HON. GEORGE W. GEDDES

WILL SPEAK AT

FREDERICKTOWN, Wednesday Evening,

September 17th.

CENTERBURG, Thursday afternoon,

September 18th.

BLADESBURG, Friday afternoon,

September 19th.

MILLWOOD, Monday evening, September 22d.

DEMOCRACY, Tuesday evening, September 23d.

Col. Phil Williams, an intelligent colored man, has taken the stump in Franklin county for the Democracy, and is doing good service.

Read General Morgan's speech.

It was not much of a shower in Maine, after all.

The Fremont Messenger says that Sandusky county is good for 800 majority.

No less than nineteen of the Sherman family are now sucking at the public teat.

Judge West, the Republican Communist, is on the stump for the Hero of the Yardsick.

The Tri-State Fair opened at Toledo on Monday. Reports speak of it as a grand success.

The Jefferson Club of William-ington, Del., has nominated Bayard for President. That settles it.

The success of the Republican party, means centralization, federalism, monarchy. Bear that in mind.

The Administration party was "whipped out of its boots" by the followers of Lord Roscoe in New York.

The worst "Confederate Brigadiers" this country ever produced are the shining lights of the Hayes Administration.

General Grant sailed from Yokohama on the 3d instant, and is now on his way home. Now, look out for that "boom."

Jay Gould has contributed $5,000 to the Howard Association for the relief of the fever-stricken people of Memphis.

Tally one good act for Gould.

The Republican Senatorial Convention for the Muskingum-Perry district, selected Dr. R. E. Chambers, of Chan-dlersville, to be sacrificed on the party altar.

The Dutch have taken Holland; and the Republicans have carried Maine.

When did the Republicans not carry Maine? Smallest favors thankfully received.

Lewis Miller, one of the wealthiest and most enterprising manufacturers of Akron, and formerly a decided Republican in politics, supports General Ewing for Governor.

The Republican leaders in Ohio, in order to infuse a little confidence into their dispirited friends, have commenced a game of bluff and brag—the last resort of discomfited gamblers.

From the manner the Republican papers are abusing the late C. L. Vallandigham, their readers might suppose that that gentleman was still alive and was a candidate for some office.

The Democratic nominations for Hancock county are: Representative, W. H.

Wheeler; Prosecuting Attorney, A. B.

Shaffer; Commissioner, R. W. Moore; In-firmatory Director, C. Byall.

Four of Philadelphia's large hotels, the American, West End, St. George and La Pierre, are permanently closed. And yet the Republican politicians tell us that the "good times" have arrived.

The Cincinnati Gazette, a few days ago, contained a most cowardly attack upon General Rice, which the soldiers, who have always found a true friend in that gentleman, will repel at the polls.

It seems now to be pretty well understood that John Sherman, "the wrecker," was requested to return to Washington, as his speeches in Ohio were said to have done more harm than good.

Hon. Alexander H. Stevens, of Georgia, who is sojourning with his friend

George Washington Childs, A. M., of Philadelphia, says that he prefers General

Hancock to any other man for President.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention, for the Thirteenth district, met at Marion on Saturday, and nominated Dr.

William Goodhue, of Logan county, by acclamation, he being the only candidate.

The Pittsburgh nail manufacturers on Saturday, advanced bids to $2.60, but the Wheeling manufacturers declare that they will make no advance, but will continue to fill orders at the old figures.

Mrs. Sprague's hiding place has not yet been discovered by the reporters, but her known where it is and have had consultations with her. The latest rumor is that she will institute proceedings for a divorce.

Hon. John S. Caskey, the Democratic candidate for Treasurer in Wayne county, served his country faithfully as a soldier during the late war, while the Republican nominee was a stay-at-home patriot, like Charles Foster.

The Massachusetts Democratic

State Central Committee declares it cannot recognize the Butler party as Democratic, but that a convention to be held soon, to which all Democrats are cordially invited to send delegates.

The Democracy of Franklin county are making a gallant fight this year, and are determined to elect every man on their ticket by an old-fashioned majority.

It is believed that Sheriff Kinnear, instead of running behind, will lead his ticket.

Mr. George W. Adams, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of Muskingum county, and a life-long and earnest Democrat, died at his beautiful residence called "Prospect Place," near Dearce, a few days ago in the 80th year of his age.

The Democracy of Belmont county have made the following excellent nominations: Representative, G. R. Atkinson;

Treasurer, Hamilton Eaton; Prosecuting

Attorney, R. M. Eaton; Commissioner,

Owen Mehan; Infirmary Director, James

Ritchie.

Hon. Charles Reemelin, of Cincinnati, Democratic candidate for Auditor of State, who has been speaking to his German fellow-citizens in various counties of Ohio, reports that the very best feeling prevails among the German voters, and that they are almost solid for Ewing and Rice.

The Foster "boom" is fizzling out every day. Foster is a miserable demagogue, who is wholly destitute of a single element of statesmanship. He started in this campaign, expecting that his "magnetism" (money bags) and handshaking would carry him through successfully. This business has played out. The people prefer brains and principles, which can be found in Ohio's favorite son, General Ewing.

Ananias Wilkinson, of the Mt.

Vernon Republicans invented a lie relative to "Harper's visit to Thurman," the Cleveland Leader ("the d—est meanest paper in Ohio," according to bluff old Ben. Wade), copied this lie, and then the Columbus

Journal asks us to "stand up," and responds "guilty or not guilty." Now, suppose the Buntington Chronicle should charge

General Conly with clopping with the Queen of Honolulu, and keeping her secreted in Columbus, and the Cascade Roarer should copy this charge, what would General Conly think if we should say to him: "stand up! guilty or not guilty ty?"

A. S. Davidson, the eloquent colored orator of Athens, addressed an immense outdoor meeting in the Park, at Mansfield, on Friday evening last. He appealed to his people to throw off the shackles of the Republican party and to exercise the right of suffrage as their duty and their consciences dictated. He showed in its true light the blatant hypocrisy of the Republicans in claiming that they aloud have a right to the colored votes. He urged his people to openly support the gallant Generals Ewing and Rice, who had fought so bravely for the salvation of the Union.

The Cincinnati Commercial approves the proposition to create an army office for Grant, in a very handsome paragraph—

Columbus Journal.

An "army office," unknown to the Constitution, was "created" for Grant once before; and now an effort is to be made to "create" another "army office" for the great American dead-head. Or, in other words, Grant is to be quartered upon the treasury for life, without rendering any service to the country. A Democratic Congress will never sanction such a scheme to rob the people for the benefit of one man.

Some of the political enemies of Judge Geddes, of the baser sort, have induced a certain so-called "widow" of Ashland, to threaten him with a suit to recover $3,000 damages for a pretended breach of marriage promise. The whole proceeding is a shameless and villainous black-mailing operation. Every respectable lawyer in Ashland and Mansfield declined having anything to do with the case, and Colonel Cooper of this city, also declined to engage in it. Judge Geddes is too pure and honest a man to be effected by any such diabolical conspiracy.

They are having a big row over in Columbus in regard to the kind of geographical to be used in the public schools.

Whole columns of the papers are filled daily with articles on the subject. Some weeks ago, the Board of Education agreed to adopt Harper's publications. Subsequently, this action was rescinded, and the Cornell geographicals were agreed upon.

And now, Mr. H. W. Derby, agent of the Harper's has taken out an injunction against the Board, and the question will come up for judicial hearing on the 4th of October.

The Waynesville triple murder, an account of which is given elsewhere in this paper, was one of the most shocking agencies of the age. Young Anderson, the murderer, seems to have acted without any apparent motive, as all the parties involved were his near relatives, with whom he had no difficulty, so far as is known.

His mind must certainly have lost its balance. His subsequent self-destruction, however, would seem to exhibit a remorse of conscience that lunatics are not sup-
