CURED BY FAITH.

A Dying Woman Sees Our Lady
Perpetual Help and is Restored.
[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

Probably the most remarkable the best known of faith cures.

Louis is the case of Theresa Schaefer, a young woman who had a visitation of the Blessed Virgin, or the Mother of Christ, while at the point of death. This occurred at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, at the corner of Twenty-third and Morgan streets, some twenty years ago. Miss Schaefer was a young man girl, a very devout Roman Catholic, an excellent housekeeper and an intelligent, sensible girl. She was a furthest. The girl had been prepared for health all the time to the Last Perpetual Help, as the Virgin is sometimes termed, and on the day following the evening on which the consultation had been held was in a dying condition. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon she showed signs of animation, and, according to the Sisters, declared that she was angels.

Little attention was paid to her

A monument is to be erected to the memory of Colonel Drake, the first discoverer of crude petroleum. The Philadelphia News suggests that an oil company and a servant girl concoct would be an appropriate device.

A Mother's Love—A Practical Illustration of Its Power.

A mother's love! What a potent thing it is! It will melt the heart of the most hardened criminal, when no other influence would be effectual. No one but a mother knows its full meaning, but every one can appreciate its power. It is known, though, that it means sleepless nights, care, inconvenience, and, if necessary, want, hardship and death. But the subject has been too eloquently treated by the sweetest poets and the ablest writers to furnish an essay for these columns. Too many practical illustrations occur in every day life for it to dwell upon, so that it is unnecessary to speak of the subject further in order to make the reader understand the full meaning of what is to follow.

Mrs. Henry Schuilen, of Ashland, Ky., writes that her daughter has been cured of deafness which resulted from chronic catarrh. She tells how she had lost all hope of her daughter (her ideal) being cured, and how overjoyed she is at the result. After trying many remedies, she says, "I have a grand remedy."

Mr. Robert C. Hannah, Tolebrough, Lewis county, Ky., writes: "I write to inform you of the great benefit I receive by the use of your medicines, PERUNA and MANALIN. I had been deaf and dumb for six months with a bad cough, and my friends thought I had consumed; tried a number of patent medicines, and most of the doctors in the vicinity (and we have some as good as you can find in the country), but they did me no good whatever. Our merchant, Mr. Gillespie, insisted upon me trying your remedies. I did so, but must say, I had little faith in them at first; before I had consumed my first bottle, I noticed a change for the better, and to-day I am entirely well. I feel as sound as a man as ever in the vicinity. I credit my cure to your valuable remedies, PERUNA and MANALIN, and recommend them to all of my friends."

PERUNA is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles $5.00. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try some thing else, but order from us at once as directed. S. B. HAYES, Columbus O.

He Was Learning.

"Does your little boy learn much at school, Mrs. Pankley?"

"Indeed he does, mum; he learns heaps."

"Well, that's real gratifying, isn't it?"

"Yes, it is for a fact, mum, because I'm kept so close at home it's precious little I know if he isn't for him."

He found out something, nearly every day that come to me like a cool sweat when you have the fever."

"You don't tell me."

"Yes, I do. It was only yesterday he come home with the news that Mrs. Cully's baby has had a tooth, and the day before that he found out what a hammer is on a spire, and was smashing up things around the house dreadful, and I think it was Tuesday—wasn't it Tuesday, Mollsey? Yes, I'm sure it was—the little rat saw Miss Sharley and old Granny Savage shaking their fists at one another out the upper window as he was on his way home. Yet, he learns right smart, mum, and he's quite a comfort to me, that account too, I can tell you, even though he be a little legged and has onion-colored eyes."

A City Official.

Colonel Witherspoon of Austin, Tex., is very stingy. He pays his servants very little, and gives them less to eat, consequently his carriage driver announced his intention of leaving him.

"So you are going to quit my services, are you?" asked Witherspoon.

"Yes, sah, I has got a new place."

"What sort of a place is it?"

"I drives a scavenger cart for the city from now on."

"Why, how could you degrade yourself in that manner?"

"Hi! all the same for me what sort of trash I've got in de vehicle I drives, if I gets de same pay for it. Besides, sah, I've a city official from now on, sah."

Whoever Has Visited the Shakers.

Shakers must have noticed the bright complexion of the Sisters. That bloom of youth is the result of perfect digestion of food. The Shakers, dejected countenance prevailing nearly all our ladies is the result of indigestion. The Shaker Extract of Roots (Sieg's Syrup) will give immediate relief and bring back the glow of health.

Harvey Lee, Merchant at Twin Springs, McDonald county, Mo., writes, May 9, 1884: "The Shaker Extract of Roots has cured my wife of sick headache, which she has been subject to for ten years. She feels so proud over it that she wishes me to sincerely thank you for sending the medicine to this place." Jas. M. Morgan, Merchant, of Empire, Ky., writes, February 18, 1884: "A gentleman who had been afflicted for years with severe rheumatism has been perfectly cured by seven bottles of Shaker's Rheumatism Remedy. Use the Shaker Tar Capsules for the Throat and Lungs. 10 Sept 1884

Marriage in High Life.

There are people in New York who today after the rich. The following conversation took place on a Third Avenue street car.

"So your sister is married?"

"Yes, and she did very splendidly. You have heard of Vanderbilt?"

"Oh, yes. Did she marry into that family?"

"Well yes, so to speak. She married a nephew of Vanderbilt's chief cook. He is the driver of a street car."

The Homeliest Man in Mt. Vernon.

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call at the Globe Drug Store and get free a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits, and is guaranteed to cure and relieve all Chronic and Acute Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and Consumption. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Dr. P. A. Baker, sign of Gold Globe. 10 Sept 1884

The warm weather often has a depressing and debilitating effect. Sarsaparilla overcomes all languor and lassitude.

A New Translation.

Harper's Bazar.] Little Sammy was looked upon as quite a prodigy in the Farr family. It customary to have him show off for the entertainment of guests. One morning Mr. Farr said:

"Now, Sammy, get your bible and read to us, beginning at the verse at which you chance to open."

This was to convince his hearers that Sammy had not been made familiar with certain chapters only.

Having opened the book, Sammy read, in loud and measured tones, "Neptune men light a candle and put it under a bush."
