Dear Brother

K.Ch. 061021a

You see by the within that I have left to be paid at your order $200. which you can draw for at your pleasure which I hope will be soon. but take care that you indorse the same with your own signature else it will not be paid. Put it to any use you please for the boys till such times as it becomes your due for Philander's Board Education according to my preliminary command We are now on the wing to sail for Orleans tomorrow morning; of course I can't but a few words with you. - I pray for your health and that of my dear boys - and hope you and they will not cease to offer up to Him who governeth all things your fervent petitions for our preservation on the great waters

Dudley Chase Esquire
