[Election Day, Tuesday, October 10.]

I am not in favor of the repeal of the Reconstruction Act, unless something is substituted that will more effectually bring about specie payments as soon as the time prescribed in that act.—R. B. HAYES.

It is believed that Hamilton county will give 5000 majority to Bell and the Democratic ticket in October.

General Kilpatrick to Gov. Hayes.

A bloody-shirt campaign with money, and Indiana is safe; a financial campaign and no money, and we are beaten.

Read the able and timely letter of General McClellan in favor of the election of Samuel J. Tilden to the Presidency, printed on the first page of this week's

BANNER.

When you hear Republicans calling honest Sam Tilden a "perjurer," ask them what Hayes did with that $400, which was handed over to him by Chaplain Harper.

By Samuel J. Tilden is a "perjurer," as charged by the Grant-Hayes party, it is a curious circumstance that nobody ever heard of it until he became a candidate for President.

We guess Michael D. Harter, Esq., must be doing some good work for the Democratic up at Mansfield, from the way the Herald singles him out as a subject for its terrific blasts.

Hon. Samuel J. Randall has been unanimously renominated for Congress in the Philadelphia district. He is one of the ablest and most sagacious Congressmen ever sent from Pennsylvania.

The Democracy of Indiana are making a red hot campaign, and are confident of electing "Blue Jeans" Williams by a majority of 25,000. This is why the heavenly rage. Grantism is on its last legs.

Grant recently wrote to a friend in Michigan: "I long for the 4th of next March." And in this "longing" he will have entire sympathy of the American people. They want him to "get out and git."

The States that are conceded to be Democratic will give 298 electoral votes—enough to elect Tilden, with 23 electoral votes to spare. We do not think under any circumstances will Hayes receive over 136 votes.

The Radicals say the Bondholders must be paid in gold, while other creditors of the Government are glad to get depreciated silver and greenbacks. Are Bondholders better than other people? We think not.

Cooke's Life of Samuel J. Tilden, the only one authorized by the next President, has just been issued by D. Appleton & Co., 640 and 651 Broadway, New York.

Wide-awake canvassers are wanted in every county.

Idle mechanics and laboring men, empty business houses, bankrupt and ruin, are seen on every side. Grant's remedy for these evils is to get the army in marching order to prevent the election of

Samuel J. Tilden.

The largest manufacturing establishment in Hamilton, Ohio, closed a few days ago by the pressure of the times.

And Grant thinks the remedy for these misfortunes is to get the troops ready for marching orders.

Every day adds to the conviction that Tilden and Hendricks will carry Ohio.

The changes are all in favor of the Democracy, and the people are thoroughly aroused. Grantism and hard times will be swept from existence.

New York Express has this short, sharp and comprehensive opinion upon the silver question: "Whatever we may say, the repeal of the old law in manner, time and result, was a great wrong upon the government and the people."

The Boston Advertiser, a Republican newspaper, says that the President's order to General Sherman was quite unnecessary at this time, and like all unnecessary exhibitions of power or strategy, calculated to do more harm than good.

Cal. Magers is "mad as a March hare." He don't like the exposure in the last BANNER in regard to his lawlessness and insolence during the Crusade. The truth hurts him, but it can't be helped. A man who will disobey the orders of a superior officer, is not fit to fill any office.

He should not be trusted.

Ed. Cowles of the Cleveland Leader, who started that "cock and bull story" of the Democratic State Central Committee having a quarrel at Put-in-Bay in regard to the disbursement of $250,000 reserved for the East, is the grandest newspaper liar in the State, (always excepting the Cleveland Herald.) Cowles started a similar story concerning Judge Thurman about a year ago. "Bluff old Ben. Wade" thoroughly understood Cowles' character when he pronounced him "the d—est meanest editor in Ohio."

It is a significant fact that nearly all the great manufacturers of our State—those who employ large number of hands—are for Tilden, Hendricks and Reform.

Prominent among the number we may mention Henry Blandy, of Zanesville; J. R.

Buchtel, of Akron; Mr. Miller, of Knox; M. D. Harter, of Mansfield, &c. These gentlemen were formerly Republicans, but they have felt the degrading influence of Radical rule, and desire a change.

The Radicals have depreciated the Silver Dollar as well as the Greenback Dollar, both issued by the Government, and made the Gold Dollar the only legal tender for debts due the Government.

This is done in the interest of the Shylocks, Brokers and Bondholders. The Democracy wish to place the Gold Dollar, the Silver Dollar and the Greenback Dollar all on a par, and make them of equal value in paying all debts.

Carl Schurz, the hired advocate of the bondholders, delivered a speech at Cincinnati, on Thursday evening last, in behalf of his clients. It was the best effort Mr. Schurz was capable of making for the cause of Grantism; but it will utterly fail to convince the Germans or people of any other nationality of the wisdom of keeping the Plunder Party longer in power. The people desire a change of rulers and better times.

The Republican Congressional Convention in the Franklin District nominated George K. Nash, Esq., of Columbus, as their candidate for Congress, without opposition. Mr. Nash was formerly city editor of the Columbus Journal, and is a gentleman of fair abilities; but he has a much better chance of being struck by lightning than to be sent to Congress from that district.

Some hired liablers, through the columns of the Cincinnati Gazette, have made a fierce attack upon Hon. William Bell, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State. His trumped-up charges have not the shadow of foundation, and when twice made against Mr. Bell, in Licking county, their only effect was to swell his majority several hundred higher than any other man on the ticket.

The Coshocton Democrat informs us that the "Rev. J. H. Hamilton, editor of the Mt. Vernon Republican," was in that town recently, and preached in one of the churches. Oh, yes; we have good authority for saying that the devil can quote scripture; but we never heard that his Sa-tanistic Majesty preached stolen sermons; and herein he has the advantage of the Rev. J. H. Hamilton.

Read the interesting letter from Dr.

T. R. POTTER, now of Springfield, printed on the first page of this week's BANNER.

The nomination of Mr. Gay for Sheriff, by the Democracy of Knox county, was particularly gratifying to the Doctor, who was intimately acquainted with Mr. G., while both gentlemen were residents of Fredericktown, and he predicts Mr. Gay's election by a large majority.

The killing of one of the brutes engaged in a "prize fight" in New Jersey, the other day, suggests the necessity of more rigid laws to prevent the repetition of such barbarous and beastly exhibitions. If the civil power is inadequate to put a stop to these brutal and murderous fights, we are in favor of calling out the military force to maintain the laws and prevent a breach of the peace.

The Grant-Hayes papers are raising a tremendous howl because a number of clerks (male and female) have been discharged at Washington, under the Democratic retrenchment law. But they say nothing about the thousands and tens of thousands of idle mechanics and laboring men out of employment all over the country, in consequence of the Radical hard times.

Now that Delano escaped impeachment by resigning, he is going to take the stump for the Grant-Hayes party, and will have the bloody shirt after the style of Morton & Co. This "Christian Statesman" will probably never tell the people how much money he and his son John made by their sharp practices while running the corrupt Interior Department.

When Hayes and Grant get together at Long Branch, they can settle that little matter of civil service reform, by which all the relatives of Grant, near and remote, shall be kept in the army in

Samuel J. Tilden.
