Vote for Tilden and Better Times.

The silver voice of our own Delano is not yet heard in the land. Dearly beloved, why don't you raise your Ebenezer?

The Cincinnati Commercial, which supports Hayes for President, headlined Judge Sinsott's letter which we give in this week's BANNER, thusly: "Complete Answer to the Income Charges."

Jim Blaine, who became very sick, when a Democratic Investigating Committee of Congress was after him, suddenly recovered, after Congress adjourned, and is now on the stump for Hayes and Wheeler.

A colored man writes from South Carolina that the Democrats may be glad Bamber sent soldiers to that State, as the negroes who want to vote for Tilden are constantly assailed, and their lives threatened.

A dispatch to the Enquirer says a clerk in the Internal Revenue Bureau, who has secretly made known, reports that Rutherford B. Hayes never paid a single dollar to the government on account of income tax.

With ninety odd thousand officeholders to draw on, and such an inveterate blood-sucker as Zach Chandler to do the drawing, the Radical party ought not to run short of campaign slush in Indiana or elsewhere.

Says the Cleveland Plain Dealer: "As a member of Congress Governor Hayes introduced one bill and that was to increase his wife's brother's salary, who was a clerk in the Cincinnati Post-office, $12 a month."

The Democracy of Georgia are confident that they will give General A. H. Colquitt, the Democratic candidate for Governor, a majority of 100,000. "The colored troops fight nobly" for the Democracy in the Empire State of the South!

Milton J. Barnes, the Radical candidate for Secretary of State, is a fanatic of the worst type. He was one of the most active crusaders in Guernsey county, presided at their meetings, made speeches and contributed money to "the cause."

Colonel McCure, of the Philadelphia Times, puts Ohio down as a debatable State, and says that it is lost to Hayes unless the Mortons, Camerons, Conklings, Chandlers, corrupt politicians and bloody shirters, are withdrawn from the stump.

The Dubuque Herald says there are between 400,000 and 500,000 Bohemians in the United States, and some twelve or fifteen newspapers are printed in the Bohemian language. Both people and papers support Tilden and Hendricks.

McKee, the convicted revenue robber, writing from his felon cell, never fails each morning to call Samuel J. Tilden a perjurer in the Globe-Democrat. His uncorrupted associates outside the penitentiary walls, take up and reiterate his words.

Bob Ingersoll, the favorite Republican stump orator, calls God an "impotest," Christianity a "fraud," Church-Synods "shebangs," speaks of the "oratorical of prayer," and of the Democracy as "hell's sprouts." After all, he may be possibly mistaken.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says 8,000 persons turned out to hear Franz Sigel in that city on Tuesday night last, and that there were 1,300 torch light bearers in the processions:

"Ya, doo is true I speak mit you, I'm going to fight mit Sigel."

There are sixteen vacant staterooms and nearly an hundred vacant dwelling houses in Mt. Vernon—so a gentleman informs us, who has taken the pains to "look around." This is the result of the Radical hard times. If people wish a change for the better let them vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

A Grand and Glorious Gathering of the Democracy.

The Largest In-Door Meeting that Ever Assembled in Mt. Vernon.

The announcement that Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, Hon. John F. Follett, of Cincinnati, and Michael D. Harter, Esq., of Mansfield, would address the Democracy of Mount Vernon, on Monday evening, brought out the largest crowd of voters that ever met inside of our Court House. Long before the hour of 7 o'clock, when the hand commenced playing in front of the Rowley House, where the speakers stopped, the people rushed to the Court House in a perfect stream, and before the meeting was organized, there was not a vacant seat to be found in the large court room. The people crowded into the aisles, passages and galleries, and even sat in the windows, until there was not room to turn around, and hundreds were compelled to leave, who wholly failed to get within hearing of the speakers. The stand (or Judge's bench) was beautifully decorated with flags and bouquets of flowers, prepared by the fair hands of the Democratic ladies. The meeting was organized by calling S. J. Brent, Esq., to the chair, who introduced the proceedings in a few graceful remarks. We have not room to give even a brief synopsis of the speeches. Mr. Cox, although very hoarse from out-door speaking, delivered an eloquent and telling speech. He was followed by Mr. Harter, Treasurer of the Antislavery Works of Mansfield, who made his first speech in Mount Vernon, and a capital one it was, too, full of facts and sound reasoning. Mr. Follett closed the proceedings in one of the happiest speeches of his life, full and replete with argument and anecdote. Altogether, it was a grand meeting. Everybody was pleased.

THE LIARS AND PERJURERS PUT TO SHAME.

THE VILE FALSEHOOD AGAINST SAMUEL J. TILDEN TORN TO TATTERS.

Decoy Bliss, Perjurer Harney and the Leprous Liars of the New York Times Exposed in all Their Naked Deformity—The Records of the Courts and Current History of an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States Vindicate Tilden's Honor, and Put to Everlasting Shame the Scoundrels Who Have Tried to Tarnish It.

Abram S. Hewitt, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Friday made public a letter addressed to him by Judge James P. Sinsott, of the Marine Court, and formerly Governor Tilden's confidential clerk, meeting the income tax charges made against Governor Tilden. The letter, with Mr. Hewitt's introduction, is as follows:

Mr. Hewitt's Explanatory Letter.

TO THE PUBLIC: The New York Times, which, for years prior to 1875, has been the chief organ of the liars and perjurers, has been a formidable candidate for the Presidency since a series of assaults upon its private character. At length these assaults culminated in the charge of making a false statement of his income of 1862. By dint of ratiocination and fabricated specifications of items and details, having the semblance of actual accounts, some well-meaning persons were disturbed. It therefore occurred to me to apply to the Secretary of the Treasury for certified copies of the income returns of Gov. Tilden and of Gov. Hayes, and on the 21 day of September I made such an application.

The copies applied for have not been furnished, nor indeed has my letter received the poor courtesy of an acknowledgment. Meanwhile, the adversaries of Gov. Tilden have apparently had free access to these returns, and have even been permitted to photograph so much of them as suited their purposes. I submit this fact to the American people without comment.

Receiving no reply from the public authorities, who seem to regard the documents in their custody as held in trust for the Republican party, and not for the whole people, I addressed a note to Judge James P. Sinsott, who was the confidential law clerk of Gov. Tilden during the whole period in which the law imposing an income tax was in force, asking him to examine the pretended facts and figures in the Times article, and he conclusively shows that nearly every item of importance is a tissue of lies, falsehoods and forgeries, such as should bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every decent Republican.

The New York Times article, which was copied in nearly every Radical paper in the country, was so infamously and outrageously false, that it has reacted and recoiled upon its inventors, and is now making friends for Governor Tilden every day. Indeed, it has placed his election beyond the shadow of a doubt.

There is no doubt of the fact that the Radicals are sending scores of negroes from Kentucky into Ohio, to vote at the October election. They will be mostly distributed in counties along the Ohio river, where the Radicals have control of the election districts. Our Democratic friends must look out for these rascals, and prevent them from voting at every hazard.

The purity of the ballot-box must be preserved, if it should take "a barrel" of powder!

An attempt was made to rob the Second National Bank at Pittsburgh on Sunday evening, by three men, as yet unknown. The watchman, Samuel Lewis, was gagged and handcuffed, and placed on a bed, but before the burglars got fairly at work in breaking open the safe, a brother of Lewis came to the Bank by appointment, to spend the night, when the desperadoes made their escape, closely pursued by the night police, but they were not captured.

The Reverend Hamilton presents his readers this week with two speeches of the notorious blasphemer, God-hater, Bob Ingersoll, one delivered in Cincinnati, and the other in Columbus. We suspect, however, that Ingersoll is just as good a man as Hamilton, with this difference, that while Bob reviles God and burlesques all things holy and sacred, he never made a living by pounding the pulpit on Sunday and preaching stolen sermons.

Jerry Black has addressed an open letter to Garfield, in which, according to the Courier-Journal, he takes the Buckeye Pharisee upon the hip of his pen, as it were; he tosses him in the air; he catches him again, and after spouting him off with vitriol, douses him down in his own mire; then he lifts him up, battered, bruised and splattered, before the gaze of a nation, a shapeless mass of bruised and bleeding hypocrisy.

Carl Schurz delivered a speech in German, in Indianapolis, the other day, in which he pitched into Grant rather severely; but as there were no Germans out to hear him, it did no great harm to the Radical cause. Old Zach Chandler has imposed a pledge upon Schurz to say nothing against Grantism, when speaking in English, on penalty of stopping his supplies.

Hon. Edmund Jussen, of Chicago, the brother-in-law of Carl Schurz, delivered a ringing speech in Cincinnati, in German, on the 21st, mainly devoted to a review of a speech of Mr. Schurz in the same city. It was a rousing demonstration, and showed that the Germans are for Tilden, Hendricks and Reform, and don't take any stock in such orators as Carl Schurz.

The Republic of the South is filled with filthy, lying abuse of Mr. John F. Gay, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff; and yet the Reverend Ananias Hamilton, when he meets Mr. Gay on the street, is patting him on the back and calling him a "prayer," and of the Democracy as "hell's sprouts." After all, he may be possibly mistaken.

TRUTH TRIUMPHANT

The Obvious Intent of these Contrivances is to give color to these Bogus Items, and the appearance of being copied from some real paper.

The first six items of this statement relate to matters connected with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and a right understanding of Mr. Tilden's relations to that enterprise, prior to and during the year 1862, is important at the outset.

The instrument itself was a simple trust deed, and principals consisting of recitals adapted to the case of a railroad foreclosure, and peculiar chiefly in the magnitude of the property conveyed. The preparation of such an instrument could form no item of charge worth considering in a payment for an entire service of years, and no specific charge whatever was ever made for it.

Second Item.—Feb. 25, "Fees and expenses, with reference to Deed of former Railroad Company, pursuant to order of Court, etc., $2,000."

No such charge was ever made, rendered, or collected by Mr. Tilden.

In point of fact the document, which is not quite so long as an ordinary deed, and was intended to have the effect of a quit claim, was not drawn by Mr. Tilden at all, but by Judge N. H. Swayne, now of the U. S. Supreme Court. Mr. Tilden was never paid for it in any shape.

Tilden have apparently had free access to these returns, and have even been permitted to photograph so much of them as suited their purposes. I submit this fact to the American people without comment.

Receiving no reply from the public authorities, who seem to regard the documents in their custody as held in trust for the Republican party, and not for the whole people, I addressed a note to Judge James P. Sinsott, who was the confidential law clerk of Gov. Tilden during the whole period in which the law imposing an income tax was in force, asking him to examine the pretended facts and figures in the Times article, and he conclusively shows that nearly every item of importance is a tissue of lies, falsehoods and forgeries, such as should bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every decent Republican.

The New York Times article, which was copied in nearly every Radical paper in the country, was so infamously and outrageously false, that it has reacted and recoiled upon its inventors, and is now making friends for Governor Tilden every day. Indeed, it has placed his election beyond the shadow of a doubt.

There is no doubt of the fact that the Radicals are sending scores of negroes from Kentucky into Ohio, to vote at the October election. They will be mostly distributed in counties along the Ohio river, where the Radicals have control of the election districts. Our Democratic friends must look out for these rascals, and prevent them from voting at every hazard.

The purity of the ballot-box must be preserved, if it should take "a barrel" of powder!

An attempt was made to rob the Second National Bank at Pittsburgh on Sunday evening, by three men, as yet unknown. The watchman, Samuel Lewis, was gagged and handcuffed, and placed on a bed, but before the burglars got fairly at work in breaking open the safe, a brother of Lewis came to the Bank by appointment, to spend the night, when the desperadoes made their escape, closely pursued by the night police, but they were not captured.

The Reverend Hamilton presents his readers this week with two speeches of the notorious blasphemer, God-hater, Bob Ingersoll, one delivered in Cincinnati, and the other in Columbus. We suspect, however, that Ingersoll is just as good a man as Hamilton, with this difference, that while Bob reviles God and burlesques all things holy and sacred, he never made a living by pounding the pulpit on Sunday and preaching stolen sermons.

Jerry Black has addressed an open letter to Garfield, in which, according to the Courier-Journal, he takes the Buckeye Pharisee upon the hip of his pen, as it were; he tosses him in the air; he catches him again, and after spouting him off with vitriol, douses him down in his own mire; then he lifts him up, battered, bruised and splattered, before the gaze of a nation, a shapeless mass of bruised and bleeding hypocrisy.

Carl Schurz delivered a speech in German, in Indianapolis, the other day, in which he pitched into Grant rather severely; but as there were no Germans out to hear him, it did no great harm to the Radical cause. Old Zach Chandler has imposed a pledge upon Schurz to say nothing against Grantism, when speaking in English, on penalty of stopping his supplies.

Hon. Edmund Jussen, of Chicago, the brother-in-law of Carl Schurz, delivered a ringing speech in Cincinnati, in German, on the 21st, mainly devoted to a review of a speech of Mr. Schurz in the same city. It was a rousing demonstration, and showed that the Germans are for Tilden, Hendricks and Reform, and don't take any stock in such orators as Carl Schurz.

The Republic of the South is filled with filthy, lying abuse of Mr. John F. Gay, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff; and yet the Reverend Ananias Hamilton, when he meets Mr. Gay on the street, is patting him on the back and calling him a "prayer," and of the Democracy as "hell's sprouts." After all, he may be possibly mistaken.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says 8,000 persons turned out to hear Franz Sigel in that city on Tuesday night last, and that there were 1,300 torch light bearers in the processions:

"Ya, doo is true I speak mit you, I'm going to fight mit Sigel."

There are sixteen vacant staterooms and nearly an hundred vacant dwelling houses in Mt. Vernon—so a gentleman informs us, who has taken the pains to "look around." This is the result of the Radical hard times. If people wish a change for the better let them vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

Knox County Farmer.

Care of Farm Implements.

Probably the losses that are sustained on farm implements every year, by leaving them exposed to the sun, storms and dews, would amount to millions of dollars in the aggregate. When we pass a farm house, and see wagons out of repair, the sun, the plow lying in the field, covered with rust, while the cracks in the beam may be seen from the road, a harrow against the fence with the teeth dropping out, and looking as if it had been there for months, hay racks and other things going to destruction for the want of being placed under cover, we need not ask what kind of a farmer lives there. We read the answer in the general appearance of the place—a poor shiftless fellow. Farmers, this is a hard world to give to some of you, but you deserve it. If the leaving of your farm implements unprotected, but cause you any pecuniary loss, it would be supposed that you would have pride enough to cause you to prevent passers of your premises from making the remark, "there lives a shiftless farmer." If one of your children asks you for money to buy a pair of shoes, your reply may be, "my child I have no money; it is as much as I can do to keep soul and body together. You must go barefoot," while you are allowing the sun and rain to damage your wagons and implements more in a week, than it would cost to shoe your child for five years.

A Cheap Ice House.

No farmer should be without an icehouse, because it is absolutely necessary in every family to preserve fresh meat and other things in the summer season. I once knew a farmer who drew a few tons of ice in large square cases, and packed them up upon a few rails near his house, to keep the ice from the ground, with a bed of straw between, and upon the rails the ice had reached a height of about eight feet with a diameter of ten feet, he covered it two feet thick with straw, top and sides, and then set some boards up so as to shade the ice, and carry off the rain, and that ice kept till September. This shows that ice will keep well above ground. Build a cheap house for it about 14 feet square, with the door on the north side, lay down old rails, or anything to keep the top of the ground, packed in sawed cases, leaving 15 inches of space between the rails and the sides of the house to be filled with straw firmly packed. The door should be about 10 feet high, and about five feet long, the upper part to be used all the ice gets below the top of the lower one, and with movable stages go up the new ice and January is the time to build your ice house. I know of no advantage in having ice houses under ground—(Occidenal).

The Profit of Farming.

We have been frequently asked the question whether, in our opinion, there is really a net profit in farming on a yearly average, over and above the expenses.

This enquiry may be easily and comprehensively answered in a few words. To a man who understands his business, and keeps himself on a level with the new facts, the best idea, and the latest improvements, the business is not only profitable on a general average, but it is one that offers scope for his ability and opportunities for success beyond the limits of any other industry. The farmer, therefore, is not only a useful citizen, but he is one of the most important factors in our civilization.

Saddle Galls.

To prevent saddle galls the saddle should be lined with some hard substance. Flannel or woolen cloth is bad. A hard-finished, smooth rawhide lining, similar to those of the military saddles, is preferable.
Then if the saddle is properly used, the horse's back, there will be no galls unless the horse is very badly used. Saddle galls are caused by the horse's back being washed with soap and water, and then with a solution of six grains copperas or blue vitriol to one tablespoonful of water, which will harden the surface of the back, and prevent the horse from getting restored to the growth of skin. White hair growing upon healed galls cannot be prevented.

Keeping Cider Sweet.

The editor of the New England Farmer endorsed the following method of keeping cider sweet for five years: Lard and filter the cider through pure lard, after it has worked and before it is soured. Put it in alcohol or other substance with it. Be sure that the vessels you put it in are perfectly clean and sweet. After it has been filtered and put in barrels or casks filled leaving no room for air, bung tight and keep it where it will not freeze, till February or March; then put it in champagne bottles filled; drive the corks and wire them. The best cider is late made.

UNITED STATES

CENTENNIAL MEMORIAL MEDALS.

These Medals are authorized by a special act of Congress in the year 1874, and are the only medals of the kind ever issued by the United States. They are the only memorial of the Centennial year issued by national authority, and the only memorial of itself which the Exhibition issues. They are struck at the United States Mint in Philadelphia, and are made of silver, gold, bronze, and white metal, of two sizes. The large size is two and a quarter inches in diameter. The silver and gold medals are of the size of the American dollar. The large medals have an allegorical design on both sides. The smaller in inscription on the reverse. The designs are made by the best artists of America, and the dies are engraved at the Mint. They will be destroyed at the close of the Exhibition, and the medals must therefore annually increase in value. They are sold in the Exhibition building throughout the country at the following prices, cases included: Silver Medal, $3; large Gold Medal, $5; large Bronze Medal, $2; large White Metal Medal, $1; small Gold Medal, 50 cents; small Bronze Medal, 50 cents; sets of four, extra case, $8. Either size will be struck in silver or gold if so ordered. Same will be given free of postage on receipt of price as above. For circulars and information of distributors apply to JAS. M. LEE, Genl.
