Vote for Harter for Congress.

The Democracy of Knox county have a grand ticket, and it is their duty to give it a cordial and united support.

B. F. SWINGLE, the Republican nominee for Congress in the Zanesville district, declines to run as a candidate. Sensible.

FARMER CROMLEY is hoisting his row admirably.—Ohio Eagle. Exactly, and his success seems to be very harrowing to the Republicans.

A son of Mr. Rutherford B. Hayes denies that his father, in an interview, denounced the McKinley bill. Why don't Rutherford speak for himself?

PLATT and Hiseock, the Republican managers in New York, have stated Secretary of the Navy, Tracy, as the successor of Mr. Evans in the United States Senate.

The Flint Glass Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburgh have held a meeting and agreed to raise prices 5 per cent. This is another result of the McKinley law.

Six thousand miners employed in the collieries in the counties of Erie and Lackawanna, Scotland, have warned their employers that they will go on a strike unless their wages are advanced 15 per cent.

The McKinley tariff law which goes into effect, increasing tariff taxes from an average of 47 per cent. to an average of 52 per cent. And yet farmers are wondering what is hurting them.—Delaware Herald.

The population of Ohio, as officially announced by Superintendent Porter, is 3,666,719, a gain of 428,557 in ten years. A solid and healthy increase, but not enough to keep the State in the third place.

HON. WM. S. CROMLEY, of Coshocton, ex-Senate Senator and late Consul at Amoy, China, and his wife, have agreed, by mutual consent, to dissolve their matrimonial partnership, which has existed for over twenty years.

From the very emphatic denunciation Mr. Blaine heaped upon Maj. McKinley's tariff bill, it is easy to understand why the Maine statesman has no desire to come into Ohio to make speeches for the candidate of the monopolists.

Vote for Allen for Sheriff.

Mr. HARTER represents prosperity and lower tariff taxes. Mr. Sackett represents high tariff taxes and tax oppression. Mr. Harter says he will vote for lower tariff tax. Mr. Sackett says he has his faith pinned to high tariff tax.—Delaware Herald.

DON CAMERON is alarmed at the condition of affairs in England. He is afraid the Republicans will lose the Legislature and a Democrat will occupy his seat in the United States Senate. Hence, it is said, he has contributed $100,000 to the Quay-Delemater corruption fund.

CONGRESSMAN DALRELL, of Pittsburgh, instead of pitching into help Boss Quay's candidate for Governor in his own State, is coming out to Ohio to do some wind-work for Bill McKinley. We presume he will bring a barrel of Pittsburgh hooch with him.

A DISPATCH from Columbus states that the penitentiary managers, in accordance with the suggestion contained in the letter written them by Governor Campbell after the release of Lou Houk, resolved that no application for parole would be heard at present.

WOMEN comes from Washington that the Republican leaders are determined to have an extra session of Congress for the purpose of passing the Force bill into law. We think these people might afford to wait until the first of December when Congress will meet in regular session.

HON. COLUMBUS DELANO, in a letter addressed to the wool-growers of the United States congratulates them upon the work they have achieved in securing protective legislation from Congress upon wool and has resigned his position as President of National Wool-Growers' Association.

GEN. S. H. HURST, who was defeated for the Congressional nomination by the Chillicothe Republican Ring, has assumed the editorship of the Chillicothe Gazette, the old Republican organ, and will make it red-hot for the Ring who control the Leader, the rival Republican paper. The Scioto valley will soon be ablaze.

McKINLEY opened his campaign at Millersburg on Tuesday evening of last week. The meeting was not large, a majority of those present being Democrats, women and children. His speech only had the effect of rousing the Democracy, who will now go to work and roll up a majority of 2,000 for Gov. Warwick in Little Holmes.

Mrs. JOHN CROMLEY of Akron, aged 45 years, committed suicide by the chloroform route. Last July her husband hung himself, and since then the widow has been melancholy, and talked frequently of ending her troubles. She secured a two-ounce bottle of chloroform, and when found was sitting by a table with life extinct.

The Ohio Legislature Meets in Extraordinary Session.

In pursuance of a Proclamation issued by Governor Campbell, the Legislature met in extraordinary session on Tuesday, Oct. 14th. There was a quorum in the Senate, and a message from the Governor was read in each chamber. The "deplorable condition of affairs in the City of Cincinnati." The Governor, without mentioning any specific acts of dishonesty, declares that "the people believe, not without reasonable cause, that the Board of Public Improvements is demoralized and corrupt, and should be abolished."

He says: "Let the law-making power and the appointing power confess their mistakes and join hands to rectify them. Restore to the people in time for the approaching November election the power of choosing successors to these boards."

The Governor adds: "If the gentlemen thus legislated out are honest men and enjoy and deserve the confidence of the people, they will welcome the opportunity for a popular election to the posts they now hold by appointment; but if they have been unfaithful and undeserving, then they will be unwilling to render an account of their stewardship or let the people pass upon it at the polls. Should they shrink from submitting their claims to the people, who they are sworn to serve, that is, in itself, a full confession of incapacity or guilt."

The message was referred to the Judiciary Committee in each branch, by a strict party vote.

Senator Gaumer, of Muskingum Co., at once introduced a bill in the Senate to abolish the Board of Public Improvements in Cincinnati, which was read the first time, but a motion to suspend the rules and have the bill read the second time, failed by a party vote.

Senator Patton introduced a bill to abolish the Cincinnati Board of Equalization; after which the Senate adjourned until Wednesday.

Vote for Warner for Commissioner.

How the Louisiana Lottery Can Evade the Law.

Under the decision of Assistant Attorney General Tyler, the anti lottery act comprehends all kinds of schemes, general or local, for the distribution of prizes by lottery or chance, such as exhibitions, enterprises, concerts, raffles or the drawing of prizes in money or property at fairs.

The seal of a letter or of any sealed package, prepaid at letter rates, must not be distributed for the purpose of prizes by lottery or chance, such as exhibitions, enterprises, concerts, raffles or the drawing of prizes in money or property at fairs.

Vote for Hyatt for Inferior Director.

Bridges Gone and Much Damage Done—Tremendous Rainstorm.

A special from Wheeling, West Va., Oct. 12, says: Another tremendous rainstorm for which Wheeling is rapidly acquiring a national reputation, struck this city at 5 o'clock this evening, doing a large amount of damage. In the valley of Caldwell's run, where a dozen lives were lost in 1888, six or eight families were flooded out and three bridges carried away, while a number of cattle were drowned and much property destroyed.

Mr. Harter the Friend of the Farmer and Mechanic.

In this district it is well known that Hon. M. D. Harter is pre-eminently the friend of the farmer and laborer. All his designs are in favor of the farmer and the prosperity of the farmers is the object of his policy.

It is a waste of breath for the Republican orators to go on the stump now and talk in favor of "protection." The McKinley law has made "protection" an accomplished fact, and they should be satisfied. The people who pay the tariff tax will hereafter know exactly what this "protection" means when the price of nearly every article they consume will go up, up, up. The glory and beauty of "protection" will hereafter be made manifest.

Higher Taxes for the People.

The New York Herald devotes an entire page to a study of the increases the people will have to pay under the McKinley law, all of which will have the effect of making the rich richer and the poor poorer. All the whole-sale merchants in the large cities are already putting up the price of their goods, and as a matter of course the retail merchants throughout the country will be forced to "follow suit."
