FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 27, 1882.

ELECTION NOTES.

The official majority for Kiefer in the Eighth district is 1,228.

Converse's majority in the Columbus district will be about 3,700.

The Democrats elected a Sheriff and Commissioner in Republican Wood county.

The Democratic majority in Ohio is about 20,000—a change of 46,000 in a single year.

George K. Nash is not "booming" as a Republican candidate for Governor as much as formerly.

On an honest count, Major Wallace (Dem.) will have a majority of 14 in the Eighteenth district.

The official vote that Horv was beaten 1,671 votes by Judge Geddes in the Fourteenth district.

"Foster's Funeral," is what the late Republican defeat is called by some of our Democratic exchanges.

The Chicago Times says: "The Republican party in Ohio is satisfied that a beaming is a deadly weapon."

Newman's majority in Tuscarawas county was 1,113, while Wilkins, for Congress had a majority of 1,673.

In Union county the Republican vote fell off 144, and the Democratic vote increased 215 at the late election.

Judge Seney's official majority in the Fifth district is 5,313. His own county (Seneca) gave him 1,466 majority.

A Republican leader made the profane remark in our hearing the other day that "the d-d Legislature did the mischief."

The Cincinnati Commercial says, "the reputation Gov. Foster had gained as a political prophet is irretrievably ruined."

General Robinson received 89 more votes than Townsend in Hardin county, which shows where Dear Hubbell's "door" went.

The Democratic majority in Licking county is 1,321 on Secretary of State, but with slight variance on the other candidates.

Hurd's majority over King in the Tenth district is 1,104, while Newman's majority over Townsend in the same counties is 3,522.

There was not a square deal in the count of the vote for Congress in Clermont county, and Campbell (Dem.) will contest Morley's election.

Mr. Flickinger attributes the Republican defeat to Foster's blunders. Being on the inside of the campaign management Mr. Flickinger ought to know.

The Oshoshoon Age (Rep.) as it views the Republican wreck left by the recent election, comes to the conclusion that the Prohibitionists are well meaning "cranks."

The official vote for Congress in the Eighteenth district, as filed in the office of the Secretary of State, gives Wallace (Dem.) a majority of 8 over McKinley (Rep.).

The Columbus Times says: "It may be remarked for the enjoyment of those fond man will enter upon his office January 8th—Jackson's day."

The Holmes County Farmer makes the remark that "Our Democratic contemporaries should not overwork their roosters. There will be more crowing to do after the 7th of November."

The twelve counties composing the Western Reserve, give a Republican majority this year of 9,336, whereas in the same counties, Foster lost backwater 22,715—Republican loss, 13,379.

The Ohio Patriot, New Lisbon, says: "It is positively asserted and proof can be made that McKinley spent $10,000 in the city of Youngstown during the three days preceding the election trying to corrupt the ballot. He is a pretty fellow to talk about tissue ballots."

Judge Laubie, who was cheated out of the Republican nomination for Congress by "Major" McKinley, in the Stark-Columbian district, sent the following message to that gentleman after the result of the election became known:

"Major McKinley, Canton, O.
The way of the transgressor is hard."
PETER A. LAUBIE.

The Banner labored earnestly and faithfully during the late campaign to promote the success of the Democratic party and its time-honored principles; and it has the proud satisfaction of knowing that its efforts were crowned with victory. All we ask in return is, that our friends and subscribers, who appreciate our labors, will come forward and pay their subscriptions without being dunned or called upon by a collector. We need every dollar that is due us to meet current demands, and we trust that every man knowing himself to be indebted to the office, will promptly respond to this call.

It is already given out that the first work of the Pomeroy Legislature, after its reassembly in January, will be to punish the men who left the Republican party, and voted with the Democracy, at the late election. How can this be done? Here again the Republican party leaders will be at logger heads. The moment the C. Foster-Dick Smith-Like Tucker wing of the party undertake to be revenged on the independent Republican voters of the State then the devil will be to pay, and the fight will begin in earnest, which will give Ohio to the Democracy next year by a majority of 50,000. Go on with your work of revenge, gentlemen. You sow may the wind, but you will surely reap the whirlwind.

Col. John A. Cockerill, managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, who killed Colonel Slackback, in self-defense, has been released on $10,000 bail—Jos. B. McCullough, of the Globe-Democrat, and several other prominent gentlemen going on his bond.

During the session of the Presbyterian Synod of Ohio, at Columbus, last week, Governor Foster appeared, and introduced by the Moderator, and made "a little speech." The Governor used to make speeches in the beer gardens a year ago.

Governor Hendricks feels confident that the Democracy will sweep Indiana by a majority of more than 10,000, and elect eight or nine Congressmen.

Robeson and Kiefer will have to take back seats in the next Congress.

The Fremont Messenger proposes Hon. Frank H. Hurd for next United States Senator.

C. Foster now watches the fluctuations in the calico market with the deepest interest.

It would be interesting to know how much money Hubbell wasted in Ohio and how he likes the result.

Gentle reader don't be surprised to hear of a Democratic majority of 75,000 in New York next month.

Some of Ben Butterworth's "fool friends" propose him as the Republican candidate for Governor in 1883.

The Republicans are already studying what kind of campaign clap-net they will work up for 1883.

Hubbell's work of blackmailing goes on. His demand is: "You must submit to the robbery, or be kicked out of office."

A movement is being made to carry a new county out of Columbiana, with the seat of justice at Wellsville, on the Ohio river.

J. Hipple Mitchell, the Oregon Republican statesman, has mysteriously disappeared, and his friends feel uneasy about his safety.

Hon. C. C. Parsons, Jr., formerly of Wooster, (son of Judge Parsons) of the Democratic candidate for State Senator in Leadville, Colorado.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has commenced grooming Judge Hoadly for Governor. We do not think that Hoadly deserves such treatment.

The St. Paul Herald, learning wisdom from the Ohio election, adopted a resolution declaring prohibition "unconstitutional and despotic."

Every State that goes Democratic this year will have a "distinguished son" to present for President in 1884. Ohio will have two or three of 'em.

The indications are that the people of Massachusetts, with their eyes wide open, are going to punish themselves by electing Ben Butler Governor.

The vote of Knox county, this year, although not as large as at the Presidential election, was in excess of the vote cast at most of the State elections.

Five negroes were hung at Eastman, Georgia, on Friday last, for complicity in a riot at a camp meeting, which resulted in the killing of a young white man.

If it is true, as reported, that Charles Foster is going to stump Indiana, the Republicans of that State may prepare to follow their friends in Ohio to Salt River.

Sixteen barbers in Philadelphia, were sentenced to six days' imprisonment, last week, for shaving their customers on Sunday. This was done under an old law passed in 1794.

It is reported that the Ring have agreed upon the following ticket, for Auditor: "Benny" Living, Treasurer, Frank Baldwin.

The Chicago Tribune (Rep.) devotes a column editorial to the "Crane Campaign in Ohio," which is a little rough on Boss Foster, I. Tucker and Deacon Richard Smith.

The "general snow storm" predicted by Vennor for October 18th, took place on the 10th, when the Republican party of Ohio were "snowed under" in a very surprising manner.

The same old Tariff scarecrow that bobs up in Pennsylvania on the eve of every election, to "frighten the souls of fearful adversaries," has again been trotted out by the Republican Bosses.

A prominent New York Republican, now in Washington, says that if Mr. Folger is beaten in New York the entire Cabinet will be changed, and the portfolios given to Stalwart politicians.

When old Simon Cameron says that the Republican larceny of the Presidency was a "blunder," it shows that the sober second thought is beginning to seize hold of the Republican leaders.

Dr. Wm. B. Hawkes, of Columbus, has presented property and money to the amount of $20,000 to the Columbus Medical College, for the purpose of erecting a hospital in connection with the institution.

There is no man in Ohio that we would rather see Governor than General Durbin Ward. He has done more hard work for the Democracy, and received less reward than any other man in the State.

"Jayhawker," who did an immense amount of work for the Republicans of Indiana in the columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer, during the last Presidential campaign, is now a contributor to the Commercial.

If the Democrats can find a candidate for President who can carry New York State, they can elect him—Abram News The Democratic nominee, whoever he may be, will carry New York, and sweep the country.

The Newark Advocate is authority for the statement that a Republican will not break the Sabbath, or drink any whisky, or abuse his family, and will not steal the Presidency or kill a President. O! What a happy party.

The Mansfield Herald claims that no time did it advocate the "plan on which the campaign was conducted." The truth is, the Herald was so busy engaged in abusing Judge Geddes that it took no time to consider any other subject.

A divorce suit is now in progress in a Chicago Court between George Scoville and his wife—the latter being a sister of Guitan, the assassin. The principal object seems to be to prove that Mrs. Scoville is crazy that her husband is cruel and jealous.

We entirely agree with the Hardin County Democrat that "Free Whisky and No Sunday" was the meanest, the most unworthy campaign cry ever used in Ohio. Its essential viciousness and the contemptible libel it carried with it related with terrific force upon the inventors.

The Sherman and Foster Quarrel.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun writes: An intelligent Ohio Republican now here declares that the defeat has left the party in that State rent from top to bottom on questions of policy. It is also broken in fragments by personal quarrels. The Sherman and Foster quarrel cuts deep. Sherman has an old grudge against Foster for betraying him at the Chicago Convention. One happy feature, then, is the prospect that the truth of history may be enriched touching the famous period when Sherman figured as a Presidential aspirant. Foster is not the man to submit tamely to Sherman's sharp and exasperating tongue, and there are some pleasing reports abroad that valuable contributions to the history of that interesting period are likely to be among the results of the quarrel. Foster's friends say he don't intend to be pushed to the wall nor snowed under by John Sherman.

Recent Deaths.

Rev. Robt. Paine, Senior Bishop of the M. E. Church South, is dead.

Frank Queen, the well-known editor and publisher of the New York Clipper, died last week, aged 63 years. He established and made the Clipper a very profitable paper.

Hon. George P. Marsh, United States Minister to Italy, died last week, and was buried in the Protestant cemetery in Rome.

Rear Admiral H. Y. Percival, the third oldest officer in the United States Navy, died at Baltimore on Saturday, aged 84.

Hon. John D. Defrees, late Government Printer, died at Berkeley Springs, Va., last week. His remains were taken to Indianapolis for interment.

Lieutenant B. F. Hancock, of the Second Infantry, a nephew of Gen. Hancock, died at Port Townsend, on the Pacific coast, on Friday last.

A horrible street encounter took place at Knoxville, Tennessee, on Thursday last, which resulted in the death of three prominent citizens. Gen. Joseph A. Mabry and Maj. Thomas O'Connor, President of the Mechanics' National Bank, had some misunderstanding about a real estate transaction, when Mabry threatened to kill O'Connor on sight. As Mabry was about to carry out his threat, O'Connor fired first, pouring a heavy load of buckshot into the heart of Mabry, killing him instantly. Mabry's son, a young lawyer, then came up, and he and O'Connor simultaneously fired at each other, and both fell dead. The affair creates intense excitement in Knoxville.

All the cooks, chamber maids, hostlers, scrub women, barbers, boot-blacks, messengers, &c., about the White House, have presented bills for "extra services" during President Garfield's illness. This is simply an attempt to rob the Government. But these people no doubt think that when the doctors demanded each from $10.00 to $25.00 for their services, and thousands of dollars were spent for liquor and cigars, at the Garfield funeral, they might as well take a part in the game of grab.

The Pittsburgh Post has made a scathing exposition of the methods whereby the Cameron-Quay gang in Pennsylvania have carried the elections in that State for several years past. They are attempting to practice the same disreputable success. If some of these scoundrels were in the Penitentiary they might do the State some service.

Frederick Captain, the colored man, arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of A. W. Ross, of Glendale, near Cincinnati, made a confession, declaring that another colored man named Harris was the principal murderer, and that the object was robbery. He subsequently swore that his first statement was untrue, and that he made it to get a part of the $7,000 reward.

C. Foster the bloodless hero of the late "rebellion," announces that he is in readiness to renew hostilities "all along the line." But we apprehend, like most of military blowheads he will keep out of danger, and all the fighting with his tongue, at a safe distance from the scene of hostilities. Why n't he sound his bugle in Cincinnati.

The colored troops don't fight as nobly for the "grand old Republican party" as formerly. The Pittsburgh Colored Citizen says: "We believe that a political reformation is absolutely necessary for the welfare of the State. Democratic ascendancy would be more desirable than the present spoil and boss system as managed by the Stalwart wing of the Republican party."

Secretary-elect Newman will take possession of the office of Secretary of State, by the grace of a big Democratic majority, on the 8th of January—Andrew Jackson's day. Judge Okey will be sworn in for his second term on the 9th of February, and Mr. Weibe, member elect of the Board of Public Works, will be inducted into official residence the 13th of February.

Near North Adams, Mass., Saturday morning, a locomotive pushing before it a caboose containing thirty-five railroad workmen, ran in collision with another locomotive. None of the men would have been seriously hurt, but for the smashing in of the boiler of the engine that was pushing the caboose. As it was, thirty-three men were hurt, many terribly scalded, not a few fatally.

The Mobile Register draws the conclusion: "Gentlemen who are running for Congress in the South against the Democratic nominees, hoping, if they are defeated, that a Republican House will seat them anyhow, do not regard the situation at present as a hopeful one."

Rev. Dr. Cooper, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, Chicago, announces his belief in a "Hades, or place where the souls of the departed in Christ are detained until the time of the general resurrection."

The Chicago Tribune (Rep.) says: The Ohio idea this year seems to consist in laying the blame on the other fellow.

Seal Skin Sacks.

F. R. Power & Co. have received a large consignment of Seal Skin Sacks and Seal Dolmans, which will be on exhibition for five days, commencing Friday, Oct. 27th. The ladies of Mt. Vernon and vicinity are respectfully invited to call and inspect these goods. They will be offered at great bargains.

Can be consulted at his office in the Curtis House, Mt. Vernon, O., November 9, 10, 11, and 12.

FOUR DAYS ONLY.

Special Attention to Diseases of Females—Consultation and Examination Free.

It is well known by all intelligent observers that it is impossible for any person, no matter how largely endowed by nature or acquirement, to become thoroughly conversant with all the divisions of the Science of Medicine. Nearly all who have obtained distinction in medicine have made some special department their life work, being fitted therefor by natural adaptation or selection, special education and experience.

The Doctor having devoted several years to the special study of this class of diseases in hospital and private practice, and having the most recent and improved instruments for finding out diseased conditions in the organs of the body, he proposes to examine the whole of his time to practice these specialties.

DR. FRANCE will examine all who call upon him and tell him of the symptoms of disease, and if it is located, the organ or part affected, and the principal symptoms they experience; and also the condition of the internal organs, examines Eye, Ear and Throat by the most recent and improved instruments and methods, all of which he carefully records in his register for future reference. In this way he ascertains the true nature of the disease and its cause. Knowing the disease, he knows the changes it produces in the tissues, and knows the changes and symptoms which attend its progress, and places the patient on the right road to recovery.

When sick people consult him he readily tells them whether he can cure them or help them, or whether they are beyond hope. The examination is made in accordance with anatomical and physical science, and he will convince the most skeptical. By an examination he will convince any one of the nature and extent of their disease, amount of danger to life, and chance of a perfect cure. He only uses remedies from the vegetable kingdom, as by experience he has found remedies that will antidote every humor or poison in the system, and aid nature to every disease if taken in time. Believing that science is truth, and "Truth is mighty and will prevail," when known, and knowing that diseases can be cured with positive certainty, he invites the afflicted to call and receive advice free and be cured of their diseases.

DR. FRANCE.

Can be consulted at his office in the Curtis House, Mt. Vernon, O., November 9, 10, 11, and 12.

FOUR DAYS ONLY.

Special Attention to Diseases of Females—Consultation and Examination Free.

It is well known by all intelligent observers that it is impossible for any person, no matter how largely endowed by nature or acquirement, to become thoroughly conversant with all the divisions of the Science of Medicine. Nearly all who have obtained distinction in medicine have made some special department their life work, being fitted therefor by natural adaptation or selection, special education and experience.

The Doctor having devoted several years to the special study of this class of diseases in hospital and private practice, and having the most recent and improved instruments for finding out diseased conditions in the organs of the body, he proposes to examine the whole of his time to practice these specialties.

DR. FRANCE will examine all who call upon him and tell him of the symptoms of disease, and if it is located, the organ or part affected, and the principal symptoms they experience; and also the condition of the internal organs, examines Eye, Ear and Throat by the most recent and improved instruments and methods, all of which he carefully records in his register for future reference. In this way he ascertains the true nature of the disease and its cause. Knowing the disease, he knows the changes it produces in the tissues, and knows the changes and symptoms which attend its progress, and places the patient on the right road to recovery.

When sick people consult him he readily tells them whether he can cure them or help them, or whether they are beyond hope. The examination is made in accordance with anatomical and physical science, and he will convince the most skeptical. By an examination he will convince any one of the nature and extent of their disease, amount of danger to life, and chance of a perfect cure. He only uses remedies from the vegetable kingdom, as by experience he has found remedies that will antidote every humor or poison in the system, and aid nature to every disease if taken in time. Believing that science is truth, and "Truth is mighty and will prevail," when known, and knowing that diseases can be cured with positive certainty, he invites the afflicted to call and receive advice free and be cured of their diseases.

THE BANNER.

No. 5 Kremlin, Monument Square.

Largest Circulation in the County

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO, OCT. 27, 1882.

THIS IS A DUN.

To be Carefully Read by Banner Debtors.

We have frequently sent to several hundred delinquent subscribers requests for settlement, together with a statement of their indebtedness. As a matter of business we are entitled to the money due us, and thus respectfully ask to be paid. But we regret to say that a considerable number of them have failed to respond, more particularly in the case of subscribers out of the county and State. Many have responded to the call promptly, and to those along with our regular advance pay subscribers, we extend our thanks. But to the delinquents we address this: We have recently made heavy investments in the matter of newspaper improvements for the benefit of our subscribers, and the proprietor of the BANNER would not greater profits if the business was conducted on the old ordinary plan. We have fitted up one of the handsomest county offices in the State, to which every citizen of the community can point with pride. To do this required a big outlay of money, and all we ask is to receive our dues from delinquents, to meet the demands of our extensive improvements. Will you do your part toward meeting this outlay, by paying for your paper in a business like way. We have incurred the expense and time of sending you statements of your account. Please don't put us to the additional expense of having to send a collector for the amount. If it is inconvenient to call at our office, send the amount by mail.

We sincerely trust that this "dun" will be received in a friendly spirit, and that it will not go by unheeded.

MARITAL MISERIES.

How a Dove of a Woman Elopod with Her Brother-in-Law.

There arrived in this city last Friday evening a man and woman accompanied by two small children, who inquired the way to a cheap boarding house. They were directed to the home of Mrs. Finnott, a widow woman whose domicile on West High street is the haven for weary laborers and impecunious travelers. They were assigned to the same room, where they past the night.

By the early morning train on the B. & O. railroad, Saturday, came a man named D. P. Dove, who said his home was at Utica, and that he was in search of his wife, with whom he shared had left his bed and board without sufficient cause, taking with her two of their family of six children, and whom, he said, he believed, although it grieved him to say so, had eloped with his brother, Richard Dove. His case was placed in the hands of City Marshal Magers, who did not much trouble in tracing the guilty pair to the boarding house. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the woman, and the eloped brother, who was brought before the Mayor; but owing to no specific criminal charge being set forth, the Mayor, at the request of the brother, who showed no signs of contrition, issued an interview that he had left his husband to go to the home of his brother, who lives in Michigan, but supposed after what had happened, he would be compelled to return to Utica with her husband. The latter indicated did not seem to think these "little matter like that" made any difference, and apparently was happy in the recovery of his bosom companion. EWING'S ENCOUNTER.

Which He Tried to Suppress from Appearing in the Banner.

Last Thursday morning at a Post-office, the BANNER came out of the Post-office, he was confronted by ex-judge of the Peace, John D. Ewing, who accosted him with the command, "You may stop my paper; I don't want it any longer; it's no account anyway." The diminutive specimen of humanity was informed that his wishes in the matter would be complied with, and that notwithstanding the withdrawal of his support, the paper would continue to be published as usual.

About two hours later the "Squire" ushered himself into the BANNER counting room and inquired for the editor. That personage made his appearance, and Ewing relieved himself as follows: "I have just had a little racket with a fellow named Fink, and I don't want to appear in the BANNER. It was an unfortunate affair and I would rather lose fifty dollars than have it get into print."

"Well, go on and tell us about it," said the BANNER scribe.

"Oh, it didn't amount to so much. I own a piece of property adjoining Fink on Mulberry street. He has persisted in putting his fence up with me, and I am now in a predicament. He left the office with the confidential declaration that if the fences was suppressed he would 'make it all right.'"

FINK'S STORY.

On Saturday, Mr. W. H. Fink, a cabinet-maker, who is employed at Banning & Willis', called at the BANNER office to give his version of the affair. He related the details as follows:

"For some time there has been a dispute about the boundary line between Ewing's property and mine. I set the fence on the old line, and a few weeks ago, during my absence with my wife at the Cincinnati Exposition, Ewing caused it to be torn down. Upon my return I was obliged to go to the expense of rebuilding it. Ewing, however, refused to pay for it, and I was obliged to give his version of the matter. He related the details as follows:

Messrs. Seabury & Johnson, Manufacturing

Gentlemen:—For the past few years we have

Physicians and the Public prefer Benson's Caprine Porous Plaster to all others. We consider them one of the very few reliable household remedies worthy of confidence. They are superior to all other Porous Plasters or Liniments for external use.

Benson's Caprine Plaster is a genuine Pharmaceutical product, of the highest physicians and druggists.

When other remedies fail get a Benson's Caprine Plaster.

You will be disappointed if you use
