A Republican and His Mules.

Mac-chick, writes a gossiping politician in the Enquirer, in which he tells the following story about a disgraced Republican who couldn't sell his mules owing to the Radical hard times:

"I was superintending a drain from a lodge in the State of Massachusetts when an aged, well-to-do tiller of the soil drove up and put me through a cross examination as to what I was about. When he ended his story:

"Well, neighbor, how about the election?"

"Well," he responded, "ain't' though much about it. I am so put to it in trying to sell a pair of mules or something to lift my nose above the water. I am sorry to note that I don't give much attention to it."

No, I believe not: had a mule on

"Well, mine ain't tricky, and a bal-could curry their hand legs. Ef ye heve of any body wanting mules, just tell I'm about; will ye?"

"Certainly, with pleasure. Now, to me do you know of any changes from one party to the other?"

"Yes, one."

"Who is it?"

"Me. You see I've been voting the Rpublican ticket right along from the first for the last three years there much nigger and not enough mor to suit me."

"And you hold the party responsible?"
"Of course." "Every year, every year," Bill Lawrence and the rest of them around an tell us that all our good times come up the Republican party. All right," says I, and I chuck her in. "Now we've got to hold 'em responsible for the bad times if they got credit for the good times?"
"That sounds logical."
"Don't it? I went to Liberty the other day to hear the speakers, and one Perry brother to Hayes, they tell me, said they

any thing to sell he'd soon have money. It made me so infernal mad

I went up to him and asked him if he knew any man who'd like to buy a good pair of mules. I wanted to see if money was plenty for mules. He saw what I was driving at and put his hand to his ear an' let on he was deaf. Well, I must get on. Bear in mind about them mules."

We can not fail to see that the tion of affairs is worse in South Carolina to-day than it was at the outbreak of the war.—Gazette.

Certainly. It is under Republican rule. The worst of the negroes instigated by the worst of carpet-baggers govern it. The Democratic Southern States are at peace.—Enquirer.

It is useless to deny that Miles Barnes, who heads the Republicans ticket as candidate for Secretary of State, was a violent Crusader, a mean, bigoted, Anti-Mason and Anti-Secret-Society man. The wider the investigation the more compli-cause it is too late to take him off a ticket.—Enquirer

Hon. Samuel J. Tilden didn't go to the war. He didn't enlist. But as he gave $1,000 to General Grant after the war was over—or was supposed to be—Grant was yet a soldier, and not yet President. So, buying a house to live in, the patriots ought to be a little easier on Mr. Tilden. If the Democrats can forgive him, the Republicans ought to.

☛ The Galion Review says fifty publicans in Galion will vote for Tilden and Hendricks. There are plenty of them all over the country who propose to do likewise. There is scarcely a township in Ohio where Republicans are not espousing the cause of Tilden and Reform.

THE BANNER.

W. W. J. HARPER, Local Editor.

MOUNT VERNON, OCT. 6, 1876

THE PEOPLE WANT A CHANGE.

Tilden, Hendricks and Reform!

Honest Government and Better Times.

HON. J. W. HEISLEY, OF CLEVELAND.

HON. E. B. ESHELMAN, OF WOOSTER.

Will address the people of Knox county, upon the political condition of the country, at the COURT HOUSE, Friday Evening, Oct. 6th.

Let all taxpayers and interested citizens turn out and hear an eloquent exposition of sound and honest Republican principles. Ladies are especially invited to be present.

Gen. G. W. Morgan,

COURT HOUSE, Monday evening, October 9th, 1876.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The BANNER for sale at Taft & Co's. The BANNER is also for sale at Chase & Cassill's.

The women are doing great injury to the cabbage crop. If you would live long and be happy, vote the Democratic ticket.

The newly won wheat throughout the county is looking finely. Burglars have been doing a first-class business over at Millersburg.

Grasscut Cal. can't catch the country boys' votes—don't you forget it. The tramp crop the coming winter promises to be an unusually large one.

On fall bonnets, feathers fancifully arranged, will be worn more than ostrich plumes. Vote the Democratic ticket on Tuesday next, "just as Harper prints it," with a scratch.

Predictions as to what kind of a winter we are to have are now in order by the weather croakers. Striped stockings for ladies are no longer fashionable. Jennie June says so, and she's been there.

Democrats, vote a clean ticket on Tuesday next, and we will elect our entire county State ticket. Don't stay at home on election day. Go the polls and vote and work for the success of the Democratic ticket.

Vote for John F. Gay, for Sheriff, and do your utmost to give him an overwhelming majority against Cal. Magers, the Crusader. Don't spend all your money on the Centennial, because the four-hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America is coming.

We are now having cool, delightful weather—the very kind of weather to put in good work for Tilden, Hendricks and Reform. There will be a meeting of the Agricultural Board on Saturday next, Oct. 7th, at the Auditor's office, when a full attendance is desired.

An exchange states that a plaster made of fresh slacked lime and fresh pine tar is a sure cure for a cancer, which, with its roots, will come out. MARRIED—At the M. E. Parsonage, Sept. 28th, by the Rev. G. W. Pepper, Mr. GEORGE H. SPY to Miss WELITA A. OSBORNE, all of this county.

We again request our friends in all parts of the county to send us their neighborhood news. Write us the facts, and we will put them in shape for publication. Mechanics should not vote in favor of reducing their own wages and the wages of their shopmates. They should vote the Democratic ticket, and thus secure better times.

Some lying idiot telegraphed to the Columbus Journal and Cleveland Herald, that the Democratic meeting in Mt. Vernon, on Saturday evening, "was a complete fizzle." Apples are plenty, and already the market is glutted. Preparations, however, are being made by many parties to ship them, which may create a market for the surplus.

The B. & O. Railroad Company have selected William Dunn, of Newark, to fill the place vacated by the death of George H. Vroom, as Supervisor of Bridges on the Ohio Divisions.

Bartholomew Graham, the Beer-Jerk, is the Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney. Democrats and Prohibitionists, remember this, when you are asked to change your votes.

Mr. Robert Hull, of Monroe township, has had the goodness to leave at the BANNER office twenty-seven varieties of winter apples, for which he took premiums at the late Knox County Fair.

General Morgan delivered a ringing speech on the Republican financial policy at East Liverpool, Ohio, which is published in Monday's Enquirer, but we are sorry we cannot make room for it in this week's BANNER.

The beautiful crop of apples this fall has caused many of our Knox county farmers to turn their attention to the manufacture of cider vinegar, the only pure and wholesome article in use, and cider barrels are a legal tender.

Within the past week we have met several gentlemen of our city who have heretofore been Republicans, who inform us that they can no longer stand by the party that advocates hate, but will this fall vote for Samuel J. Tilden.

Our Republican friends were very anxious to obtain last week's BANNER, and we are sorry we were not able to accommodate them with all the copies they wished. It was a paper that would do honest Republicans good to read. We print a larger edition this week.

Judge Montgomery is stamping the county for "Temperance and Reform." The Judge addressed a meeting in Pike Tp. the other day, when he exposed the insincerity and hypocrisy of the Republican party, whose leaders profess to be the friends of temperance, while they have a drunken President and drunken Cabinet ministers.

The Second Annual Meeting of the Canton Driving Association takes place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 18, 19 and 20. The purses run from $30 to $250. Brass bands will compete for a prize on Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Two tramps made an attempt to break into the residence of Mr. Henry McElroy, in Union township, on Friday last, in broad day light, during the supposed absence of the family. The women folks were about, and frightened the rascals away.

Workmen are engaged in laying a stone flagging pavement around the business block of Mr. N. H. Hill, corner Main and Gambier streets. Mr. Hill has caught the spirit of improvement, and will cause an iron front to be made in the corner store room.

A suit for damages in the sum of $10,000, against the P. & C. & L. Railway Co. has been commenced in the Muskingum Common Pleas by the Administrator of Lucy Carroll, the little girl who was killed by an engine belonging to that company in Zanesville, last July.

As soon as possible after the votes are counted out, next Tuesday night, let our friends in the different townships throughout the county, have their horses in readiness to send mounted couriers to Mt. Vernon with the result—Democratic headquarters at the Court House.

One night last week as Mrs. Alice Stamp was about retiring for the night she discovered a man's face pressed against a window. Her screams frightened the scoundrel away, when it was found that a ladder had been placed against the side of the wall to make the ascent; and there is no doubt but the intruder was a burglar, who intended to rob the house.

Late on Friday night Policeman George discovered a tramp prowling about the residence of Mr. D. C. Lewis, and arrested and locked him up in jail. He had in his possession at the time a lot of dress goods, a quantity of muslin and several shirts. The articles were no doubt stolen, and the owners can have them by calling at the Jail and proving property.

We understand that negotiations are now pending between the leaders of the Radical and Prohibition parties, whereby it is proposed to sell out Mr. Robinson, the Prohibition candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, for the benefit of the beer-sucker, J. B. Graham. It is said that some of the Prohibitionists object to being sold. Can our old friend Wm. Dunbar, throw any light on this business?

Last Saturday night, as Mr. Lake F. Jones was returning from Greensville to Danville, on horseback, he was waylaid by two men, who ordered him to dismount and give up his money. But Lake thought otherwise, and putting whip to his horse, a spirited "White cloud," knocked one of the rascals down and made his escape. Mr. Jones is engaged in buying horses and stock, and usually has large sums of money about his person, which fact seems to have been known by his assailants.

The Democracy had another splendid meeting at the Court House, on Saturday night last. L. Harper presided, and introduced the proceedings with some appropriate remarks. He was followed by Gen. T. E. Powell, of Delaware, who, for about an hour and a half riveted the attention of his audience with an eloquent and stirring speech, in which he thoroughly exposed the dishonesty and corruption of the Radical leaders. His remarks were warmly applauded, and did great good for the cause of Tilden and Reform.

Miss Blanche M. Hathaway, of Columbus is visiting at the residence of Mr. H. A. Boynton, on East Front St.

Mr. Curt Morrison, of the Columbia Bridge Co., Dayton, has been in town the past week, superintending the construction of a new iron bridge over a run near Columbus Delano's, one mile South of the city.

The following party of young men started for the Centennial, on Monday, via the O. & B. Road: Tom Parke, Tom O'Leary, Dana Bird, Edwin Patterson, Frank Bean and Milo K. Huntsberry, of the Banner force.

The Annual Fair of the Knox County Agricultural Society was held on the Society's grounds in this city on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. On the last three days the attendance was large, bringing the receipts up to about $2500—that is from gate money and entry fees. As noticed last week, the display in all departments was large and fine. But as the premium awards will be published in a few weeks, we will refrain from making any special mention at this time, as our space is taken up this week with important political matters. The horse racing as usual was one of the leading features of the Fair.

The sweethearts retorted as follows: Mohawk Chief, by Wm. Hall, 1 1 1 Joe Hooper, by B. F. Greer, 2 2 2 Joe Hooper, by J. W. Hall, 3 3 3 Time—2:58, 2:58.

The 3 year old resulted: S. Bartlett's roan gelding, 1 1 1 Isaac Critchfield's brown mare, 2 2 2 Albert Colburn's sorrel mare, 3 3 3 Time—3:05, 3:30.

A Promenade in a Western. Two young ladies, Miss Lillie Chase, of Holyoke, Mass., and Miss Adeline Cooper, of Mt. Vernon, performed a feat of pedestrianism on Monday, that deserves mention. On a challenge, they started from Miss Cooper's home, on Sugar street, at 12:30 P. M., and walked to Gambier, the distance six miles, being made without a single stop. After striding about "the Hill" for half an hour, they started on their return walk to this city, arriving at 4 P. M.—the entire travel being more than 12 miles, and considering that between here and Gambier there is a continuous chain of hills, some being long and steep, the accomplishment, in the time above mentioned, is one that Western, Sergeant Bates, or any other professional walkist might feel proud of.

Democratic Pole Raising at North Liberty. On Saturday afternoon last the gallant Democracy of Old Pike raised a splendid Hickory Pole, at Mishey & Beal's corner, in North Liberty—several hundred of the hard-fisted farmers of the neighborhood gathering into the village for that purpose. The pole is a beautiful hickory about seventy-five feet high, and was erected under the direction of Andrew Byland and Ephraim Wineand. Short and telling speeches were delivered by Abel Hart, Judge Critchfield and L. Harper, which were warmly applauded. A fine band of martial music was present, and lentened the proceedings. The Democracy of Pike are well organized and thoroughly aroused, and promise a larger majority for the State and county tickets on Tuesday next than they have ever before given. We feel confident they will do it.

A Collection of Horrors. Francis Ept was hung in the Jail yard at Cohosion, on Friday last, for the murder of young Abraham Wertheimer, son of a clothing merchant, on the 20th of November, 1875. The circumstances of the murder have heretofore been given in the BANNER, and were briefly as follows: Ept who was a tailor, worked for Mr. Wertheimer, father of the murdered young man, and had always been kindly treated. Several hundred dollars were taken in at the store on the above day in the way of trade, and locked up in the safe, which fact was known to Ept. Young Wertheimer came in the store, and late that night Ept stole the money, and tried to open the safe to get the money, but without success. He then dressed himself in a suit of clothes belonging to his victim, and taking all the change he could find in the store, left the town. The next day he was arrested at New Comestown, taken back to Cohosion, and lodged in jail. He was tried for murder, found guilty and sentenced to be hung—the execution taking place on Friday last, as stated above. The noise having been placed over his head, the trap was sprung, and the body dangled in the air. In a moment cries of the greatest agony were heard issuing from beneath the black cap. The noise had slipped in such a manner as to bring its knot over the victim's chin, and the fall had not broken his neck. His cries for mercy, and to be shot and put out of misery, filled the air. He was hauled up, the trap readjusted, the noise once more placed about his neck, and again the trap was sprung—this time the work being thoroughly accomplished, and in twenty-three minutes life was extinct. This brutal and barbarous execution must cause a feeling of disgust and abhorrence against "the Christian galloons."

Villainous Incendiarism. On Sunday morning, between 3 and 4 o'clock, as a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was passing the warehouse of Samuel Bishop, on West Gambier street, the engineer of the train discovered two men with a lighted torch in the act of applying it to the warehouse. He at once stopped the train, and blew a long blast on the whistle as a signal of fire, which alarmed the incendiaries, who ran rapidly down the track. A small blaze began to rise from the aperture where the torch had been placed, which would soon have spread beyond control of human agency, owing to the highly inflammable material contained in the building, had it not been for the timely presence of a mind of the engineer, who quickly attached a hose to his engine and put out the blaze with water from the tank. The fire bells were rung and the department turned out, but they would have had a lively time if the fire had not been "nipped in the bud," as extensive lumber yards and frame structures abound in the neighborhood. The engineer describes the men as one being tall and the other of short stature. There can be no surmise as to the cause of the villainous act, except that they were robbers, who wished to start a big conflagration, and then "go through" houses, during the excitement and confusion that would follow. Mr. Bishop says that at the time the fire occurred there was stored in the warehouse about $8000 worth of grain, etc.—If any of these villains should be detected in their acts, it is more than likely they would be treated to lynch law.

Former Resident of Knox County Murdered at Cohosion. On last Friday evening, while the hanging of Ept was theme upon the tongues of every citizen of Cohosion, another and more horrible murder was being enacted in their midst. The last victim was a middle aged farmer, who resided at Dresden, Ohio, named Samuel Fawcett, but who formerly lived in Butler township, this county, where he married. Mr. Fawcett had been in Cohosion on that day, and had displayed several hundred dollars in money. When last seen he was considerably under the influence of liquor.

At 10 o'clock on the night in question his body was found lying near the railroad track, with the head and face gashed in a most frightful manner, as though the work of a hatchet. His pockets had been rifled of their contents, and it is supposed the murders after killing and robbing him, had placed the body on the track to leave the impression that his death had been caused by the cars.

Rev. James Kellam will remove next week to Mt. Vernon to take up the duties of Presiding Elder. The best wishes of his large circle of friends in this place go with him.

Aaron Linn, of this place, returned Monday night from the Centennial. He was robbed of his satchel and a silver watch while in Washington City.

It is just two weeks ago to-day since work was commenced on the new iron bridge at Kraft's Mill, in Middlebury township. It will be finished this week.

The Prohibitionists of Morris township have erected a Smith and Stewart pole at the "half-way-house" between this place and Mt. Vernon. It is the only one, we believe, in the county.

John Bartlett fell down stairs, last Tuesday morning, and bruised himself considerably.

A team of bay horses, three and four years old, was stolen from Mint Ewers, of Middlebury township, on last Monday night. John Kemp and Thurston Ewers disappeared the same night, and it is supposed that they are taking care of the animals. Efforts are being made to capture the thieves, and it is supposed that they will soon be caught.

Ten applicants were before the Knox County Board of Examiners, on Saturday last. Following are the names of the successful candidates: Lorrain Isenberg, Fredericktown, 24 mos A. E. Evers, Leveing, 12 " Joseph Vanhorn, Danville, 6 " John Guest, Pagetown, 12 " Jacob Hupp, Centreburg, 6 " Wm. Winder, Greensville, 6 " Grizilda Beney, Martinsburg, 6 "

Re-Union of the 43d O. V. V. I. The surviving members of the 43d Regiment Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry, met in their First Reunion, at Kirk Hall, Mt. Vernon, on Wednesday, October 4th, about two hundred of the survivors being present.

The Hall was made beautiful and inviting by the ladies and gentlemen comprising the committees for that purpose. Tinted festoons hung from the chandelier in the center to the different corners of the hall. On the walls were suspended wreaths of evergreen, bearing the names of the different battles in which the regiment participated, as follows: New Madrid, Island No. 10, Tippecanoe, Fort Pillow, Iuka, Corinth, Oxford, Decatur, Atlanta, Resaca, Dallas, River Bridge.

The front of the stage was trimmed with flags and above was the motto, "Evergreen, which bid them "Welcome." On the stage were stacks of arms, on which were placed accoutrements, and a wall tent, bearing the inscription "Headquarters 43d Regiment," was erected at the rear. A "vacant chair," shrouded, stood at the entrance in memory of the deceased Col. J. L. Kirby Smith, who commanded the regiment up to the battle of Corinth, where he was killed.

The morning of the day was passed in social greeting, and in marching to the several trains, on the different roads, headed by the Columbus Barracks Band, to meet and escort the new arrivals to the Hotel.

In the afternoon, the survivors were mustered into line, and preceded by the Band marched to the Fair Ground—old "Camp Andrews," where the regiment was first organized. After a time spent there, reviving old recollections, the column took its march for Kirk Hall, where on arriving the assemblage was called to order by Col. Alex. Cassil, President of the Day, who announced the programme of exercises.

A prayer was offered by the Rev. Wm. Thompson, after which the President introduced Chaplain Geo. W. Pepper, who made a stirring and eloquent address of welcome, which was warmly applauded.

He was responded to by General Wager Swayne, of Toledo, in a speech full of feeling and earnestness, at times the speaker being almost overcome with emotion. He was frequently interrupted by the applause of the comrades before him.

He was followed in short volunteer speeches by the following named gentlemen, former officers of the regiment, who were present: Col. Horace Park, Marion, Ohio; Capt. E. L. Lybarger, Spring Mountain, Ohio; Chaplain R. J. Chittenden, Fremont, Ohio, and Col. W. F. Herrick, Wellington, Ohio.

The following named former officers were also present and occupied seats upon the stage: Major A. L. Howe, Cleveland; Adjutant John W. Thompson, Cleveland; Surgeon F. M. Rose, Fairbairn, Minn.; Major J. O. Hamilton, St. Paul, Minn., and Captain Upright, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

A business meeting was then gone into, when a permanent organization was effected by electing the following officers: President—General Wager Swayne. Vice President—Col. W. F. Herrick. Secretary and Treasurer—Captain J. W. Thompson.

A committee was then appointed to draft by-laws and rules to govern future meetings of the regiment, and to fix the time for holding the next Annual Reunion. The following named gentlemen were appointed: President—General Wager Swayne. Vice President—Col. W. F. Herrick. Secretary and Treasurer—Captain J. W. Thompson.

Before adjourning, a resolution was passed thanking the citizens of Mt. Vernon for their generosity and labor in performing their part in the affair.

At 7 o'clock in the evening, a grand banquet was held in Banning Hall, the tables, running the entire length of the room, fairly groined under the load of "good things," prepared and served up in a manner as only Mt. Vernon ladies know how to do. The middle table was occupied by the officers, members of the 43d, and their wives; and the others by invited soldiers and guests. The supply was bountiful, and it was estimated that fully four hundred people were served.

After this ceremony was concluded, Col. Alex. Cassil announced several impromptu toasts, which were responded to as follows: 1. "The 43d O. V. V. I."—Col. Horace Park was called upon to respond, but being temporarily absent, Col. Milton Barnes, who had just put in an appearance, was substituted.

"Our Absent Comrades"—Response by Captain E. L. Lybarger. 2. "The Army Camp"—Response by Captain John W. Thompson. 3. "Our Fallen Heroes"—Response by Rev. E. B. Burrows.

The assemblage then adjourned to Kirk Hall, to participate in a Social Hop. The Hall was crowded with "fair women and brave men," who danced to the splendid music of an orchestra from the Barrack's Band, and all present enjoyed this part of the entertainment to the utmost. It was long after midnight when the dancing terminated, and the gathered throng dispersed amid congratulations and good-byes.

Hon. J. W. Heisley, of Cleveland, who speaks in Mt. Vernon on Friday evening, is one of the ablest lawyers and most eloquent speakers in the state. Give him a rousing meeting.

These Liniments are simply the wonder of the world. Their effects are little less than magical. They cure every ailment which they will not do. They will cure cancer or skin broken bones, but they will always ally pain. They have strangled angers, cured chronic rheumatism of many years standing, and taken the pain from terrible burns and scalds, which has never been done by any other article.

The white Liniment is for the human family. It will drive Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia from the system; cure Lamboago, Chills, Palsy, Tetanus, and most Catarrhs; Eruptions, extracts from frozen hands and feet, and the poison of bites and stings of venomous reptiles; it subdues swellings, and alleviates pain of every kind.

Is a pleasant and perfect substitute, in all cases, for Castor Oil. Castoria is the result of an old physician's effort to produce, for his own practice, an effective, cathartic, pleasant to the taste and free from griping.

Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Hyannis, Mass., succeeded in combining the use of the alcohol—a purgative agent, as pleasant to take as honey, and which contains all the desirable properties of Castor Oil.

It is adapted to all ages, but is especially recommended to mothers as a reliable remedy for all disorders of the stomach and bowels of children. It is certain, agreeable, absolutely harmless, and cheap. It should be used for wind colic, for worms, constipation, griping, etc., then children can sleep and mothers rest easy.

For ROSS & Co., 65 DEY STREET, New York, are the sole proprietors of Castoria, after Dr. Pitcher's recipe. Feb. 26-W13
