TRAVELER'S GUIDE.

Vandalia Route West!

Twenty-three miles the shortest. Three express trains leave Vandalia daily, except Sunday, for St. Louis and the West.

The only line running Pullman's celebrated Drawing Room Sleeping Cars from Vandalia, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Louisville, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, to St. Louis, without change.

Passengers should remember that this is the great west-bound route for Kansas City, Leavenworth, Lawrence, Topeka, Junction City, Fort Scott and St. Joseph.

Emigrants and families, who are seeking homes in the rich valleys and on the fertile prairies of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, take notice that this is the cheapest and the most direct route.

This line has facilities for transporting families to the far West not possessed by any other line. Save time and money.

Tickets can be obtained at all the principal Ticket Offices in the Eastern, Middle and Southern States. C. E. FOLLERT, General Pass Agent, St. Louis; R. W. SWARTZ, General Pass Agent, Indianapolis; JOHN E. SIMPSON, General Superintendent, Indianapolis. [Feb 23]

The Political Revolution!

The Union of Patriots for the Sake of the Union!

"The Cry is Still They Come!"

The majority of the intelligent colored men of Oberlin, Ohio, are for Greeley.

Holyoke, Massachusetts, has a club of Greeley Republicans numbering 141 voters.

Fully one-half of the Republicans of Plinston, Pennsylvania, are for Greeley and Brown.

Backfield, Maine, has fifty-three Republicans who favor the election of Greeley and Brown.

Hon. Wm. Stewart, Republican member of Congress during Buchanan's term, is now for Greeley.

Eighty-four Liberal Republicans of Bay County, Michigan, have signed a call for a Convention.

No less than 100 Republicans in the town of Batavia, (N. Y.), are out for Greeley.

Grant has the support of only two German papers in Wisconsin. Fifteen papers support Greeley.

The Traverse City (Mich.) Bay Eagle renounces Grantism and hosts the Greeley and Brown flag.

Out of 7,000 German votes in San Francisco, only eighteen would sign a call for a German Grant meeting.

Wm. Matthews, of Elma, Licking county, Ohio, has cut loose from the Grantites, and will cast his vote for Horace Greeley.

According to a correspondent of the San Francisco Post, Southern California is a hot-bed of Grantism.

H. Thoron, a life-long Republican, and the wealthiest Scandinavian merchant in Minnesota, has declared for Greeley.

At Salt Springs, Kansas, where there were only seven Democrats and 136 Republicans, there are now ninety Greeley men.

Samuel C. Clarke, of Philadelphia, prominent among mechanics and laboring men, in Judge Kelley's district, has come out for Greeley.

Colonel Ordway, of New Hampshire, who is sergeant of the House of Representatives, and a politician of acknowledged sagacity, has declared for Greeley.

One hundred and seventeen known Republicans of the town of Salem, Columbia county, Ohio, have signed a call for a Greeley and Brown club.

The Hon. S. B. Fife, assistant collector of internal revenue in Grand Traverse county, Mich., has forwarded his resignation, and comes out for Greeley.

Wm. Coburn, who was in 1868 elected Attorney General of the State of Indiana on the Radical ticket, has written a letter strongly endorsing Greeley.

Isaac N. Smith, a colored man of Jones county, North Carolina, announces his intention of stamping the State for Greeley and Brown.

Five Republican townships, Cuyahoga county, are reliably informed there are twenty-five Republicans who will vote for Greeley and not one Democrat against him.

James White, Esq., Republican mayor of Newark, elected last spring by a majority of 104, is now a Greeley man. Thus it goes all over the country.

Robert A. Lee, a colored member of the Grant Republican committee of Nanamoud county Virginia, resigns his position in a published letter, and declares for Greeley and Brown.

Over one hundred members and ex-members of Congress are for Greeley, and actively engaged in the good work of promoting the cause of reconciliation and honesty.

The Norfolk (Va.) Journal states that the Rev. J. V. Givens, the negro orator, who is well known in that city, acknowledges himself convinced by Sumner's letter that it is his duty to come out for Greeley.

The Washington Club, a German national political organization of Council Bluffs, Iowa, has seventy-eight members, seventy-five of whom are for Greeley, two for Grant, and one for the fence.

The Liberals and Democrats in the Legislature of North Carolina will have a majority of twenty-four on joint ballot. And yet the late election was a "great victory for Grantism."

A colored man in Forestville, N. C., had to fly to the woods for his life, for he voted the Republican ticket he did not vote for his old master for Sheriff, and he was a Democrat.

Ithamar C. Sloan, of Zanesville, a Republican member of Congress from 1863 to 1867, is the Liberal nominee of the First Wisconsin District against Charles G. Williams, of Zanesville, the Grant nominee.

Among the men actively engaged in the Greeley cause in Hudson County, Minnesota, are Captains Harries, County Attorney, and John Dorch, Postmaster, both of whom were Federal soldiers disabled in battle.

Advices from Oregon of a recent date are to the effect that Greeley will unquestionably receive the electoral vote of that State. The railroad influence in that locality propose to remain neutral in the struggle so far as the Presidency is concerned, and only to exert their strength in behalf of the United States Senator.

A. B. Coons, leading Republican lawyer, of Sharon, New York; Lloyd A. Haywood, formerly Republican Treasurer of Wyoming county, New York; Alexander Scott, Republican Supervisor of Amsterdam, New York, and Captain J. S. Cross, a life-long and influential Republican of Schoharie, New York, are all for Greeley and Brown.

General George W. Jones, of Iowa, who has hitherto been opposed to Mr. Greeley, comes out in a card, repudiating the Louisville show, and advising the friends of reform to vote for Greeley and Brown. The Grant papers have been publishing General Jones' name as one of the opponents of Greeley. Will they now publish his renunciation?

Henry Wilson's Know-Nothingism—The Proof.

Some of the more reckless Grant papers are denying that Jeremiah Galbraith was Henry Wilson, was a Know-Nothing, and had consequently taken an oath to prescribe and persecute all foreigners, and more especially Catholics. The Denton Philo has been examining the old records, and reports: We found that the Know-Nothing of Massachusetts held their State Convention in Tremont Temple, Boston, in October, 1854; that there were 1,500 delegates present, and that on the first ballot for Governor the name of Henry Wilson appears, and that he received 65 votes out of 988. The following are the names of the first ballot: Marshall P. Wilder.....343

E. M. Wright.....180

E. B. Brewster.....66

Henry Wilson.....66

Simon Brown, of Concord.....66

The Philo's reports of the Convention says: "There was then great tumult in the Convention, and circulations were freely indulged in. Mr. Wilson made a speech, in which he declined receiving the nomination," and accordingly his name does not appear in the following list. There was something in the fact that the nomination was given, and that Henry Wilson was present at the Convention, "to prove that he belonged to the Order although the vote shows that he could not have been a very popular member."

Here is additional proof. The Tribune publishes the following incisive card from General Albert Pike:

"Sir—Was Henry Wilson a Know-Nothing? You say that you are constant receiving letters asking an answer to this question. I will answer it. I was a delegate to and a member of the National Council of the Know-Nothing party in the summer of 1855, at Philadelphia, and one of seven delegates from a Southern State. I found present Senator Wilson in that body when I entered. He sat in it during the whole session, and helped settle the platform, being of the seven delegates of Massachusetts. He was to be there, he has the sign, word and grip, and necessarily had taken the same oath that we had all taken on entering the order, i. e., not to assist in any way in elevating to any office of trust or profit any person of foreign birth or any Roman Catholic. The oath is as binding on him now as it was then. My name will assure you that I know that of which I will speak. I object to Mr. Wilson's sneaking out of the scrape, both suppression veri and suppositio falsi."

"WASHINGTON, August 1, 1872."

West Virginia Election.

In regard to the West Virginia election the Lynchburg (Va.) Republican (Democrat) says of the re-election of Jacob as Governor:

"In no view of the case can this be regarded as a Democratic defeat. Mr. Jacob was overwhelmed in the nominating convention. Conservative counties in the State, with a clear majority of over nine hundred. Yet Mr. Jacob carries the county by a respectable majority; and this is not an exceptional instance."

Another Lie Nailed.

The New York Evening News says it is authorized by A. T. Stewart to state the following paragraph, which has been telegraphed over the country, is a falsehood, made from whole cloth, viz:

A. T. Stewart says the election of Mr. Greeley would be a national calamity to the country; if he is elected, God help us.

Stewart is earnestly and sincerely in favor of the election of Mr. Greeley. He knows that the revenue service in New York, as administered by Grant's officials, is rotten from its innermost core to its outer rim.

Akron for Greeley.

The several Radical Ward Committees have made their reports, and give, as the total number of Grant men enrolled in the city as 750. Let us look at this. In 1871 the Radicals polled 1,027 votes for Governor or Mayor, and the Democrats polled 536 for Governor, and 500 for Mayor. Out of this the ever vigilant Radical find only 750 Grant men. Hurrah for Greeley now. According to Radical figures there are 815 Greeley men in Akron. If all the cities of the State do as well as Akron, Ohio, can be counted sure for the honest farmer of Chappaqua.—Akron Times.

What Grant Has Done.

He has accepted gifts, and rewarded the givers with office.

He has tampered with the independence and integrity of Congress, by personally soliciting members to favor his San Domingo scheme.

He has employed the army to do the work of the Constable, and has suspended the writ of habeas corpus in time of profound peace.

He has upheld the infamous carpet-bag rule in the Southern States, and thereby overthrown the white people of that section.

He has menaced the independence of Hayti, while professing to be the special friend of the colored people of that island.

He has shamefully abused the appointing power, by selecting for his Cabinet the commonest of men, whose names—spelt by the unlettered muse—had else remained unknown.

He has set himself up for a second term in an office which he must know, and which he half confesses, that he is unfit to discharge.

He has ostracized every public man who has had the independence and the manliness to differ from him.

He has endeavored to confine the enumeration of his notables doing further. The instances given show that his conception of government consists solely in having his own way.

It therefore behooves people of all shades of opinion to consider whether we are drifting, and to ask one another if it would not be more prudent to leave Grant out of one's thoughts than to continue him in. The arguments that would re-elect him could be urged with even greater force to elect him for the third time, and to make him Consul or Dictator for life.

There is one link wanting in the chain of testimony which Henry Wilson offers as to General Grant's use of intoxicating liquors. Wilson says that he was minded to ask Grant to sign the pledge and join the Congressional Temperance Society. Why? Evidently because, as Rev. Mr. Dennison tells us that Wilson said to him, "Grant drinks too much."

Now, if Wilson is in the habit of asking all public men in Washington, who drink at all, to sign the pledge and join the Congressional Temperance Society, there is nothing peculiar or specially significant in the fact that he was moved to proselytize Grant. This is the role of a Washingtonian reformer only for the benefit of "hard cases."—Chicago Tribune.

His Price.

When it first occurred to the Radical leaders in Washington that they could make a "good thing" out of Grant as a candidate, Fremont, who was then Secretary of the State, was called upon for a rousing leader upon the subject. After he had been prepared it was submitted to Rawlins, the Chief of Staff, who carried it to Headquarters. We give Rawlins' report in Forney's own words:

"When Rawlins came back from General Grant with the editorial, he told us with great emphasis: 'General Grant does not want to be President. He thinks the Republican party may need him, and he believes, as his candidate, he can be elected and re-elected.' But, said Rawlins, what is to become of him after his second Presidential term? He desires his second re-election?"

He is receiving from seventeen to twenty thousand dollars a year as General of the armies of the Republic—a life salary. To go into the Presidency at twenty-five thousand dollars a year for EIGHT YEARS, perhaps, to gain more fame; but what is to become of him at the end of his Presidency? He is not a politician, and he is not a party man. Eight years from the 4th of March, 1880, he will be about fifty-five years old. Of course, he must spend his salary as President. England, with her Wellington, her Nelson and her other heroes, has never hesitated to enrich and ennoble them through all their posterity. Such a policy is in accordance with the character of the English Government, but in our country the man who fights for us and saves the Republic would be a beggar if he depended upon political office, and what if, if Grant takes anything from the rich, what will he do with it? After he is President, he will be second to the living recipient of gifts."

This is a true photograph of Grant—Money, money, money, is all his cry. What cared he for the dignity of the position; indeed it is questionable whether he once raised himself high enough to indulge an idea upon the subject. The only thing occurring to his low instincts, was the utility value of the office. England, it is said, ennobled her Generals, and to be equal to them Grant demands money.

But the bargain was completed, the hat was passed around and the "fat contributors" were appointed to high stations; and being so well provided for himself, he sets to work with a perfect, shamelessness of audacity to quarter his whole seed breed and generation on the public treasury!

Illinois.

The Chicago Daily News is strong in the belief that Illinois will cast her 21 electoral votes for Greeley and Brown. To prove the great change which has taken place in public opinion in that State since Grant's election in 1868 the News calls the small county of Oles to the witness stand. Grant's majority in 1868 was 411. To-day no one will question the fact that the county will give 500 majority for Greeley. In Charleston township a careful poll of the voters has been made with the following result: Greeley, 339; Grant, 364; doubtful, 36 Democrats and 45 Republicans; a gain of over 100 in this precinct. In even Hickory township, of the same county, the vote stands: Greeley, 175; Grant, 120; doubtful, 4 Democrats and 8 Radicals—a gain of 60. In Humboldt township the vote is: Greeley, 214; Grant, 170; doubtful, 6 Democrats and 21 Republicans—a gain of 50, and so on throughout the county.

The News is daily advised of similar changes throughout the entire State. If the friends of Mr. Greeley can secure harmony and efficient action, Illinois can, and will, be carried for the Liberal cause.

SPEECH OF HON. FRANK M. HURD, OF TOLEDO, OHIO.

On Accepting the Nomination for Congress, Tendered Him by the Liberal-Democratic Convention, August 21st, 1872.

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I thank you most cordially for the distinguished honor you have this day conferred upon me. While the nomination given me was not unexpected, my friends, who have known my purposes best, will bear witness that it has been unsought. I have refused to embarrass the prospects of our country by pressing my own claims upon my political associates. I should decline the nomination now did I think that my candidacy would imperil the success of the cause in which we are so deeply interested.

Satisfied to trust your judgment as to whether it is wise to put me in nomination, I accept it with diffidence and distrust of myself, but with the determination to do all in my power to secure the victory which the great principles we advocate deserve.

It might not be inappropriate for me at this time, when the Congressional Convention, which places in nomination, is in session, to say a word as to views which I have entertained in the past, and the political principles which shall govern me in the canvass and hereafter.

At the breaking out of the late civil war I was given no choice, and I was forced to a soldier, I could do no more in reference to the war than to speak and contribute my means. So long as recruiting depended upon voluntary enlistment, individuals, no one in the part of Ohio where I resided made more numerous war speeches than myself, and none contributed more to the support of the army and their families than myself.

When the war ended I actively interested myself in the questions involved in the policy of reconstruction, and opposed the views which at last found expression in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to our Constitution. When the country was in the manner in which the first proposed an acceptance of those Amendments I opposed it, not because I desired to interfere with the new rights of the colored race as acquired, but because I disapproved of the manner in which those amendments had been adopted.

Satisfied now that the keeping alive of issues of the past will prevent a fair settlement of the practical issues of the present, I have determined, upon full consideration, to adopt as my views the doctrines of the Cincinnati platform. I stand upon it. I approve its principles. I shall uphold them by my voice and vote, and whether in private or public life shall endeavor to carry them into the administration of government.

The platform declares, I accept as accomplished facts, 1st. The abolition of slavery. 2d. The equality of all men before the law; and 3d. The exercises of the elective franchise by the colored race.

These are the great principles of the Cincinnati platform. I accept as accomplished facts, 1st. The abolition of slavery. 2d. The equality of all men before the law; and 3d. The exercises of the elective franchise by the colored race.

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO:

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 6, 1872

The Liberal Republican

—AND—

Democratic Candidates.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HORACE GREELY

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

B. GRATZ BROWN,

OF MISSOURI.

FOR CONGRESS, 5TH DISTRICT,

GEN. GEO. W. MORGAN.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTOR,

THOMAS E. POWELL.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Secretary of State,

GEN. AQUILA WILEY, of Wayne County.

Judge of the Supreme Court,

JOHN L. GREEN, of Franklin County.

Member of the Board of Public Works,

ISAAC B. RILEY, of Licking County.

Democratic County Ticket.

Probate Judge—CHAS. E. CRITCHFIELD,

Clark of the Court—SAMUEL J. BRENT,

Prosecuting Attorney—ABEL HART, JR.

For Sheriff—JOHN M. ARMSTRONG.

For Overseer—GEORGE A. WELKER.

For Surveyor—EMMETT W. COTTON.

County Treasurer—DAVID F. HALSEY.

Indemnity Director—RICHARD CAMPBELL.

General S. F. Cary is announced

to speak in Mt. Vernon, October 1.

It is believed that it cost Grant's office-holders half a million dollars to get up the "Side Show" at Louisville.

Hon. Horner Nelson, late Secretary of State in New York, puts the majority for Greeley in that State at 80,000. How is that for high?

Governor Jacob of West Virginia,

is for Greeley, and has so declared himself

to a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer at Charleston.

There are a great many enthusiastic

Grant men who bet on Grant's election

with their mouths, but take good care to never risk a dollar on the Long Branch

Longer. This said!

Hon. Heister Cuyler has been nominated for Congress in the Berks district,

Penn., he having received 150 out of 164 votes in the convention. Of course he will be elected by a sweeping majority.

The cry is still they come! Hon.

Milton J. Sutcliffe, ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, a life-long Republican, has renounced Grant, and made a

Greeley speech at Warren on last Saturday evening.

Robert Lincoln, son of President

Lincoln, is strongly for Greeley. In conversation recently with a woman friend

his father, he remarked, "If father was living he would take an active part for Greeley."

The Boston Globe, Grant paper,

can't see how it is that in two Mississippi districts it cost $18,941 to collect $20,618.

For our part we can't see why the collectors don't steal the balance of $1,677.

We shall publish, in next week's paper an eloquent and powerful speech delivered by General Durbin Ward, at Lebanon, Ohio, on the 29th ult. General

Ward is one of the most effective speakers

in the State.

Although the Grant faction apportioned

the State so as to secure all the members of Congress but six, the present indications are that the Democrats and Liberals will elect 13 or 14 members.

The Washington Patriot remarks:

"The defeat of John A. Bingham for re-nomination for Congress was a cruel blow,

especially after he had, in his Elyria speech

defended the nepotism of the President, and nailed it with Scripture."

Mr. Wilson is sorry that Grant drinks and will not sign the pledge. So are we. It would be better for Grant and the country if he would follow Mr. Wilson's temperance example while he remains on "God's green earth."

The Rev. Mr. Mahan, late President of the Oberlin College, Ohio, a strong

Republican, has lately delivered an address at that place in favor of Greeley and Brown. It was one of the most powerful and convincing speeches delivered this campaign.

Grant's office-holders are circulating

"Brick" Pomeroy's Democrat by the

A delegation of Pennsylvania Radicals, headed by the infamous Cameron,

were in Washington on Friday last, expecting to find the President there, being desirous of talking with him on political matters. But Grant having gone back to Long Branch, to witness the race, the Cameronites were sadly disappointed, and gave way to their feelings in cursing both long and deep. While in Washington,

Cameron stated to the Republican Campaign Committee that there is no doubt but Ex-Governor Curtin will support Greeley.

In Venango county, Pennsylvania,

there is a perfect stampede from Grant to

Greeley, among whom may be mentioned,

Hon. S. P. McCalmont, Judges R. S. Mc-

Cormick and Irvin, Ex-Senator Hoag,

Peter McGough, cashier, Col. L. D. Rodgers, Dr. Gillett, Wm. Brough, Harrison J.

Smith, late Prothonotary, James Osborne,

Col. James Blakeley, Simon J. Nicklen,

D. D. Davis, Alex. A. Cochran, William

Cooper, merchant, J. C. Bonham, Esq.,

Chadwick and Rhom, Esq., and about one hundred others.

The Republican thinks it strange that we fill our columns with changes from

Grant to Greeley, that take place abroad;

but mention no changes at home. We have not deemed it necessary to publish the names of the Greeley Republicans in Knox county; but we will make this proposition to Mr. Bascom: For every Democrat he can name in Knox county who will vote for Grant, we will name ten Republicans who will vote for Honest Horace Greeley.

Couldn't the Republicans be pre-valued upon to publish one—just one—speech from a Liberal Republican, giving his reasons for supporting Greeley instead of Grant? For instance, the speech of Ex-President MAHAN, of Oberlin College.

You can't say that President Mahan is a

"disappointed office-holder," a "copperhead," a "rebel sympathizer," or any such stuff as that. He is a good and pure man, and speaks the words of truth and sobriety.

Another effort is being made to compel Hartman, the Grant and Cameron

Ring candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania to withdraw, and then place Andrew

J. Curtin on the ticket in his stead. Curtin has been a bitter enemy of Cameron, and supposed to be for Greeley; but the Grant faction, who are fearful the Gift-

Taker will lose the State, are desirous of effecting the change here spoken of. But

Cameron will never consent to the arrangement.

Forgery and lying are the principal weapons of the Grant faction. The Albany

Globe has been convicted of publishing

a letter from one Denmark, dead for three years, and making him declare for Grant.

A letter published in a Grant paper in Cincinnati, gave an account of the wonderful changes from Greeley to Grant, in the 6th

ward of Newark, when the truth is there is no such ward in Newark. This sort of lying will not save Grant. His defeat will be overwhelming.

Jeremiah Golbalt, alias Henry

Wilson, now comes out in a letter denying that he was a Know Nothing, in face of the positive testimony of General Pike

that he met him at a Know Nothing Convention. It was a part of the Know Nothing creed that its members were required to lie and deny all knowledge of the existence of the organization. This part of the obligation Mr. Golbalt seems to adhere to with remarkable pertinacity.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: Mr.

L. A. Hine, a former editor of the Gazette, and for ten years the writing editor of the Cincinnati Times, has written us a letter,

in which he gives some conclusive reasons

why workmen should support Mr. Greeley. Mr. Hine is one of the original Liberal Reformers of this section—an earnest sincere worker in the cause—and his words are entitled to weight among the true

seigns.

Fred. Douglas was put at the head of the Republican electoral ticket for the State of New York at the State Convention of the Republicans held at Utica

last week, as the Rochester Democrat

says, at the request of President Grant.

The Democrat is a Grant paper. This is supposed to be intended as a soothing plaster on account of the slight put on Douglas

by Grant at the San Domingo dinner.

The Rev. D. J. S. Fuller, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Greeley

Elector in the Fifth District of Iowa, who has for twenty years taken men into the Church on six months' probation, says he has no fears of Democrats after seven years of probation, and will proclaim for fraternity and Greeley until November. He says his head is not sore, but his heart is, over the Party Hate of the time.

Jose Mansfield, the notorious New York stump, publishes a card denying that General Grant has been a visitor at his infamous den. It looks a little strange that a Presidential candidate is forced to obtain a certificate from such a character that he has not kept her company. Probably if Jim Fisk was living he would throw some light on the subject.

Since the Germans, almost to a man, have declared themselves against

Grant and in favor of Greeley, Harper's

Weekly, a bitter Grant paper, declares that these foreigners do not like the way

Grant runs the Government, they are free to return to where they came from!

This insult will not be forgotten.

The proprietors of the Cleveland

Plain Dealer, Messrs. Armstrong & Green,

are now issuing a Morning Edition of that able and spirited paper. We are glad to hear it. We hope arrangements will be made to have it delivered in Mt. Vernon,

as it will reach here several hours before the Cincinnati journals.

The New Orleans Picayune, one of the oldest and ablest papers in the South,

which, until recently, supported the Administration of Grant, is now earnestly supporting Honest Horace Greeley. Louisiana will most assuredly cast her eight electoral votes for Greeley and Brown.

The Mansfield Herald (Rep.) prints

the most villainous cut in its issue of August 25th, headed "Our Candidate." The picture was probably intended for Grant,

but as an extract from the likeness

of Kid, the Pirate, who was executed some years ago.

The Grant men all over the country

are carrying out the suggestion of Lloyd

Garrison and Wendell Phillips, and are advising the negroes to mob and even kill every colored man who does not go for

Grant! This is Ku Kluxism with a vengeance!

Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars Loss

to the Farmers of Knox County on Wool.

The Wool Growers Loss is the Woolen Manufacturers' Gain.

Some years ago a conspiracy of the Wool Manufacturers brought down wool

from 55 to 30 cents a pound, and sheep

which had been worth eight dollars a head for the pelts. More than two million good sheep were thus slaughtered, the loss to the farmers of Ohio, being about sixteen millions of money. Under the pretense of favoring the farmer, the tariff on wool

increased ten per cent, but the manufacturers had a clause inserted providing that it should not take effect until several months after its passage. This enabled the manufacturer to glut the country with Australian and South American wool, and the total destruction of flocks was the result.

By the terms of the Convention of wool growers and manufacturers at Syracuse a tariff basis was agreed upon, which the manufacturers caused Congress to violate at its last session. A law of 1861, imposing an additional duty of ten per cent on Australian wool, which additional duty Congress repealed by the third section of the late tariff act. This breach of faith on the part of the manufacturer, was but a rehar-

sal of the old fraud which caused the destruction of the sheep flocks of Ohio some

Knox County Teacher's Institute.

The Knox County Teacher's Institute met on Monday, August 26, 1872, and organized by electing JAMES DUNCAN JR., President, and JOHN C. MERRIN, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Institute held a session of five days, and was a decided success. The instructors were Prof. Marsh of Mt. Vernon, and Prof. Schuyler of Berea, assisted by various Teachers.

Prof. Marsh, who is undoubtedly one of the best Educationists in the State, delivered two lectures, each day, on Education. His lectures were highly instructive and entertaining. The Professor's varied illustrative exercises and remarks, telling how to write essays, read and declaim, were of great value to the many teachers and citizens who had the pleasure of hearing them. The Gymnastic exercises introduced by Prof. Marsh, in which all participated, added to the interest of the occasion.

Professor Schuyler, the well known author of a series of Mathematical works, and of a Treatise on Logic, delivered two lectures, each day, on Mathematics. The best method of teaching Arithmetic was fully explained. The teachers were delighted with the Professor's clear, concise and systematic method of instruction, by formulas and forming rules of translating these formulas into ordinary language, in the various applications of Percentage.

The Sociable on Tuesday evening was largely attended. Prof. Marsh recited various recitations in his happiest manner, followed by bursts of applause and shouts of laughter.

Doctor Edwards gave a humorous description of his experience in teaching "The young idea how to shoot" and how he governed his pupils—particularly the "big girls."

Henry Cassell indulged in a few remarks that were well received.

All enjoyed themselves "hugely." The busy hum of conversation—brilliant remarks, and merry fits of laughter, showed that all were merry and glad, and having a glorious good time. The joys and pleasures of this evening will not soon be forgotten, especially by those who escorted "maiden fair" to their pleasant homes.

Wednesday evening, Prof. Schuyler lectured on Philosophy. Many familiar examples were cited, where we are prone to form wrong conclusions from false assumptions. Those who failed to hear the lecturer missed a rich intellectual feast.

Thursday evening, Prof. Marsh delivered a very able and ingenious lecture on Reading the Bible in our Common Schools. The speaker enforced by many strong arguments, the duty of having the Bible read and how it should be read in our schools.

The subject of Corporal Punishment produced a lively and rather exciting discussion among the teachers, in which Professors Marsh and Schuyler, John C. Merrin, James Duncan Jr., B. More and Mr. Watkins participated. The verdict rendered was that the rod should be used only as a last resort—that it is resorted to too often, and that the common use of this mode of punishment ought to be discontinued.

It is certain that this discussion accomplished much good. It is to be hoped that this cruel mode of punishment will soon be among "the things that were, and that are not." Gladly will all hail the speedy coming of that bright and happy day, when Corporal punishment will be entirely done away with by Statute. That happy and auspicious time is surely and speedily coming to gladden the hearts of the parents and children of the land.

The Teachers expressed a unanimous wish in favor of raising the standard of qualification for teaching, in the examination of teachers.

At the close, there was an examination of teachers.

A vote of thanks was tendered Professors Marsh and Schuyler for their valuable and efficient instruction.

This Institute is certainly the best ever held in Knox County. Teachers more than ever, feel the vast responsibility and importance of their high and noble calling, and the necessity of renewed exertion and activity in the great work of Education.

The following named persons were elected officers for the year: James Duncan Jr., President; John C. Merrin, Secretary and Treasurer; N. J. McGrew, Benj. More and Leonard McCrory as the Executive Committee.

A Mt. Vernon Artist.

But few of the citizens of Mount Vernon are aware of the fact that we have a young lady artist in our city, who has shown unmistakable signs of genius. We allude to Miss ELLA MARTIN, daughter of our townsman, Mr. JOSEPH S. MARTIN. This lady seems to have a natural talent for portrait and landscape painting, and although she has had but slight opportunity to receive instruction, she has already succeeded in producing some pieces that are really very creditable, and give evidence that with care and experience, aided by proper encouragement, she will, at no very distant day, establish a reputation that will be worth possessing. We were not aware that Miss M. courted the palette and the easel, until one day recently, coming into our office, we noticed a portrait of our second son, (HOWARD), which was so lifelike and true to nature, that we were agreeably surprised to learn that it was the production of a Mt. Vernon lady.

We have seen other pieces of Miss MARTIN, among them a head of Franklin (a copy), but none of them, in our opinion, equal the portrait alluded to in the warmth and beauty of the coloring, and the perfect resemblance to the original. Miss M. is eminently deserving encouragement and patronage and we trust she will receive them.

Parents shouldn't delude their daughters from swinging on their gates. The first view Gratz Brown got of his wife was while she was engaged in that healthful exercise.

Fred. Hosack, a son of C. Hosack, of Fredericktown, while playing with a horse a few days ago, received a kick which knocked him senseless. The probabilities are, however, that he will recover.

Joseph Goodale, an old and highly respected citizen of Monroe township, died on Tuesday morning, of old age. He was a life-long Democrat and one of the early subscribers to the BANNER.

A Falsehood Corrected.
The Republican has the manliness to correct its falsehood in regard to the County Commissioners making a contract for 10 cents per bushel for coal. The last Republican says:
CORRECTION.—Last week a correspondent stated, on what he supposed reliable authority, that the Knox County Commissioners had contracted for coal, for county use, at 10 cents per bushel, when the regular price was 15 cents. Since its publication we have seen Mr. Hardin, with whom the contract was made, and he assures us that the contract is for 15 cents per bushel for Millersburg coal. As that is the regular price at this time, we have no complaint to make, and regret that our friend should have been misinformed.

Spalding's Glue will mend your ways.

The State Fair at Mansfield.

We ran up to the State Fair at Mansfield on Tuesday morning, and returned the same evening. The crowd was not by any means as large as we expected to find; but the Secretary informed us that the receipts for Monday and Tuesday were larger than during the first two days of the Fair at Zanesville.

The exhibition of cattle, sheep, hogs and farm horses, is immense—far surpassing anything of the kind ever before witnessed in Ohio. In this Department which is called No. 1, the entries up to Tuesday were: Cattle 298, Horses 360, Swine 222, Poultry 160, Sheep 283. Total—1,329.

In the Second Department, embracing Agricultural Machinery, the entries were 240.

Third Department—Mechanics and Manufacturers, entries 252.

Fourth Department—Textile and Domestic Fabrics, 450.

Fifth Department—Farm and Horticultural Products, 700.

Sixth Department—Flowers and Find Arts, 23.

Total entries—3,186.

We have neither time nor room this week to give a detailed statement of the various articles on exhibition. The several Halls are well arranged and handsomely ornamented. The large and beautiful grove of Mr. Hickox, which was made part of the Fair Grounds, is set apart for the various Halls, and has been superbly arranged for the comfort and convenience of exhibitors and visitors. Water has been taken through pipes into the grounds from the new Water Works, and pretty fountains and jets are constantly playing. The ladies of the Congregational Church have opened a splendid Dining Hall inside the grounds, and furnish as good meals as can be had at any Hotel. Indeed, there is no trouble in getting accommodations, either in the City or on the grounds for all who may visit Mansfield.

A Glorious Meeting.

The Democrats and Liberal Republicans of Mt. Vernon and vicinity held Wood-ward Hall to overflowing on Tuesday evening, to hear a speech from that popular orator Col. MOSES R. DICKEY, of Mansfield. JOHN W. WHITE, Esq., Liberal Republican, presided, who introduced Mr. Dickey to the audience in a handsome off-hand speech. For over two hours Mr. Dickey entertained his audience with one of those solid, common sense speeches, that never fails to carry conviction to the heart.

He arranged the corrupt and impure administration of U. S. Grant before the bar of public opinion, and presented such an overwhelming array of facts and arguments to his hearers as to convince every unprejudiced mind that a change of rulers is absolutely necessary for the good of the country. Mr. Dickey's remarks were warmly applauded throughout; and the meeting adjourned by giving three hearty cheers for Honest Horace Greeley, and three more for General Morgan.

The Greeley and Brown Glee Club treated the audience to some spirited and patriotic songs.

On Monday afternoon, Aug. 26th, Geo. Harvey, while sitting at an open window in his house five miles South of La Timberville, in Marion county, watching the rising of a storm, was struck and instantly killed by a flash of lightening. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn the terrible event.

A son of Bryan Hayes, of Liberty township, Delaware county, one mile below White Sulphur Springs, was struck by lightning during the same storm, and instantly killed. Young Hayes was engaged at the time in hauling stone with a two horse team, and being alone his death was not discovered for some hours. One of his horses was instantly killed, and the other so badly paralyzed that it lay for a long time after the stroke fell, completely benumbed.

It is certain that this discussion accomplished much good. It is to be hoped that this cruel mode of punishment will soon be among "the things that were, and that are not." Gladly will all hail the speedy coming of that bright and happy day, when Corporal punishment will be entirely done away with by Statute. LOCAL NOTICES.

At Zanesville, last Saturday, John McCaslin, a cooper, committed suicide in a fit of despondency resulting from poverty and illness.

The Star Hawk and Ladder Co., of Marion made $31 seconds, the fastest time on record, at Bucyrus, on Tuesday, the 20th ult.

An attempt was made Thursday night to rob Roseville postoffice, Muskingum county. Three arrests, taken to Zanesville for examination.

The Hillsboro News says that since the new connection of that place with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad has become a fixed fact, the advance in prices of real estate is very perceptible.

Warren Gay, a wealthy young farmer of Madison county, near Loudon, was sued by Belle Ward Brooks, a poor young lady, for seduction. $10,000 is the amount claimed as damages.

The contract for building the Stark county jail has been let at $34,157.39. The iron work, in addition to this, was let to a Cincinnati firm for $28,785.00.

The Vinton County National Bank, of McArthur, with a capital of $100,000, and the First National, at Green Springs, with a capital of $50,000 have been authorized to commence business.

Three Irish families in Columbus were poisoned last week by eating toast stoles supposing them to be mushrooms. None died, though several children came near dying.

Greenville was visited on the 24th by thieves. They made a raid on the house of David H. Culbertson, a partner in the tin factory, and succeeded in finding jewelry and other valuable articles, making good their escape.

John C. King, of Springfield, walked off a sleeping car on the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, near North Lewisburg, on Saturday night, and sustained such injuries that he died a few hours afterwards.

A dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette, from Gallipolis, says the boiler of a steam saw mill in Lawrence county, opposite Guyandotte, exploded on the 28th

RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity
of this valuable Hair Preparation;
which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY or FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken.

The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean.
It removes all eruptions and dandruff,
and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimu-lates and nourishes the hair-follicles.

By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor,
and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. HAYES, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.

Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye

FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color
which will neither rub nor wash off.
Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chills, Fever, Remittent Fever, Dysentery, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise
from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than this sure and safe cure for Fever
and Ague, such as we now unusually offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient who takes such care, he must run in violent attacks of this insidious disease. This is the true and reliable cure of malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for the speedy cure of malarious fever, but it is also a powerful tonic, and restores the system to its normal condition,
and is a valuable remedy for all the ailments
which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons. It is a powerful tonic, and restores the system to its normal condition, and is a valuable remedy for all the ailments which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic

At the same time the horse has a feed before him, of which he can eat his fill without producing cramp or colic, which often results from feeding corn whole, in a meal without a sufficient mixture of bran, and not to make soft feed, disturb the bowels of the horse, and unfit him for exercise. The above named mess is to be divided into three equal parts, and fed at evening. An addition of six to eight pounds of hay must also be given to the rack. These quantities, however, are merely approximate, for the old horse and one of harder work will, to keep him in good condition, require an addition, and young animals of less work will not require so much. Draught and hard worked horses should be fed more liberally, from fifteen to sixteen pounds of meal with six to eight pounds of cut hay, half a peck of bran, an extra allowance of hay in the rack at night. The amount of feed for saddle and carriage horses is equivalent to about forty bushels of corn, about two tons of hay, and twenty-five bushels of bran per year; and for draught horses 100 bushels of corn, about two tons of hay, and ninety-five bushels of bran. Dr. McCall's Stable Guide.

Wheat Lands.

In the eleventh century the average production in wheat per acre, in England, was stated to have been only six bushels. Today the average in England is twenty-seven bushels. This progress is due to our having more knowledge about Agriculture.

We know more about soil, about implements, manures, etc., than in the olden time. One reason for the advancement we see is the improvement in our agricultural implements. Thus the plow has been wonderfully improved over what it was in Europe in the middle ages.

It is knowledge men want. The difference between England of five centuries ago and of to-day, is a difference in knowledge. Knowledge, England, has multiplied many times the product of agricultural operations, and also to multiply the number of human beings she can support. Much of this knowledge is traditional, but it is also preserved in the records—the writings of those who have studied these subjects.

In England to-day there are no exhausted lands, they are not allowed to deteriorate. What is taken off is supplied again, and this is the only true economy. We cannot take away from our land, and restore it, without injuring the soil.

Russia, unlike England, seems to be following in the footsteps of this country in the neglect of her wheat lands, and as a consequence, complaints are already being made that the average yield of her grain and crop is constantly growing less. There, as the Scientific Press says is the case in California, valuable farmyard manure is in many places, being committed to the nearest water ground or stream, as a nuisance.

Still, Russia is buying largely of reaping
and threshing machines, as well as other agricultural machinery.—Journal of Chemistry.

An exchange asks this pertinent question: "What's the use of a young man struggling along on bean soup and a bed of straw? Julian Carter, of Lexington, Mo., got a post-office, defaulted to the amount of $7,000, settled for $2,000, and is now loaning money on mortgage."
