to name and to answer,
as far as I can, any questions he may desire to put.

Between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. every day I am in chambers and if he will at any time honor me with a call here, I will do everything I can

Thursday

My dear Chevalier,
I very much regret
that my engagements
this morning render it impossible for me to have the honor of accepting your kind invitation to meet

The Bishop of Ohio.

It would give me sincere pleasure to be of any use to him, in his examination of the state of the Protestant School of Germany. I am quite certain he has only to inform himself of the real facts, in order to disabuse his mind of any fears he may now have, as to the real effects of the most admirable schools of the Prussian Protestants.

It will give me the greatest pleasure to wait upon the Bishop any morning, or any evening he will be good enough to make my knowledge useful to him. I only wish, that instead of talking to him, I could take him over the excellent Protestant Teachers' Colleges at Weissenfels, Potsdam,

Dresden, Karlsruhe
&c. He would then
need no comments

of mine. Still less would he need them,
could he see the Teachers working in the Prussian Villages.

Believe me

My dear Chevalier
with the deepest respect

Very sincerely yours

Wm. L. Gay

His Excellency

The Chevalier Runden
