, from the end of the first Term,—4 weeks. The second Term,—14 weeks.

STUDENTS' ROOMS.—The rooms are neatly fitted up and papered; and the following articles of furniture placed in each, viz: a Bedstead for two single beds; straw Mattresses and Chairs, one of the former and two of the latter to each student; a large study Table, and a Wash-stand. Bedding and light furniture, as also fuel and lights, are furnished by the occupant.

Two students occupy one room, unless otherwise permitted; and are held accountable, both for the room and furniture, until possession is regularly re-conveyed to the proper officer.

Each student must deposit $2 with the College Treasurer at the beginning of each Term, to cover breakage and incidental damages to the College Buildings; the balance, if any, to be refunded at the end of the term.

MEDICAL ATTENDANCE, BOARDING, &c.—Medical advice and attendance are given by the College Physician, to all members of the Institution who require it; for which $2 per annum is included in the College bills.

Board is furnished at private houses, at rates varying from $1 00 to $1 50, per week.

Washing may be contracted for at 75 cents per month, and Fuel costs from $1 to $1 25 per cord, delivered at the College.

COLLEGE EXPENSES—To be paid to the Treasurer at the beginning of each Term in advance, viz: Tuition, $30 00. Room Rent, use of Furniture, Medical attendance, care of Halls, Recitation Rooms and Chapel, and all other items, except deposite for damages, for forty weeks, $15 00. Total, exclusive of vacations, $45 00.

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES, for the same period of Forty Weeks, payable to individuals as they accrue, viz: Board from $40 00 to $60 00. Washing from $6 00 to $8 00. Fuel and Lights from $5 00 to $10 00. Text Books from $6 00 to $12 00. Postage, Stationery, &c. &c., from $10 00 to $20 00. Total from $67 00 to $110 00.

The estimate of ALL EXPENSES therefore, except clothing, will be from $112 00 to $155 00 per annum, exclusive of vacations.

Parents are respectfully requested, for obvious reasons, to make their remittances, in all cases, through the College Patron, or in some way subject to his control; and to advise with him also as to any allowance of money they may wish to furnish their sons, over and above the estimate here given.

LIBRARIES.—The Libraries to which students may have access, are as follows, viz:

SENIOR GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

This Department in its general features, is an Academy or High School, designed for the accommodation of young men, who may wish either to obtain a thorough English education, pursue a partial Classical course, or be prepared for admission into the Freshman Class of the College. For such young men, the Institution presents peculiar inducements, inasmuch as they are treated in all respects, as regular College students; they board at the same houses, occupy College apartments, attend the daily College devotions, and have access to the libraries, which contain not less than 8000 well selected volumes. The instruction is conducted by the Principal, Benjamin L. Lang, A. B., who is assisted by such other teachers as occasion may require. Appropriate courses of study are arranged, both for those who are preparing to enter the Freshman Class of the College, and for those wishing to obtain a thorough English education; and the latter when sufficiently advanced, may be permitted by the Faculty, to attend the Lectures of the College Professors on those branches in which they are engaged. The academical year corresponds to that of the College, and the expenses are the same, with the exception of tuition, which is $10 less than in the College.

TEXT BOOKS.

Kirkham's English Grammar, Davies' Arithmetic, Anthon's Latin Lessons, Gould's Adams' Latin Grammar, Cæsar's Commentaries, Virgil, Anthon's Cicero's Select Orations, Anthon's Greek Lessons, Anthon's Greek Grammar, and Anthon's Jacob's Greek Reader.

In Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and other English branches, the Text Books are the same as used in the College.

JUNIOR GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

This Institution is under the immediate charge of the Rev. Alfred Blake and the Rev. Norman Badger, as Associate Principals, both presbyters of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Other instructors are also added as the number of pupils may require.

The spacious edifice appropriated to this department, is situated nearly half a mile from the College, on a beautiful eminence, which furnishes the best opportunities for healthy, athletic exercises. Besides the accommodations allotted to the Instructors, the Matron, &c., the building affords ample dormitories and other conveniences required for the accommodation of upwards of 50 pupils.

The constant effort of the Instructors, in accordance with the design in the establishment of this department, is to furnish the pupils with as good a substitute as possible, in sickness as well as in health, for the comforts of home, and to combine the advantages of a well-ordered christian family with those of an efficient INSTITUTE OF ELEMENTARY AND CLASSICAL INSTRUCTION. The Pupils board at the same table with the Principals and their families, and with them also attend morning and evening worship in a small Chapel appropriately furnished in the Hall for the purpose. The Sunday worship is attended by the pupils in charge of their Instructors at the College Chapel. An experienced, kind, and careful Matron is provided, to whom is committed the charge of the clothing, and who is the nurse in sickness.

ADMISSION.—Boys are received over 10, and under 15 years of age.

UNIFORM.—On Sundays and other special occasions, the dress must be in uniform, namely:—A blue cloth cap, blue roundabout, dark colored vest, and dark steel-mixed pantaloons; in Summer, light colored vest and white pantaloons. This uniform is so plain and so easily obtained, that parents are requested not to vary from it, except in Summer, in procuring the every-day clothing for their sons in the School.

STUDIES.—Reading, Orthography, Penmanship, Geography, Arithmetic, Composition, Elocution, the Bible and Church Catechism, History, and in general all the studies that are required for admission to the Freshman Class in College, and such others as are usually taught in common Academies.

TEXT BOOKS.—Fourth Eclectic Reader, Mitchell's Geography and Geographical Reader, Davies' Arithmetic, Bullion's or Smith's English Grammar, Bullion's or Gould's Adams' Latin Grammar, Jacob's Latin Reader, Anthon's Cæsar, Anthon's Cicero, Anthon's or Bullion's Greek Grammar, Greek Reader, and English Dictionary, the Bible and Book of Common Prayer. These and others as they are needed can generally be procured in Gambier. Each pupil must always be provided with the three last named.

TERM TIME AND VACATIONS.—These are the same as in the College. Pupils whose friends wish them to remain during the vacations will receive a partial course of instruction under the same regulations as in Term Time.

EXPENSES.—For Board and Tuition, (exclusive of vacations) room rent, bed and bedding, washing, fuel, lights, and medical attendance, per annum, $120; payable each term in advance. Incidental expenses from $2 to $3.

Pocket money must in all cases be deposited with the Rev. Mr. Blake, or with some other officer connected with the Institution, with the consent of Rev. Mr. Blake.

When pupils are not abundantly supplied with clothes, books, &c., money for procuring these articles should be deposited in advance with the Rev. Mr. Blake, or with the Treasurer of the College.
