Hon. C. L. Vallandigham in Mount Vernon.

The Greatest Meeting of the Age!

The largest political meeting that ever assembled in Mt. Vernon, if not in Ohio, was that which was addressed by the Hon. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM, in this city, on Thursday afternoon, of this week. It was literally an outpouring of the people of the County, of all parties, who were anxious to see and hear a man who has been the object of so much misrepresentation and unjust persecution.

In view of the fact that Mr. Vallandigham had been arrested by the contemptible tools of the tyrant Burnside, tried by a mock military "court," and illegally banished from his home and his friends, for exercising the right of an American freeman, in peacefully addressing his fellow citizens in Mt. Vernon, on the 1st of May, 1863, the present meeting, on the same spot, was one of thrilling and peculiar interest. It was an immense uprising of the people—a grand triumphal march—one of those great moral victories that peace hath no less renowned than war.

Our streets were jammed with human beings, and everything wore the aspect of a holiday. Joy beamed from every face. The Democracy were happy and jubilant. They felt that civil liberty still lived; and that the days of Radical despotism were drawing to a close.

Of Mr. Vallandigham's speech we have neither time nor room to make a report. It was pronounced by every one who heard it as the best speech of his life. It was mostly historical—a narration of the events of last few years. It breathed the purest patriotism, while some of the passages were brilliant and sublime.

A verbatim report of the speech was made by "Mack," the accomplished reporter of the Cincinnati Commercial, and will be published in that paper of to-day.

Mr. Vallandigham left on the Friday noon train, highly delighted with the cordial reception extended to him by the gallant men and lovely women of Old Knox.

The Democratic Vote in Knox County in 1866 and 1867.

We present to our readers below the vote received by Le Fever in 1866 and by Thurman in 1867, in Knox county, together with the Democratic gain and loss since 1866. The table will be useful for future reference:

The Republican.

This paper, under the editorial control of W. T. Bascom, has become one of the most noisy, abusive and lying sheets published in the State. The last two issues of that paper for low scurrility and detestable abuse of Democrats, caps the climax of all that is vile and filthy. It is no wonder that decent Republicans have become disgusted with their editor, and are every day denouncing him in the presence of Democrats, and expressing a desire that he will leave the county, in order that a more respectable and able man will take his place as editor of the Republican organ. The trouble with Bascom is that he does not possess brains enough to argue any question fairly and logically, and he appears to think that by flinging his paper with offensive epithets and personal abuse, it will supply the place of argument. With a certain class of politicians, or low justices, like Henry B. Banning, this kind of newspaper writing is considered smart; but the thinking, sensible men of the party, look upon all such newspaper slanders with abhorrence and contempt. So far as results are concerned, we could wish that Bascom would fill every number of his paper with just such articles as appeared in his last two numbers, as they are only calculated to disgust respectable men with their party and its organ, and induce them to unite with the Democracy, but for the honor of our beautiful city, and for the reputation of the newspaper press, we sincerely lament that such a disgusting and abominably vile newspaper is read and suffered to be published in our midst.

It is said that President Johnson feels greatly elated over the recent grand triumph of the Democracy and Conservatives over the disunion Radicals; and well he may be; for it is a terrible rebuke to the crazy fanatics who are seeking to destroy every vestige of Republican Government in this country. Now, let Andrew Johnson place his trust in the people, and put the facts at defiance, and he will come out all right.

The Fight Begun.

The fight against the disunion Radicals in regard to the next Presidency, has commenced in earnest. The late defeat of that corrupt and unprincipled party in Connecticut, California, Ohio, Pennsylvania and other States, has rendered it certain that no Representative man of that party, who believes in negro superiority, can hope or expect to be elected to the Presidency in 1868. And hence we find that an effort is being made all over the country, to bring out General Grant as the Radical candidate—not that he is believed to have any sympathy with the disunion Radicals; but in the hope that his acknowledged popularity as a military leader, will insure his election as a Presidential candidate. But the old political managers, who wish to bring about negro supremacy in this country, have no faith in General Grant, and they believe that if elected, he will serve that party as Tyler, Fillmore and Johnson have served them, and go over to the Democrats. Hence we find that Horace Greeley and other shrewd Radical leaders as well as the entire National Bank interest, are bitterly opposed to Grant's nomination, and they declare that no man who is not known to be in full sympathy with the Negro Suffrage faction, shall receive the Radical nomination. "Our individual preferences," says the Tribune, "are for Chief Justice Chase; but we will heartily support any other man for President who will, if nominated, be more likely than he to ensure the triumph of Republican principles." Such a man, however, it is intimated, cannot be found in General Grant, and to nominate him and reject Mr. Chase "from an affected fear of negro supremacy," is denounced as "a hypocrisy so base, to cloak a villainy so detestably faithless and cruel, that language fails to express the loathing," &c., &c.

It is quite evident from these utterances that there will be a terrible fight among the Radicals in regard to a Presidential candidate; and the probabilities are that they will have two candidates in the field. However it is a matter of but little consequence who they nominate, as the Democracy, aided by hosts of good Conservative Republicans who are tired of Radical misrule, will elect the next President of the United States.

Senators Wade and Sherman.
Benj. F. Wade and John Sherman, who represent Ohio in the U. S. Senate, have written letters to a Radical committee in New York, in which they have the assurance to claim that the Radicals will carry Ohio next year by a majority of 50,000, on a "manhood suffrage" platform! What sublime nonsense! The Radical disunionists of Ohio, and of the whole country, have had their day. Their attempt to govern this country has been a gross failure. They have given us a military despotism for the Constitution of our fathers. They have piled a mountain of debt upon the people, and propose no measures by which it can never be paid. They have exempted the rich landholder from taxation, and thrown all the responsibility of supporting the Government upon the producing classes of the country. They have put thieves and scoundrels in office to steal the public treasure; and have encouraged vice, immorality and crime in every relation of life. To expect such a party, after the terrible rebuke and overthrow it has just sustained, ever to come in power again, is to believe that the people have ceased to be virtuous, honest and free.

The Thirteenth Congressional District.

The official majorities on Governor, at the late election, in the several counties composing the Thirteenth Congressional District, are as follows:

	FOR THURMAN.	FOR LE FEVER.
Licking	1,305	1,305
Coahasset	317	317
Muskingum	220	220
Total	2,175	2,175

This is the District Columbus Delano is contesting for misrepresentation in Congress—claiming that he is the man who is entitled to Gen. Morgan's seat! It requires a vast amount of brazen effrontery to prosecute such a baseless claim.—Signal.

The Eighth Senatorial District.

The following is the official vote for Senator in the Eighth (Ohio) Senatorial District:

	FOR THURMAN.	FOR LE FEVER.
Home	1,874	1,874
Gallia	2,267	2,267
Lawrence	2,267	2,267
Meigs	2,267	2,267
Vinton	1,223	1,223
Total	8,000	8,000

Our Victory in Pennsylvania.

The majority for Sharswood, the Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge in Pennsylvania, is 1,202; and yet at the same time, the Radicals have carried both branches of the legislature, by a small majority. This has been owing to the fact that the Radicals passed a most infamous "gerrymandering" law, by which the Democracy of many counties in that State were completely disfranchised.—That corrupt party will do anything to perpetuate their power.

The Senatorship.

The gentlemen most talked of in connection with the U. S. Senatorship from this State are Honorable George H. Pendleton, Hugh J. Jewett, Rufus P. Ranney, Judge Thorman and C. L. Vallandigham. The fight for nomination, when it commences in earnest, will be lively.

"God Bless Ohio."

Such is the exclamation of President Johnson, sent to John G. Thompson, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, in reply to a dispatch sent to him communicating the Democratic victory in Ohio. Harrah for Johnson!

An Astonishing Change.

Lawrence county last year gave a Republican majority of 952—this year it gives a Democratic majority of 166! Well done, Lawrence!

A Grand Salute.

The Democrats of Baltimore yesterday fired one hundred guns on Federal Hill, in honor of the result of the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio. This must have been a fine entertainment for the Radicals who were in Convention assembled at the same time.

POLITICAL.

Of the recent town elections in Connecticut the Democrats have carried about two to one. This makes the Legislature safe for the Democracy next Spring.

The Democracy of Ohio have chased one Presidential aspirant into his political grave and buried him out of sight of the White House.

Butler's butler having secreted some teaspoons from his master's cupboard at Lowell, [with various initials] the General reproved him sternly, "when I took you for my butler, I did not think that you would take me for your New Orleans."

Stanton was engaged to make a congratulatory speech to the Philadelphia Loyal League on election night. He was dined and wineed preliminarily, but when the returns came in, Stanton and the leaguers and the lights went out.

Democrats ought to be satisfied. We have the Senator, the Legislature, beat the Negro amendment, and won nearly all the money the Republicans staked on the general result!

In Jackson County the vote for Treasurer was a tie, 1,840 for the Democratic and 1,840 for the Republican candidate. They cast lots for it, and the Democrat obtained the office.

An enthusiastic Democrat of Lynn undertook to fire one hundred guns in honor of the October elections. The City Marshal stopped him after the fifty-third round, and he has since petitioned the City Council for leave to fire the remaining forty-seven.

Democrats ought to be satisfied. We have the Senator, the Legislature, beat the Negro amendment, and won nearly all the money the Republicans staked on the general result!

The Democratic members of the Tennessee Legislature entertain strong hopes of defeating Brownlow for the United States Senatorship.

The Board of registration of Atlanta asked a freed franchisee his name, "Bob." "Bob what?" "Bob nuffin, Bob." The absurd board insisted on two names, "Well, then, Bob Radical, Bob!"

The Tuscarawas Democrat and the Seneca Advertiser are out in favor of the nomination of Hon. Allen G. Thurman as U. S. Senator by the Democratic members of the Ohio Legislature. The Cadiz Sentinel also favors Thurman's election to the Senate.

The Presidency.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, in an able and well considered article, presents Hon. George H. Pendleton, as the choice of the Democracy of Ohio as their candidate for President in 1868. We shall publish the Enquirer's article next week.

A short time ago the widow Lincoln threatened to "blow upon" some of the Radical leaders, and make "astounding developments" in regard to their rascality and stealings. It is now said that the "poor" widow has determined "not to blow," as the leaders alluded to came forward and contributed very freely to supply her wants. That was a cunning dodge of the widow to "raise the wind."

The Massillon Independent still continues at its maddest words: "Constitutional Amendment—Yes." This is "taking time by the forelock." Ben Wade, Senator Sherman, and other leaders, declare that Negro Suffrage has only been postponed—not defeated; and that the Radicals must labor on until the negro is made the equal of the white man. Very well, gentlemen; we are ready to meet you again on that question!

It is a remarkable fact that in every county where Columbus Delano spoke during the late political campaign, the disunion Radicals sustained heavy losses, and on the other hand in every county where General Morgan addressed the people, the Democracy made heavy gains. Delano as a politician, has completely played out.

Before the election the Radical leaders confidently predicted that the Negro Suffrage amendment to the Constitution would succeed by a majority of at least 25,000. Now, every Radical you meet will tell you that he knew the amendment would be badly beaten.

More About Mrs. Lincoln and her Alleged Poverty.

We last week alluded to the fact that "poor" Mrs. Lincoln, the widow of the "late lamented," had deposited with a New York pawnbroker, dresses, shawls, furs, jewelry, &c., to the value of nearly fifty thousand dollars, to be sold for cash, in order to raise money for her support. It now appears that Mrs. Lincoln, under the assumed name of Mrs. Clarke, went to New York to personally superintend the sale of her jewelry, but the fact soon leaked out, and those vigilant "sentinels on the watchtower," the newspaper reporters, soon ventilated the matter in the most sensational style. It appears, furthermore, that members of the "Loyal League" of New York, upon learning the fact that Mrs. Lincoln was in "needy" circumstances, called upon her, and offered to raise any amount of money she desired, to supply her wants, but that she peremptorily declined all assistance from that quarter, and made some remarks by no means complimentary to the pretended friends of her late husband, mentioning particularly Messrs. Seward, Weed and Raymond. This at once "stirred up a hornet's nest," and those wretches have come out in their own defence, and are making revelations that will wound the country in regard to the honesty of both Mrs. and Mrs. Lincoln. Mr. Thurlow Weed, who is now editor of the New York Commercial, publishes the following painful statement in his paper:

But we happen to know—the late Caleb B. Smith, the Secretary of the Interior, being our informant—a fact which increased Mrs. Lincoln against Mr. Seward. The President gave the Prince Napoleon a dinner, for which Mrs. Lincoln sent to the Secretary of the Interior for payment of a bill of some $200. This demand, although wholly illegal, coming from the President's wife, was not to be resisted. Mr. Seward, who called upon the Secretary of State for advice, where he learned that Mr. Seward had also dined the Prince, having the same number of guests and giving them a duplicate of the dinner at the White House. In fact, Mr. Seward ordered both dinners from the same restaurant, and by his own hand knew the cost of each. For what Mr. Seward paid $300, Mrs. Lincoln demanded $200. But whether three or nine hundred, the claim was alike illegal, and could not be paid. For this, however, Mrs. Lincoln quarrelled with Secretaries Smith and Seward. This amount, however, was not the only consequence of the dinner, but occasioned scandal, which respect for Mr. Lincoln meagrely suppressed.

Here the fact has come to light that the great "State dinners" given by Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, were paid for out of the public treasury, and the bills for the same were fraudulently covered up as part of the poor gardener's bill! How far this kind of rascality was practiced during the administration of "honest Old Abe" the country will probably never know, unless the rogues get to quarrelling still more among themselves, and expose each other's dishonesty.

It is now claimed that the splendid carriages and horses, the $4,000 dresses, $2,000 shawls, diamonds, &c., &c., that were used and worn by Mrs. Lincoln, while she presided at the White House, were presents from wealthy Government contractors, dealers in shoddy, &c., who made their thousands and millions of dollars out of jobs obtained from the Government through Mrs. Lincoln's influence.

In other words, that Mrs. Lincoln was bribed by presents to secure contracts for thieves and scoundrels, who otherwise could not obtain an audience from the official authorities at Washington!

Now, a few words as to the alleged "poverty" of Mrs. Lincoln. The Illinois Journal, a Republican paper, published at Springfield, whose editor is a near relative of Mr. Lincoln, in its issue of October 9, alluding to the scandal recently caused by Mrs. Lincoln's conduct in New York, publishes the following inventory of the estate of Mr. Lincoln, published by Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court, administrator of the estate. It was filed on the 24th of November, 1866, by "N. W. Matheny, clerk," and recorded in book 4 of Inventories, page 70:

The Sandusky Register says: "The grape crop on the Islands, the Peninsula, and the main land, is proving an excellent one in quantity, and the quality of the fruit has rarely been excelled. The amount now being brought from the Islands and Peninsula is immense. This (Monday) morning the steam, or Grant brought over from the Peninsula thirteen thousand pounds. It is estimated that the amount of grapes brought here this season from the Peninsula vineyards, alone, will reach seventeen hundred tons. The amount brought to Sandusky from the Islands and main land will be much greater. From these facts some notion can be gained of the extent of the grape interest about Sandusky."

A Sharp Transaction.

When the Radicals in Philadelphia found out that they were probably to be defeated, they went to Fort Delaware and polled the votes of all the soldiers stationed there, not one of whom was entitled to vote in the State of Pennsylvania. These votes the Radical board undertook to count in as legal votes, but were prevented from consummating this shameful fraud by an injunction from Judge Thompson. It is in this way that they figure Sharswood's majority down.

The Boston Post has heard of the recent visit of Quigg Chase to Put-in-Bay, and its poetic "Quig" puts it thusly:

Says Salmon P. Chase, ex-chie,
"I'll fish by Jupiter Ammon!"
He went to Ohio,
And threw in his fly oh,—
But never a sign of Salmon.

Oath Bound Associations.

The New York World calls attention to the fact that the Radical party is now organized into secret oath-bound associations. First, there is the Loyal League, which meets in secret and swears its members with all the solemnity of the old Know Nothings. This is made up of 4-6 working men, farmers, Radical spies and office holders, and forms the right wing of their party. Then there is the Grand Army of the Republic, made of the hangers on to the late Union army and the negro soldiers. They are bound together by oaths, and form the left wing of the Radical party. Both wings will be rounded up by the Government of the people, under the Constitution.

The President on the Ohio Election.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, October 10.—Mr. W. W. Webb, editor of the Crisis has received the following message from the President:

"I heartily thank you for the good news.—God bless Ohio."

ANDREW JOHNSON.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 10.—A dispatch from the President, just received by Mr. Thomson Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, says:

"God bless Ohio. She has done well and done it in time."

ANDREW JOHNSON.

The above figures, says the Journal, speak for themselves. To be added to them, however, is the $25,000, which was appropriated by the last Congress on account of Mr. Lincoln's salary, making altogether the total value of the personal estate to be about one hundred and ten thousand dollars, to say nothing of the real estate described in the schedule above. So that the statement made in the World that Mr. Lincoln saved nothing and left nothing from his salary, and that Mrs. Lincoln had no resources but what remained from the appropriation of Congress, $22,000, and the rents of the homestead, returning altogether but $1,700 per year, can not possibly be true. That Mr. Lincoln did not leave his family wealthy is very evident, but no one in view of the above inventory, will say that they are in the deplorable condition of "want" and "destitution," in regard to which the public has, with so much astonishment, just been informed.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees in Washington.

The Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, was in Washington last week, and was serenaded by the Democracy. In response to a call from the crowd he said the victory was won by the people of Ohio, who meant to redeem the horrors of negro supremacy, and to save the country from Radical misrule and ruin.—It also meant that money which was good enough for the poor man was good enough for the rich bondholders, and he now served notice on this pampered class of money values and shoddy contractors, that if they did not pay taxes on their bonds, or reduce the interest, their bonds would be paid off in greenbacks. The Democracy would fight it out on this line, and not allow the Radicals to shirk the issue they had created.

His speech was interrupted frequently with manifestations of satisfaction and approval.

Election Frauds in Ohio.

From every part of the State we have information in regard to the most daring frauds that were perpetrated by the disunion Radicals, in the hope of carrying the State by their accustomed majority.

The Lorain Constitutionalist informs us that in Elyria, the Judges refused to entertain a challenge on account of color, and permitted full blooded negroes to vote, over the challenge and protest of Democrats and without putting them under oath. Sheffield, Russia, Wellington and other towns in the same county were subsequently pursued. In some townships the polls were held open until seven o'clock, and in others the ballot box was carried away at noon, and in other places, was carried all over the adjoining territory to receive radical votes. We are informed that in Pittsfield township, a brick maker, employing some fifteen or twenty negroes, just from Alabama, marched them to the polls, and voted them like cattle, and the judges received the votes.

Such outrages were common, and we do not doubt that at least fifty negroes, not from the South more than three or four weeks, were imported into this county to vote, and their names mysteriously changed to legal residents. A full list of negroes voting, together with the other frauds perpetrated by the radical boarders, was taken at the time by the proper persons and some of the parties may be called upon to answer in the shape of being a criminal at the bar and on trial for his offenses.

Grand Jubilee at Pittsburgh.

The Democracy of Pittsburgh had a grand Jubilee, with music, torch-light procession bonfires and illuminations, on Saturday night last, in honor of their victory over the disunion Radicals, in the election of Judge Sharsworth as Supreme Judge of Pennsylvania.—Our late glorious standard-bearer for Governor of Ohio, Judge Thurman, was present, and made one of his able speeches, which was well received. Everything passed off pleasantly.

The Island Grape Crop.

The Sandusky Register says: "The grape crop on the Islands, the Peninsula, and the main land, is proving an excellent one in quantity, and the quality of the fruit has rarely been excelled. The amount now being brought from the Islands and Peninsula is immense. This (Monday) morning the steam, or Grant brought over from the Peninsula thirteen thousand pounds. It is estimated that the amount of grapes brought here this season from the Peninsula vineyards, alone, will reach seventeen hundred tons. The amount brought to Sandusky from the Islands and main land will be much greater. From these facts some notion can be gained of the extent of the grape interest about Sandusky."

Godey's Lady's Book.

The November number of this charming and always attractive Monthly has come to hand, filled with its usual variety of choice reading and beautiful illustrations. Godey has no rival with the ladies of America.

Our Young Folks.

The November number of this popular magazine for Boys and Girls, presents a very attractive table of contents, from the pens of Dr. Hayes, Mrs. Diaz, Gail Hamilton, &c. The illustrations are unusually fine. Many additional attractions for 1868 are promised. It is only $2.00 a year. Address Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

The Naval Academy.

The improvements at the Naval Academy, at Annapolis, are making rapid progress.—They consist in part of a chapel and quarters for officers and midshipmen. The grounds are beautifully laid out and are constantly improving.

New York Cattle Market.

New York, Oct. 24, 1867.
The offerings of best beef were unusually large, with about 2,700 head, a slow demand and market depressed, with prices 1/2 lower, and in some cases there was still a further decline. The average quality of the lot was fair. Extra lots were disposed of at 17c for prime 16c 1/2 for first quality 15c 1/2 for fair to good, 14c 1/2 for ordinary 13c 1/2 for inferior. 10c 1/2 for market closed decidedly weak. Receipts for light 7,474 for fair to good, and 7,474 for heavy prime. Receipts 25,534 head.

Bascom's Falsehoods.

It would be a work of supererogation to attempt to notice and correct Bascom's numberless falsehoods in regard to the Democratic party. His statement that Democrats, on the night of the election, huzzared for Jeff. Davis, is a silly lie. It can be proven that Radicals did huzzah for Jeff. Davis, and are constantly in the habit so doing, for the express purpose of charging it upon the Democrats. Again, Bascom utters a malignant falsehood when he asserts our Democrats have the likeness of Jeff. Davis hung in their parlors. We defy him to mention the name of a single Democrat in Knox county who has honored Jeff. Davis in that manner.

Opinion of General Sherman.

Information from reliable sources states that General Sherman has given his opinion to the effect that any attempt by Congress to impeach President Johnson, except in accordance with forms of law and the Constitution of the United States, would be clearly revolutionary, and should be resisted by the President with all the means in his control. General Grant expressed similar views when approached on the subject by the Chairman of the House Military Committee, during the last session of Congress.

Indiana Democrats.

The recent election in Indiana was for county officers. There was no State ticket to elect. So far as the returns have come to hand they show great Democratic gains in every county. In thirty-five counties the Democrats have gained 11,010 on the vote 1866, when the Abolitionists carried the State by 14,200. The same average gain in the counties not heard from would give the Democrats the State by about 14,000. Huzzah, again! Disunion Abolitionism has had its day!

Explosion at Annapolis.

An explosion of the steam launch Albemarle, belonging to Admiral Porter, took place in the Severn River, opposite the Naval Academy, on Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock. Chief Engineer Hoyt was killed, also engineer Cook, John Shea, coxswain, and a negro boy who was fireman. Several other boys were injured, one of whom has since died. Admiral Porter was in the act of leaving the School Ship Constitution to go on board the Albemarle, at the time the explosion took place.

Before the election the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun wrote thus:

"The Radicals, however, admit that a Republican defeat in Ohio and Pennsylvania will seal the lips of all the impeachers, except the few who seem to have no ability now for any thing except abuse of President Johnson and of his administration of the affairs of the Government."

Cheapest Route Eastward.

Passengers for New York, Boston and New England cities, will be glad to learn that the Erie Railway Company is yet issuing First-Class Tickets to New York at $2.70 less than rival lines. JOKER'S CORNER

Mrs. Rugg, a widow, having taken Sir Charles Price for her second husband, and being asked by a friend how she liked the change, "Oh, I have got rid of my old Rugg for a good price."

The new Teydon of Japan is 31 years of age, and bears the name of Prince Heibystyashia, "Imagine," says the Boston Post, "the populace, shouting 'Hurrah for Heibystyashia!'"

An acquaintance of ours, a mother, too, not long since, was lamenting the loss of a child (one of a family of eight) "because," said she, "there was just enough for a cotillion, and they did dance so prettily."

FIGURATIVE—A young woman being reproved for indifference to a suitor who had offended her by his slovenly dress, replied, "Why should I pine away for him, when he will not spruce for me?"

A modern philosopher, taking the motion of the earth on its axis at seven miles a second, says that if you take off your hat in the street to bow to a friend, you go seventeen miles bareheaded without taking cold.

Josh Billings has a book "in the straw," as he expresses it. His next lecture is on "Milk." He says in his prospectus: "The price of the 'Lek-tur' is $38.40. I might possibly be induced to discount the eighty-eight dollars, but the forty cents I must invariably have."

At a trial in a divorce case, a witness recently in England made the following reply: "Mr. Sergeant Tindal—He treated her very kindly, did he not?" Atkinson—Oh, yes, very; he kissed her several times. Mr. Sergeant Tindal—And how did she treat him? Atkinson—Well, she retaliated."

Divorce Notice.
In the Court of Com. Pleas, of Knox county, Ohio.
David B. Thrift, Plaintiff, vs. Elizabeth Thrift, Defendant.
The said David B. Thrift, is hereby notified, that on the 19th day of September, A. D. 1887, the said Elizabeth Thrift, filed her petition against him in said Court in which she prays to be divorced from him, for the following causes: 1. Wilful absence of the said David B. Thrift, for more than three years last past. 2. Gross neglect of duty by him for more than three years last past. 3. Habitual drunkenness, for more than three years last past. Petition also prays alimony, and that the custody of their three infant children may be awarded her. Said petition will be for hearing at the November term, A. D. 1887, of said Court.
