New Orleans June 18-1809.

My dear Brother.

I have <sup>just</sup> ~~just~~ time to inform you that I have delivered into the hands of Mr. Symon Harding three Hundred Dollars, which he promises to lodge in the U. S. Branch - Bank in Boston subject to your order, of which when done you will be advised by him.

Out of this money I wish you would pay to Dr. Gallup of Woodstock one hundred and fifty £ when the term of three years which Mr. Jedediah Fay was to continue under his ~~his~~ tuition, shall have been expired: - and to Jedediah Fay himself Fifty Dollars, for his own use.

I have written to Mr. Dan<sup>l</sup>. Fay my dear Father in Law, that I will, if in my power send him one Hundred Dollars a year for the purpose of helping him to educate his two youngest sons - & to this end advised him to move into your neighbourhood to be near the Academy. If the plan should prove agreeable to his arrangements and wishes and he should move among you and if you have not an immediate use for the money; you would be adding to your Character of Benevolence by loaning on my acc<sup>t</sup>. this little remaining sum of 100. to him till I can have the opportunity to look about me and find another opportunity of sending something more; which I trust will soon be the case.

I hope you have ere this attended to my affair in Pough<sup>2</sup> and can say something about it in your next.

Do write to me quickly—

My dear wife has been somewhat indisposed but is now better. She has been very near going to see you this summer but has now deferred it till early next spring - when, Dec volente, she will certainly go.

Embrace the dear boys for us - Our happiness is so interwoven with theirs that, I fear, "should any ever befall them" we could not sustain it.

Our best love to all - all -

I am well dear Bro

In great haste
I am

Your loving

Dudley Chase Esq Phil<sup>r</sup> Chase
