IN SHORT TIME

(Columbus Journal)

To columbus the hunt for Michael Lee, missing Mt. Vernon murderer, has been transferred, after a chase that has covered several counties. Lee was sentenced to serve five years in prison by Judge Wickham, who suspended the sentence. This suspension recently was lifted. Lee was convicted last spring of poisoning the chief witness against him in a bootlegging case. The last few days have been more exciting for the convicted man. He has been closely pursued, driven out of hiding place after hiding place in Columbus, but neither a detective, Sheriff Parker of Knox county nor the Columbus police force can put their hands on him. He just disappears. "I can't understand it," said Sheriff Parker yesterday. "Lee just drops out of sight when we are on him. He just disappears. Several times yesterday and day before Parker and the detectives were on Lee. Once yesterday Lee had been in a High Street saloon drinking beer glasses had not been taken from the bar when his pursuers entered the saloon. The elusive Lee had gotten down. It was said last night that friends in Columbus were helping to shield him. It also was declared there was...

will arrive in the city in a short time for that purpose. Meanwhile, the body will remain at the Chappellear undertaking parlors.

GRAYS

Defeated By Centerburg By Score Of 4 To 1

The Grays were defeated by a score of 4 to 1 at Centerburg on Thursday afternoon. Tanner and F. Schmidt pitched excellent ball for the Grays, but errors behind them lost the game. Mauger of the Akron O. & P. league team pitched for Centerburg, six hits being registered off his delivery.

On Sunday afternoon the colored team, known as Barber's Easterns, of Columbus will be here for a game with the Grays at Riverside park.
