It is not safe to live in Westerville while the Radical Temperance lunatics rule that town.

Governor Bishop has gone to Canada to attend the opening of the Dominion Exposition at Ottawa.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer well says that the Foster "boom" has been chilled and is frozen out.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, heretofore a booming Grant paper, has raised the Blaine Presidential flag.

Senator Owens says that the Germans of Licking county are solid for Ewing and Rice. So they should be everywhere.

Cleveland Plain Dealer states that nine-tenths of the Greenback or National vote in Mahoning county will be cast for Ewing and Rice.

The Republicans have virtually given up the election of Foster by concentrating all their efforts to secure a majority in the Legislature.

The Democrats all over the State are determined to execute the Seitz law, and this will lose the Republicans thousands of votes. Mind that.

Hon. George H. Pendleton, delivered his opening speech for the campaign at Edenton on Saturday. He is announced for eight more speeches.

If that Westerville devilry had occurred at Yazoo, Mississippi, it would be a capital text for some "blood and thunder" Radical Editorials.

And now the mobocrats at Westerville are circulating the improbable story that Corbin blew his own house up! That is a very likely story.

The Fremont Messenger says that O'Hagan and Parker, our candidates for Senators in the Sandusky-Erie district will be elected by rousing majorities.

During the career of Calico Charley in Congress, all his votes and acts were in the interest of the bondholders and bankers and always against the toiling masses.

The villainous attacks of the Cincinnati Gazette upon Gen. Rice, the one-legged soldier on the Democratic ticket, will make him thousands of votes in Ohio.

The Mansfield Herald, the home organ of John Sherman, styles a certain Grant paper a "political prostitute." This shows a sad want of harmony in the happy family.

James Redpath, the well-known writer and lecturer, has mysteriously disappeared from New York, and no trace of him can be found. He is believed to be insane.

If there is no hell, as Bob Ingersoll claims, then what will become of those fellows out at Westerville who blew up Corbin's hotel, and attempted to murder his family?

Hon. D. W. Voorhees and his talented son Charles are doing glorious work for the Democracy of Ohio this campaign, and their valuable services will always be kindly remembered.

The National View, a pretended Greenback paper, is nothing but a tool of the money power, hired by John Sherman and Charles Foster to do the dirty work of the Radical party.

If you prefer a Democrat to a Republican in the United States Senate vote for Clark Irvine, for Representative. He is not ashamed or afraid to avow his sentiments before the people.

After all, the Republicans of New York are about as badly divided as the Democrats, and the Times, the leading Republican paper, does not think Cornell will be elected Governor.

To such of our readers as may see this paper before our great meeting we would say Come, Come, Come, and hear the eloquent and distinguished Voorhees and the powerful and logical Ewing.

We are credibly informed that Washington McLean, of Cincinnati, who is one of the best posted politicians in Ohio, expresses the belief that Ewing's majority will not be less than 20,000.

Holmes County Farmer: Dr. Kirk, of Mt. Vernon, had a Republican meeting in the Court House, Thursday evening. It was a tame affair. The speech partook of the character of a last years' birdnest.

The Columbus Journal, the Central Organ of the Republican party of Ohio says:

"From present indications Knox county will send a Republican member to the next Legislature."

Don't fool yourself, Mr. Journal. The "indications" are that your candidate, Mr. Koons, will be snuffed under a majority of 500. He will lose more Republican votes than he will receive Democratic votes.

It is the Republicans who "are laying their plans for the capture of the Legislature," and in this county they are making superhuman efforts to elect Mr. Koons Representative, in order that they may secure a Republican United States Senator. But no Democrat, worthy of the name, will aid them in their work.

We are credibly informed that the Republicans are offering to trade two votes for John Myers (Dem.) for Treasurer for one vote for Wm. M. Koons (Rep.) for Representative. In one case an offer was made to vote for every man on the Democratic ticket to secure a vote for Koons. We hope no Democrat will so far forget his duty as to be a party to any such disreputable scheme to defeat the Democratic nominee for Representative. Democrats! "Vote the ticket as Harper prints it!"

General Grant arrived at San Francisco on Saturday night, after an absence of two years and a half, and met with a cordial and spontaneous reception, which was conspicuous for the absence of the ring politicians. The "boom" was certainly not a political one; but was an out-pouring and uprising of the people of the Pacific slope, without regard to party or sect. General Grant deserved this honor as a mark of respect for the services he rendered his country.

The last Newark Banner says: Last Sunday noon, Generals Ewing, Rice and Warner, Hon. Chas. Reemelin and Senator Thurman all accidentally met at the B. & O. depot, and had an informal talk. The three Federal Brigadiers and Reemelin were returning from an immense mass meeting that had been held the day before in Monroe County, while Senator Thurman was returning from Zanesville, where he had spoken the night before.

When Charles M. Hildreth, the first Republican nominee for Treasurer, found that he was to be sold for the benefit of Mr. Koons, he indignantly withdrew from the ticket, not wishing to be made a tool for the trading politicians who wished to get a Republican in the Legislature, so as to secure a Republican U. S. Senator. If Captain Larimore had like independence and manhood, he would also withdraw from the ticket. Will he do it?

The Radical papers have made the discovery that John G. Thompson and Frank McKinnis went to Washington and from thence to New York to "get money." We hope they will secure a few barrels and put it where it will do the most good. But isn't it a little curious that these Radical ink-slingers always know the exact business that takes Democrats from Columbus?

The Millersburg correspondent of the Columbus Dispatch (Rep.) writes: Whatever dissension may exist in the Democratic ranks in other parts of the State, there is certainly none up here in Holmes county, and the only wonder will be if they do not increase their majority two or three hundred over that of last fall, as they are alive at present.

St. J. Wierick, of Upper Sandusky, took a vote on the excursion train running to Toledo last Friday, and out of 500 votes Ewing received 165 majority. Quite a large delegation got on at Fostoria, Foster's home, and the vote was not taken till after the train had left the above point. This may be counted a very large straw for General Tom.

A dispatch from Middleport, Ohio, to the Columbus Democrat, states that Grosvener, of Athens county, was announced to speak at a Republican meeting in the village of Rutland, on Saturday night, but became so beastly drunk that he could not articulate distinctly. That is bad for a leader of the God and Morality party.

There are hundreds and thousands of Republicans in Ohio who will not vote for Charles Foster, because he was the principal agent in turning over the States of Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida to the Republicans, as a part of a bargain that the "Rebel Brigadiers" would consent to Hayes being "counted in" as President.

Charles Foster, "by reason of his hard work and exposure," says the Columbus Dispatch, (Rad.) "was unable to speak at Chillicothe." That confirms what we said last week that the two of the Yacht-club is pretty well used-up, and will probably be withdrawn from the track. The People's candidate, General Ewing, is fresh as the day he opened the campaign.

The Republicans last year sold out Captain John Body, their candidate for Sheriff, offering two and even three votes for John F. Gay, to secure one vote for Willard S. Hyde; but this did not save the latter gentleman. They are now trying to sell out Captain Larimore, their candidate for Treasurer in like manner, for the benefit of Mr. Koons.

Before the one-half of California was heard from the Radicals claimed a victory; but, as usual, they "counted their chickens before they were hatched." The latest returns show that the Democrats have elected Berry for Congress in the Third Congressional district, and have gains in other parts of the State.

T. G. Thornton, Chairman of the National Executive Committee in Licking county, has come out for Ewing and Rice, and he expresses the belief that the Democrats will get seven-eighths of the National vote of this county.

The most cheering news comes to us from every part of the State. The Democrats are thoroughly organized, united, and confident of victory. The "Three Legged Soldiers' Ticket" is sure to win.

The Democracy of Holmes

Had a grand and glorious meeting at Millersburg on Friday last—one of the largest that has been witnessed since the memorable Vallandigham campaign. The entire population of the county seemed to have poured itself into the town, coming with flags, banners, music and hiking poles. General Ewing and Hon. Charles Voorhees (a son of the "Tall Sycamore" of the Wabash,) were met at the depot by a large crowd of live Democrats and several bands of music, when a procession was formed, marshaled by E. J. Duer, Esq., which marched through the principal streets, midst the huzzas of the people and the booming of artillery. Immediately after dinner, a meeting was organized in the Court House Park, with Hon. J. J. Sullivan as President, when General Ewing delivered a lengthy and powerful speech, on the living issues of the day, reviewing the policy of the Republican party on the financial question, and their attempt to control elections by deputy marshals and bayonets. His speech was eloquent and convincing, and fired the hearts of the Democracy of Little Holmes. In the evening the Court House was packed full of people, who were entertained by a brilliant speech from young Mr. Voorhees. He was followed by Lecky Harper, of Mt. Vernon. During the evening there were bonfires on the streets, rockets were sent sailing in the air, the Democratic bands dealt out inspiring music, artillery made a welkin ring, the people shouted for joy, and every body was happy. The Democracy of Little Holmes are united and harmonious, and promise a majority of 1,900 for Ewing and Rice on the second Tuesday of October.

That connecting link between a man and a monkey, General Joe Geiger, is now on the stump, defending Charles Foster for staying at home and selling 10 cent calves at 62½ cents per yard, instead of shouldering a gun and fighting to maintain the Union. It is mighty mean business for Geiger to engage in, but we suppose he is well paid for it.

If Robinson, the Tilden candidate, and Kelley, the Tammany candidate for Governor of New York, would withdraw, and the Democracy should unite on Clarkson N. Potter, or some other good man, they would sweep the State by an 50,000 majority. Why cannot such an arrangement be effected?

The Republicans in New York have also their troubles. Sixty-five leading men of the party in that city have signed a paper, saying, "we propose not to bolt to scratch Mr. Cornell," the Republican nominee for Governor, because he is "The Machine Candidate."

The Ewing meetings in the Eastern part of the State last week were immense. At Cadiz, on the 17th, he spoke at the Fair Grounds to 5,000 people. The procession was two miles long, and there were ten bands of music in it. Ewing made many friends among the Republicans.

Prominent Greenbackers who have visited the rooms of the Democratic State Central Committee, at Columbus, during the present week, express the belief that General Ewing will get the votes of twenty-five thousand Greenbackers, which will insure his election beyond a doubt.

Republicans who profess to be Temperance men and Christians must not forget that Mr. Faeth, a saloon keeper, has sworn to the fact that Charles Foster, the Republican candidate for Governor, gave him $50.00 for his vote and influence at the last October election.

Official reports from Memphis show that the total number of cases of yellow fever in this city, the present season, up to Saturday, were 1,216, while the number of deaths were 346. Within the last few days there was a gratifying decrease in the number of new cases.

Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague has been heard from. She is now safely lodged in her own home at Edgewood, near Washington. Lord Roscoe will join her as soon as Congress assembles, and Sprague's shotgun will soon follow. There will then be music in the air.

Ananias Wilkinson complains that while he is doing all the lying and dirty party work the leaders of the party are bestowing their patronage and money upon the Advoctate. The indications are that the Advoctate will become the permanent party organ.

The Republicans are offering to give two votes for John Myers, for Democratic candidate for Treasurer, for one vote for Wm. M. Koons, the Radical candidate for Representative. How does Captain Larimore like to be sold out in that way?

It looks as though General Butler was going to pull through this time. He has been nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by no less than three different Conventions—the National Greenback, the Democratic and Independent Republican.

During the four years that the Democrats have had control of the lower house of Congress, they effected a saving of $84,000,000 in comparison with the total of appropriations made during the previous years of Republican control.

General Conly is now on his way back to Honolulu. During his brief stay in Columbus he made the Journal quite a readable paper, and tried to infuse a little life into the Republican party. It was a laborious task, however.

An Ex-Rev. Jamison, of Chicago, tried to convince the people of Cincinnati on Sunday night that "Hell is closed for repairs." The people of Westerville deny the allegation and are ready to blow up the allegation.

The saints at Westerville think that $300 is enough to spend to discover and punish the devil incarnate who attempted to murder an entire family. We guess some folks over there are not very anxious to find out.

General Rice was wounded five times and lost a leg during the late civil war, and yet the followers of Calico Charley call him a "rebel" and a "traitor," because he has always been true to the Democratic party.

Foster is losing ground every day, and he and his best friends know it. His bluster and brag have played out. The reaction has been wonderful. A complete Democratic victory seems now to be an assured fact.

The Goddess Meetings.

Hon. George W. Geddes, our able, eloquent and popular Congressman, addressed a series of Democratic meetings in this county during the past week, which were largely attended and very enthusiastic. At the Fredericktown meeting, on Wednesday evening, Edward Burnson, Esq. presided, and opened the proceedings with a telling little speech, in which he eloquently urged the Democrats to vote the ticket without a scratch. Judge Geddes spoke for nearly two hours, and discussed all the questions at issue in the present campaign, ably and intelligently, carrying conviction to every unprejudiced mind.

At the Centerville meeting on Thursday afternoon, John K. Halden, Esq. presided, and made some very happy introductory remarks, after which Judge Geddes was introduced to the meeting and delivered another rousing speech. He was followed by L. Harper, who, in the course of his remarks, requested Mr. Koons, who was present, to say whether he would vote for a Democrat or a Republican for U. S. Senator, if by possibility he should be elected to the Legislature. Mr. Koons, after a good deal of squirming and wriggling, declined to answer, to the mortification and disgust of every Republican present. They were ashamed of his lack of candor and courage, and many of them declared they would not vote for him.

Other engagements prevented us from attending the meeting at Bladensburg on Friday afternoon and at Millwood on Monday evening; but we understand they were both well attended, and that the people were delighted with the speeches of Judge Geddes.

On Tuesday evening there was a very fine meeting at Democracy. Wm. Loney, Esq. presided. The meeting was held in the Knights of Honor Hall, which was crowded to sublimation. Judge Geddes delivered a ringing and eloquent speech, which pleased the people very much. He was followed by L. Harper in a rallying speech. The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for Generals Ewing and Rice and three more for the speakers of the evening.

Judge Geddes is very much pleased with the spirit and enthusiasm that prevailed at all the above meetings, and he expresses the confident belief that the Democracy will carry Knox county by a largely increased majority.

Foster against Foster.

Charles Foster, the Radical candidate for Governor, in his speeches on the stump, has the audacity to say that the Federal army has never been used to prevent men from voting. In opposition to this declaration, made for political purposes, we interpose the Report of Charles Foster, when a member of Congress, an extract from which we here present to our readers:

But to any resolution recognizing Kellogg, Messrs. Potter and Marshall are utterly opposed. He seized the government by the aid of Federal troops, through a fraudulent order which prevented the counting and return of the vote. When the people, indignant at the abuses of his government, had successfully regained the office he had usurped, he was again seized by Federal power. By means of legislation with which he had introduced himself, he once more sought to nullify the choice of the people at the State election, and to that end, called on the Federal troops to break up the meeting of the Legislature."

CHARLES FOSTER.
SAMUEL MARSHALL,
CLARKSON N. POTTER,
WM. WALTER PHELPS.

This extract should be cut out and pasted on the forehead of every Radical stump-or in Ohio.

Koons' Dirty Insult to Democrats.

Wm. M. Koons, the Republican nominee for Representative, was in Centerville on the day of the Goddess meeting, (Thursday last), and marched in the Democratic procession from the depot up town. He was asked how he felt in a crowd of Democrats? He replied: "I feel (to quote a remark of Bob Ingersoll,) like a sound ear of corn in a bushel of rat—" (The latter word is too filthy to print in a respectable newspaper.) This indecent remark was made within the hearing of several persons, and Mr. Koons will not dare to deny it. A meaner, viller or more infamous insult could not have been offered; and yet, Mr. Koons is roaming over the county, begging Democratic vote, professing to be a gentleman and a no party man! No Democrat possessing a particle of self-respect can vote for such a person.

The Republican State and County Committees are sending great numbers of Republican newspapers and documents to Democrats, in the hope of converting them. This is very foolish waste of time and money.

THE FINEST EXHIBITION ON EARTH.

And without a parallel for NEWNESS, FRESHNESS and ORIGINALITY, in the Old World or the New.

THE GIANT "DEVIL FISH."

Total length, thirty-nine and one-half feet, requiring to transport it a Tank half the length of a railroad car. It was captured in Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, September, 23, 1877, and is the only specimen on earth of the "GIANT OCTOPUS" or Devil Fish, ever seen by naturalists of this enormous size. I will give $50,000 for another like it. It is well worth going a thousand miles to see.

THE ONLY WHITE WHALE EVER EXHIBITED IN THE INTERIOR.

I call particular attention to the following facts, and challenge the world for their equal, viz:

THE $100,000 BRONCHO HORSES!

The most beautiful, most wonderful and most thoroughly-trained drove of horses the world has ever seen. I will perform them side by side with any so-called trained horses in the world, before the best judges of horses, and FORFEIT TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS to any worthy institution of charity, if they do not carry off the palm. I will freely pay the following named sums to any showman in America to produce the equal of the features mentioned:

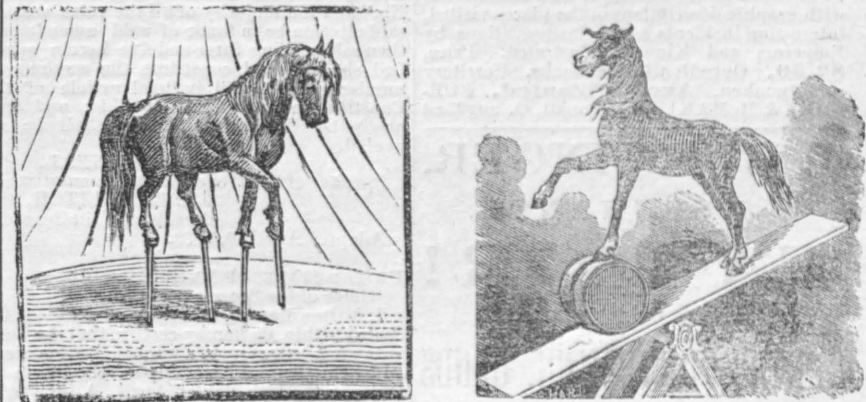

Ten Thousand Dollars if my Show has not more Original and Novel Features than any Show in America.

Ten Thousand Dollar Exhibition of Trained Horses. Five Thousand Dollar Dog-Hanging Act, in which five beautiful dogs act as a Court of Justice; Judge, Jury, Counsel and Hangman, the dogs, as carpenters, creating their own gallows and actually hanging the culprit. When let down, the dog defies death—I will cheerfully give $5,000 for similar specimens of canine intelligence and sagacity.

The Quail Law.

The Ohio Legislature, at its last session, passed a law, which took effect on the 21st of February, 1879, for the protection of Quail, which reads as follows: "That whoever, in any place, catches, kills, injures, or pursues with such intent, any quail or Virginia partridge, or prairie chicken, before the fifteenth day of November, 1880, or destroys the eggs of any such birds, shall be fined not more than thirty nor less than three dollars, or be imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both."

Shocking Death.

Last Thursday afternoon, when Clayton Bishop returned from his dinner to the warehouse of his father, Mr. Samuel Bishop, at the foot of Gambier street, he had occasion to go into the shed adjoining, where the horse-power is located. A horrible sight met his eyes. Lying across the track was a small lad, his skull completely crushed to pieces, and blood and brains bespattered over the side of the shed, where his head rested on the ground. On close observation, the victim proved to be little Charlie Runyan, the six-year-old son of Mr. T. B. Runyan, a dealer in musical instruments, better known as "the blind organ seller." Clayton Bishop immediately called to Coroner Lew Baker, who at once repaired to the place and viewed the remains. Inquiry developed the fact, that when young Bishop went to his dinner, the boy Runyan was playing about the warehouse, and it is supposed went to the door of the shed, and starting the horse, met his death by being struck unawares by a transverse beam called the "sweep," his head being literally crushed between the "sweep" and the post of the door. From the suddenness and fatal effect of the blow it is conjectured that the lad made no outcry that might attract the attention of passers by, if there were any. The cause of death being evident, the Coroner permitted the remains to be taken to the home of the parents, and made the following report as a result of his investigation: "After having held the evidence and examined the body, and from facts and circumstances gathered, I am convinced that Charles Runyan's head was accidentally caught between the vacant side (only one horse being hitched) of the sweep of Bishop's horse power and a post of the building, presenting instant death, and would recommend the closing up immediately of the entire east side of power house. S. L. BAKER, Coroner."

Coup's Boss Show.

W. C. Coup's United Monarch Shows will exhibit in this city on Saturday, October 4th. This is what the Baltimore American has to say concerning Coup's show: "The combinations of attractions at Coup's grand show is entirely different from the old run out acts usually offered under canvas—no stale jokes, no attempt at vulgarity, no debating atmosphere under the pavilion. Mr. W. C. Coup, in his proclamation to the public for the season of 1879, boldly made the assertion that his 'United Monarch' should eclipse his previous efforts to combine amusement with instruction, without the slightest approach at vulgarity, and free from all objectionable features. His success has been unparalleled in the annals of traveling entertainments under canvas. A man of vast experience and capital—having previously traveled the entire Continent of Europe in search of novelties—with a clear record as a farmer, banker, gentleman and showman, W. C. Coup had his 'pick' in selecting his assistants for the 'United Monarch Show.' Each department is entrusted to sober, reliable and thoroughly competent gentleman—musicians, menagerie, aquarium and circus. The museum replete with wonders; menagerie with rare animals; aquarium with huge monsters of the deep, the white whale, the gigantic devil fish, hell benders, and many other rare specimens of the finny family. Check Raiser Caged.

Some three weeks ago a draft for eight dollars was issued at the bank of Brooks, Butler & Co., to a man named Baker, who it was afterward ascertained, was a Woodstock bank as an eighty dollar draft. The face had been changed by a slight alteration. Word was received from New York, where the draft was presented for payment, and the fraud was discovered. The man Baker was arrested, and is in Jail at Tiffin. It is supposed that the draft was made to escape the charge of burglary in the case of the man Baker, but this will not lessen the crime of Baker in the least. He is wanted at Mt. Vernon on a similar charge. —Columbus Journal, 18th.

Superlative Check!

For three or four days past, the Doc-Kirk-Noah-Boynston organ of the Republican party has stated in numerous editorials, that Democrats had asked certain Republican business men to decorate their buildings to-morrow (Thursday) on the occasion of the Ewing-Voorhees meeting. The facts are simply these: Not a Republican has been asked to decorate, and Sheriff Gay offered Dr. Kirk (from whom the story emanated) $10.00 to mention one single instance, when the latter squealed. Last week, the decorating committee, appointed at a meeting of Democrats, had made two large banners, bearing the announcement of the meeting. One was placed across Main street from the BANNER office building to the George building. The committee asked the privilege of placing the other banner from Banning Hall to Masonic Hall buildings. It was refused for two reasons—one was that the Masons did not wish it, and another that Columbus Delano would not permit the use of his building to advertise Democratic meetings. The committee then sought Dr. Kirk, and asked his permission to stretch the banner from the "opera house" to the Curtis House, when that narrow-minded and illiberal individual gave a most emphatic refusal. The banner was then placed where it now hangs, between Banning and Woodward halls, on Vine street. It is said that when Mr. Koons heard of Dr. Kirk's action in the matter, he went to him and said: "Doctor, your refusal to allow that banner to be placed from here across the street, is going to injure me among Democrats whose votes I was laboring to receive." Kirk then sought the committee, and said they could use his hall for the purpose indicated, but the proffer came too late, and was respectfully declined.

Excelsior Fire Alarm Telegraph.

Mr. Vernon is to have another enterprise in her midst if her citizens are liberal enough to lend the proper encouragement. Mr. A. W. Gray, the inventor of the Excelsior Fire Alarm Telegraph in looking about for a suitable location was favorably impressed with our city, and has formed a company here for the manufacture of his system with the Hon. John D. Thompson and others as stockholders. Mr. Gray claims that his invention is the only district telegraph system which acts in direct communication with the fire department, and the only central office repeater which is positively automatic. During the recent session of the fire engineers in Washington, D. C., his invention was thoroughly examined and tested, and pronounced perfect. The company have rented Banning Hall, and in a few days will have a short circuit in operation, so that the practical working of the system will be on exhibition to those who wish to examine it. We understand the company desire to place their system in our city, and to that end will make a proposition to the Council to put up poles, boxes, &c., at less than the actual cost. We think this is a very liberal offer, and one which our city dads should look with favor upon.

The Knox County Fair.

The fact is pretty well advertised that the Knox County Fair will be held this year commencing on Tuesday, October 7th and continuing until Friday evening, the 10th. The Board are making every effort to bring the coming exhibition up to the standard of former years, and there is good prospects that they will succeed.—The Secretary's books show that up to date about one hundred entries have been made, and when it is recollected that nearly two weeks yet remain before the opening day, the demand for space would indicate that exhibitors anticipate a big rush. The Society in order to accommodate the exhibit of certain classes of articles, agricultural implements and horticulture, have deemed it necessary to erect an annex to Floral Hall, and the contract for doing the work was awarded on Saturday last. Some of the best race horses in the State are expected to contest for premiums during the Fair, so lovers of this kind of sport, may look forward to something very interesting.

The Central Ohio Fair at Orrville.

The 12th Annual Exposition of the Central Ohio Fair will be held in Orrville, Ohio, on October 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th, 1879. $12,000 in premiums are offered, and the races promise to be intensely interesting, as $2,000 in purses are offered, and some of the fastest horses in the country will be present. On the second day of the Fair the gallant standard-bearer of the Democratic party, the Hon. Thomas Ewing, will be present and deliver a political address, and on the third day of the Fair the candidate of the Republican party, Hon. Charles Foster will be present, and will also deliver a political address. This will be the only opportunity of seeing two great parties on the same grounds. Reduced rates on all railroads running in to Orrville. Send for premium list or particulars to H. M. Wilson, Sec'y or Jos. Snavely, Prop., Orrville, O.
