Any candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, may, on examination, be received as a student in the Seminary; and any other person, who may give sufficient evidence of a fair moral and religious character. The candidates for admission, not Bachelors of Arts, will be examined in Latin and Greek Grammar, Sallust, Cicero's Orations, Virgil's Aeneid, Jacob's Greek Reader, and the four Gospels and Acts of the Apostles; and on the general principles of Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and Rhetoric. They will also be required to read an original composition.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing, must pass an examination in the studies which the class they desire to enter has pursued.

Every student, on admission, must subscribe the following declaration in the matriculation book of the Seminary:—

"We the subscribers, Students in the Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Ohio, do solemnly promise, with reliance on Divine Grace, that we will faithfully obey the laws and prosecute the studies thereof, endeavor to promote the reputation and interests of the Seminary, and make daily effort by pious reading, self-examination and secret prayer, to cultivate all religious and moral dispositions and habits, and grow in those graces which should characterize the Christian and the Minister of the Cross."

The course of study occupies three years, including vacations, which are the same as in other departments.

The subjects of study during the Junior Year, are Hebrew, Biblical Geography, Biblical Antiquities, Septuagint, Historical Books of the New Testament, the Principles of Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, and the Antiquities of the Christian Church.

The subjects of study during the Middle Year, are Hebrew and Interpretation of the New Testament continued, Christian Ethics, the Evidences of Christianity, Systematic Divinity, and Ecclesiastical History.

The Senior Class is occupied with the study of the Scriptures, Systematic Divinity, Ecclesiastical History, Church Polity, the Composition and Delivery of Sermons, and the Duties of the Pastoral Office.

Students are allowed to attend gratuitously, any recitations in Kenyon College which they may choose, provided they do not interfere with the appropriate duties of the Seminary.

A public examination of students takes place at the close of each year.

No charge is made for Instruction, Room rent, or use of Library. Indigent Students are aided from Scholarships, and from the funds of the Missionary and Education Committee of the Diocese.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF KENYON COLLEGE.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class are referred to the "Preparatory Course" in the Grammar School, for information respecting the studies in which they are expected to be prepared.

The stated examination for the admission of candidates, is on the day before Commencement annually; a supplementary examination, for the same purpose, is also held on the first day of each term; but students may be examined at other times, on application to the President.

Candidates, presenting themselves for examination, who may not have studied the prescribed course, will be admitted if they can pass a satisfactory examination in an equivalent portion of any other Latin and Greek Classics. Each student must be thoroughly acquainted with the grammatical construction of the English, Latin and Greek Languages. He will then realize the true benefits of Classic discipline in his College course, and be able to maintain a respectable standing in that department without engrossing so much of his time as to prevent his taking a full and complete course of pure and mixed mathematics. It is intended to make the examinations for admission especially searching in the elementary classics.

Candidates offering for advanced standing, will be examined in the studies of the College course corresponding to such standing.

No candidate is admitted into the Freshman class under fifteen; and even at that age, unless he is more than ordinarily mature he will find it rather difficult to meet all the requirements of his College course. Sixteen or seventeen is generally a better age, if proper attention has been paid in the preceding years, to the formation of good academic habits; and in that case, even two or three additional years are no objection. A proportionate increase of age is, of course, necessary for admission into the higher classes.

Testimonials of good conduct are required in all cases, and a regular dis-mission, when the candidate comes from another college. Every student on his admission, and before he can be assigned to a room, must subscribe a pledge, binding himself during his residence on the Hill, to abstain from ardent spirits, from gambling, and from the use of profane language, and in all other respects to observe the laws and regulations of the Institution.

MATRICULATION.

No student even after his admission to residence, is allowed to matriculate, until he shall have sustained a satisfactory probation of at least twenty weeks, and established a personal claim to the confidence of the Faculty; failing in which he is liable to be dismissed. Matriculation alone gives accredited membership in the Institution, and renders the student upon whom it is conferred a proper candidate for degrees and honors. Should any student after matriculation, abuse the confidence on which that act proceeds, he may be degraded, i. e., reduced again to the condition of a Probationer, and then further disciplined as the occasion may require.

The conduct of undergraduates is marked and reported as follows:—

Absence from Prayers or from Church, or being tardy at Church, or egression from Church, without excuse, 2, under the head of Absence from Prayers.

Absence from Recitation, or failure to prepare a lesson, without excuse, 1.

Being found by an officer at any play ground, shop, or eating-house, in study hours, or creating disturbance by boisterous conduct in or about the College building, in study or recitation hours, 1, to be reported under the head of "Neglect of Study hours."

Twelve delinquencies during one Term will incur a private admonition, twenty-four a degradation from matriculation, of which the parent or guardian is to be informed, and thirty-six a suspension from College at the pleasure of the Faculty.

Any student having once been suspended for delinquency, may be dismissed, if twelve delinquencies accrue during any term within a year from the expiration of his term of suspension.

PATRONAGE.

Each student, after his admission, is required to choose,—and in failure to choose for himself within a reasonable time, the Faculty will nominate for him, some one of their number, to act as his College Patron. To this person, thus connected with him, he is at liberty, and is expected to apply, as to a friend, whenever his inclination or circumstances may lead him to seek advice or information on any subject connected with his academic standing and pursuits, or with his personal welfare.

The patron, on his part, is required to take an active concern in behalf of the client thus committed to his care:—exercising a parental guardianship over him, and giving him advice and caution as he may see occasion. In doing this he will consult the wishes of the Parents as well as the interests of the Institution, and will take care to be advised of both, as may seem necessary for his client's welfare, so long as he remains connected with the Institution.

RECITATIONS AND ACADEMIC EXERCISES.

The first exercise each week is a recitation in the Greek Testament, which all the College classes are required to attend.

The recitations are three daily, except Wednesdays and Saturdays, when there are but two. Wednesday P. M. is occupied, however, in Rhetorical exercises; when, as often as is consistent with other duties, the Senior and Junior Classes deliver original declamations, or engage in extemporaneous discussions in the College chapel; the Sophomore Class read compositions, and the Freshman Class meet for instruction in the principles of Elocution and reading.

Some general instructions in Physiology and Anatomy are given in connexion with Natural Theology, and the Chemistry of Physiology, by the Professor of Chemistry; also a course of Experimental Lectures to the Senior Class on the subjects of Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology.

It is expected that every student will keep by him for reference, during his classical course, a Classical Dictionary, and Classical Atlas.

RELIGIOUS WORSHIP.

Students are required to attend public services at Rosse Chapel, which is the parish church, twice on Sunday; and at morning and evening prayers in the College Chapel daily.

EXAMINATIONS AND PUBLIC EXERCISES.

There is a regular examination of all the classes at the end of each Term. That which takes place at the end of the Summer Term is called the Annual Examination, and is followed by the Commencement; the others are Term Examinations, and are concluded with appropriate exercises in Declamation and Rhetoric.

To attend and report on these examinations a standing Committee of nine is annually appointed by the Diocesan Convention. The final examinations, at the close of the year, are also usually attended by the Bishop.

Students who by sickness or any other unavoidable necessity, are prevented from appearing at the regular examination, may be examined separately; but no student, under any circumstances, is deemed to have made good his standing, or kept his term, till he has passed a proper examination.

MARKS OF SCHOLARSHIP.

Every student at each recitation is marked, according to his performance, from 0 to 3: the first symbol indicating a total failure, and the last a perfect recitation. When any one absents himself from a recitation, if excused, he is marked in proportion, otherwise, 0. Perfect recitations in any one subject during a whole term, give the maximum number attainable in that subject; and the performance of each student is estimated by the comparison of his actual number with that maximum.

A similar grade in Conduct is also made out at the end of each term, founded upon the observance of the College requirements, as stated under the head of Matriculation.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

These are two, viz: The Philomathesian and the Nu Pi Kappa. They meet weekly in their respective halls, and possess, each of them, valuable and extensive libraries. Occasional exercises are had by each of them in public.

LIBRARIES AND TEXT BOOKS.

The Libraries to which students may have access, are as follows, viz:—

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|---------|
| 1. The Library of the Seminary and College, containing about 5,000 vols. | | | |
| 2. That of the Philomathesian Society, | " | " | 2,500 " |
| 3. That of the Nu Pi Kappa | " | " | 2,000 " |
| 4. Juvenile Library, | " | " | 600 " |

The rooms are neatly fitted up and papered. Two students occupy one room, unless otherwise permitted; and are held accountable for damage to the room during their occupancy.

Each student must deposit $2 with the College Treasurer at the beginning of each term, to cover breakage and incidental damages to the College Buildings; the balance, if any, to be refunded at the end of the term.
