FOR INFIRMARY DIRECTOR,

ANDREW CATON.

We have on file and will publish in next week's BANNER, the masterly speech delivered by Hon. George H. Penleton, in Columbus, on Thursday, Sept.

10th.

The little unpleasantness between the Columbus Journal and the Mt. Vernon Republican still continues. Brethren, behold how good a thing it is to dwell together in unity.

Democrats, if you desire the election of any of our eminent statesmen to the Presidency, work and vote for the whole Democratic nominated ticket, and thereby strengthen the Democratic party.

Hon. MILTON SALTHER, one of the ablest and purest men in the State, has been re-nominated by the Democracy of the First District as their candidate for Congress. He will be triumphantly elected.

The Chillicothe Advertiser claims that "the Resolutions of Ohio Democracy furnish the best specimen of platform making of the season," enabling "all manner of men to walk over it with smiling complacency."

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Commmercial, (Rep.), refuses to support Representative Phillips for re-election, because he is "an unscrupulous and corrupt representative of the Railroad and Indian rights of Kansas."

Governor Allen has appointed

George Rex, the nominee of the Democrat-ics to State Central Committee, to the Supreme Bench, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Stone, until the place shall be filled by election.

The New York Sun states the Judge Thurman wrote the financial plank in the Ohio Platform, and the Cincinnati Enquirer says he didn't. It makes but little difference who wrote it, so the people are satisfied with it.

Hon. T. E. Cunningham, the father of the "People's Party" in Ohio, has been re-baptized in the Democratic church, and once more professes the faith bequeathed to the Democratic saints. The choir will sing: "Return ye ransomed sinners home."

The Republican State Convention held at Columbus, S. C., has been carried by the party attached to D. H. Chamberlain, who has been nominated for Governor. An Independent Republican Convention will be called by dissatisfied bol-ters.

The Nebraska Democratic State Convention adopted resolutions favoring a revenue tariff, a speedy return to specie payments, the restriction of the State and National governments to their legitimate domains, and the payment of the national debt in money of the civilized world.

Bro. Clymer, of the Crawford County Forum, delivered a beautiful and eloquent Address before the German Gesellschaft Anniversary, at Bucyrus, Sept. 8th, 1874, which has been published at the request of the Society. Bro. Clymer is a fine scholar and an original thinker.

The Cincinnati Times (Rep.) thinks the renomination of Garfield, who "reported, spoke, and voted for the salary-grab at the critical juncture when his influence either way would have been decisive" will have a demoralizing and weakening effect upon the other districts in Ohio.

The Democratic State Executive Committee have arranged for a series of meetings for General S. F. Carr, Col. John L. Vance, Hon. John A. McMahon, and

Gen. Ewing, mostly in the Southern part

Ever since the Methodists of the Mulberry street church got rid of Hamilton, he has manifested a mean, persecuting, un-Christian spirit towards his successors, and has labored to make all the trouble he could between the ministers and parishioners, in order, it is possible, to have himself reinstated as pastor of the church, when three-fourths of the congregation cordially despise him. To show the spirit of this man Hamilton, we will mention a fact that was recently related to us: One of our most respected citizens wrote a communication, making kind and complimentary mention of the Rev. Mr. Trueman, the learned, eloquent and truly good pastor of the Mulberry Street Methodist Church, and took it to the Republican office for publication; and although Hamilton promised to insert it in the next issue of his paper, it has never yet appeared, thus proving that Hamilton is not only a mean and malignant person, but a man who has no regard for his word.

The Republicans are heartily sick and tired of the driving, idiotic nonsense that is weekly inflicted upon them by the vulgar, vain, conceited, illiterate Methodist preacher, who is now running the party in Knox county. Go where you will where two or more Republicans are talking together, and you will probably hear them denouncing Hamilton as the biggest fool that ever attempted to edit a newspaper.—

They are more anxious to get rid of him than the Methodists were when they discovered that he was palming off stolen sermons as the creation of his own imbe-cile mind. We would be sorry to lose Hamilton—he is such a good subject to illustrate the total ignorance and depravity of mankind.

Prof. King, the distinguished air navigator, made an excursion from Cleveland, recently, in a balloon, accompanied by reporters from the office of the Herald,

Plain Dealer, and the New York Graphic.

The party sailed over Lake Erie to Canada, thence westward to Lake St. Clair, and after traveling four hundred and eighty miles, and being in mid-air twelve hours, landed safely at Wales, St. Clair county, Michigan, eleven miles from Port Huron, and sixty-five miles from Detroit.

It is said to be the longest voyage of the kind of which there is any record.

There is trouble in the loyal household up in the Warren Congressional District. General Garfield, the Salary Grabber for Congress, against the earnest protest of the best Republicans in the District, which caused a split in the party, and the honest portion of the party met in Convention, and nominated the Rev. R. H.

Hurlbut, who will receive a large vote.—

Dr. D. B. Woods, a popular man, is the Democratic nominee, and stands a good chance of an election.

The played-out Methodist preacher who conducts the Republican organ of Knox county, has a mean and lying attack upon two of our County Commissioners—Messrs. Levering and Lyal—in this week's Republican. By and by this played-out preacher will be craving official patronage from these same Commissioners, or begging them to pay for advertising which was never ordered in his filthy paper.

Hon. GEORGE REX, of Wooster, who was placed on the State Ticket for Judge of the Supreme Court, by the Democratic State Central Committee, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Stone, is an able lawyer, and a pure and honest man. In connection with Hon. C. H. Scribner he represented the Knox and Wayne Districts in the Ohio

Senate during the sessions of 1868-9, and was one of the most influential and popular members of that body.

We have at length forced a complimentary notice of Worth Master Ellis, from the Republican. The editor makes the lying excuse that he "had not time to make reference to the gentleman" in his last paper. A very likely story, indeed!

But you had an abundance of "time" to fill nearly a column with a laudatory no-ice of the disgusting political speech of Columbus Delano.

The Democracy of the Eighth Congressional District, composed of the counties of Champaign, Clark, Madison, and Miami, met at Urbana, on Monday, Sept.

14th, and nominated Hon. J. E. Pearson, of Troy, Miami county, on the first ballot, as their candidate for Congress. Mr. P.

is an able and popular man, and at present represents the Republican county of Miami in the State Legislature.

The New York Tribune reverts its charges of shameless and licentious conduct against Senator Carpenter, President pro tem. of the Senate, and dares that in the face of the Senate, and dares that in the face of the Senate, and dares that in

the face of the Senate, and dares that in

POLITICAL.

The political potato bugs of Colorado have received their quietus.

The Lebanon Patriot is delighted with the Democratic State Ticket and the platform.

Radical supremacy in the South must be maintained, if it takes every soldier in the States.

The Marietta Times thinks that the Democratic State Ticket, as a whole, could not be better.

Hon. Heister Clymer has been re-nominated for Congress, by the Democracy of Berks (Pa.) District.

All the Radical Congressmen of Michigan, including the salary-grabbers, have been renominated.

C. W. Rowland, the Crusade shrieker of Cincinnati, has found his place again in the Republican party.

The Putnam County Sentinel is entranced with the result of the labors of the Democratic State Convention.

The Republican Auditor of Minnesota has been detected in an embezzlement of $100,000 of public funds.

Judge Niblack thinks there is no doubt that the Democracy will carry both Indiana and Ohio this fall.

Radical carpet-bag Congressmen are free in their talk that bayonets, not ballots, must control the South, this fall.

The elections being close at hand, all the navy yards in the country are preparing to build ships and things at a fearful rate.

Gunkel, the Republican nominee in the Dayton District, will have a hard row to go with Hon. John A. McMahon as his opponent.

The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette (Rep.)

is beginning to count up the Democratic majority in its own Congressional district.

The New York Sun wants Wm. Allen electd Governor of New York. He is as good a man as his namesake in Ohio, by all means except him.

The Buffalo Courier says that as an honest man's the noblest work of God, so an honest man's is the crowning triumph of reconstruction.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Republican party of Ohio is to be used as a force pump to inject cold water into the human stomach."

Massachusetts Republican papers acknowledge that without the assistance of the Butler element the party would melt out of the politics of the State.

Charles H. Hardin, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Missouri, has anounced that if elected he will not resign nor accept the office of U. S. Senator.

Wit and Humor.

The hardest thing to deal with—An old pack of cards.

Self-made men are very apt to worship their maker.

Nothing comes home so much to a man as an unsettled bill.

The highest compliment to a barber—He dyes and made no sign.

No unfortunate trader looks so down in the mouth as a dentist.

Our faith in human nature has been restored—Susan B. says she didn't.

Gravely is no more evidence of wisdom than a paper collar is of a shirt.

Bayard Taylor intimates that he found a dead to interest him in the Faroe Islands.

Those who have tried it say that kissing is like a sewing machine, because it seems good.

"Fred, how is your sweetheart?"—"Pretty well; she says I needn't call any more."

We see it announced by posters on the streets that "Solitaire is a game." But they don't say whether it is a boy or a girl.

Teacher—"Peter, you are such a bad boy that you are not fit to be in the company of good boys on the bench. Come up here and sit by me, sir."

An Alabama editor winds up an editorial on the crop of corn with the remark, "We have on exhibition in our salubrious pair of magnificent ears."

The reason why Sylvester Cobb, Jr., confines himself to writing for the periodicals is because the legitimate function of a Cobb is to produce a cereal.

A person was boasting that he was from a high family. "Yes," said a bystander, "I have seen some of the family so high that their feet could not touch the ground."

A Western Postmaster writes to the Postmaster-General "that hell will be full of country Postmasters before long if they do not get more pay than is allowed this office."

A Kansas farmer solemnly declares that a grasshopper sat on the gate-post and threateningly asked: "William Bryant, where is thunder in the balance of that cold meat?"

Hatched is the latest and most graphic way of saying that a man has been run over by a locomotive and ten or fifteen cents.

"I tell you," said a Wisconsin man to a neighbor next day after burying his wife, "when I came to get into bed, and lay there, not hearing Lucinda jingling around for an hour and a half, it just made me feel as if I'd moved into a strange country."

Knox County Farmer.

Hay Tea for Calves.

"A young farmer," correspondent of the Boston Journal, thinks he has made a discovery in using hay tea for raising a calf. He says of the calf, "It grows finally, is fat enough, and seems to like its hay tea, and to be just as well satisfied with a full meal of that as it would be if it had taken its fill right from the cow. I never tried hay tea before, and never saw it made or fed out. It is not as much trouble to make hay tea as to make porridge, and the cost is nothing. I cut my hay, the finest and best I have, about two inches long, and pour boiling water over it. Let it stand until cooled to about the heat of milk from the cow, then take the hay out and give it to the cow, and the tea to the calf. One of my neighbors says I am making the hay worth more for the cow, and so getting a profit besides raising the calf. At any rate, the calf grows steadily. The longer the hay stays before it gets cold the more strength there is in it."

Hay tea has long been used to raise calves on, and being the nutriment of the hay in solution, must contain just the food needed by the calf. Hay cut at the right time, is an excellent food to make milk, and as the calf's natural food is milk, the nutritious food of the hay dissolved in water must be the next thing to milk. But the idea that hay loses nothing by steeping it in water, is about like supposing that the ground of the best Japan tea is stronger than the tea itself. The woody fibre is rendered more digestible by the cooking.

Watering in a Dry Time.

In the Summer droughts, which now and then occur, it is common to see persons everywhere at work watering the garden to keep things alive till the regular rains come. It is, however, the experience of all that the more the garden is watered the more it wants, and thus, on the whole, it does little good. Yet water can be so given as to be free from this objection.

It is the hardening of the surface which causes the evil, and a hard, compact surface always dries out faster than a loose one. The proper way is to take the earth away for a few inches around the plant to be watered, so as to make a sort of basin, and into this pour the water, letting it soak gradually, so as to reach the roots. It is a little dry and the surface gets a little dry, then draw the earth back again which has been displaced to make the basin. This will make a loose surface over the watered part, and will preserve it from drying out rapidly. Tomatoes, egg-plants, cabbages and other plants of this character, watered in this way, will need no renewal of water for several weeks. It is a slow way of getting such work done but it is the only sure way of doing it.

Apple Preserves.

Take fair, sweet apples, with firm flesh, pare them nicely, cut them across the core in slices a quarter of an inch thick, remove the seeds, but not the core, as it improves the appearance of the preserve. Boil very gently in a little water till tender, and then lift them carefully on plates.

Take half the number of lemons that you had of apples, cut them across the core in slices the same thickness of the apples, remove the seeds, and spread the slices on earthen plates. Take pulverized loaf-sugar, the weight equaling that of the fruit weighed before boiling, sprinkle half of it over the lemon slices, let it stand a few hours till liquid enough has formed to cut them in, then drain it off and put it over the fire in a porcelain-lined kettle with the rest of the sugar. When it boils, drop in both lemon and apple slices, and boil gently till the fruit is clear. For those who dislike the flavor of lemon peel, the apples can be made as above, substituting lemon juice for lemon slices; or the apples can be left whole, if the cores are carefully cut out.

Preserving Wood.

The Manufacturer and Building describes Hatfield's new method of preserving wood as follows: "It seems that in 1830, specimens of oak were dug up in Rouen, which had been buried since the year 1150. This wood was quite sound, but had acquired a black color like ebony, and an astonishing hardness. Hatfield ascribed its preservation to the joint action of the tannin in the wood and the oxides of iron in the soil. Accordingly, he now proposes to preserve wood artificially by means of tannin and pyrogallite of iron, a combination which would, in some measure, bring about the same changes noticed in the specimens from Rouen. Hatfield impregnates the wood to be preserved first with tannin, and subsequently with the pyrogallite solution. The latter substance has long been used alone as a preservative of the best character, and it is doubtful whether the addition of the tannin, as proposed by Hatfield, will prove of sufficient advantage to warrant the extra expense."
