IS A FOUNDATION OF THE DEFENSE.

Extra Session to be Avoided if There is Any Way of Doing So-Proceedings of Congress-News of National Capital.

Exclusive to The Daily Banner by The American Association.

Washington, Jan. 31.-A conference of Democratic senators and their associates in the Silver Republican faith will be held as a result of the statement made by Mr. Frye that he intended to push the consideration of the senate. This conference will determine the fate of the bill. If the opponents of the measure decide to continue a stiff fight and debate the measure at great length, it will mean defeat at this session with the short time remaining to pass the appropriation bills. The conference also will take into consideration the question whether the minority will desire to take the responsibility of defeating a party measure of the majority. Some of the opponents of the bill on the Democratic side feel that if the Republicans are ermined to pass the bill, the minorshould not go further than to state objections fully and vote against and to let the Republicans take the esponsibility, which is theirs. It also develops that no one wants an extra session and that one will be avoided if there is any possible way of doing so.

Agricultural Bill Passed. Washington, Jan. 31.-When the section making the appropriations for agricultural colleges of the several states was reached during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill, Mr. Landis (Ind.) offered an amend ment providing that no money should be paid to the college in Utah until the secretary of agriculture was satisfied that no trustee or teacher in the institution practiced polygamy. The amendment was adopted. Subsequently when the bill was reported to the house the Landis amendment was stricken out by a vote of 69 to 19. The "friends of the farmer" were very much in evidence during the day, and against an aggressive opposition voted into the bill an additional appropriation of $50,000 for "farmers' bulletins." The bill was passed.

Pounding the Subsidy Bill. Washington, Jan. 31 .- The shipping bill was kept at the front in the senate. No appreciable progress was made, most of the time being occupied by Mr. Turley (Tenn.) and Mr. Jones (Ark.) in speeches against the bill, and severely arraigning its alleged favoritism. Mr. Jones declared it should be entitled "a bill to permit a select coterie of shipowners to loot the United States treasury." After the speeches the formal reading of the bill was completed. An unsuccessful effort was made to secure agreement to the conference report on the army reorganiza-

Five battleships, one armored cruiser and one gunboat are building, and two battleships, one armored cruiser and three protected at New York. Property luss $50,000. cruisers will be placed under contract during the present year.

Hon. I. N. Hathaway. Chardon, O., Jan. 31. - Hon. I. N. Hathaway, 83, one of the most prominent men of northern Ohio, is dead. He was an intimate friends of President Garfield, also of Hon. Ben Wade. Joshua R. Giddings and other noted men. In 1872 and again in 1889 he was elected to the state senate.

> Dewet .n Cape Colony. Cape Town, Jan. 31.-It is unofficially reported that General Dewet has entered Cape Colony with a fairly strong force. The impatience felt in England at the slow progress of the operations is not warranted, as prepgrations are being made for a general ment shortly. King Edward has sent the following dispatch to Lord Kitchener: "One of the queen's last inquiries was after yourself and the gallant army under your command." Mixed Reception.

Cork, Jan. 31.—The proclamation of King Edward VII as king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India here had a mixed of $9,000. He was locked up in a cell reception. Miles, for several years town tax collector, upon a warrant charging him with being a defaulter in the sum consisted of 22 prominent business men of Hudson. Mr. Miles was first elected ector in 1896. Four Saloons Wrecked.

Anthony, Kan., Jan. 31.-Mrs. Carrie Nation was outdone here when a band of W. C. T. U. women, headed by Mrs. Sheriff of Danville, Kan., completely wrecked the fixtures in four "joints," smashing plate-glass windows and mirrors right and left, and turned gallons of liquor into the gutters. The women, who were of the best families in Anthony, were accompanied by their husbands and sons or brothers, who assured protection. No arrests were made and the band will, it is said, start out on a tour of destruction through Harper county, which is prolific in saloons.

London, Jan. 31.-Londoners are just awakening to the full proportion of the obsequies and the result of days of mourning, which to numerous tradesmen and others means absolute closure, will be in the nature of a reduction of is causing consternation. Suddenly to stop industry in the United Kingdom and to turn the masses into the streets. with millions hoping to concentrate along the two miles of the route of the demand an advance of 10 cents a ton. procession, is an undertaking which has begun to be fully appreciated by the police; but the public of London run-of-mine basis. This, it is said, is dismayed to find that all the great markets, Covent Garden, Smithfield and others, where the food of the metropolis is supplied, are to be absolutely closed at the end of the week. The railways of the United Kingdom will reduce their arrangements to the Sunday schedules. Restaurants and bars will be shut, and the crowds will have to wander in the streets. London is a world in itself, living from han I to mouth: and the closing of the accustomed avenues for the supply and distribution of food, drink and amusement from Friday to Monday will mean a loss and inconvenience that no American city could appreciate. Householders along the route are asking a year's rent for single windows. A member of the United States embassy sent an agent to secure a window for his family, but neither official influence nor anything else can procure a small window even on a side street near St. James street for less than £100, and places of fair vantage have already been engaged at prices prohibited to any but millionaires.

The service at Windsor Saturday will be conducted by the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Winchester and the dean of Windsor. The archbishop of York and the bishop of Oxford will be present. The interment Monday will be conducted by the bishop of Winchester and the dean of lounge for a nap. When the child

The procession in London, as indicated by the war office orders, will be a gorgeous military pageant. Detachments of 40 regiments, with almost an equal number of distinctive uniforms, embracing all arms of the service, will make a constantly changing picture. The uniforms of all the great armies of the world will appear, for, in addition to the brilliant entourages of the visiting kings and princely envovs, there will be the military attaches of the embassies and legations.

The death of the queen has created an unprecedented demand for flowers for wreaths. Some of the leading florists have had so many orders as to be obliged to decline to fill any more. The continent has been scoured for orchids and other expensive blossoms. Prices have risen tremendously. The show windows of florists in Regent street and other fashionable thoroughfares are-surrounded by crowds admiring the wreaths exhibited.

The Naval Parade. Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 31.-It is officially announced that when the queen's body is removed from Osborne house on Friday a line of warships will extend from opposite Cowes to Portsmouth harbor. At 4 o'clock the funeral procession will start, piloted by eight torpedo boat destroyers Immediately behind will come the royal yacht Alberta with the body of the queen, followed by royal yachts and other craft. > Wild Animals Rurned. Baltimore, Jan. 31.—With pitiful screams of fright and groans of intense pain, the 75 or more animals of all descriptions confined in cages at Frank C. Bostock's "Soo," which was in winter quarters in the old cyclorama building in this city, were roasted or burned to death. The fire was discovered a few minutes after the evening performance had ceased. There were two members of the audience and the regular attaches of the show in the building when the fire was discovered. So rapid was the spread that these were compelled to seek safety and got away as quickly as possible. Mr. Bostock estimates his loss on animals at about $400,000. The owners of the building could not be found, but it could probably be duplicated for $15,-000 or $20,000. A badly insulated electric wire caused the fire.

> Trial of the Pugilists. Cincinnati, Jan. 31. - The trial of both Jeffries and Ruhlin, who were arrested Monday last charged with being in training for a prizefight in violation of the state law, will come up before Squire Roebling late this afternoon. Prosecutor Hoffheimer and First Assistant Morris will appear for the state. Mr. Hoffheimer said that decisions defining difference between boxing contests and prizefights were perfectly clear. The examination is of the utmost importance, because if Squire Roebling should, after a hearing, find the intention is not to engage in a prizefight, his judgment would bar any possible arrest on a similar charge.

Mysterious Murder. Pittsburg, Jan. 31.-Mrs. Rosa Bott, a pretty Italian woman, was murdered as he slept. Her 9-year-old daughter, who was lying beside her at the time, said her father left home after dinner saying he would not return. He declares that the city of Panama is likely to be attacked by the revolutionists.

Big Railway Deal. New York, Jan. 31.-The Southern

Railway company secured control of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad company. The value of the Mobile and Ohio to the Southern is chiefly in giving it a direct short line from St. Louis and Cairo to the gulf. Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs, Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Con-amption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles ing here the captain of the cutter of this great Discovery at Geo. R. In Doubt!

It is not necessary to wait until your eyes pain and trouble you a great deal before having them examined. If you have the slightest doubt of their being perfect, we want to settle that doubt at once. If you have ever noticed the least symptom of irritation or blurred vision, the sooner you see to it the better for your eyes. It is just as much our business to examine perfect eyes as defective ones. It is as much our business to tell you when not to wear glasses as to tell you when you ought to wear them. Come in as often as you like. If glasses will benefit you we will select them for you at a reasonable price. The consultation costs you nothing.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

The Cuban Convention Provides For It In the Constitution.

BUT LITTLE OPPOSITION DEVELOPED. urday.

Suspension of Rights of Citizens and the Principle of Minority Representation-Business Reported Panicky.

Havana, Jan. 31 .- he Cuban constitutional convention voted by a large majority to insert a clause in the constitution allowing universal suffrage. Senor Aleman said it was a right demanded by the Cubans and that the convention would not be dealing fairly with the people if it failed to accord this right.

Senor Berriel insisted that the question was not a constitutional question and should be left for future legislation. He emphasized the "possibility of a large, uneducated, dangerous foreign element coming to Cuba and endangering the government unless there is some provision restricting suffrage."

General Sanguilly said there was no need to fear that any such condition burg Monday morning. would arise. Moreover, the uneducated class, he declared, was quite as capable as the middle classes when it came to the question of choosing legislators He reminded the conventon that the people had the right of universal suffrage under Spanish autonomy, but never used it.

Article 24 of section 3, relating to the suspension of rights of citizens when the security of the state required it, and in time of invasion, was taken from the table and adopted. A further article providing that any law made to infringe the rights outlined in the third section should be inoperative was added, and the principle of minor ity representation was adopted.

Business was in a panicky condition in consequence of the rumor that the United States would soon turn over the government to the Cubans. Governor General Wood and Collector Bliss are besieged by those asking for definite information regarding the intention of the United States government.

Protest of Missionaries. Peking, Jan. 31.—The missionaries met and prepared final resolutions, which were presented to the British minister, Sir Ernest Satow, and the United States minister, Mr. Edwin H. Conger. The preamble sets forth the ger and Ivan Keck. fact "not sufficiently emphasized in the note," that the Chinese attacked everything representing progress, that there has been no adequate rebuke for the flagrant violation of treaties and that no indemnity is asked for the Christian Chinese, who suffered heavy loss. Finally, the missionaries say nothing has been inserted in the note safe-guarding the missionaries.

Montgomery circuit court Willis Serig, Scott Ransdell, A. H. Peterson and James Shelton pleaded guilty to selling their votes at the November election and were disfranchised for 12 years. Including Rufus Wells and his son, who stood trial and were found guilty and disfranchised for 19 and 20 years respectively, and John Osborne and William Rogers, convicted and disfranchised by the jury for 15 and 16 years respectively, 21 men have so far been found guilty of vote selling and disfranchised for a period of from 12 to 20 years.

OUR WORKING GIRLS.

HOW TO HELP THEM.

Life to the most favored is not always full of sunshine, but to the average American girl or woman who is obliged to work for her living, and, perhaps to help others at home, life is often a heavy drag in consequence of

Women who work, especially those who are constantly on their feet, are peculiarly liable to the development of organic troubles, and should particularly heed the first manifestations, such as backache, pains in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach, irregular and painful monthly periods, faintness, weakness, loss of appetite

The young lady whose portrait we publish herewith had all these symptoms, and in addition leucorrhoea, and was cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's and was cared by Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. First, she wrote a letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., describing her trouble, received in reply accurate instructions what to do to get well, and now wishes Mrs. Pinkham to use her name to convince others that they may be cured

Mrs. Pinkham extends the same helping hand, free of charge or obligation, to every ailing woman in America. If you are sick you are foolish not to write to her, it costs you nothing, and she is sure to help you. Don't wait until it is too late—write to-day.

THE SOLDIER'S LIFE.

Only to stand in the red of the fray, Only to battle for glory, you say; Only to leap to the bright song of death, Murm'ring, "My country!" with fast fleeting breath;

This is the life of the soldier, you dream,
Wreathed with the flag in the battle's red gleam.

Night on the road, and the mud to his hips! Visions of little ones leaning with lips Just to be kissed through the dream and desire— Sweetheart and home hearts and love by the fire! This is the life of a soldier, to fare Far from the tenderness waiting him there

Mourn on the march and the war drums ahead, Beating the call to the battle, the tread Of legions gone down in the ranks in the van.
On to the front, file by file, man by man!
Soldier, so valiant, so brave and so true, Honor and glory to yours and to you!

Noon on the field and the battle's fierce heat Noon on the held and the battle's heree heat Flamed to the faces unfaltered that meet Death in the flash of the shot and the shell, The crash of the cannon, the red, roaring hell; Still 'heath the folds of the flag doth he fight, True to his country and true to the right!

Night on the hills, and, oh, the wide eyes Night on the hills, and, oh, the wide eyes
Under the shadow and grief of the skies!
Night in the hamlets where broken hearts wait
In vain for the heroes that fought against fate!
This is the life of the soldier—some time
A wreath for a tribute, a rose and a rhyme!

"Shortly after I had fallen asleep I was awakened by some confusion in the aisle of the car. The train was at a dead stop, and then I heard the voice of the conductor angrily ask of the porter, 'Now, who in thunder pulled that bell rope? I had a shrewd suspicion, but deemed it safe to lie ory, all wasting diseases, all effects of self-abuse or 60 quiet and say nothing. Finally the train started, and as they could not find out who had jerked the bell rope the car assumed its customary night the car assumed its customary night aspect. Presently the stateroom door opened and one of my friends requested me to step in and decide a bet. It seems that he who was not sleepy was thing to which the sleepy one refused to listen on the ground that the noise of the car wheels made it impossible for him to hear. The other man promptly rang the bell and stopped
