REGULATIONS.

Any candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, may, on examination, be received as a student in the Seminary; and any other person, who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character. The candidates for admission, not Bachelors of Arts, will be examined in Latin and Greek Grammar, Sallust, Cicero's Orations, Virgil's Æneid, Jacob's Greek Reader, and the four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles; and on the general principles of Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetoric. They will also be required to read an original composition.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing, must pass an examination in the studies which the class they desire to enter has pursued.

Every student, on admission, must subscribe the following declaration in the matriculation book of the Seminary:—

"We the subscribers, Students in the Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio, do solemnly promise, with reliance on Divine Grace, that we will faithfully obey the laws and prosecute the studies thereof, endeavor to promote the reputation and interests of the Seminary, and make daily effort by pious reading, self-examination and secret prayer, to cultivate all religious and moral dispositions and habits, and grow in those graces which should characterize the Christian and the Minister of the Cross."

The course of study occupies three years, including vacations, which are the same as in other departments.

The subjects of study during the Junior Year, are Hebrew, Biblical Geography, Biblical Antiquities, Septuagint, Historical Books of the New Testament, the Principles of Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, and the Antiquities of the Christian Church.

The subjects of study during the Middle Year, are Hebrew and Interpretation of the New Testament continued, Christian Ethics, the Evidences of Christianity, Systematic Divinity and Ecclesiastical History.

The Senior Class is occupied with the study of the Scriptures, Systematic Divinity, Ecclesiastical History, Church Polity, the Composition and Delivery of Sermons, and the Duties of the Pastoral Office.

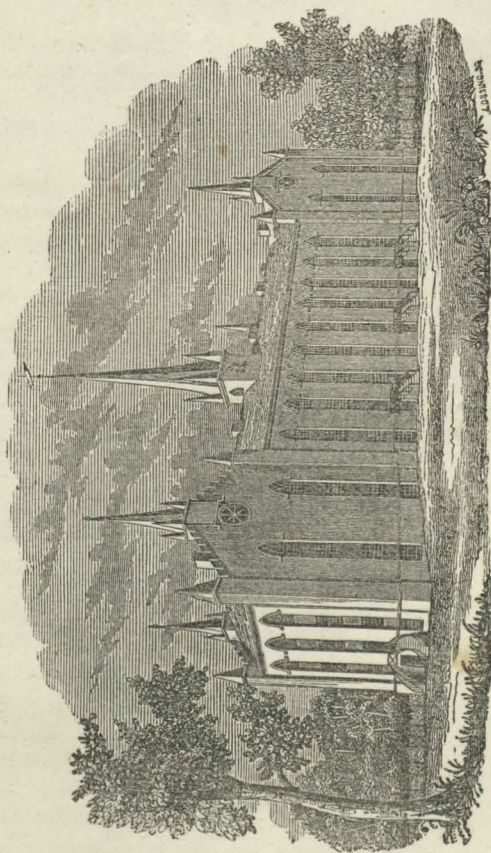

Students are allowed to attend gratuitously, any recitations in Kenyon College which they may choose, provided they do not interfere with the appropriate duties of the Seminary.

A public examination of students takes place at the close of every term.

No charge is made for Instruction, Room rent, or use of Library. Indigent Students are aided from scholarships, and from the funds of the Missionary and Education Committee of the Diocese.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF KENYON COLLEGE.

ADMISSION.—Candidates for Admission to the Freshman Class must be prepared to pass a strict examination in the following books and subjects, viz :

- In Greek.* GREEK GRAMMAR.
Jacob's, or Felton's or Bullion's GREEK Reader, or, at the option of the candidate, twenty DIALOGUES OF LUCIAN, and three books of Xenophon.
- In Latin.* LATIN GRAMMAR.
Six Books of VIRGIL'S ÆNEID.
Anthon's CICERO'S Select Orationes.
- In English.* DAVIES' ARITHMETIC.
ENGLISH GRAMMAR and GEOGRAPHY.

Candidates preparing for the Freshman Class are cautioned not to anticipate the studies of the College course, in any Department. A better course for the candidate, if he has time to spare, is to direct his attention exclusively to the elementary Classics, and especially to the authors above named; let him study these faithfully—analyzing the construction, and parsing every sentence, until he shall have made himself thoroughly and practically acquainted with the grammatical forms and rules of both Languages. He will then realize the true benefits of the Classic discipline in his College course, and be able to maintain a respectable standing in that department without engrossing so much of his time as to prevent his taking a very full and complete course of pure and mixed mathematics. It is intended to make the examinations for admission especially searching in the elementary classics. Familiarity with the paradigms of verbs, nouns, &c., and with the Syntax and Prosody of both languages, is indispensable to successful readings in College. The student should scarcely attempt to read, in the full sense of that term, until he enters College. Let his time and attention be bestowed on elementary principles, and their application. Let him parse every thing, and pass by no word or sentence without thoroughly mastering it, and then his course afterwards will be pleasant and profitable. Students not thus prepared soon become discouraged in College, complain that the lessons are too long, and not unfrequently fall back on a partial course. It is any thing but kindness to his pupil in any teacher to encourage him in superficial habits in his preparatory course. The result in College can be nothing but embarrassment and sorrow. Elementary mythology and history should also receive a large share of attention, and for this purpose the faithful preparatory Instructor will require from his pupil an account of every proper name as it occurs in his daily lessons.

Candidates offering for advanced standing, will be examined in the studies of the College course corresponding to such standing: but for the reasons suggested in the preceding paragraph, it is hoped that no one will seek to enter in advance, except where circumstances render it unavoidable. Those at least who aim at Mathematical or Classic honors, will find it of great importance to have passed through the studies of the Freshman year in the Institution.

No candidate is admitted into the Freshman class under fifteen; and even at that age, unless he is more than ordinarily mature he will find it rather difficult to meet all the requirements of his college course. Sixteen or Seventeen is generally a better age, if proper attention has been paid in the preceding years, to the formation of good academic habits; and in that case, even two or three additional years is no objection. A proportionate increase of age is, of course, necessary for admission into the higher classes.

Testimonials of good conduct are required in all cases, and a regular dismission, when the candidate comes from another college. Every student on his admission, and before he can be assigned to a room, must subscribe a pledge, binding himself during his residence on the Hill, to abstain from ardent spirits, from gambling, and from the use of profane language, and in all other respects to observe the laws and regulations of the Institution.

The stated examination for the admission of candidates, is on the day before Commencement annually; a supplementary examination, for the same purpose, is also held on the first day of each term; but students may be examined at other times, on application to the President.

MATRICULATION.—No student even after his admission to residence, is allowed to matriculate, until he shall have sustained a satisfactory probation of at least twenty weeks, and established a personal claim to the confidence of the Faculty; failing in which he is liable to be dismissed. Matriculation alone gives accredited membership in the Institution, and renders the student upon whom it is conferred a proper candidate for degrees and honors. Should any student after matriculation, abuse the confidence on which that act proceeds, he may be degraded, i. e. reduced again to the condition of a Probationer, and then further disciplined as the occasion may require.

The conduct of undergraduates is marked and reported as follows:—

Absence from Prayers or from Church, or being tardy at Church, or egression from Church, without excuse, 1, under the head of Absence from Prayers.

Absence from recitation, or failure to prepare a lesson, without excuse, 1:

Being found by an officer at any play ground, shop, or eating-house, in study hours, or creating disturbance by boisterous conduct in or about the College building, in study or recitation hours, 1, to be reported under the head of "Neglect of Study hours."

Twelve delinquencies during one Term will incur a private admonition, twenty-four a degradation from matriculation, of which the parent or guardian is to be informed, and thirty-six a suspension from College at the pleasure of the Faculty.

Any student having once been suspended for delinquency, may be dismissed, if twelve delinquencies accrue during any term within a year from the expiration of his term of suspension.

PATRONAGE.—Each student, after his admission, is required to choose,—and in failure to choose for himself within a reasonable time, the Faculty will nominate for him, some one of their number, to act as his College patron. To this person, thus connected with him, he is at liberty, and is expected to apply, as to a friend, whenever his inclination or circumstances may lead him to seek advice or information on any subject connected with his academic standing and pursuits, or with his personal welfare.

The patron, on his part, is required to take an active concern in behalf of the client thus committed to his care:—exercising a parental guardianship over him, and giving him advice and caution as he may see occasion. In doing this he will consult the wishes of the Parents as well as the interests of the Institution, and will take care to be advised of both, as may seem necessary for his client's welfare, so long as he remains connected with the Institution.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Virgil's Georgics.

1st Part. Homer's Iliad.
Davies' Bourdon's Algebra.

FIRST TERM.—Livy.

2d Part. Homer's Iliad.
Algebra completed, and Geometry begun.

SECOND TERM.—Livy.

Herodotus and Thucydides.
Davies' Legendre's Plane Geometry.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Horace's Odes.

1st Part. Xenophon's Cyropædia.
Solid Geometry and Plane Trigonometry.

FIRST TERM.—Horace's Satires and Epistles.

2d Part. Lysias, Isocrates, Demosthenes.
Spherical Trigonometry and Descriptive Geometry.

SECOND TERM.—Cicero de Senectute, de Amicitia, Paradoxa, Somnium Scipionis, Xenophon's Memorabilia.

Davies Surveying, and Analytical Geometry.

JUNIOR YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Tacitus' Germania and Agricola, Plato.

1st Part. Olmsted's Natural Philosophy—Mechanics.
Guizot's History of Civilization.
Whately's Logic.

FIRST TERM.—Aristotle, Longinus.

2d Part. Olmsted's Natural Philosophy—Acoustics,
Magnetism, Electricity and Optics.
Whately's Rhetoric.

SECOND TERM.—Sophocles, Euripides, Pindar.

Cicero de Oratore, Olmsted's Astronomy.
Exercises in Criticism, Composition, and Original Declamation.

SENIOR YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Quintillian.

1st Part. Upham's Philosophy of the Mind.
Natural Theology, Anatomy and Physiology.
Inorganic Chemistry and its Application to the Arts and Physical Sciences.

FIRST TERM.—Quintillian.

2d Part. Butler's Analogy.
McIlvaine's Evidences.
Organic Chemistry and the Chemistry of Animal and Vegetable Physiology.
Zoology.

SECOND TERM.—Wayland's Moral Science and Political Economy.

Dana's Manual of Mineralogy.

Lyell's Elements of Geology.

Composition and Original Declamation throughout the year.

RECITATIONS AND ACADEMIC EXERCISES.—The first exercise each week is a recitation in the Greek Testament, which all the College classes are required to attend.

The recitations are three daily, except Wednesdays and Saturdays, when there are but two. Wednesday, P. M., is occupied, however, in Rhetorical exercises; when, as often as is consistent with other duties, the Senior and Junior Classes deliver original declamations, or engage in extemporaneous discussions in the College chapel; the Sophomore Class read compositions, and the Freshman Class meet for instruction in the principles of Elocution and reading.

Some general instructions in Physiology and Anatomy are given in connexion with Natural Theology, and the Chemistry of Physiology, by the Professor of Chemistry; also a course of Experimental Lectures to the Senior Class on the subjects of Chemistry, Mineralogy, and Geology.

Instruction in vocal music is afforded to the members of the Institution gratis.

It is expected that every student will keep by him for reference, during his classical course, a Classical Dictionary, and Classical Atlas.

RELIGIOUS WORSHIP.—Students are required to attend public services at Rosse Chapel, which is the Parish Church, twice on Sunday; and at morning and evening prayers in the College Chapel daily. There is also a public Biblical Lecture on Sunday evenings, in the Lecture Room of Rosse Chapel, attendance at which is optional.

EXAMINATIONS AND PUBLIC EXERCISES.—There is a regular examination of all the classes at the end of each Term.

That which takes place at the end of the Summer Term is called the Annual Examination, and is followed by the Commencement; the others are Term Examinations, and are concluded with appropriate exercises in Declamation and Rhetoric.

To attend and report on these examinations a standing Committee of nine is annually appointed by the Diocesan Convention. The final examinations, at the close of the year, are also usually attended by the Bishop.

Students who by sickness or any other unavoidable necessity, are prevented from appearing at the regular examination, may be examined separately; but no student, under any circumstances, is deemed to have made good his standing, or kept his term, till he has passed a proper examination.

MARKS OF SCHOLARSHIP.—Every Student at each recitation is marked, according to his performance, from 0 to 3: the first symbol indicating a total failure, and the last a perfect recitation. When any one absents himself from a recitation, if excused, he is marked in proportion, otherwise, 0. Perfect recitations in any one subject during a whole term, give the maximum number attainable in that subject; and the performance of each student is estimated by the comparison of his actual number with that maximum.

A similar grade in Conduct is also made out at the end of each term, founded upon the observance of the College requirements, as stated under the head of Matriculation.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.—These are two, viz: The Philomathesian and the Nu Pi Kappa. They meet weekly in their respective halls, and possess each of them valuable and extensive libraries. Occasional exercises are had by each of them in public.

LIBRARIES AND TEXT BOOKS.—The Libraries to which students may have access, are as follows, viz:—

- | | | |
|--|---|-------------|
| 1. The Library of the Seminary and College, containing about | | 4,500 Vols. |
| 2. That of the Philomathesian Society | " | 2,200 " |
| 3. That of the Nu Pi Kappa | " | 2,000 " |
| 4. That of Milnor Hall, | " | 600 " |
| 5. The Whitneyan Library for Text Books, | " | 400 " |

STUDENTS' ROOMS.—The rooms are neatly fitted up and papered; and the following articles of furniture placed in each, viz: a Bedstead for two single beds; straw Mattresses, and Chairs, one of the former and two of the latter to each student; a large study Table, and a Wash-stand. Bedding and light furniture, as also fuel and lights, are furnished by the occupant.

Two students occupy one room, unless otherwise permitted; and are held accountable, both for the room and furniture, unless possession is regularly reconveyed to the proper officer.

Each student must deposit $2 with the College Treasurer at the beginning of each term, to cover breakage and incidental damages to the College Buildings; the balance, if any, to be refunded at the end of the term.

MEDICAL ATTENDANCE, BOARDING, &c.—Medical advice and attendance are given by the College Physician, to all members of the Institution who require it; for which $2 per annum are included in the College bills.

Board is furnished in private houses, at rates varying from $1.25 to $1.50, per week.

Washing may be contracted for at 75 cents per month, and Fuel costs from $1 to $1.25 per cord, delivered at the College.

COLLEGE EXPENSES.—To be paid to the Treasurer, two-thirds at the beginning of the First Term, and one-third at the beginning of the Second Term, in advance,—Tuition, $30,—Room Rent, use of Furniture, Medical attendance, care of Halls, Recitation Rooms and Chapel, and all other items, except a deposit for damages, for forty weeks, $15.00. Total, exclusive of vacations, $45.00.

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES, for the same period of Forty Weeks, payable to individuals as they accrue, viz: BOARD from $50.00 to $60.00. WASHING from $6.00 to $8.00. FUEL AND LIGHTS from $5.00 to $10.00. TEXT BOOKS from $6.00 to $12.00. POSTAGE, STATIONERY, &c. &c., from $10.00 to $20.00. Total, from $67.00 to $110.00.

The estimate of ALL EXPENSES, therefore, except clothing, will be from $112.00 to $155.00 per annum, exclusive of vacations.

Parents are respectfully requested, for obvious reasons, to make their remittances, in all cases, through the College Patron, or in some way subject to his control; and to advise with him also as to any allowance of money they may wish to furnish their sons, over and above the estimate here given.

KENYON PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

This department is designed to accommodate three classes of students:—1st. Those wishing to pursue the elementary English and Classical studies a knowledge of which is required previous to their entering upon a regular course in College: 2nd. Those wishing to prepare themselves for becoming Teachers in the Common Schools, and 3d. Those wishing to prepare for business or for beginning the study of a profession without pursuing the different branches to the extent they are carried in the College department. They room in the east wing of the College building, or, if aiding themselves by manual labor, elsewhere in Gambier, with the consent of the Principal of the School.

ROOMS are comfortably fitted up in the wing, for the accommodation of two occupants each, and furnished with a Bedstead, Bed-tick, Table, Washstand and Stove. Each Student provides himself with such other things as he needs,—fuel, lights, bedding, &c.

STUDIES.—Arithmetic, Geography, English Grammar, History, Natural Philosophy, Natural History, Algebra, Geometry, Chemistry, Rhetoric, Composition, the Latin and Greek Languages, and in general such branches as are usually taught in High Schools and Academies.

Students in this department wishing to pursue the higher Mathematics, Classics, or other sciences of the College Course, are permitted to attend lectures and recitations with the College classes.

TEXT BOOKS.—Mandeville's Elements of Reading and Oratory, Mitchell's Geography, Davies' Arithmetic, Bourdon's Algebra, Legendre's Geometry, Colt's Book-Keeping, Bullion's English, Latin and Greek Grammars; Bullion's Latin Reader, Caesar and Greek Reader; Anthon's Cicero and Virgil, Parker's Natural Philosophy, Ruschenberger's Series of Natural History, and the Bible. Some of the text books are the same as those used for the same studies in College.

THE REGULATIONS are, in general, the same as those by which the College students are directed. Every Student is required to attend a Bible Class once a week, morning and evening Prayers daily in the College Chapel, and Public Worship in Rosse Chapel twice on Sunday, unless excused to attend public worship elsewhere according to the expressed wish of a parent or guardian.

EXPENSES.—Per Year,—Tuition $20.00. Room-rent, use of Furniture, care of Halls, Class rooms, &c., $12.00. Charge for damage, according to amount done, varying from 50 cents to $3.00. Payments are required, for each Term, in advance, which, as the year is now divided, makes $20.80 for the Winter Term of 26 weeks, and $11.20 for the Summer Term of 14 weeks. Students in this department who attend lectures and recitations with the College Classes, in the higher Mathematics, Classics or other sciences of the College course, are charged the same tuition as College students, and are enrolled immediately after them in the Catalogue as a SCIENTIFIC CLASS. There is no extra charge for any study in the School except for either the French or German Language, or Penmanship, for either of which it is from $3.00 to $7.00 a Term, according to agreement.

Other particulars under this head may be found on page 25.

PLEDGE.—No person will be allowed to become a member of the School without pledging himself to observe the regulations of the Institution, by one of which the use of profane language, intoxicating liquors, and playing-cards is strictly prohibited.

MANUAL LABOR.—Every possible encouragement is extended to those who wish to increase their means of support by their own industry. And it is believed that no able-bodied, energetic young man, having a "mind to work," need fear but that he can, by self-denial and perseverance, here lay the broad foundations of a most desirable education.
