DR. SAGE'S

CATARH REMEDY

This infallible remedy does not, like the poly-medicines, irritate and inflame the delicate membrane of the bladder, but cures the disease in a few days, and restores the patient to health. It is a simple remedy, and does not interfere with the action of the bowels, or cause any of the usual effects of cathartics.

cause much suffering, and do not cure the the material interests of the State.

insurgents are determined, rather than submit to Spanish rule, to render the island untenable for the Spaniards; and to this end will destroy houses and crops and render the island a desert waste.

That Radical "Mass Meeting."

If any additional evidence was needed to convince the people that the Radical party of Knox county is dead and condemned, the "Great Mass Meeting" on Tuesday, would satisfy the most incredulous mind.

This meeting was gotten up by the Post Office Clique, headed by Delano, Bascom, Boynton, Byers & Co., for the special purpose of galvanizing a life into the Mongrel Radical faction. Immense posters were circulated all over this and the adjoining counties, by the indefatigable Underwood, and a special invitation was given to the "truly loyal" to come up to the great gathing. To insure an immense turn out,

Ex-Governor Harrison of New Hampshire was brought all the way here to Mt. Vernon to speak, and Governor Hayes of this State and "Judge" Somebody of Ravenna, were also announced as orators for the occasione. To add still further to the attractions, the chief of the Post Office Clique, the redoubtable "pork and beans hero," came all the way from Washington to preside at the meeting.

Well, the day came—a bright, beautiful day; but the "Great Mass Meeting" came up—missing! It was worse than a failure.

It was the next thing to no meeting at all.

We honestly believe that there were not more than 20 persons from the country, who came purposely to attend the meeting, and even a majority of these were Democrats. The streets looked about as bare as they did the day before or the day after the meeting; and Gov. Harrison remarked to a prominent Republican, "if this is a specimen of your meetings in Ohio, the Republican party will be badly beaten."

We did not hear the speeches, but are told that they consisted chiefly of abuse of Mt. Pendleton, and silly twaddle about the late civil war. No promise of relief was afforded to the tax-ridden people of the United States, as against the Bonded Aris-toxy and an oppressive National Debt.

The Guilt of Colonel Cassil.

More than two weeks have elapsed since the proofs of Colonel Cassil's bad faith to the people were published, and he has failed to make, explain or deny the charges.

Bascom says he has Colonel Cassil's defense on hand—why then does he not publish it in this week's paper, and now he says that he will publish it next week?

Why this trifling about a grave matter?

It is said that Bascom and Cassil are trumping up a defense which they intend to publish when it is too late to be answered. This is the trick of the genuine culprit. The guilty man always tries to postpone a hearing on his case; while the innocent one is prompt and ready with his defense.

The silence of Colonel Cassil is an insult to the people, and he is deceived if he supposes that he can shield himself behind the falsehoods of Bascom. Farmers and workmen will remember that Colonel Cassil betrayed them for the benefit of land sharks and hungry speculators. Is that article which Bascom says he has on hand from Colonel Cassil his declaration?

It does not speak well for Colonel Cassil that he has impudence enough to go before the people while these grave charges are unavowed.

General Carr at Mansfield.

A despatch from Mansfield, to the Cincinnati Enquirer, Sept. 17th says: General Carr addressed a tremendous meeting at Miller's Hall, in this city, to-night.

Hundreds went away, being unable to gain admittance to the hall. Mr. A. Robinson, Superintendent of Blymer, Day & Co.'s

Works, acted as Chairman of the meeting.

A large proportion of the audience was composed of Republicans, who expressed themselves highly pleased with the speech.

The General's address was applauded throughout. This was undoubtedly the largest meeting held in that city for years.

You may look out for a good report from Old Richmond. We have three large machine-shops here, and nearly all of the men working in them attended the meeting.

The Republicans here are discouraged, and are doing nothing politically, while the Democrats are earnest and hopeful.

The Ohio State Fair.

All accounts from Toledo represent the recent State Fair as being a grand success exceeding all others ever held in the State both as to the number of persons in attendance, and the number and variety of the exhibitions. Every person who was in attendance speaks well of the fair, as well as the kindness and courtesy of the citizens of Toledo. It is stated that the number of admission tickets sold was 70,000, against 75,000 at Dayton, in 1897, the highest of any preceding year. The aggregate receipts were from $28,000 to $30,000.

The number of entries was 4,300, about 1,000 more than any former year. The most gratifying degree of order, sobriety and good feeling distinguished the whole Fair, and every body, officers of the Board, Particulars of Mr. Potter's Death.

We last week briefly noticed the killing of Mr. Daniel Potter, Sr., at Mingo Station, below Steubenville. The Gazette of that city gives us the particulars of his death. He was walking over the track of the Pan Handle Railroad, when it is supposed he discovered the mail train from the West, on that road, which was approaching him at a speed of twenty-five or thirty miles an hour. In his endeavor to cross the track ahead of it, he tripped and fell on the track. The engineer, discovering his engine and made every possible effort to stop the train, but his efforts failed, and Mr. Potter was run over, the "cow-catcher" striking him on the head. One wheel passed over his leg and almost severed it from his body. His remains were properly cared for and brought to his home in Steubenville for interment. Mr. P. was a gentleman highly esteemed. He had been for many years a ruling Elder in the First Presbyterian Church of that city—

He leaves an interesting family, who, with his church, will sadly feel his loss. He was a gentleman of very large means, being the proprietor of the celebrated Mingo Farm, where he was killed, besides other valuable property.

Delano Turns Up.

Delano, the "pork and beans hero," who, aided by Bascom, Byers & Co., succeeded in removing a soldier's widow from the Mt. Vernon Post Office, and a stay-at-home Radical politician appointed in her place, has left Washington on an electioneering tour in behalf of the Bondholders and treasury plunderers. He showed the light of his beautiful countenance at the little Mongrel gathering at the Court house on Tuesday; but we are told that many decent Republicans, upon hearing that Delano was about, declined to go near the meeting. They will never forget his treachery and to persecution of Mrs. Hood.

Delano goes from here to Pennsylvania, to make speeches in behalf of the doomed political humber, Gov. Geary; but his pious exhortations will be of no avail. Delano and his party will soon be buried in the sea of oblivion.

Land Appraiser.

Again we take occasion to remind our Democratic friends throughout the county that a Land Appraiser is to be elected in each Township, in Knox county, and in each Ward in the City of Mount Vernon, on the second Tuesday of October. It is highly important that the very best and most popular men should be brought out as candidates—men of good judgment in regard to the value of property, and who will do their duty faithfully and fearlessly.
