CRUELTY TO CRIMINALS!

Terrible Treatment of Ohio Penitentiary Convicts.

A Horrible Sample of Republican Rule.

Pickaway in the Cincinnati Enquirer.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 10.—While the Governor of Ohio is tramping over the State and "pointing with pride" to "his administration," and painting in glowing colors the efficient and harmonious conduct of the State penal and benevolent institutions, it is an open secret in Republican circles that several of our State penitentiaries are in a thoroughly disorganized and demoralized condition. For months the Central Inmate Asylum has been without a head. The Superintendent, who has just resigned, has been absent for months, and the institution is in a state of anarchy. This is a thoroughly disorganized

Twelve thousand, two hundred and six persons visited the Cincinnati Exposition on Friday.

Read General Morgan's Cleveland speech, printed on the first page of this week's BANNER.

The American people have tried the Republican Star Route thieves, and found them guilty.

The negroes of Alabama, tired of being Republican slaves, voted with the Democracy at the late election.

Ben Butterworth has been re-nominated for Congress, by the Republicans of the 1st district, without opposition.

The result of the election in Maine is claimed as a "boom" for Blaine, and that is why Arthur feels unhappy.

The Atlanta Constitution announces that "Hon. John Sherman is stumping Ohio for a weaker brand of beer."

If Colgate and Phipps had anticipated the result of the Star Route trial, they doubtless would not have run away.

Col. L. H. Pond, who is stumping Ohio in behalf of the Workingmen, is receiving much abuse from the Republican papers.

The employees of the Cincinnati Postoffice have been looted to the extent of $15,000, to keep the Republican thieves in power.

There never will be an honest administration and good government in this country until the Republican party is overthrown.

There is no use putting the country to the expense of these Star Route trials. You can't convict Republican thieves, who have money.

The Government clerks are all in favor of protection from the oppressive assessments of Jay Hubbell and Repudiator Mahone.

The official majority for Henry, regular Democrat, over Jacob, Independent, and all shades, for Clerk, in Kentucky, is 40,217.

That stupendous farce, commonly called the "Star Route trial," cost the Government over $300,000 and yet all the big rascals escaped.

In the recent 200 yards shooting match at Creedmoor, between the British and American teams, the former won by a score of 942 against 331.

Secretary Folger says the report that he was the Administration candidate for Governor of New York has greatly lessened his prospects of securing the nomination.

The Prohibitionists have made Congressional and county nominations pretty generally throughout the State. Republican abuse don't seem to have frightened them in the least.

The Sandusky Register, a Republican paper, says: "When Charley Foster was a candidate for Congress he had a way of securing saloon influence that no other politician of our acquaintance ever possessed or made practicable."

At Cincinnati on Tuesday John F. Follett and Isaac M. Jordan were nominated by acclamation by the Democratic conventions of the First and Second districts respectively for Congress.

When you buy a diamond, you pay a tariff duty of 10 per cent. That is a tariff for revenue. When you buy a common blanket you pay a duty of 80 per cent. That is a tariff for "protection."

It is reported that the arrangements are being made for a second trial of the Star-Routers. Cubismo? In these days of Republican dishonesty and corruption, jury trials are a farce and mockery.

A Marion correspondent of the Columbus Journal says that while making a speech in Marion, Gov. Foster was "unusually warmed up." He probably took in the heating fluid at the corner drug store.

The Philadelphia Times says: As the Dorseys are practically acquitted, the ex-Senator will probably be assigned to duty in Pennsylvania to boss the Stalwart campaign as he bossed it in Indiana. Condon is already here.

After Charley Foster discovers the result of his sham temperance speeches he will no doubt fall back into his former methods of running the saloons, and "treating the boys liberally." He can be "all things by turns and nothing long."

All the candidates favored by the Cincinnati Commercial were defeated by the Hamilton County Republican Convention last week, which furnishes great rejoicing to the Gazette and Equivocal. The Commercial claims that the ticket nominated is a very weak one.

Mayor King, the Democratic Mayor of Philadelphia has appointed six negroes to positions on the police force. The Republicans of that city are enraged at the success of the movement. No Republican Mayor of Philadelphia ever gave the negroes anything higher than the position of spittoon-cleaner, or floor-scrubber.

A few years ago the Republicans of Ohio made an awful blunder about what they called the "St. Ghegan law," and attempted to excite prejudice and bitterness against the Catholics in consequence of that measure. Now however, Ghegan is in full communion with the Republicans, and was up to Columbus the other day in private consultation with Governor Foster. Ghegan is now a Republican "Saint," and "altogether lovely."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "If Gov. Foster wants anybody to believe that his conversion to the temperance cause, has any reality in it, he will resign the office he now holds. He was elected, according to his own confession, by whisky votes and whisky money. Before any faith can be put in Foster's profession of true goodness, he will have to give up the profits of his former evil associations."

Rev. T. J. Smith, editor of the Pittsburgh Colored Citizen, states the case with pointed neatness: "They say the colored man is clamoring for office. We answer, yes. Now tell us what the white man is clamoring for. Don't let him announce at once." The reverend editor proceeds to answer that the colored vote will from this time forward be cast entirely independent of affiliations and reminiscences of the past.

Judge Wylie, of the Washington Criminal Court, on Tuesday last, granted a new trial to the two Star Routers (Miner and Rerdell) who were convicted of conspiracy to rob the Government. The gentlemen gave the required bail and departed. This will probably be the last of the case. It would be ridiculous to find guilty and punish the small fry, and let the big rascals escape.

The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention was held at Boston on Tuesday, when the following ticket was nominated: For Governor, Benj. F. Butler; Lieutenant Governor, Samuel W. Bowerman; Secretary of State, D. N. Skillings; Treasurer, and Receiver, Gen. William A. Hodge; Auditor, John P. Sweeney; Attorney General, George F. V. Very. General Butler's nomination was unanimous.

A letter from Akron, to the Cleveland Plain Dealer says: The Republicans here are alarmed at the tide that is setting in against McClure and in favor of Paige. The workmen are going to be nearly solid for Paige and hundreds of Republicans have declared their intention to vote for him. Paige will carry Summit county by a large majority.

The Republicans in the Fourteenth district must be greatly alarmed at the prospects of Judge Geddes' election, for we notice they have engaged the Cleveland Herald and Leader and several other papers out of the district to assail him in the most violent manner. It seems, however, that these attacks are only increasing the number and activity of Judge Geddes' friends.

Gov. Colquitt, of Georgia, tendered the appointment of United States Senator to Ben Hill, Jr., in place of his father recently deceased, but the young gentleman declined, assigning as a reason that the position was beyond his aspirations. If young Hill had been an Ohio Republican he would know no such word as "decline."

Rev. W. H. Scott, President of the University of Ohio, is being tried by a Methodist tribunal at Athens for denying the trinity, vicarious atonement, the divinity of Christ, total depravity, and the resurrection of the body. As to the latter charge, an attempt will be made to justify by citing similar views of Bishop Foster.

The Zanesville Courier calls the Gibson meeting at that place one of "temperance and morality," which moves the Signal to remark that "the only man who was arrested by the police and fined by the Mayor yesterday morning, was a Republican who attended the Bill Gibson meeting."

The longest political contest on record for a congressional nomination took place in the Second Wisconsin district, last week, when D. H. Sumner was nominated by the Democrats for Congress on sixteen hundred and first ballot. The district is strongly Democratic.

Mrs. Victoria will probably request Parliament to enlarge her title so as to read: "Queen of England and Empress of India and of Egypt," or perhaps she may send one of her hopeful boys across the Mediterranean, and have the soldiers proclaim him "Khedive of Egypt."

Either Samuel J. Tilden is about to "hand in his checks," or else some newspaper reporters are gregarious liars. If Uncle Sammy has a family physician, he should issue an "official bulletin," to give the public the simple truth on the subject.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer is one of the liveliest Democratic papers received at this office. The way it cuts and slashes the Leader and the Herald, and some political cranks who assume to speak for the Democratic party, is better than a picnic.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania have now a golden opportunity to come into power, if they so desire; but it seems to us, at this distance, that they are sadly lacking in energy, vitality and organization. We hope we may be mistaken.

It is reported that Dr. Updegraff, Congressman from the Jefferson-Belmont district, is seriously ill. The labor and excitement incident to the protracted struggle to secure a re-nomination, seem to have completely worn him out.

"The Bible in one hand and Bottle in the other, to set an example of holiness on the Sabbath day," is the terse official description by the Cincinnati Commercial (Rep.) of the figure the Republican party is cutting in this campaign.

Mr. Dorsey having made satisfactory arrangements with two of the twelve jurors is now ready to resume work as Secretary of the Republican National Committee. "My dear Hubbell" will find him very useful.

B. Gratz Brown, who used to figure as the tail to the Greeley kite in Harper's Weekly, in 1873, is making temperance speeches for the Republicans on West. Gratz, like Charley Foster, has "reformed."

The Cleveland Press (Ind.) says: "People who witnessed the grand drunk here at the time of Garfield's funeral, little thought the Republican party would be so soon running as the only good and sober party."

Death of John Y. Glessner.

With feelings of profound sorrow we are called upon this week to announce the death of our old and valuable friend JOHN Y. GLESSNER, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Richland Shield and Banner, which took place at his residence in Mansfield, at 3 o'clock on Monday morning, from a complicated disorder of the stomach and bowels, after a brief illness.

Mr. Glessner was born in Somerset, Pennsylvania in 1805, where he learned "the art preservative of all arts," and commenced his editorial career, when quite a young man. He removed to Ohio in 1833, and became editor of the St. Clairsville Gazette, and, in connection with his brother Jacob also published the Cadiz Sentinel. We became acquainted with Mr. Glessner at Columbus, during the session of the Legislature of 1839-40, when he was foreman in the office of the old Ohio Statesman, then edited by the lamented Col. Samuel Medary, and the writer thereof was a Reporter in the Legislature for that paper. The friendship which then commenced continued without interruption for forty-three years.

Mr. Glessner removed to Mansfield in 1841, where he purchased the Shield and Banner, the Democratic organ of Richland county, and he published and edited the same, superintending the issue of every number, unless unavoidably absent for a few days—up to the time of his death.

No man stood higher in the community where he resided, than John Y. Glessner, and he passed away without leaving a single enemy behind. Although decided in his political opinions and convictions, he never, for a moment, allowed politics to interfere with his social and personal relations; and, wherever he went, he was always the same kind-hearted, amiable citizen, and the high-toned, honorable, conservative, Christian gentleman. He was devotedly attached to his friends and family, and sunshine and happiness always reigned within his hospitable home.

The funeral of Mr. Glessner took place on Wednesday afternoon, and was the largest ever witnessed in Mansfield. By direction of the City Council, the Mayor issued his Proclamation requesting that all places of business should be closed between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, and the entire population of the city seemed to have responded to the call and repaired to the late residence of the deceased to show their regard for their respected and honored fellow-citizen.

"Green be the turf above thee,
Friend of my better days;
None knew thee but to love thee,
None named thee but to praise.
"Tears fell when thou wert dying
From eyes unused to weep,
And long where thou art lying
Will tears the green grass steep."

The Cincinnati Volksblatt (Rep.) says: "The Republican leaders in Ohio it appears, have taken Foster's expression: 'We can do without the Germans,' for their precept. They could not do better, were they acting with the avowed purpose of driving all the Germans solid over to the Democratic party, before the October election."

The Missouri Republican thinks "it is not altogether agreeable to the popular taste that Mr. Arthur should always be chronicled in the company of the ostentatious rich, the guest of none but millionaires and seated at the right hand only of the valiant and most noted of the rich parvenues of the east."

The Holmes County Farmer says: "People fond of noting remarkable coincidences will make a record of the fact that the year which is memorable for the election of Keifer as Speaker of the House of Representatives, is also the year in which the first load of jackasses was landed in this country."

Messrs. Parnell, Dillon, Davitt and their associates in Ireland, are about to organize a new political movement upon a platform of national self-government, the abolition of landlordism, the promotion of home industries, the rights of laborers, and a paid representation in Parliament.

Old Joe Geiger, the Republican State Librarian would be a very proper person to go on the stump to deliver temperance speeches. He could illustrate the evils of the "flowing bowl" after the style of John B. Gough, in a manner that would be decidedly entertaining and instructive.

Only seventeen days until the election. Democrats, bear this in mind, or organize thoroughly in every township and school district, and make arrangements to have every Democratic voter at the polls.

The Republicans of the two Cleveland and Congressional districts are so alarmed about their prospects, that they have invited Jim Blaine to come among them and "fire the hearts" of the disaffected.

The New York Times (Rep.) suggests that the next appropriation bill should contain a clause: "For salaries of the slaves of William Mahone in the Interior (or William) department."

In less than a month from now the Republicans will be cursing Charley Foster, Charley Townsend, Dick Smith, and all the other "reformers," who got them into all this trouble.

The steamer Asia, with about one hundred persons on board, foundered on Lake Huron on Thursday last. Only two persons are known to be saved.

Rev. Dr. Pusey, whose "Oxford tracts" created so much sensation in the Church of England a few years ago, died in London on Saturday evening.

Cincinnati Equivocal thinks that "if Governor Foster fail in his political ambition he can go into the lecture field, Gough is old enough to retire."

The New York Republican State Convention, Wednesday, nominated Secretary Folger for Governor on the first ballot.

Cairo, the largest and handsomest of all the Egyptian cities, was saved from pillage and desolation by the English army.

Arabi Pasha, if released from captivity, might retrieve his lost fortunes by entering the lecture field.

Robeson, the Republican leader in Congress, has been re-nominated in the First New Jersey district.

The best fighters in the English army in Egypt were Irishmen.

The only physician we employ is "Sellers' Liver Pills," and we always enjoy good health. Try them.

End of the Egyptian War.

On Wednesday last week, Arabi's troops were defeated at Tel-el-Kebir, and captured by the British. The English forces struck camp at Kassassin on a high ridge until half past one Wednesday morning, when they advanced toward Tel-el-Kebir, which Arabi Pasha was holding with 20,000 regulars, 6,000 Bedouins and 70 guns. The British troops numbered 13,000 men and 60 guns.

The attack was made before daybreak, batteries of horse artillery on the right cutting off the Egyptian retreat on the north. The other columns charged the earthworks, capturing them after twenty minutes fighting.

Arabi Pasha barely escaped, galloping off on a thoroughbred Arab steed. The Egyptian loss is estimated at 2,000 men. The British loss is about two hundred, including many officers.

Arabi Pasha when taken before the Khedive, presented a loathsome picture of grovelling servility. He swore he had not been aware that he was fighting against the Khedive. The Khedive remained standing, while Arabi Pasha was in his presence. When Arabi concluded, the Khedive ordered his removal.

The British cavalry continued its march to Belbels, and the Indian contingent to Zagazig.

Zagazig was occupied by Gen. Macpherson in the afternoon.

The taking of Tel-el-Kebir caused great rejoicing in Alexandria.

A public surrender of arms was made by the Egyptians at Kef-el-Dwar on Sunday.

Twelve hundred prisoners have been marched to Ismailia.

A regular court is to be established at Cairo for the public trial of the captured rebel chiefs.

General Wolsey is to be presented with a sword on his return to Dublin from Egypt.

After the engagement at Tel-el-Kebir, Arabi Pasha fled to Cairo and told the Council his troops had deserted him, upon which a mission was sent to the Khedive with two letters from Arabi Pasha, one expressing his devotion and the other warning him not to allow the English to enter Cairo. The Khedive refused to receive the letters.

If you want to know all about the doings of the wicked Democrats, you have only to read the truth-telling Republican papers. A few weeks ago these organs announced that the Cincinnati brewers had paid over to the Democratic State Central Committee $30,000, to be used in beating the saintly Republicans. These enterprising papers now admit that this was untrue, and that the brewers are going to disburse their money to suit themselves.

It is claimed, however, that John G. Thompson has received $20,000 from somebody else, and put it in his pocket, without making a divide with the other members of the committee, who are now raising Hades about it. We will probably next hear that Uncle Sammy Tilden and the British Free Trade League, are sending half a million dollars into Ohio to buy up all the purchasable Republicans, which numbers about one-half the party. You must believe everything you see published in the Republican papers, which would no more tell a lie than would the first Republican we have any record of—Mr. Ananias.

In view of the fact that one or two persons on a jury, through stupidity, obstinacy or corruption, (as in the Star Route trial) may stand out for acquittal, the New York Herald favors a change in the system of trial by jury, so that when nine intelligent, unbiased men, out of twelve, find a prisoner guilty, he should be declared guilty and convicted. The American people are greatly wedded to the jury system, but there is no disguising the fact that of late years their faith in that bulwark of liberty has become greatly weakened.

The Republicans of Hamilton county held their nominating convention on Thursday last week. It was a riotous affair. One of the defeated candidates, who claimed that he was cheated out of the nomination, jumped on the stage and made a violent assault upon the chairman, when the latter, in turn, knocked him down with a club. The police separated the combatants. These things don't look well for the "God and Morality party."

If the so-called "Department of Justice," at Washington, attempted to bribe jurors, as alleged by Mr. Dickson, foreman in the late Star Route trial, then it is high time that a full and complete exposure should be made. The Star Routers may have been villainous thieves, but they deserve to be ranked among the saints as compared with the managers of the "Department of Justice," if Mr. Dickson tells the truth.

Hon. Thomas L. Young, the present Congressman from the 2d district, has been defeated for a re-nomination by Amor Smith, Jr. Young has been disgusted with the temperance issue that Charley Foster has forced upon the Republicans, and has not hesitated to say so publicly. And hence David Smith, and his little coterie of self-righteous politicians, decreed that Young should be thrown over-board.

Prof. C. C. Parker, Superintendent of the Batavia Colored Schools, is announced as an independent candidate for Congress in the 7th district. The colored vote in Clermont, Warren, Greene and Butler counties will aggregate between two and three thousand, among whom is a loud wail for recognition. We presume the Republicans will try to buy Professor Parker off with an appointment in Washington.

The Washington Star contains the following: During the Star Route trial, when the conduct and record of the jurors were matters of much scrutiny, affidavits were filed with the Department of Justice, indicating that William Brown the colored man who held out for the acquittal of Brady and Dorsey, received a bribe in a three-card monte case tried before the Star Route case was called. This case will be, it is stated, laid before the Grand Jury.

The Mansfield Herald (Rep.) says that Hon. Manuel May, the Democratic candidate for Common Pleas Judge, is "too innocent to tell a falsehood." It would be a good thing for the country if a like remark could be made about all public men and all candidates for office.

The Detroit Free Press thinks that Hubbell, the collector of Republican campaign levies, should have a flag, as well as the President. It should be the black flag of the pirate.

INSPECTOR'S NOTICE.

Mount Vernon, Knox County, Ohio.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate:

SIR:—By authority derived from you, officially, bearing date the 12th day of September, 1882, and after being duly sworn, according to law, I, D. W. LAMBERT, as Inspector, without previous notice or intimation to the County Treasurer, or any other person, of such intention, did forthwith enter into the County Treasury and proceeded immediately to count the moneys therein, and inspect the books, records and vouchers thereof, together with all other property which should be in the custody of the Treasurer. In compliance with the law requiring certificates of such examination, I herewith certify that Thirty-nine Thousand, Six and 68-100 Dollars was the exact amount of money so found and counted in the County Treasury, and that the statement annexed, which agrees with the book of the Auditor, presents the exact balances and over payments in each fund, and of property then in the custody of the Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
D. W. LAMBERT, Inspector.
