GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY!
HON. E. F. POPPLETON!
The Democratic candidate for Congress in this District, and
HON. T. E. POWELL! of Delaware, will address the citizens of Knox county, at the COURT HOUSE,
Thursday Eve., Sept. 24, 1874.

Let men of all parties turn out and hear these talented and eloquent speakers.
The Ladies are specially invited to attend.
If the Kellogg usurpation had been attempted in Ohio, would the people have submitted? Never! never!
The Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney is a dead Weight to the party. He will be the worst beaten candidate on the ticket.
Grant stands by the thief, Kellogg, and uses the army and navy of the country to force him into office in opposition to the wishes of the majority of the people of Louisiana.
Democrats of Knox! You have a good County Ticket. Every man on it is worthy of your confidence and support. Vote the entire ticket. Scratch not a single name.
The Grangers, to a man, are opposed to a third term for President. This explains the deep-rooted and malignant opposition of Grant and Delano to that organization.
Every honest Republican paper in the country, that don't wear the Grant collar, condemns the outrage perpetrated upon the people of Louisiana, by the usurper Kellogg.
If Grant has a sincere desire to get out of Louisiana, let him refer the question back to the people; let a fair and honest election be held, and let the majority rule.
An imbecile, drunken Judge, in New Orleans, in order to serve his party and defeat the will of the people, placed the usurper, Kellogg, in the gubernatorial chair. Here the trouble began.
The Republicans of Licking county have made the following nominations: For Sheriff, O. R. Stack, Recorder, N. C. Brown; Commissioner, Eli Smoot; Infirmary Director, John Montgomery.
An eminent lawyer, and a Republican, of Toledo, states that Weight left there with falsehoods and deception to those who had befriended him. He begins his career in Mt. Vernon by falsehoods, deception and trickery in the Republican party.
The Episcopal Convention which met in Chicago last week, elected Dr. Seymour, of St. Mark's Church, New York, Bishop of Illinois, vice Bishop Whitehouse, deceased, on the second ballot. The other candidates were Dr. W. F. Huntington and Dr. Sullivan.
It is not human nature to submit to outrage and wrong; but still, the wronged and oppressed people of Louisiana, rather than involve the country in another war, have submitted, under protest, to the rule of a usurping minority, backed by Federal bayonets.
At a house on Gambier street, at which Weight was visiting not long since, and while the guests were preparing to leave, he had the cheek to ask his host for a drink of whisky. He gave it to the thirsty young man. His modesty is only exceeded by his temperance.
Hon. John H. Putnam, Private Secretary of the Governor and Dr. T. A. Doren have purchased the Columbus Daily Dispatch, and propose continuing it as an Independent paper. The price paid was $12,000. Mr. Putnam is one of the most successful newspaper men in the State.
Will Weight, the moral candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, on the Republican ticket, explain to the Crusaders how neatly he smuggled pitchers of ale into his room on Sundays and various other occasions during the Crusade. If he feels delicate about it, we may call upon those who witnessed it.
The Grant Radicals and a score of sore-headed Democrats, met in Convention at Millersburg, a few days ago, and nominated a County Ticket. The performance was engineered by a man named Beecher. Like his New York free-love namesake, he will wish one of these days that he was dead.

The Election Near at Hand.
DEMOCRATS OF OLD KNOX! You should not overlook the importance of the approaching election. True, there is no President or Governor to be elected this year in Ohio; but the State, Congressional and County Tickets should call out every voter, who has at heart the welfare of the Democratic party and of the country. It is of the utmost importance that the Radical majority in Congress, that has brought disgrace upon our country, and oppressed the people with debt and taxation, should be overthrown, and that honest and reliable men, who are pledged to reform the abuses that now exist, should take their places. In every State where elections have been held the present year, the Grant Administration has been signally rebuked by the people; and shall not Ohio, the third State in the Union in population, and the first in intelligence, enterprise and patriotism, roll on the ball of Reform, that has been started in other States? Notwithstanding the infamous gerrymandering of the State into Congressional Districts, which was brought about by a Radical Legislature solely for the purpose of cheating and disfranchising the Democracy, still we believe that if a determined effort is made by the opponents of the Grant Administration, we can return a majority of Democrats to the next Congress from Ohio. The eyes of the whole country are now upon our State, and the result of the coming election will be looked for with intense interest by the friends of Reform throughout the entire Union. In close Districts, like our own, the officeholders will make superhuman efforts to retain their ascendancy, and money, stolen from the pockets of the people, will be freely used to corrupt voters and keep the Grant party in power. How important it is, therefore, for the Democracy to effect a thorough organization in every township and school district, in order that every voter, who wishes to have a change of rulers, shall be brought out to the polls. Arouse them, old men and young men; organize thoroughly; go to work in good earnest, and a great and glorious victory will crown your labors!
The Reverend Hamilton acknowledges he lied when he promised Mr. Dunbar that he would publish a communication in the Republican, written by that gentleman, making complimentary mention of the Rev. Mr. Trueman, and failed to keep his promise, on the false and miserable pretense (as he now alleges), that "Mr. Dunbar was impure in his motives in desiring its publication." The truth is, Hamilton has done every mean thing his narrow and illiterate mind could suggest to make trouble in the Mulberry street Methodist Church, since he left it, in the hope that he would get himself re-elected as pastor, when the great body of the congregation cordially despise him. The communication alluded to, we are informed, was written with the best of intentions, and was simply a complimentary notice of a temperance sermon delivered by the Rev. Mr. Trueman, who is a scholar, a Christian and a gentleman—qualities to which this man Hamilton can make no legitimate claim.
Another flood of nastiness from the inexhaustible Tilton reservoir has broken loose. It makes some four pages of the Knox Tribune, which paper has the honor of first giving its publicity. We have not mustered courage to read even the synopsis telegraphed to other journals. Beecher, Tilton, and the whole gang of free-lovers, can now afford to retire to the shades of private life, and give the virtuous and decent people of the country a little rest.
Almost the entire editorial space of this week's Republican is devoted to personal abuse of Wm. Dunbar and Will A. Coulter—the former the Prohibition candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and the latter a young Republican lawyer of this city, and a member of the Republican Central Committee. As these gentlemen are not of our "household of faith," we have no desire to take up their quarrels.—But it is only an act of justice to give them a hearing in our columns.
Hon. Job Stevenson has been nominated by the Republicans of the Second District, as their candidate for Congress, in opposition to General Banning. Job was a rampant advocate of secession previous to the war; but all of a sudden he became a very "loyal" man; but instead of going into the army, as did General Banning, he turned Radical for the sake of getting office. He is a very shallow humbug.
And now a report comes to us that the Republican Crusaders, who control the Grant party, seeing that they have been imposed upon in the nomination of Mr. Weight for Prosecuting Attorney, and that there is no earthly chance of his election, propose to withdraw his name, if the Prohibitionists will agree to withdraw Dunbar, and then unite upon a new man.—But the Prohibitionists will neither sell out or be sold.
Brother Gleason of the Mansfield Shield and Banner, who has just returned from a trip through Missouri and Kansas, gives a sad account of the destruction of crops by grasshoppers and chinch bugs.—He concludes by saying: "We have seen enough to convince us that those who are getting along here in Ohio even moderately well, had best content themselves with their situation, for 'going West' has been found delusive by thousands that expected to better their condition."
The Republican Crusaders are endeavoring to create the impression that certain candidates for the Democratic ticket will be scorched. But the "wish is only father to the thought." They will be only faithful mistakes. It is the Republicans and not the Democrats that are afflicted with the itch this year, and will do the scratching. That's what's the matter!
We trust our Democratic friends throughout the county will be on their guard against any and all lying reports put in circulation by unscrupulous persons in reference to any candidate on our county ticket. Falsehoods of all kinds will be put forth from now until the election. Put no faith in them.
"There is a weapon ever set, And better than the bayonet."
—That weapon is the ballot, and the oppressed and outraged people of Louisiana have to drive the truth to the door to drive the vagabonds, thieves, plunderers and oppressors from power.

The Louisiana Difficulty.
That our readers may properly understand the nature of the recent difficulty in New Orleans, we will go back a little in history. Two years ago an election was held for Governor and other State officers in Louisiana. McEnery was the Democratic and Conservative candidate for Governor, and Kellogg was the Radical or Grant candidate. And although McEnery and the entire Democratic ticket were elected by majorities ranging from 10,000 to 15,000, the defeated candidates were inaugurated, through the outrageous decision of a drunken Judge, aided and backed by the military power, acting under the direction of the Administration at Washington. The unarmed, powerless people, submitted to this outrage for two long years—in the meantime presenting their grievances to the President and to Congress in the most respectful manner, without obtaining any relief. Oppressed beyond endurance, suffering until forbearance ceased to be a virtue,—the people of Louisiana arose in the majesty of their strength, headed by the gallant Penn, the legally-elected Lieutenant-Governor, and drove the usurpers from power—the cowardly Kellogg seeking refuge in the Custom House, under protection of Federal bayonets. This revolution thoroughly met the approbation of the honest and intelligent men of all parties; order and good government were at once restored, and a shout of joy went up to heaven from thousands upon thousands of people, who fondly hoped that the reign of despotism in Louisiana was at an end.
We, the undersigned, beg leave to inform Your Excellency that this city is perfectly free from all disturbing elements, and that business has been resumed as usual, no further trouble being anticipated. Brother-in-law Casey testified as follows to the truth of the above:
CUSTOM-HOUSE,
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16, 1874.
I have been asked to sign the above. The statement that the city is quiet is true, and business is proceeding as usual. Property and persons are safe from insults or injuries, except from drunken or drunk men. (Signed) JAMES F. CASEY.
A petition was also forwarded to the President by express signed by 500 of the leading merchants and business men of New Orleans, which read as follows:
We, the undersigned merchants, representing the commercial interests of New Orleans and deeply interested in the welfare and prosperity of the State, gladly embrace the recent change of government as a guarantee of impartial right to all. We respectfully ask the sympathy and support of the Executive.
(Signed) E. B. WHEELLOCK, Chairman of the Com.
Notwithstanding all these facts, President Grant stopped his sport at Long Branch long enough to issue a Proclamation ordering the new Government—the legally elected officers of Louisiana—to vacate their offices and disperse, thus reinstating the usurper, Kellogg, in power! This order, of course, was obeyed by the military authorities, and the down-trodden people of Louisiana, although able to defend and maintain their legal Government against the usurper, did not wish to place themselves in a hostile attitude towards the National Government, and yielded the reins of State Government under protest. The people of Louisiana will submit to the Federal Authority, backed by bayonets, but they reserve the right of settling the difficulty at the ballot-box.
POLITICAL.
The State election takes place on the 13th of October.
The Republican party have been alluded to as the "tag end of a defunct crusade." The Democracy of the Seventh Wisconsin District have nominated D. O. Fulton for Congress.
The Democrats of the Second Michigan District have nominated Hon. J. J. Robinson for Congress.
The Republicans of Nebraska declare themselves decidedly opposed to a third term for President Grant.
The Republicans will not be so anxious to admit Colorado Territory as a State now that it has gone Democratic.
The Republicans of South Carolina have declared for a third term for Grant. Negroes run the machine in that State.
The Republicans of the Third Wisconsin District, after a two days' session have nominated Hon. Henry S. Magon for Congress.
In the Eleventh Illinois District the Democrats have nominated Scott White for Congress over R. M. Knapp, present member.
The Democrats expect to carry Tennessee by 40,000 majority in November, and to elect at least eight of the ten members of Congress.
The Ripon Commonwealth thanks God that Grant has ordered troops to the South for the purpose of sustaining the outrages of his carpet-baggers and plunderers.
Senator Brownlow describes his carpet-bag associates in Congress as "boot-blacks, barbers, pastry cooks, bar-tenders and thieves." More truth than has been uttered before for a decade.
The St. Louis Times reminds Grant that he had better enjoy the sea breeze while he can, as there will be a Western breeze for him directly that he will find it hard and unhealthful to breathe.
The Springfield Republican makes this confession: "The Republican party has been the party of sincere and moral men; it has now become the refuge of every species of corruption and hypocrisy."
Gov. Lewis of Alabama, the Republican incumbent and candidate for re-election, is credited with the opinion that "the Republicans cannot carry Alabama." The Civil Rights bill is the reason why.
Senator Bayard, in a recent speech, in speaking of Democratic government in Delaware, said: "I defy any man to point out a single case where, by the default of any Democratic official, a loss of the public money has been caused."
The Democratic Congressional Convention for the Eighteenth District met in Seville, Medina county, Ohio, on the 10th inst. Hon. John K. McBride, of Wayne, was nominated by acclamation. The State platform was adopted.
The bolters from the Third Pennsylvania Congressional District Republican Convention have nominated Benjamin L. Berry in opposition to David Houston, the Radical candidate, and a portion of the delegates to the convention.
The Cleveland Herald, (Rep.) says: "The Third Term project has been fairly launched. The South Carolina Republican Convention formally endorsed President Grant for a third term. That is the wrong quarter for a successful start."

New York State Democratic Convention.
Samuel J. Tilden Nominated for Governor.
SYRACUSE, September 17.—The Democratic Convention resumed its session this morning.
Ex-Governor Seymour, from the Committee on Resolutions, made the following report:
THE PLATFORM.
The Democratic party of New York pledge themselves anew to the principles set forth in their platform adopted last year at Ulster, approved by the votes of the people of the Empire State, and endorsed by the Democrats of Illinois, Michigan, Maine and other States of the Union.
First—Gold and silver, the only legal tender, no currency inconvertible with coin.
Second—Steady steps towards specie payments. No stops backward.
Third—Honest payment of the public debt in coin (specie); sacred preservation of public faith.
Fourth—Revenue reform; Federal taxation for revenue only. No government partnership with protected monopolies.
Fifth—Equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation; no partial taxation.
Sixth—Equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation; no partial taxation.
Seventh—A free press; no gag law. Eighth—Free men; uniform civil laws; no impunity for crime.
Ninth—Official accountability before civil and criminal remedies; no privilege of public funds by public officers.
Tenth—Corporations chartered by the State in the interests of the people.
Eleventh—The party in power responsible for legislation while in power.
Twelfth—The Presidency a public trust; not a private perquisite, no third term.
Thirteenth—Economy in public expense, that labor may be left unbundled.
The following resolutions, signed by the members of the Chamber of Commerce, Clearing House, Cotton Exchange, and Merchants' Exchange, were telegraphed to President Grant:
We, the undersigned, beg leave to inform Your Excellency that this city is perfectly free from all disturbing elements, and that business has been resumed as usual, no further trouble being anticipated. Brother-in-law Casey testified as follows to the truth of the above:

The Democratic Pyramid for 1874.
The election of a Democratic Delegate to Congress from Colorado Territory is another of the many evidences of the spread of Democratic sentiment all over the country. The Democratic pyramid for 1874 now stands as follows:
COLORADO!
TENNESSEE!
KENTUCKY!
ARKANSAS!
CONNECTICUT!
NORTH CAROLINA!
NEW HAMPSHIRE!
Here is the Republican or Grant pyramid:
M-A-I-N-E!
V-E-R-M-O-N-T!
Look out for large additions to the Democratic pyramid in October and November.
Nominations for Congress.
Democratic nominations for Congress are nearly all made. The 17th and 20th Districts are the only ones now lacking candidates. The Congressional ticket as far as completed is as follows: 1st, Milton Saylor; 2d, H. B. Banning; 3d, John H. Savage; 4th, J. A. McMahon; 5th, A. V. Neal; 6th, Frank H. Hurd; 7th, L. P. Neal; 8th, J. E. Pearson; 9th, E. F. Poppleton; 10th, George E. Sney; 11th, John L. Vance; 12th, A. T. Walling; 13th, M. L. Southard; 14th, J. P. Cowan; 15th, W. H. Oldham; 16th, Henry Boyles; 18th, J. K. McBride; 19th, D. H. Woods.
When a man attempts to check his way through a canvass on temperance principles, and gets a gang of idiots to assail an old soldier and a life-long Republican for telling the truth, he should first tell them how Weight got up stairs the night he was led home drunk.
Bayou Sara (La.) has been attacked by negroes who were repulsed by the citizens

PERSONAL.
The Prohibitionists of the Toledo district have nominated Francis Granger for Congress.
Charley Ann Burden of Indianapolis has gone into the Divorce Court to get rid of her burden.
Too many McCooks spoiled the Republican broth in Colorado, the Springfield Republican thinks.
Grant owns thirty-eight horses, but his legs are too abbreviated to permit of his riding more than two at a time.
Mr. Fitch, who is to marry Miss Sherman, is to leave off naval engineering and engage in business in St. Louis.
Oliver Logan is dead, and her friends claim that her acting should not be criticized so severely on that account.
It was once boasted by Henry Ward Beecher that not a Democrat was connected in any way with Plymouth Church.
Colonel Forney thinks the English girls are not nearly so lovely as ours, but decides that they excel in the "low, sweet voice."
Norman Taylor of Woodstock, Vt., is claimed to be the champion runner of the State. On the 7th inst. he made his mile in 5:22.
General Sherman's opinion regarding Southern outrages isn't calculated to make him a favorite about the White House.
Col. Villetto, Marshal Bazaine's aide-de-camp, has been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for assisting in the Marshal's escape.
Guizot's age was 87. Some idea of the span of his life may be gained from the fact that he published an edition of Gibbon's Rome in French in 1810.
It is reported that the Empress of Russia will go to England shortly on account of the occurrence of an important event in the family of the Duke of Edinburgh.
Bazaine will live in London, and has taken the apartments of King street, St. James, that were once occupied by Napoleon III. in the days when he was called Prince Louis.
The Rev. Ebenezer Knowlton, of Montville, Me., a member of Congress twenty years ago, and long prominent in the politics of his State, was drowned whilst bathing last week.
President Mahan, of Adrian College, Mich., has received a check for $1,200 from a person who wrote that it was due to the college, and his conscience compelled him to return it.
Miss Anthony protests that the only lap she ever set in was the lap of Poverty, and that when she was young, long ago, soon after the Mayflower struck Plymouth Rock.
The recent death of General Foster leaves General Doubleday the only survivor of the officers of Fort Sumpter at the time the flag was first assailed by the cannon of treason.
Dr. F. W. Hayden has named a newly-discovered mountain in Colorado, 13,200 feet high, after Chief Justice Daly, of New York, President of the American Geographical Society.
Prince Charles Bonaparte will run in opposition to his cousin, Prince Napoleon, as a candidate for the General Council of Ajaccio. The support of the Imperialists will be given to the former, and unless Prince Napoleon obtains that of the Republicans he will have no chance of being re-elected.
The Champion Seducer.
DAYTON, O., Sept. 18.
John Baker, the champion seducer, was bound over to the Court of Common Pleas to-day on another charge of seduction. The fearful crimes with which this young man is charged, in number, stand almost without a parallel. He seduced no less than five young ladies, three of whom have already brought suit against him. All the young ladies are beautiful and accomplished, and had means enough to live without any pecuniary aid. The seductions all occurred in February or April last, and, as the evidence shows, he accomplished his purpose by promise of marriage. While in Court yesterday, one of his victims accqually returned to him the wedding ring he had given her. The affair creates a great amount of talk, and much bitterness is expressed against Baker—so much, in fact, that should he escape the Penitentiary, death may claim him for his own.
Negroes Drawing Rations.
MONTGOMERY, ALA., Sept. 18.—This town has been crowded with negroes to-day drawing rations in accordance with an act of Congress appropriating $100,000 for the relief of those made destitute by the overflow of the Tombigbee and Alabama rivers last March and April. The crops here are fine for several years past, without any extraordinary aid. The overflow, are not drawing any rations, leaving all to the negroes, many of whom are drawing who do not live within fifty miles of the rivers.
In conclusion let me say, you are regarded by Republicans as an excrescence, an inflated war hanging to the party, and if I am called upon to pay my respects to you again, I shall prove to you that those who have instigated you to that course, and leading Republicans, have denounced you as a fraud on the party, and as a political dummy. Yours, &c.,
WILL A. COULTER.

THE BANNER.

Wm. M. Harper, Local Editor.
Mount Vernon, Sept. 25, 1874

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Call at the BANNER office during the fair, and see how your account stands.
Our farmers have been engaged in a shocking business during the past week.
Let every farmer in Knox county attend our fair, and bring his family along with him.

The horse show will be larger this year, than at any preceding fair ever held in the county.

Our County Fair is near at hand—let all be prepared to turn out and make it a grand success.

Poppleton and Powell address the people at the Court House to-night. Turn out and hear them.

"And now the mist of Autumn begins to hang over the yellowing woods," to quote from Stoddard.

There was a sharp frost on Sunday night, and the effects were visible Monday on all kinds of vegetation.

Bring in your choice specimens of grain and vegetables, and place them on exhibition during the fair.

A well written poem from the pen of Will H. Kernan, of Kenton, Ohio, will appear in next week's paper.

MARRIED—By Pastor A. J. Wint, at his house, Mr. David H. Wilson and Miss Emma Phillips, Sept. 20th, 1874.

Take your wife and daughter to the Court House to-night to hear the speeches of Hon. E. F. Poppleton and T. E. Powell.

Election two weeks from next Tuesday. Talk with your neighbor, and see that every vote is polled in your neighborhood.

Did you ever experience a warmer and dryer September than the present one? It is a conundrum being asked by nearly everybody.

The total receipts of the Ohio State Fair amounted to about $27,000. This sum is about $4,000 in excess of last year's receipts.

A citizen of Knox county was robbed at the State Fair of valuables amounting to $300, but the name of the citizen is not reported.

Mr. Amasa Bradford, an old citizen of Mt. Liberty, died on Sunday night week, aged about 60 years. He was very much respected.

The Cleveland, Mt. Vernon & Columbus Railroad shops at Akron are at the present time more crowded with work than for months past.

The Richmond Common Pleas commenced its session at Mansfield last week, Judge Dirlam presiding. There are four hundred cases on the docket.

Our farmer friends are invited to furnish us crop statistics, especially when the yield is more than ordinarily large or shows a very good average.

Don't keep your family penned up at home all summer. Bring them to the fair. No doubt they have been working hard; give them a little recreation.

Mr. Kingsbury, junior editor of the Newark Advocate, under the advice of his physician, has gone to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, for the benefit of his health.

Any of our subscribers who are now calling for their BANNER at the printing office, can hereafter get them at the Mt. Vernon postoffice without the payment of postage.

Our townsman, E. W. Cotton, Esq., County Surveyor, presented us on Monday with a monster pear, weighing eleven ounces. It was of the "Louisa Bonne" variety, and very delicious in taste.

The entries for the coming County Fair are fast being made, and exceed those of last year during the same period. From the present indications the fair this year will surpass any of its predecessors.

The October number of the Illustrated St. Nicholas Magazine, contains a perfect treasury of useful and entertaining reading for girls and boys. It is published by Scribner & Co., New York, at $3.00 per annum.

A. B. Clark, Esq., of the Newark Advocate, has been summering in New England, and drinking—ice water, just as it flows from the Green Mountains. He has written some very interesting letters to his paper.

A fireman on the O. & C. V. & O. R. R., named Ingersoll, got into a difficulty with a man at the Round House, Wednesday night, and in the melee that followed, slipped and fell, breaking his left leg near the ankle.

On Wednesday afternoon a little daughter of Patrick Henley, aged 12 years, was starting for school, she was attacked and bitten on both hips by a vicious bear. The wounds are very ugly, and may yet prove serious.

Mt. Liberty can beat any town of its size in the country in the croquet business. We noticed the other day two able bodied men practising this intellectual sport in a back yard, while a delicate lady in the house was toiling at a sewing machine.

It is reported that two men were struck and killed by the locomotive of a passenger train on the Lake Erie division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on Thursday last, at a point where the Railroad crosses the highway a few miles North of Newark.

Mr. Frank Davis, who has been the freight agent here for two or three years, has this week gone to Mt. Vernon to assume the duties of clerk in the Auditor's office of the O. & C. V. & O. Railroad, at an increase of two hundred dollars a year salary.—Cuyahoga Falls Reporter.

There was quite a scene on Front street, Sunday afternoon, in which an officer was endeavoring to take an inebriated person to jail, who was rather fractious.—At one moment a general free fight was imminent in the congested crowd, but the disturbance was quelled, before any blows were struck.

There will be a trial of speed among the horses that are now in training for the coming County Fair, on Saturday afternoon next, at the Society's Grounds, beginning at 1 o'clock. Eight horses are entered, and some lively sport may be expected.

An entrance fee of 25 cents will be charged—this proceeds to be used in improving the track.

Dr. L. E. Robinson, while making a call in the country on Friday, and on the road near the quarry, East of town, saw an approaching train, and alighted from his buggy to hold his horse by the head. The animal became unmanageable, and in the struggle the doctor was thrown down on an embankment, almost directly in front of the engine. The horse ran away and was caught by Joe Miller, nearly a mile from the scene, and strange to say neither the horse or buggy were injured, although the route was a rugged one.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

The Rev. Wm. Thompson will resume services in St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church, on Sunday next, Sept. 27th.

Harry C. Whiteher, father, Wednesday morning—boy, 101 pounds. Avidupolis; great excitement and joy.

Mr. & Mrs. H. H. Johnson and Miss Mame Updegraff, left on Wednesday on a visit to the Cincinnati Exposition.

Our old townsman Mr. Michael Phillips, has gone to Piqua, Ohio, where he will spend a few months visiting among friends.

Mr. Harvey Jackson has sold his grocery store at the B. & O. R. R. depot, and is now established in the grocery business at Westerville.

Hon. J. W. Robinson, the Republican Congressman from this District, was in the city on Tuesday, circulating among his political friends.

Our young friend Harry C. Whiteher, of Lake City, Minn., is now on a visit to our city—stopping with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Colonel Vance.

Hon. E. F. Poppleton, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, and Hon. T. E. Powell, of Delaware, will positively speak to-night (Thursday) at the Court House.

Mr. W. C. C. Sapp, is making additions to his store room on Main street. We understand it is his intention, eventually, to put in a new front, and perhaps another story, with all the modern improvements.

Our former townsman, Mr. W. C. Farquhar, is now in the hardware and farm machinery trade at West Liberty, Iowa, and we judge from the amount of advertising he does that he must be doing a large business. Success to him.

A Wolf, the clothier, started for New York City on the early train Monday morning on the B. & O. Railroad, to be absent some time, for the purpose of buying a superb stock of fall and winter clothing, piece goods, etc. On his return he will talk to the people through the advertising columns of the BANNER.

Mr. Woolson, an old lady of Monroe township, fell from a chair last week and sustained a dislocation of the hip joint.

Prof. Schaffer, lately of Germany, is expected to arrive and occupy the vacant Mathematical chair in Kenyon College, this week.

Rev. Mr. McKillip, who has had charge of the Gamber Methodist church for the past year, has been ordered elsewhere, and is to be succeeded by the Rev. Mr. Johnson.

A team attached to the meat wagon of Rogers & Walker, and driven by two boys of Gamber, became unmanageable last Monday, near the old Hurford Mill, in Pleasant township, and ran to Gains' Mill, and from thence along the bayou road to the Gamber station, where they were stopped after the vehicle had been badly wrecked. The boys escaped uninjured.

Mr. Liberty Notes.

Mt. Liberty is a station on the Cleveland, Mt. Vernon and Columbus Railroad, about 12 miles S. W. of Mt. Vernon. It is an old town, beautifully located in the valley of Dry Creek, and is surrounded with a rich agricultural country, filled by a moral, intelligent, industrious people. Mt. Liberty, although an old town, has not kept pace with the general growth and prosperity of the country. We asked some of the prominent citizens, the other day, why the town did not take a fresh start, in view of the fact that our new Railroad passes along its borders, and we received for reply, that a few wealthy men own all the land in and around the town, and that they will neither build houses, or sell lots to others upon which buildings may be erected, unless they are paid three or four times the price of the lots; and this selfish and unwise policy, keeps mechanics and all kind of business men away from the place. At Centreburg, where a more liberal spirit governs the people, the town is improving rapidly, and enterprise and energy are seen in every direction. We hope soon to see a go-ahead spirit manifesting itself in Mt. Liberty. If the property owners would lay out fifty or a hundred lots, and even give away every other lot to any person who will erect a house upon it, they would make money by the sale of the balance.

At present, the following comprises about all the business houses of Mt. Liberty, viz:

There are two Hotels, the American House, kept by G. W. Dural, and the Shaffer House, kept by Peter Shaffer.

There are three stores, which do a general Dry Goods, Grocery and produce business, owned by Messrs. J. P. Wintermute, (formerly of Mt. Vernon), J. W. Moffitt and J. P. Davis. There is another store which does a grocery business exclusively, kept by G. W. Dural.

There is a fine steam saw mill in the town, owned by Messrs. Tucker & Bastwick, which does a good business.

Asher Yankirk carries on the cabinet business, and W. A. Thompson the saddle and harness business. Besides these a wagon shop, two blacksmith shops, three shoe shops, and probably other branches of industry not reported to us.

There are two churches in the town—the Methodist Episcopal, and another occupied jointly by the Disciples and the Bible Christians.

Woodward's Opera House.

The celebrated Martino Troupe opened at Woodward's Opera House, last night to an immense audience. Martino, the great illusionist, is the principle feature of the evening's entertainment, in his marvel of mysteries. He is beyond doubt one of the best illusionists and ventriloquists of the age. Besides the performance of Martino, which in itself would complete an evening's programme, he is assisted by Miss Gerie Florence, the second sight reader, Miss Arzenna Armond, a charming vocalist, and Mr. Louis E. Cooke, the great character artist. The Troupe give another entertainment this evening, and a crowded house may be expected.

Promptness.

We are informed by Mr. Leopold that about three weeks ago he sustained a loss by having goods extracted from boxes while under transportation, via the "Star Union Line," and that he is already in receipt of a draft in full for the amount of his loss. This shows great promptness upon the part of the Managers of the "Star Union," and speaks volumes in favor of their gentlemanly agent, Mr. H. A. Mackey, who had the full adjustment of the matter.

"Sustain home manufactures if you would see them flourish," is the motto of every energetic business man.

Death of Levi Sapp.

Mr. LEVI SAPP died at his residence in Mount Vernon, on Thursday evening, September 17th, aged 71 years, 10 months and 18 days. The deceased was a native of the State of Maryland, where he was born in 1802. About the year 1805 his father, George Sapp, with his wife, removed to Ohio, bringing with them their three eldest children, of whom the subject of this notice was one, and settled in Howard township, at or near where the town of Howard now stands, when the country was almost a trackless wilderness, inhabited chiefly by Indians. The journey across the mountains was made under many difficulties—Mrs. Sapp, with the three children, (seated in a sack, the largest one on one side, and the two smaller ones on the other), all being carried by one horse. The other animal carrying all their household goods, which were few, and was led by Mr. Sapp, who made the journey on foot. After reaching Ohio and settling in Howard township, Mr. Sapp (the elder) one day took his gun and dog, and went out for a hunting excursion (of which amusement he was passionately fond), "blazing" the trees on his route through the forest, so that he would not get lost, until he reached a tract of land in what is now Union township. Here he determined to "pitch his tent," and here he resided until his death. This property, which is about one half mile west of Danville, afterwards came into possession of his son Levi Sapp, (the subject of this notice) who, soon after reaching his majority, married Mary Colopy, daughter of Timothy Colopy, one of the early settlers of that neighborhood, who still survives him, and by whom he raised a large and interesting family of children. Mr. Sapp removed to Mount Vernon in 1862, and has resided here up to the time of death—living a quiet, retired life, greatly respected by all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance, for his many excellent qualities of head and heart. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, the remains of the deceased being conveyed on a special train to Danville, where they were interred in the Catholic Cemetery. The funeral was one of the largest ever witnessed in that part of the county. Father Boulger delivered a very beautiful and affecting sermon on the occasion, which was listened to with marked attention.

Young Men's Democratic Club.

The Court House was well filled on last Thursday evening by the members of the Young Men's Democratic Club, and by citizens who assembled to hear speakers who were announced for the occasion. The President, J. M. Rowe, called the meeting to order, and in a few remarks apologized for the non-appearance of the Hon. E. F. Poppleton, saying that a telegram had been received late in the afternoon from that gentleman stating his inability to be present. The Chairman then introduced Mr. David Woods, a young lawyer of no common ability, a life-long resident of Knox county, and a gentleman who has hitherto been identified with the Republican party. Mr. Woods, although entirely unprepared, arose and made a stirring speech, which was frequently interrupted by applause. He denounced the corruptions of the Administration party in a scathing manner. His remarks had great force and were well received.

General Morgan being present, by invitation, arose in response to a general call, and delivered one of his telling and eloquent speeches. He congratulated the members of the Club on the success of their organization. At the conclusion of the General's remarks three rousing cheers were given for the speakers of the evening and for the success of the Democratic ticket.

A telegram was received from Hon. E. F. Poppleton on Saturday evening, stating that himself and the Hon. T. E. Powell, would address the Club without fail on this (Thursday) evening. Bills have been posted throughout the city announcing the fact, and it is hoped the members of the Club will attend the meeting at the Court House in full force. Citizens of all parties are cordially invited to be present.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Usually our business men put off the printing of their Circulars, "doggers," etc., for circulation during the County Fair, until the first or second day of the Fair, when work crowds upon the printer, rendering it impossible to get it all done. To avoid delay or disappointment, you had better order your work some days before the Fair, and you will be sure to have it not only done, but well done.

Card of Thanks.

The family of the late Levi Sapp desire to return their most sincere thanks to Mr. O. Peterman, for valuable services rendered to their deceased father in his last sickness, and for the general kindness manifested by himself and family during the funeral obsequies. They also take pleasure in returning thanks to numerous other friends for valuable services on the same occasion.
