General Morgan's Speech at Columbus.

Our gallant townsman General Morgan, delivered a glorious speech at Columbus on Saturday evening last, which was published in Monday's Statesman. We shall present it to the readers of the BANNER next week.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Gen. Hancock asks for thirty days, leave before taking command at New Orleans.

Arnold, the teller of the Trademen's Band, in New York, has been admitted to bail in $10,000—about one half of the sum for which he stands defaulter.

James A. McDougall, United States Senator from California, died at Albany, New York, on Tuesday.

The New York Democratic State Convention will be held at Albany on the 3d of October.

A destructive fire occurred on Monday night on the Boyd Farm, in the Pennsylvania oil regions. Loss nearly $200,000, falling on various parties, and only partially covered by insurance.

C. M. Mederick, alias Jose Barnardo, who robbed the Mexican Liberal Government of $200,000 in gold, was arrested in New York on Tuesday, report says, with $60,000 of the booty in his possession.

The grain harvest in Iowa is as abundant as ever it was, wheat and oats being secured in fine order.

News from Bishop Lamy's Party.

We learn from the Cincinnati Enquirer that a letter was received in that city on Monday last from one of Bishop Lamy's party, dated Santa Fe, August 17. They arrived at Santa Fe after a journey of sixty-two days across the plains, during which they had two weeks of rain and storm, were attacked a number of times by Indians, and several of the party died of cholera. On the second of July Mr. Julius Mossett, of Covington, died of cholera, after a few hours illness. Mr. Mossett was twenty-five years of age, and had relatives living in Covington and Newport. He died while the party were defending themselves against the attack of three hundred hostile Cheyennes, on the Cimarrone River. He was buried there, and his grave marked for future identification. Two days after, one of the Sisters of Charity, who accompanied Bishop Lamy, died of the same malady. Her name is not given. At the date of the letter the Bishop himself was ill, but not of cholera.

The Wool Market.

In New York, during the past week, the wool market has been any thing but active. The sale amounted to 400,000 fleeces, ranging from 42 to 50c. The present month is looked forward to as one which would bring a good degree of activity, not only in the goods market but also in the wool market. How far expectations will be realized remains to be seen.

The Last Dodge.

The Negro Equality speakers in this country are imploring their friends not to forsake the ticket, and vote for the National Union Democratic candidates, for fear that Mr. Vallandigham will be sent to the U. S. Senate! They dare not discuss the leading issue now before the People—Negro Suffrage; but have a great deal to say about poor Vallandigham, who is a private citizen, and not before the people for office. Let the people not be deceived by this kind of talk. Henry B. Banning and every other candidate on the Abolition ticket in this country, is in favor of Negro Suffrage, and the Abolition organ in this city, in every issue, has at the head of its editorial columns the words: "For the Constitutional Amendment—YES!"

Come, gentlemen Radicals, face the music like men! Don't try to evade the issue made by yourselves, and stick your heads under the sand like an ostrich, exposing yourselves to ridicule. The people are not with you, and you know it. Negro Equality will not be imposed in Ohio.

Do Poor Men Pay Taxes!

The Newark Advocate says: "Congressman Hamilton, in his speech in Newark, complained that Democrats constantly attempt to arouse the passions of poor men against the Radicals by dwelling on the burdens of taxation. He scouted this as an act of deception and claimed that not one poor man in five had any taxes to pay! Poor men, what do you think of that? Is the Radical Congressman blind, or did he speak the truth? Is the tax on coffee, sugar, tea, &c., which the merchant pays, taken out of his own pocket, or is it added to the price at which he sells those articles to his customers? Who pays the tax on every bunch of watches used by a poor man's family? Who pays the tax on every yard of cotton goods they consume? Who pays the tax on every nail he drives, every axe he wields, every spade he handles? Shame, Mr. Hamilton! No one better than yourself knows that of every dollar expended by the poor and the rich at stores and at shops, from ten to twenty cents is to meet the tax imposed by government upon what they are purchasing."

Why no Opponent of Negro Suffrage Should Vote for Republican Candidates for the Legislature.

There is a large number of Republicans in Ohio, who are opposed to Negro Suffrage, and determined to vote "No" to the proposed Constitutional Amendment, but are hesitating as to how they should vote for members of the Legislature. Referring to this fact, the Zanesville Signal well says: All such doubts should at once be resolved against voting for the Republican candidates. The next Legislature of Ohio will be called upon to ratify the amendment to the Constitution of the United States as proposed by Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, so as to give the negroes the privilege of voting and holding office in all the States of the Union. Ohio included. The absurdity, therefore, of voting down the Amendment to our own State Constitution, as proposed to our late Legislature, and voting for candidates who will, if elected, vote in the Legislature to amend the National Constitution to give Negro Suffrage on all the States, is apparent. The only safe course is to vote against the Republican candidates and the Amendment. Do this, and you will hereafter have no regrets.

How the Radicals Love the Soldiers.

"Will you walk into my parlor," said the spider to the fly,

"It's the neatest little parlor ever you did spy."

The Ashland Union, in showing up great love of the Abolition crew for the soldiers—never exhibited except just before election—thus gives them a hard blow, and deserves one:

"Over two thousand millions of the United States Bonds are held exempt from taxation by the rich Republican bondholders and the capitalists of that party; while the poor soldier, compelled as he is to tell day after day to support his family, is taxed on every pound of flour, coffee, tea and sugar as well as upon every thing he wears, to pay the interest upon the stupendous National Debt that is now grinding the masses of the people to the earth."

Besides this the last Legislature and the Board of Fund Commissioners cheated the indigent soldiers, and widows and orphans of those who died in the service, the greater share of the amount raised by the people of Ohio for their support, leaving 771 necessitous soldiers and 5,330 soldiers' families to feel the gnawings of hunger for lack of the money thus stolen from them by the Abolition politicians who love the soldiers, about election time, so dearly. Their love has been truly a dear one, as the starving soldiers' families can attest.

New Democratic Discovery.

A tariff on foreign wool lessens the price of domestic wool on our market: See Harper's Humbug Banner, weekly! Of course, Harper goes in for Hayes, who voted for the tariff on wool—Republican.

The only "humbug" about the business is the BANNER exposing the "humbug" of Columbus Delano, who gave a solemn pledge to the people, in order to secure their votes, that he would get a Tariff passed that would raise the price of wool to 60 or 70 cents per pound. It was by practicing this kind of "humbug," deception and falsehood, that Delano cheated and "humbugged" many honest men into voting for him. And dearly have they repented of their folly!

Radical Fizzle at Millwood.

The Negro Suffrage faction had a little gathering at Millwood, on Monday evening, which was addressed by H. B. Banning and Dr. Kirk. The former abused Vallandigham terribly, and the latter recited his old story about being a "representative of my country at the Argentine Republic." The Rev. J. Hammond, who was chairman of the meeting, called out three different times for cheers for the speakers, but none were given. The whole affair was lifeless in the extreme, and made several Democratic votes, and one Republican subscriber for the BANNER. "Things is working."

Printers' Base Ball Contest.

There was a grand Base Ball contest between the printers employed in the Statesman office and those in the Journal office, at Columbus, on Saturday last. The Statesman boys came off victorious, having made a run of 20, to 27 made by the Journal.

Who are the Repudiators?

The Cleveland Plain Dealer is reviving facts which it were well for Abolitionists if they were buried. The Negro Suffrage organs of that city are terribly exercised for fear the plighted faith of the Government shall be violated by paying off the National Debt in Greenbacks, when in truth there is no plighted faith in the case—the bonds, although the interest is to be paid in gold, can be paid in legal tender notes. In replying to the charge of repudiation, the Plain Dealer gives the following, as a subject upon which to pour out their lamentation:

In July, 1861, a poor man in this city having on hand four hundred dollars in gold, which he desired to deposit in some safe place for a short time, handed it to a friend for that purpose. The gentleman to whom it was given placed it in a banking house in this city and received a certificate of deposit of which the following is a true copy:

"HENRY WICK & CO., BANKERS.
"CLEVELAND, July 3, 1861.
"THOMAS McMAHON, Esq., has deposited with us Four Hundred Dollars Cash to the credit of himself, payable by his order here on in like funds in 4 months, with interest, No. 390.
"Endorsed THOMAS McMAHON."

When this certificate was presented for payment to the holder of it, because Congress had passed a law that "Greenbacks" should be a legal tender. The holder of the paper, thinking this was rather sharp practice on the part of the Bank, on the 14th of November, 1862, brought his suit in the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga county, to enforce the contract. The defendants in their answer admitted receiving the gold, and set up the law of Congress in defense. A tender in Court of $400 in Greenbacks was made. The case was tried to the Court; Judge Foote, now a candidate for reelection as Judge of that Court, presiding, held that although there was a contract to return gold, yet to return gold was void since the making of the contract, had declared Greenbacks to be a legal tender, the Plaintiff must receive that kind of money in return for the gold. A judgment was rendered against the Defendants for $400 and interest, and as the amount had been tendered to the Plaintiff, he had to pay the costs. Now who is the repudiator? Is it the Government of the United States, by virtue of a law passed by a Radical Congress, or is it Judge Foote?

All the persons concerned, except the holders of the certificate, go the Negro Suffrage doctrine and demand that, while their bonds were purchased in greenbacks, they shall be paid in gold.

Judge Foote, who gave this decision, was elected Judge of the Common Pleas Court with a salary of $1500. The Constitution says that the salary of a Judge shall neither be increased or diminished during his continuance in office. When the last Legislature increased the salary of Judges to $2500, this Judge Foote resigned, and was, by Gov. Cox, immediately reappointed to fill his own vacancy, so that he could draw the additional one thousand dollars per annum from the State Treasury. He repudiated his contract with the State to serve as Judge for fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and Gov. Cox aided him in making a new contract by which he receives twenty thousand dollars per annum, for services to be rendered as Judge, for a term of years, sworn to support the Constitution, violating its spirit for a paltry one thousand dollars, is the meanest repudiation.—Statesman.

Sisters of the Holy Cross.

We notice from France the appointment of Mother Angelo as provincial of the order of the Sisters of the Holy Cross in this country. This is a society which already rivals in numbers and charity the Sisters of Mercy and Sisters of Charity. During the war they were in charge of many of the army hospitals and distributed their kind offices among those who had most need of them. The same order has also established many educational institutions throughout the country, the principal one being St. Mary's Academy, near South Bend, Ind., at which the newly appointed mother is to reside, and of which she is to take charge. Mother Angelo is an American lady of great accomplishments, and of the well known English family of Ohio. The presence of such women as she, and hundreds of others who are members of the Catholic religious orders, should protect these associations from the sectarian calumny that is so often heaped upon them. The good acts of the Catholic sisterhood are too many and too valuable to be neglected, and the high social standing cannot but contribute to elevate still more the standing of the sisterhood.—Chicago Times.

Defaming their own Colors.

The Philadelphia Press (Rad.) calls the Democrats, who advocate the retirement of the interest bearing debt with greenbacks, Jack Cades. We recollect that the Republican legislature of New York directed the financial officer of that State to pay the interest on the bonded debt of that State in greenbacks, although the bonds called for gold. We recollect, also, that the Pennsylvania Legislature, on the recommendation of the Radical Governor Curtin, passed a law to repeal the law requiring the interest on the bonds of that State to be paid in gold. Every Republican member voted to pay in greenbacks. And the reason given by the Legislature of both States was, that legal tender notes was the only money known to the country with which debts could be discharged. That is money, and that only, which the government says is money; and the government having made greenbacks the money of the country, and declared it to be good for the payment of all debts, public and private—except for loans—those Radical boys insisted that gold coin was no longer money, but a merchantable commodity, and debts, though call for gold, could be liquidated with greenbacks; and thus acted accordingly. Now, if there is anything infamous in the proposition, as Greeley says there is, and if its advocates are Jack Cades, as Forney's Press declares them to be, the Abolitionists themselves can claim that they are the ones that can lay claim to the paternity of both.

The Episcopalians on Divorce.

In the Episcopal Diocesan Convention held in Chicago last week, a resolution was adopted instructing the deputies of the diocese in the next general convention "to procure by general common law, with suitable qualifications, a prohibition of the use of the marriage service of the church in cases where either party contemplating marriage shall have been previously divorced by the civil law on grounds other than that of adultery." The deputies are also instructed to procure a rule of duty to be followed by clergymen, whose services are thus applied for in ascertaining the facts bearing on such prohibition.

The Number.

Thirty thousand enterprising young gentlemen in Ohio last year promised to love, honor, and buy "things" for thirty thousand dames and damels; and the thirty thousand dames and damels blushed and winced, and the thirty thousand young gentlemen, who were thus applied for in ascertaining the facts bearing on such prohibition.

The Tennessee Election—Shocking Pollution of the Ballot—Terrible Picture.

A friend furnishes us an extract of a private letter from a Massachusetts soldier, now residing in Memphis, which gives a terrible picture of the degradations of the ballot, for the purpose of maintaining the Brownlow dynasty in Tennessee. The letter is dated August 11:

"Parson Brownlow is elected; it was done by the Radicals forming negro leagues where the negro was required to bring his registration certificate, there taken from him and put in an envelope with a Brownlow ticket and sealed up. The day before election the envelope was handed to him by the league and told that he must not open it for his life, or let any one see it, as voting it was paying for his freedom, and that voting thus the lands of the rebels would be confiscated as given to him for not doing so. You can imagine how well these orders were kept when I tell you that when the negro came to the polls he merely handed up his envelope, which was torn open by the clerk of the election, the Brownlow ticket taken out and deposited in the box. Some of these negroes came from Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Kentucky. Barbour Lewis, a leading Brownlow Radical, brought one thousand negroes in one boat at a load, from Arkansas, to vote here. There is no doubt every negro though his registration certificate was a forty-acre land warrant."

The streets are now full of wagons bringing in the same waiting for their land; the Bureau has no drawers enough in it to hold the immense crowds who throng for admittance, and the Government is sick and tired of trying to do anything with or for them, still you know

"Africa's sons shall come Shall tread where heroes and patriots tread"
Whilst white men bleed to see the fun.

Yours truly, G.**

The Platform of the Democracy of Anglaize County, Ohio.

The following is the platform of the Democracy of Anglaize county, upon which they will give fifteen or sixteen hundred majority:

1. We pledge ourselves to use with vigor all honorable means to defeat the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State, whereby it is sought to enfranchise the negro.
2. We pledge ourselves to use with vigor all honorable means to defeat the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State, whereby it is sought to enfranchise the negro.
3. We now and here announce our entire approval of the proposition to immediately pay off the entire funded debt of the Federal Government with the currency of the country called legal tender notes—otherwise greenbacks.

"G. W. ANDREWS, Chairman."

Ashley.

From the long continued silence of James M. Ashley, Member of Congress from the Tenth District of Ohio, (says the World,) it would be fair to presume that he was dead, or was wandering in some remote region, far beyond the reach of mails, telegrams, or newspapers, if he had not recently published a letter defending the "reading qualification" proposed by him as an amendment to the Constitution. But he does not attempt to defend himself from the extraordinary charges made by Conover, and his apparently complete ignorance of what has appeared in the newspapers on the subject within the past three weeks, is evidence that a compelled "reading qualification" might possibly disfranchise him.

Brutal Prize Fight.

A most brutal "prize fight," so called, took place near Cincinnati, on Saturday last, between two bruisers, named Aaron Jones and Michael McCoole, in which the latter was victorious. Three-four rounds were fought. From the very first round Jones was whipped, the blows of his opponent falling upon him like a sledge or the kick of a horse. His ribs were broken, his face mashed to a jelly, and his skull fractured. He was nearly lifeless at the close of the contest. The "mill" was witnessed by several thousand people, and an immense sum of money was lost and won on the result.

The fact that Charlotte, Maximilian's widow, is now undergoing different treatment, while her condition is steadily improving since her return to Belgium, is attracting the attention of those "fractious" abroad who have always condemned the practice of imposing solitude upon the insane. While at Miramar, Charlotte was entirely left to herself, and there constantly grew worse, until her life was almost despaired of. Since the death of her husband, however, when the Belgian royal family decided to take a more lively interest in the welfare of the King's widowed sister, the celebrated Belgian physician, Dr. Bulkens, has subjected his patient to a different system of treatment, entirely opposed to that of the German physicians who had charge of the Empress while at Miramar. Dr. Bulkens permits Charlotte to associate with the rest of the royal family, to visit places known to her from her early youth, and to spend most of her time in the country. The effort is already marked, for we now hear that the Empress's convalescence, though slow, will be steady, and that in due time her mind may be so entirely restored as to allow the sad fate of her husband to be communicated to her.—N. Y. World.

The new potato bug, which has been committing such havoc in the fields of all the Western States as far East as Illinois, came originally from Colorado, and is gradually but steadily extending its field eastward. Its unwelcome visit is anticipated in Indiana and perhaps Western Ohio, another year. Many Iowa and Illinois farmers have decided to give up any effort to grow this crop for years to come, and the prospect is the more discouraging since, wherever this scourge has established itself, it seems to remain, year after year, a permanent plague.

A method of making use of fowls, recently devised in France, is said to be of great agricultural value. An old omnibus is fitted up with nest-boxes and perches, and it is proposed that such a machine should be kept on every farm well filled with fowls, and should be transferred every day to the spot where the most active farming operations are being carried on. The fowls would then follow the plough and harrow, clear the land thoroughly of fly and worm, pick up all the stray grain after harvest, keep themselves high in health, and feed themselves without cost.

WORK! WORK! WORK!

To meet pressing requests from various quarters, we reproduce Mr. THOMAS HUBBARD's song, "Work! Work! Work!" parts of which were quoted by GEORGE FRANKIE TRAIN in his late admirable speech at Milton Springs:

TO THE VICTIMS OF RADICALISM.
Work! Work! Work!
With pick and shovel and ax!
To pay New England's protection,
With your own and the bondholders' tax!

Work! Work! Work!
There are millions of negroes to feed,
And the cost is heaped on the bondholders' claim,
And the sum of New England's greed.

Toll! Toll! Sweat!
Still harder each day than before,
It will go to keep negroes and bondholders up,
And the wail away from your door.

Work! Work! Work!
From dawn to the dusk of day,
For our homes are crushed with a weight of debt
That toll of your life's work pay!

You gave your son to the war!
The rich man hoarded his gold!
And the rich man's son is happy to-day,
And yours is under the mold!

You did not think, poor man—
You can scarce believe when you're told,
That the sum which the rich man loaned to the poor
Was the price for which they were sold!

Your son was as good as his!
And as dear, perhaps, to you!
But your's died for him, and your daughter now
For his must wait and sew!

Nay, do not pause to think,
Or sigh for your children or wife,
For your moments are sacrificed to hopeless tolls,
The rest of your weary life!

The following verse has been interpolated to come as the verse next to the last, which Mr. HUBBARD does not think improves the original:

The bold rider rides in his carriage,
He is one of the privileged few,
Who handles with pride his Government bonds,
But the drudgery is left for you!

A Centre Shot.

The Kenton Democrat in reply to the annual Republican resolution, declaring that they owe the Soldier a debt of "lasting gratitude," thus knocks them on the head: We think they owe them a little more than "lasting gratitude," from them, by a Republican Legislature under the influence of the men who are now candidates on the Republican ticket. They are grateful to the soldiers for giving them an opportunity to steal the money levied upon the taxpayers, to assist in the support of the widows and orphans of the soldiers who died in the service. How long will soldiers be deceived by the hollow-heartedness of Republican politicians?

Hit them again, Bro. Flanagan.

Gen. Shields.

A correspondent of the Minneapolis Tribune, writing from Carrollton, Missouri, says: "I met Gen. James Shields here. He is living on a small farm about three miles from town, in a very secluded manner, working his farm with his own hands. The General is looking very well, is as young in appearance, and in much better health than when in Minnesota. He does not mix in politics, and seems to be seeking a quiet life; has two small children, one of recent date, and all doing as well as could be expected."

Mongrel papers admit that by keeping the South out of the Union, the Federal Government is deprived of $200,000,000 of revenue, which amount is now paid by the North. But this is not all. It costs $200,000,000 more annually to feed niggers and build up a republican party in the Southern States, which also is paid by the farmers, merchants and mechanics of the North. The eyes of the people are opening slowly. They will take judgment at the ballot-box '68, against their enemies, and take toll from the bondholders soon thereafter.

Why Gen. Lee Resigned.

The Tiffin Advertiser, published at the home of Gen. Lee, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, says: "Many of our exchanges are asking why General Lee resigned after the battle of Chancellorsville. The only information we are able to give is that at the battle named, his horse became frightened and ran away with the General—or Colonel at that time—and he was unable to get back to see the battle out, losing all his energy in the excitement. He did not like his experience under fire and soon after resigned. If the Colonel has any other reason we would like to hear from him, as the people appear to have a curiosity to know why he left the army in such haste."

Southern Families Removing to St. Louis for Protection.

St. Louis, August 23.—The Evening Dispatch announces that quite a number of Southern men have brought their families to this city to escape the effects of a negro uprising which they claim is meditated in many quarters. They say the negroes are well armed, and exhibit their weapons defiantly.

"The Democratic party is dead and damned to hell."—Fiona old Ben. Wade.

If the Democratic party has been sent to that region, it is soon to have an accession whenever this old wretch shuffles off his mortal coil.—Plain Dealer.

Charles Stuart was shot and killed on Wednesday night by the Rev. Robert Gray, in Pulaski County, Virginia. Mr. Gray was in a house, barricaded to resist a mob of negroes, who had gathered around it, and shot Stuart by mistake.

It is stated that the North Carolina University, at Chapel Hill, will soon be closed, because of its inability to conduct its exercises further. It was in a most flourishing condition when the war broke out, but lost all its money, and with that most of its patrons.

Congress and the Constitution.

The following plain and concise arraignment of the Radical party for its reckless violation of the Constitution, we cut from the Pittsburgh Post. It hits the nail on the head every time:

The Constitution says the House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen by the people of the several States.

Congress says it shall be composed of members from such States as it pleases.

The Constitution says that Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia shall be entitled to choose members of Congress.

Congress says they shall do so nothing.

The Constitution says the Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State.

Congress says ten States shall have no Senator whatever, and that Maryland shall have but one.

The Constitution says the trial of all crimes except in cases of impeachment, shall be by Jury.

Congress says they shall be by a Brigadier General of the Regular Army, or by a subordinate by him selected.

The Constitution says that the powers not delegated to the United States by that instrument, are reserved to the States respectively or to the people.

Congress claims all power exercised by the British Parliament, and denies that the States or the people have any.

The Constitution says that no State without its consent shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate.

Congress deprives ten States of their entire representation, and one State of one half.

The Constitution says the United States shall guarantee to each State a Republican form of government.

Congress guarantees to ten States a military government, and enforces it by the bayonets of regular troops—negro as well as white.

The Constitution says that those qualified in each State by the laws thereof, to vote for members of the State Legislature, shall elect members of Congress.

Congress says, in ten States negroes shall vote, and that

Sale of the S. M. V. & P. Railroad.

By a decree of the Court of Common Pleas for Knox county, the Springfield, Mt. Vernon and Pittsburgh Railroad (or what is left of it), was this week sold to a company of our citizens,

for the sum of $1350. The object of the purchasers is to place the road in such condition that it can, at any time, be transferred to any responsible parties or company who will complete the work. It is earnestly to be hoped that such a company may be found,

and that the road will be completed at an early date.

The Hog Nuisance.

Petitions are now in circulation, and are being generally signed, asking the City Council to pass an Ordinance, requiring the City Marshal to impound all hogs found running on the streets. We think it is about time this hog nuisance was abated, and we are glad our citizens have taken the matter in hand in earnest.

Catholic Pic-Nic.

The Sabbath school connected with the Catholic Church, in this city, had a delightful

pic-nic in the beautiful grove of C. M.

Campbell, Esq., on the Gambier road, on Wednesday of this week. Our Democratic Band furnished music for the party. We learn that everything passed off pleasantly.

Pigeon Shooting.

There was a grand pigeon shooting match

on the Fair Grounds on Wednesday afternoon, between Dr. Elson and Sheriff Beach, on the one side, and Phil and Will. Bruncombe, on the other. Forty pigeons were shot for, or rather shot at, and the Bruncombe boys

"won the day."

The Rev. Mr. Burns desires us to announce that there will be a Basket Meeting, in the woods of Mr. Thomas Brown, adjoining Friendship Methodist Church, on Saturday and Sunday, September 14th and 15th.

Rev. R. B. Peet, Rector of St. Paul's

Episcopal Church, in this city, has our thanks

OHIO STATE NEWS.

—The barrel and stove factory of June &

Buckland, of Fremont, was destroyed by fire

on Thursday. Loss $25,000; insured for $50, 000.

—Jack McGee recently swam from Kelley's Island to Marblehead, on the Peninsula,

four miles and a half, without rest or halt, oc-cupping about three hours in making the crossing.

—The wife and family of General Sherman, who have been spending the summer at Madison, Wis., have gone to Lancaster to visit Mrs. Sherman's father, Hon. Thomas

Ewing.

—The first vineyard on Kelly's Island was planted June 28, 1858, since which time four hundred and twenty acres have been devoted to the culture of the grape.

—Noah L. Wilson, formerly a Banker in Marletta and subsequently in Chillicothe and

New York, and President of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad, died on the 10th inst., at Versailles, in France, whither he had repaired

for the benefit of his health.

—Hon. William Kennon, jr., has sent to Governor Cox his resignation as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Belmont, Guernsey and Monroe, to take effect on the 21 day of September.

—It is stated that large quantities of stone,

for building purposes, are being shipped from

Amherst, on the Cleveland & Toledo Road, to

New York. The "Amherst stone" is deemed of superior quality and more beautiful than the stone heretofore used in New York and the demand for it promises to be very active.

—The barn of Vick Myers, four miles west of Alliance, was struck by lightning on the 10th inst., and consumed. It contained twenty-five or thirty tons of hay, and all this year's crop of grain except oats, which were a total loss. No insurance.

—James Harriet, sawyer in the Mill of Horace Roberts, two miles north of Berwick, fell, last Monday, between the band, and was taken head first on the saw, which entered his head, scattering his brains, severing his head, and leaving his remains a corpse, all in an instant. Mr. Harriet was a highly respected citizen and a single man.

Knox County Sabbath Schools.

To the Vice Presidents of the Knox County

Sabbath School Union, and all others interested in the Success of the Enterprise.

Shall we make the organization of the Sabschool Union of Knox county a success?

The response from every good citizen, without hesitation, will be, we must. If then we have so decided, we must be willing to both work and pray. We may not expect to accomplish this great and good object without earnest, prayerful and unyielding efforts, and also some sacrifice by way of that highly esteemed article called cash. Christians should both work and give for Christ's sake, and especially so,

when we hear judicious business men, who make no profession of Christianity, say they are willing to pay money, for the support and encouragement of Sabbath Schools and the Gospel, because it is a public benefit. A community in which the Sabbath is duly observed and children as well as adults are taught to honor and obey God's Commandments is a much safer, and more agreeable place to dwell

than where old and young are left to their own way. Men of the world are wise enough to see this, and yet they expect professing

Christians to lead in all religious enterprises.

They have a right to claim this of us, and we ought to do it.

The township organizations are not at this date as fully perfected as we think they might have been. Some townships have taken hold promptly and are doing a good work, while others have done nothing at all. There are some reasons given by way of apology for this delay, which have weight, one of which we will mention: viz: The harvest has been so heavy, that men, women and children have for many weeks been so hard worked that they claim they have had neither time nor strength to organize Sabbath schools, or study

the scriptures, or do any of the things which are necessary to the success of the enterprise,

and that we shall have a representative there

The Radical Fizzle in Berlin Tp.

FREDERICKTOWN, Sept. 3, 1867.

Dear Banner—For fear your contemporary of the Republican will fail to give his readers

the benefit of his experience at the radical mas-

meeting held in Berlin township, on Saturday last, I thought perhaps it might not amiss to send you a synopsis of the grand fizzle.

Two bands of music were on the ground, to drum the masses together; but for some reason the masses couldn't see it! About one hundred and fifty persons—men, women and children, composed the happy gathering—

Gen. Banning opened the show—telling two little anecdotes, (quite funny ones), and concluded by reminding the dear people that he was a candidate for the Legislature; did not care particularly about the office, but in order to keep Vandalism out of the United States Senate, he deemed it the duty of every Ohio man to vote for him. Here the vast assembly attempted to shake the earth with their tremendous cheers; but an infant, who was quietly reposing in its mother's arms, suddenly became frightened, (supposed to have been caused by its eyes coming suddenly in contact with the speaker), and such an unearthly yell as it set up completely drowned

the cheering of the audience. The General retired amid the deafening applause of the baby!

Next on the stand was Dr. Kirk, who occupied most of his time in telling the people that he was, once on a time, a long ways from home; had been to South America; had been a real Charybdis among some of the outside barbarians in South America; said he,

Gen. Banning, Dave Tod and other great men, all of once belonged to the Democratic party, but had slid off; told the people that he had heard some dissatisfaction in regard to the nominee for County Treasurer, and told them

of the awful consequences, in case the Democratic nominee should be successful; for, said he, it would throw a vast patronage into the hands of the BANNER man! After taking a long breath, he wound up by making a very funny illustration—comparing some acts of the Democratic party. He said it was worse than a case of "diarrhea"—decidedly a nice expression for an Ex. Lieut. Governor to make before his audience. I suppose, I acquire, that phrase while studying medicine. I have been told that he studied as far as salt once!

The next thing on the stage, and which considerably attracted my attention, was a tremendous nose—a real nose curiosity, which induced me to flank the object and if possible to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner;

when lo, and behold! who do you think was standing behind it? Bascot! sure as you live. But being like the boy that the call run over, he had not much to say, and the thing

busted, since die.

Yours Truly,

A. L. K.

The Columbus Statesman, of last Saturday morning, brings us the following mournful news. Rev. G. was known to many persons in this section of the State, having preached in this neighborhood on several occasions. He was a good man, and the church

(the Christian Union) that he was assisting to organize will greatly miss his counsels. Peace to his memory!

The venerable Dr. Strong, of Hartford, presiding one year in the general Association of Connecticut, called upon a ministerial brother as follows:

Brother Colton, of Bolton, will you step this way, and pray?

Brother Colton arose to his feet and very solemnly replied:

"My dear brother Strong, you do very wrong, to be making rhyme, at this solemn time."

An Irishman's friend having fallen into a slough, the Irishman called loudly to another for assistance. The latter, who was busily engaged in cutting a log, and wished to procrastinate, inquired, "How deep is this gentleman in?" "Up to his ankles," "Then there is plenty of time," said the first. "No, there's not," rejoined the other. "I forgot to tell you he's in head first."

Mr. E., a barrister, noted for absence of mind, was once witnessing the representation of Macbeth; and on the witch's replying to the Thane's inquiry that they were "doing a deed without a name," catching the sound of the words, he started up, exclaiming, to the astonishment of the audience—"A deed without a name! Why its void; it's not worth sixpence."
