ADDRESS OF
GENERAL THOMAS EWING,
At the Soldiers Reunion, Steubenville, Ohio, August 25th.

MY COMRADES OF THE UNION ARMY—The career of the volunteer soldier is an epitome of life. He rushes to arms with the ardor of youth, ignorant, but eager and hopeful. His mind, filled with visions of glory and stern resolve, ignores the weary march by day and watch by night.
He sees before him, or thinks he sees, a holy campaign, crowned with victory, and a speedy march home to the sound of trumpets and the music of martial strains.

retary of State, Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney-General, who shall be elected by the electors of scribed by law.

WILL SPEAK AT CENTERTOWN, Thursday afternoon,
September 18th.

BLADENSBURG, Friday afternoon,
September 19th.

MILLWOOD, Monday evening, September 22d.

DEMOCRACY, Tuesday evening, September 23d.

Judge Geddes had a fine meeting at Fredericktown Wednesday evening.

The Republicans of Maryland have nominated James A. Gray for Governor.

As a bolding candidate for Governor in New York John Kelly has dug his own grave.

Foster went up like a rocket after his nomination. He is now coming down like a stick.

Hon. Frank Hurd will make his first speech at Napoleon, Henry county, on Saturday.

Belmont county promises to give the "three-legged soldier ticket" five hundred man.

The Michigan whisky-cask, usually known as Old Zach Chandler, threatens to roll into Ohio.

Charles Foster may as well make arrangements to resume the sale of Calico after the 14th of October.

The Democracy of Baltimore have nominated William J. Hooper for Mayor.
Of course he will be elected.

Ben. Butler is again a candidate for Governor in Massachusetts, and thinks he will be able to pull through this time.

What has become of Dalzell, the wild lunatic of Noble county? Has too much whisky brought on another attack of mumps?

Clark Irvine's majority for Representative will not be less than 300, and it may reach 500 or 600. Stick a pin there, if you please!

Blaine is on top now, and John Sherman and Roscoe Conkling are "grinning horribly a ghastly smile" over the result of Maine.

The Republican talk at Washington is to put Jim Blaine on the ticket with Grant for Vice President. Jim, like Barkis, is willin'.

The Ohio election will take place three weeks from next Tuesday. Close up the ranks and give a raking fire all along the enemy's lines.

The man who was made "President" by a set of knaves, usually known as the "Louisiana Returning Board," has been exhibiting himself in Ohio during the past week.

The Platt estate in New York was worth $250,000; but after 16 years litigation there is little or nothing left to divide among the heirs. Oh, the beauties of the law!

The Democratic rosters are taking a little rest just now, but they will all be out about the 15th of October, and will crowd "like blazes" over the election of Ewing and Rice.

The Republican paper in Blaine's own town, in Maine, fell off fifty three thousand, but don't look very much like a "boom," but no mention of this fact is made in any Republican paper.

We are every day receiving cheering news from every part of Ohio. A wonderful reaction has commenced. The Democrats are thoroughly organized, and confident of victory.

The Reverend General Bill Gibson, of unsavory treasury notoriety, preaches politics during the week and religion on Sunday. He don't appear to make converts for either cause.

Three of the leading Republican papers in New York, Harper's Weekly, the Evening Post, and the Commercial, repudiate the nomination of Cornell, the Republican nominee for Governor.

Efforts are now being made to have Robinson and Kelly withdrawn and nominate Hon. Clarkson N. Potter as a compromise candidate for Governor of New York. We hope it will be successful.

We cannot too often and too earnestly remind our friends of the fact that every vote cast for the Republican candidate for Representative is a vote cast for a Republican for United States Senator.

Ohio Republicans must not fold their arms and by them down to pleasant dreams of an easy victory. There is work to be done, and plenty of it, and the sooner that fact is recognized and acted on in every township in the State the better.— Cleveland Herald.

No, sir, you are not going to have "an easy victory," indeed, you will have no "victory" at all. About all your "work" has been done already. Republican manoeuvres have failed to excite enthusiasm among the rank and file of the party. They are tired of Radical rule, and want a change.
Foster is a fraud of the first water. He sold out the Republican party to the "Rebel Brigadiers," in order to get a man in the Presidential chair who was never elected.
The people prefer Ewing, who is a statesman and an honest man, and this "fact" is recognized and acted on in every township in the State.

The Argus, a paper published in Washington in the interest of the colored race, has in its issue of the 12th, the following paragraph: "It is rumored that Prof. John M. Langston, Minister to Hayti, has resigned his position, and that George W. Williams, a candidate for Legislative honors in Ohio, has been tendered the place. This would seem to indicate that the Administration is in league with Deacon Smith to try and force the colored brother off the Legislative ticket, and a glittering official bait is offered him to abandon." Colored men will do to send to Hayti but not to the Ohio Legislature.

Hon. T. J. Maginnis, the late National candidate for Congress in the Zaneville district, is now on the stump for General Ewing. Stephen Johnson, the National nominee for Governor, supports Ewing. General Cary the National candidate for Vice President and Peter Cooper, their candidate for President, support Ewing. General Sherwood, formerly Republican Secretary of State, and at present Probate Judge of Lucas county, elected by the Nationals, and indeed nearly all the Nationals of brains and influence in the State, also support Ewing. Ewing will be elected. On with "the boom."

The Democracy of Cuyahoga county held their nominating Convention on Saturday. It was largely attended and very enthusiastic. General H. H. Dodge was nominated for Senator by acclamation, amidst the wildest excitement. The other nominations were: For Representatives, Hon. Joe Poe, James Lawrence, E. J.
Blandin and C. C. Schellentrager; Treasurer, Ex-Mayor Stephen Buhner; Recorder, J. R. Strong; Prosecuting Attorney, John C. Hutchins; Commissioner, John McFarland; Coroner, Joseph P. Esch. This is a very strong ticket.

The Wayne County Democrat lately brought to light some very "treasonable" disunion editorial articles that were published in the Columbus Journal in 1869; but the present managers of the Journal take occasion to say that they do not wish to be held responsible for sentiments written and published by their predecessors.— The Cincinnati Commercial contained like disunion articles in 1861, when the present editor-in-chief was at the head of the paper. No such articles ever appeared in a Northern Democratic paper.

The Columbus Journal takes especial pains to make the fact known that the Republican candidate for Recorder in Franklin county, "is a mained soldier," and hopes that the soldiers will "stand by him, and vote for a worthy candidate." That same line of argument should induce every Republican soldier in the State to vote for Hon. A. V. Rice, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, who was three times wounded in battle, and now walks with the aid of a wooden leg.

Mr. S. J. Woolley, a prominent wealthy farmer of Franklin county, who was arrested by a party of bogus police men on the 12th of September, and a large sum of money wrongfully taken from him, and who was supposed to have been seized or murdered, returned home on Sunday from Indianapolis, whither he went to escape from his persecutors.— Three men named Moore, Elliott and Fleming,—whom he now declares he will prosecute.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, the great Grant organ of the West, says:—
"The third term is the duty lying nearest to us at present. We are not unalterably committed against a fourth term, or a fifth, or a sixth. We never heard of a merchant discharging a faithful clerk because he has been too long in his service." Why not advocate Grant for life and a Monarchy, at once? That is really what you are aiming at.

The Democracy of Monroe county had a rousing meeting on Saturday last—the procession numbering from six to seven thousand, and being two miles in length. Speeches were made by Messrs.
Ewing, Rice, Warner and Reemelin—the latter speaking in the German language.
The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Monroe will give an increased Democratic majority in October.

If the opponents of Radicalism had united in California, they would have swept the State by an immense majority. But with four different organizations in the field—all opposed to the Republicans—how could the Democracy expect victory?
At the Presidential election, next year, there will be but two parties in California, and the good old Democracy will triumph.

The two so-called "Irish Orators" who are now speaking in Ohio in behalf of Foster and Sherman, are frauds of the first water. No true son of the Emerald Isle will hire himself for money to traduce the only true friends of Ireland and the Irish—the Democrats. The Irishmen of Mt. Vernon have nothing to do with these humbugs.

Information has been received at the Democratic Headquarters, Columbus, that the Republicans will colonize Ohio with voters from Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Indiana. The Democratic County Committees must be prepared to make the atmosphere so hot for these fellows that they will have a foretaste of the doom that awaits them.

The result in Maine is far from being what the Republicans claimed.— They expected a majority of from 15,000 to 20,000 over all opposition; but instead of that, they are in the minority, and only hope to have their candidate for Governor "counted in" by the Legislature.

Prominent Republicans in Akron express the belief that A. H. Cummins, the Democratic candidate for Representative will be elected. He is a very popular man, and has long been identified with the business prosperity of Akron.

Ever since the time when the Republican papers announced that "Maine went Hell bent
For Governor Kent," that has been one of the most steadfast and reliable Republican States in the Union.
25,000 has been about the average majority. There is nothing, therefore, in the result of the late election to cause any Democratic the slightest misgivings as to a Democratic victory in Ohio.

The Wayne County Democrat says: Eight hundred and seventy-two thousand six hundred and seventy-five dollars and sixty-seven cents is what the Democratic Legislatures of 1874-5 and 1878-9 saved to the tax-payers of Ohio in the running expenses of the State Government—twice the amount of their per diem and mil-lidge. That is not bad, is it?

The Radicals have nothing to say about the Goghan law and the Pope's too during the present campaign—for a wonder! The best scarecrow they can bring out is the "O'Connor Legislature," the "Rebel Brigadiers," and the shooting af-ray at Yazoo, Mississippi! They deal in nothing but fraud, humbug and falsehood.

Ex-Governor John T. Hoffman, of New York, has withdrawn from Tammany, and will support the re-election of Governor Robinson. If every other Democrat in New York would drop Tammany, it would be better for the party and the country. Tammany has become a sink of corruption and it ought to go down.

The Columbus (Sept. 12th) correspondent of the Cleveland Herald (Rep.) writes: At the Democratic headquarters there appears to have been a revival of religious energy, and the sanctum where the chiefs assemble is visited by more of the humble and vice-workers than at any previous time this season.

The Rev. I. S. Kallioch, who was recently elected Mayor of San Francisco on the workmen's ticket, in opposition to the Republican nominee, was one of the most noted of the Republican shriekers in "bleeding Kansas," and like Beecher, always devoted himself more to politics and women than to religion.

Stewart, the Prohibition candidate for Governor, is out in a letter in which he arraigns Charles Foster, the Republican candidate, as a beer buzzer, and the champion of the liquor interest in Congress. But this will not prevent the high-toned "God and morality" Republicans from voting for Foster.

Our friend James K. Newcomer, Editor of the Urbana Union-Democrat, has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for State Senator in the Clarke-Champaign district, which, being largely Republican, we can scarce hope to chronicle his election. He is every worthy of the place, nevertheless.

The Cincinnati Exposition opened on Wednesday of last week in grand style.
It is estimated that over two hundred thousand people witnessed the procession, which was four miles in length. Over eight thousand persons went through the tunnels to see the sights inside. Cincinnati is happy.

The Cincinnati Enquirer and the Pittsburg Post, two of our very best Democratic exchanges, appeared each in a new and beautiful dress on the same day. We think the Post's type is the finest cut and clearest face we have ever seen. It is from Collins & McClester's establishment, Philadelphia.

Wm. M. Keene, Assistant Cashier of the North-Western National Bank of Minnesota, is a defaulter to the sum of $137,000. He makes a full confession of his guilt—stating that he had been speculating for more than a year and a half past with varying fortune.

The accounts of Samuel F. Reber, late City Clerk of Portsmouth, have been examined, and a deficit of $217 has been discovered. It also appears $2,100 of lease rents have been collected, and not accounted for. Samuel is a "loyal" Republican, and howls for Foster.

The Enquirer's Washington correspondent expresses the belief that it is the Senatorship and not the Presidency, John Sherman is after. If any Democrat is desirous to see the Wrecker again in the Senate, let him vote for Wm. M. Keene for Representative.

The Democracy of Wayne county are thoroughly organized in every township school district. They have made a careful poll of the county, and feel confident that they will give Ewing and Rice, and the entire State and County tickets, at least 700 majority.

The people of San Francisco are making extensive arrangements for the reception of General Grant, who is expected soon on the steamer City of Tokio.— Dennis Kearney, it is said, will burn Grant in effigy at the Sand Lots upon his arrival. Awful!

The Daily Democrat, at Zanesville, is a new enterprise, of which W. V. Cox, W. C. Crawley and W. L. Maginnis are the editors and proprietors. It is doing good service for the Democracy, and ought to be a permanent institution.

We are told that Foster's voice has failed him, and that he is broken down and dispirited. The game of rant and brag he indulged in so boisterously at the beginning of the campaign has completely played out.

that in 1873, when Governor Allen was elected Governor of Ohio, the Republicans carried Maine by a majority of 13,358 and secured a majority of 90 on joint ballot in the Legislature!

That cut in the last Mansfield Herald, intended to burlesque Judge Geddes, is a disgrace to American Journalism, and we are glad to hear that it is condemned by most of the respectable citizens of Mansfield.

The Democratic meetings this year, in every part of the State, out-number the Republican meetings two to one—in some cases five to one. There is no mistaking the fact that the people are on the side of the Democrats.

The Youngstown News (Rep.) is afraid that Bob Ingersoll's new party, as it will be mainly made up of "intelligent"
people, will be apt to weaken and break up the Republican organization. Oh,

Columbus and Westerville have brown Yazoo in the shade.

CHIEF MARSHAL,

Frank Moore,
J. S. Brent,
J. A. Mitchell,

A. J. Beach,
Wm. Murphy,
W. M. Harper,
Marion A. Miller,
George D. Neal,
John Lee.

We notice by the proceedings of the Republican meeting on Thursday evening that John J. Rogers and Henry Clay Robinson were made Vice Presidents.— This is a part of the Radical scheme, suggested by Charles Foster while here, to buy back the Republican Nationals by either money or the promise of office.— Messrs. Reeve and Robinson have acted with nearly every party that has had an existence since they became voters; but they don't stay very long with any one party. Last Spring Mr. Robinson was the National Greenback candidate for Justice of the Peace in this township, and being anxious to be elected, he made loud professions of Democracy, and induced the Democrats to place his name on their ticket also. But the rank and file of the party did not have much faith in his sudden conversion, and would not vote for him, preferring John D. Ewing, who, although a pronounced Republican, was honest in his convictions and not double-crossed. We understand that the Republicans have promised Henry Clay that if he would return to the Republican party he would forgive all his past sins, receive him into full fellowship, and nominate him for Justice of the Peace next Spring.
H. Clay readily consented, and he is now a Republican once more. What promise of inducement was held out to Ex-Squire Reeve, we have not heard; but the Republicans may fool him as they have on numerous occasions heretofore. This business of the Sherman-Foster bondocracy attempting to buy the Republican Green-backers should open the eyes of the Democratic Nationals, and induce them to unite with their true friends—the honest Democrats.

The Defeat of Tammany.

The New York Democratic State Convention, which met at Syracuse last week, had a long and stormy session. The Tammanyites, finding that they were fairly beaten, retired from the Convention, and nominated their leader, John Kelly, for Governor. The regular Convention, being happily rid of this disturbing element, went to work, and re-nominated Governor Robinson by an immense majority, amidst great applause. The ticket was then completed as follows:

For Lieutenant Governor—Clarkson N.
Potter.

For Secretary of State—Allen C. Beach.

For Comptroller of Finance—F. O'Leary.

For State Treasurer—Horatio Seymour, Jr.

For Attorney General—A. Schoonmaker.

Trident's triumph over Tammany has been complete and overwhelming; but will that insure the triumph of the Democracy of New York? That is the great question for consideration. If John Kelly, the Tammany leader, persists in running as a candidate for Governor, he will unquestion-ably take enough votes from Governor Robinson, the regular nominee, to insure his defeat. That may gratify Kelly and his spiteful Tilden; but it will be suicidal to the Democracy. A compromise should be brought about at once. If unfitted, the Democracy can carry New York by a majority of 50,000.

Rebels Preferred to Union Soldiers.

Here is a fact that the brave soldier boys, who fought to save the Union, would do well to think about: Allen Wood, a brother-in-law of Senator G. Dixon, of Georgia, now holds a first-class clerkship in the office of the first comptroller of currency, Washington, by appointment of John Sherman. The appointment was made on the joint recommendation of Senators Hill and Gordon and Congressman Foster, of Ohio. To make room for this ex-confederate, Major L. C. Dickinson, who served through the war in the eighth Illinois cavalry, was discharged.

The amount of bragging and lying done by the Republican leaders at present is simply immense. But it is the game of bluff and brag practiced by gamblers when they are about "busted." The people understand it.

The Youngstown News (Rep.) is
afraid that Bob Ingersoll's new party, as
up the Republican organization. Oh,

The indications are that the Democratic Mass Meeting on the 25th will be a rouser. The people are awake.

A Dangerous Bridge.
About a year ago, the BANNER called Co bridge over Owl Creek on the more and Ohio Railroad, just south city, was becoming very rickety, timbers decayed, and would be the of a terrible accident, if it was not thoroughly repaired. Since that time, more or four different occasions, gangs reporters have been employed to patch and place braces and supports behind it, thus showing that the Company fully cognizant of the dangerous condition. During the past week or ten days a number of men have been at work on the same bridge, trying to make it last as long as possible. Observant parties say that a long and heavy freight train passes this bridge the structure groans and is under the weight. And right here we desire to call the attention of the Commissioners of Knox county to a matter that should be investigated. In order to make the bridge safe for the supports and braces on this bridge, the workmen have driven across the channel of the river, which result in the time of high waters in river being damed up at that point, the surrounding country being greatly damaged by the overflow of water. We of the opinion that a private individual or corporation has no right to obstruct our streams of water.

A Distressing Accident.
Tuesday morning last, during the hour at the Davls School in the Ward, the alarm was given that Littler Bumpus, daughter of Mr. Alexander, had fallen into the privy vault.— Of the teachers, Mr. Will Marsh, ran promptly to the rescue. Some days previously the walls of the vault had caved in, looking down Mr. Marsh could just see the face and arms of the unfortunate girl, as she struggled and floundered in a mass of loathsome filth. Without hesitating a moment he swung himself by the beams on which the frame structure rested, and succeeding in reaching the face of the child's arms, thus supported it until assistance arrived. The girl was then conveyed to the home of its parents, and medical aid summoned, and restoratives administered. She is now thoroughly recovered. The vault is some feet deep and contained some four feet of water and deposits, and but for the valy and heroic conduct of Mr. Marsh the child would certainly have met a most horrible fate by drowning. The Board of Education had been apprised of the dangerous condition of the vault, last week, it is strange they should not have taken prompt action in causing the proper repairs to be made.

A Trip to Akron.
Thursday last, a delegation from Ti-lodge, No. 45, K. of P., of P., this city, made a visit to Akron, on invitation of Harrison Lodge, of that city, and while there were very handsomely entertained.
On conferring the "Orient" upon some of the candidates, an adjournment took place to the Sumner House, where a most sumptuous banquet was served, followed by toasts and speeches and vocal music.
Friday morning the Mt. Vernon visit-ers were taken in carriages for a two hours' drive over the city, and viewed its many notable private residences and numerous manufacturing establishments with a great deal of interest and pleasure. Stops were made at several of these latter institutions for inspection made. The Mt. Vernon visitors are loud in their praise of the entertaining manner in which they were received by their Akron friends. They are especially indebted to Judge S. C.
Harrison and Messrs. L. H. Hanson, J. B. Buchtel and F. O. Wemy, for courteous extended. If any member of Mt. Vernon Lodge should ever visit Mt. Vernon they may depend upon finding the string out.

Burglary in Monroe Township.
The house of Mr. George Benson, in Monroe township, was entered by burglars Sunday, the 7th inst., during the absence of the family at Church. An entrance was effected by forcing open one of the casement windows. The thieves ran off every bureau drawer and closet in the house and broke open a large chest with a stove hook. Nothing, however, was missing except a small sum of money belonging to Mrs. B. and a few articles of small value. Mr. Benson had in a considerable sum of money from the Banks in Mt. Vernon on the day previous, but the burglars failed to find it. Suspicion rests on certain parties, but no arrests have been made yet.
B. says that in the future he will deposit all his surplus money in the banks, and wants the thieves to bear this fact in mind.

"Racing on the Streets." R. HARPER.—Dear Sir: A portion of Horse Thief Arrested.

On Tuesday last week a thief stole a team and buggy from a farmer living near Parisburg, Delaware county, and driving to the vicinity of Delaware, exchanged the team for a newer and better one; contin-ing his journey, he appropriated a buffalo team from another farmer. He was a pretty well fixed, and drove to this city, arriving on Thursday morning. Margaret had seen a description of the team and the thief, who weakened at once and acknowledged the theft. The authorities at Delaware were notified by telegraph and Marshal Oswon of that city came over on Friday, and took custody of the thief and the prisoner.

 it. Its by its use falling hair is checked, and new follicles will be produced in a few days. Its effects are not destroyed and the hair will grow again, and be as appreciable as a dressing, and is espe-
