Official Paper of the County.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 15, 1885.

We agree with the Philadelphia Times, that if the Chinese must go, let it be by way of some other port.

Hos. Levi P. Morton, late Minister to France, like President Andy Johnson, was once a tailor, and he is proud of the fact.

The ravages of cholera among hogs about Yankton D. T., are becoming alarming. Many farmers have lost one half of their hogs.

Valentine Dickey, a Texas cattle king, married Miss Laura Platt, a Dayton beauty and heiress on the 8th. It was a brilliant affair.

An explosion of natural gas in the Tarentum Paper Mill, above Pittsburgh, last Saturday, fatally injured three persons, two of whom will die.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad from Montreal to Winnipeg, will be open for freight traffic November 18th, and for passenger traffic November 20th.

The Youngstown Daily News, at the age of six months, has acquired a circulation of 6,000. It is a mighty good little paper in everything but its politics.

Archibald Pa. was the scene of a strange tragedy, in which George Curlew was shot through the heart by Michael O'Boyle, who says he fired in self defense.

Charles Belmont and John Vanook, residents of Frankfort, while fishing on Lake Michigan were caught in a gale, their small capsized and both were drowned.

The Massachusetts Democratic State Convention gave a cordial endorsement of the Cleveland Administration, and nominated Hon. F. O. Prince, of Boston, for Governor.

Jim Blaine's son, Walker, held a sinecure appointment under the late administration of Alabama Court, and was dismissed, now threaten to sue the Government for his salary. Fudge!

Both the candidates for Governor in New York, are bachelors, and the ambitions and marriageable young ladies of the State are placed in a condition of political neutrality.

The plate glass works at Jeffersonville Ind., could not have failed for want of protection. The tariff tax on plate glass is over 100 per cent. Somehow, protection generally fails to protect.

At Newark, Ohio, on Thursday last, the captain and three officers of the Salvation Army were arrested and sent to jail for singing on the streets while a Democratic procession was passing.

The accounts of the cashier of the Union Bank, of Halifax N.S., show a deficiency of $30,000. The cashier, H. V. Clarke, is with his family at Bedford. The bank people say their loss will not be great.

Rev. H. D. Jarnes, of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, Kansas, City, Mo., has been tried by an Ecclesiastical Court, for priestly misconduct, found guilty and inhibited from ministerial functions.

The attempt to raise money for the erection of a Grant monument in New York seems to have been abandoned, or at least no mention of the matter is any longer made in the newspapers. Why is this?

The steam-boiler of C. B. Tyler's planing mill at Circleville, exploded at 7:30 o'clock on Friday morning, tearing the brick building all the atoms. Five persons were badly injured. Loss about $5000—no insurance.

Exhaustive reports to the New England Homestead from 700 correspondents indicate that the potato crop of New England and New York is fully one-third below the average, and a trifle smaller than last year.

The murder of Cora Hough, near Mansfield, has not yet been discovered. The two boys, John Cromer and James Winans, are still locked up on suspicion, but the evidence against them is merely circumstantial.

Fred Grant has written a letter in regard to the Grant & Ward failure, in which he expresses the belief that the disease of which his father died was brought on, and his death hastened by the treachery of Ward.

Mrs. Veronica Bell died on Friday, at Syracuse, N. Y., after fasting forty-nine days, she not having touched a morsel of solid food since August 10, living solely upon water in which small quantities of morphia were dissolved.

Jay Gould, upon his arrival at St. Louis on Saturday night was immediately served with a summons by the Sheriff, notifying him of a suit for $50,000 damages, brought by John M. Woolworth, in some railroad transaction.

Reports from fifteen counties in New York show that nearly one-half of this year's potato crop will be destroyed by rot. Many farmers are plowing their potato fields and sowing wheat or rye, deeming the potatoes not worth digging.

A reservoir at Milford, Mass., was dragged and the water drawn out by the authorities in consequence of the finding of a note stating that the body of a dead man was at the bottom of it. A hoax is now believed to have been at the bottom of it.

Chas. R. Chandler, of Concord, N. H., has rounded out his first hundred years and enters the second with remarkable powers of vitality. His mental faculties are unimpaired, and he pleads guilty of feeling as young as he did a quarter of a century ago.

Glanders among horses has made its appearance around Tuscola, Ill. The State Veterinary Surgeon made an examination of the horses belonging to a farmer and pronounced them affected with that disease. All his horses were accordingly shot.

Turkey has requested the government of Serbia and Greece to explain their military and war preparations. Representatives of Turkey have signed a contract with the Austrian Lloyd's for the transportation of 40,000 troops to Dede, Agatash and Salonica.

An interview with Dr. O'Reilly, Treasurer of the Irish National League, at Detroit, discloses the fact that about $1,000 per week is being forwarded to Charles S. Parnell from the Parliamentary fund. The big Chicago contribution is not included in this.

Ohio Gone to Sheol.

The story may be told in three words: "We are beaten." Foraker is elected Governor by about 150,000 majority over Hoody, and the Legislature is very close, each party claiming it, with the chance that the Republicans will have a small majority on joint ballot, which, if realized, will render John Sherman's re-election to the Senate certain.

As to the causes which brought this result, we have neither the space nor the inclination to write in detail this week; and a few brief paragraphs must suffice.

First: The election of a United States Senator by the next Legislature induced the Republicans to make superhuman efforts, especially in the case of doubtful counties, and money was poured out like water and voters bought by the wholesale.

Second: The "Free Trade" bugbear, used by the Democrats, was a very make workingmen believe that they would be forced to work for "pauper wages" if the Democrats succeeded.

Third: The howl about the "Solid South" was kept up constantly, and the colored voters, many of whom were disposed to cut loose from the slavery of Republican domination, were whipped back into the Republican column.

Fourth: The "Allen O'Meyers Legislature" scarecrow was used for all it was worth.

Fifth: The howl about the candidacy of John McLean for United States Senator was constantly rung in the ears of the people.

Sixth: Above all, the ridiculous cry that the Democrats were allied with the Prohibitionists to beat the Republicans, did more than anything else to solidify the Republican party; and Republican Prohibitionists quietly voted with the Republicans, while Democratic Prohibitionists (what a misnomer!) voted the "third party" ticket.

Seventh: The retaining of Republican office-holders in power under a Democratic Administration, was very discouraging to hosts of good Democrats, who believe that the Democratic party should enjoy the full fruits of a Democratic victory.

Notwithstanding this temporary defeat, the Democrats will keep "pegging away," as the late A. Lincoln used to say, and Ohio will yet be placed solidly in the Democratic column.

We are happy to add that Old Knox—God bless her!—is still Democratic.

Death of Cardinal McCloskey.
The venerable and highly respected Cardinal McCloskey died at his residence in New York, at 4 o'clock on Friday last of old age and general debility, surrounded by his relatives and friends and distinguished clergy of the city. The remains were placed in the vault of the Cathedral, and the funeral will take place on next Sunday.

John McCloskey was born in Brooklyn, March 10, 1810. He studied theology in a seminary in Emmitsburg, Md., and graduated at Mount St. Mary's College. He received the first ordination January 9, 1833, and then went to Rome, where he studied. After spending a year in France he returned to this country and was appointed assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church in New York and six months after became rector. Bishop Hughes, in 1841, nominated him first President of St. John's College, at Fordham, but in 1842 he resumed the rectorship of St. Joseph's Church. November 22, 1843, he was appointed, at the suggestion of Bishop Hughes, his coadjutor, and was consecrated with the title of Bishop of Aixre March 10, 1844. Bishop McCloskey was nominated first Bishop of Albany, May 21, in the division of the diocese of New York, which took place in 1857. After the death of Archbishop Hughes he was appointed to the See of New York, May 6, 1864. He gave $10,000 from his private purse toward the building of the Fifth Avenue Cathedral. He was created Cardinal Priest, March 12, 1875. The jurisdiction over which he presided was the largest of any in the city and county of New York, and the counties south of the 42nd north latitude, excepting those on Long Island.

Hell Gate Blown Up!
The mountain of rock under the surface of East River, opposite New York, known as "Hell Gate," which has always been a dangerous obstruction to navigation, was successfully blown up on Friday last, 280,000 pounds of explosives being employed to do the work. The explosion was witnessed by one hundred thousand people, who lined the shores on either side of the river, and although grave apprehensions existed that serious accidents might result from the concussion of the atmosphere, yet nothing of the kind occurred, and the whole affair passed off without the slightest injury to either person or property, although the shock was very heavy, and was distinctly felt at points many miles distant. The rock, having been completely undermined, was broke into millions of fragments, and thrown up a great distance straight in the air, but settled down in the water near the spot from whence it came. The explosives, or cartridges, having all been exploded in connection with an electric wire, little Mary Newton, a daughter of General Newton, superintendent of the work, touched the button of the electric battery, and in a moment the rocky bed of the river was numbered among the things of the past. This great work has proven a complete triumph of American engineering, and will be of untold advantage to navigators of the ocean.

The Rev. Daniel Irving, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian church, and a leading divine lived in Orange, N. J., Monday morning, aged 64 years. His death was caused by paralysis, brought on by a broken leg and a nervous shock sustained by a fall while in attendance on the sitting of the Pan-Prebyterian Council in Belfast, Ireland, in 1884.

The Rev. Dr. Sam'l H. Kellogg, of Pittsburgh, has resigned his Professorship in Biblical Literature in the Western Theological Seminary to accept the pastorate of the St. John's Square Presbyterian Church, Toronto. Dr. Kellogg was a missionary to India for about ten years.

Dr. E. O. Shakespeare, of Philadelphia, has been commissioned by President Cleveland to visit Spain, for the purpose of making an exhaustive investigation into the causes, progress and treatment of Asiatic cholera. The Dr. stands high in the medical profession.

A telegram to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch from Helena, Ark., reports the capture at Clarkdale, Miss., of Judge W. Hooper, of Clarkdale, Ark., the alleged politician and forger, who disappeared some ten days ago, after issuing $10,000 of Monroe county scrip.

The Ironing Globe says: "It is learned on pretty good authority that certain leading Orangemen in Toronto are sounding the rank and file of the order with a view to ascertaining whether the Orangemen generally will not be content to put up with imprisonment of Riel for life instead of his execution."

T. L. KATHERICK, a Presbyterian minister, was found dead on the roadside, several miles from Houston, Mo., with a bullet in his head.

Miss Folsom is the young lady whose name was connected with the President's some months ago as likely to be the mistress of the White House before Mr. Cleveland's term expires.

At St. Louis several riots were inaugurated by the striking street car employees and their sympathizers. The rioters wrecked cars on nearly all the lines, and brutally assaulted many of the men who had undertaken to run the cars. One man was shot and killed, another fatally injured, while a large number of persons were hurt more or less severely.

Great excitement prevails in Toledo, caused by natural gas being struck on Monday at a point near the city. The gas was at a depth of 375 feet. A flow sufficient to produce a light flame was reached, which establishes beyond a doubt the existence of natural gas. The well will be extended until a full heat is reached.

The Woman's Congress has adjourned after three days session at Des Moines, Iowa. It was the largest and most enthusiastic session which the association has yet held. Several new members were added and an increased impetus given to the advancement of women's work.

The proposition to send fifty leading and influential Irish orators from this country to assist Mr. Parnell in his canvass, is not favorably received by the immediate friends of that gentleman. They declare that Mr. Parnell needs money more than wind at present.

President Cleveland is credited by a Washington correspondent with using no official letter-paper provided at public expense, but buying his own heavy linen American note-paper and buying the best—as considering how little he uses, he can well afford.

A Desperado Indeed.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., October 12.—A singular story of brutality comes from Mr. Pleasant, Monroe county, sixty miles northeast of Mobile. Bill Ogburn, a noted desperado, while drunk, disemboweled a negro named Lew Spauld, a physician was called to care for the wounded man, but Ogburn, with knife in hand, forced the doctor to leave the negro died from neglect. Ogburn stabbed and shot off the nose of the negro while the latter was under the influence of chloroform.

Accident on the B. & O.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 13.—A Chronicle-Telegraph Connelville, Pa., special says: The West bound express on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, struck a rock two miles east of Ohio Tyle Falls, Pa., at 5:40 this morning, precipitating the engine, two baggage cars and the smoker into the river. The fireman, James Goodwin, was killed, and the engine and baggage cars were crushed and mangled, but not fatally. Several passengers were bruised slightly but all escaped serious injury.

Used Coal Oil to Burn a Mill.
COATSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 7.—An attempt was made to burn the large grist-mill at Hopewell, Chester County, run by J. J. McGreeley, last night, and some time after the party or parties drew the staples of the door at the northwest end of the building, and set fire to it. They saturated the packing chest and floor with coal oil and set fire to it. The chest and floor were badly charred, but the mill was not burned. The mill property belongs to parties near West Chester.

The Penny in Texas.
Several years ago an attempt was made to bring these small coins into use, but it proved a failure because the merchants refused to receive them or to sell a less quantity than five cents. But our enterprising day goods merchant, Mr. F. H. Gruendler, has brought them into circulation, and he says they are giving satisfaction, which is extended by the fact that other merchants have found it necessary to supply themselves with them, as the people are beginning to realize the great convenience and benefit derived from their use.

Sensational Shooting.
VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 7.—Hon. W. S. Mullens and W. W. Watson, both of Byhalia, Miss., had a personal dispute Monday evening at Holly Springs, during which Watson was shot in the stomach and instantly killed. Each claimed to be the aggressor. Mullens is an intelligent and well-to-do farmer, and the one represented Marshall county in the legislature. Watson was one of the best of his kind. Mullens is a gentleman and a man of high character. The shooting occurred in the presence of a large number of persons.

A Lynching or Suicide, Which?
DENVER, Col., Oct. 11.—The people of Huntington are much excited over the finding by a party of hunters of the nude body of a man swinging to a limb of a tree near that place. The man's clothes were scattered over the ground near by. The legs were bound and the hands were bound with a handkerchief; the feet had been rotted off the lower limbs, and the face and chest had been much mutilated by the birds. The body had evidently been hanging for weeks. There is every reason to suspect a lynching party, but being the cause of the man's death, although some adhere to the theory of suicide.

Instigating an Indian Outbreak.
DENVER, Col., Oct. 7.—Information comes from Wyoming that 300 or 400 Ogalala Sioux warriors have suddenly made their appearance on the Wind River reservation, and that they are showing marked friendship for the Arapahoes. The purpose of their visit has not been ascertained, but the feeling of the reservation is disturbed by the presence of the Arapahoes, and the minds of the settlers in the vicinity of the reservation. Within the last few weeks a number of Arapahoes have been detected in cattle killing and measures have been taken for their removal. Whether they are instigating mischief and have called in the aid of the Sioux is not known.

THE PRAIRIES ON FIRE.
Great Destruction of Property by the Flames in Nebraska.
PRAIRIE, Neb., Oct. 11.—A widespread and terrific fire is raging in the northeastern part of this (Pierce) county and in the adjoining counties of Cedar, Wayne and Knox. A high wind has been blowing the last twenty-four hours, and the great fire has been traveling with remarkable rapidity. The hay on every farm in the course of the fire has been swept off. Many settlers have lost barns, sheds and out-houses, and one man his dwelling place. All the hay or the Logan bottoms, which had been kept up for the cattle on Coffey's Cedar county ranch, a farm containing 5,000 acres, has been destroyed.

There are many large herds of cattle and horses on the prairie, and the loss of the stockmen. The fire, which seems to the stockmen to have started about the center of Knox county just below the Santee Sioux Indian reservation, has been beating south against a strong wind, which has materially retarded its progress. Should this wind, suddenly let up the fire may penetrate the southern border of this county and work incalculable damage.

WHOLESALE MURDER.
Family of a Pennsylvania Farmer Murdered by a Mob.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 11.—Early yesterday morning Valentine Pfeiffer, a young German farmer, and a man named McDonald were seen approaching the cabin of Zacharias Wright, occupied by Wright, his wife, daughter and two sons, and situated in a lonely and unfrequented portion of Franklin township. The party had been beating on the door and calling Mrs. Wright and her daughter by names. Failing to break down the door, McDonald went to the rear of the house and attempted to enter through a window. When half way in he was caught and stabbed in the neck by one of the Wright brothers, the other entering from the rear and striking the man in the face. This was followed by a second stab in the breast, when McDonald fell back. When Pfeiffer saw the bloody body of his companion he drew his revolver and began firing into the house. The second shot struck Adam Wright in the breast, and Pfeiffer then disappeared and has not been seen since. The remainder of the Wright family quickly summoned Dr. Lindley and the family physician, who pronounced the brothers' injuries as fatal. Whether McDonald would live or not they could not say, but there is only a very faint hope for his life. The tragedy grew out of a quarrel at former meeting when Pfeiffer had been roughly handled by the Wright brothers, after which Pfeiffer's sister, who had refused Pfeiffer's suit.

The Cleveland Sunday Voice has entered upon its fifteenth year of its existence. It is one of the very best papers of its class—always bright and readable. It is also a new brand, and we are glad to say we can discover no change of heart politically.

There is a shortage of $2,000 in the money account of Decatur Wells, the Republican Postmaster at Monroe, Pa., the amount being stolen by his son and deputy, who is said to be a spendthrift.

Are There Witches in Minnesota?

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 12.—There is considerable excitement in Belgrade, this county, in a settlement of Swedes, over a case of what they believe is witchcraft. A woman has been sick for three years, and accuses her aunt of being a witch, and causing her sickness. The Swedish church has held a trial, and witnesses solemnly testified to a belief in witches, and stated that they had seen in this particular case. The statement was made by one woman that she was posted in witchcraft, and had seen witches send the craft off through the air, and seen it strike persons who were soon after taken sick. What will be done with the alleged witch has not been determined.

More Gas at Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., October 13.—The largest gas well in Washington county was struck last evening on the Heston farm, near Canonsburg. The well is owned by Guffy Bros. Natural gas is rapidly being substituted for coal in this city. At present over 1,500 dwelling houses, 60 gas factories, 34 rolling mills, and 45 other industrial establishments are now supplied. A nearly complete list of gas consumers is as follows: Ascertained from 8,000 to 10,000 tons of gas are daily displaced. A contract has been signed by the city of Pittsburgh, capitalists and members of the Westinghouse Syndicate, of this city, for the converting of natural gas into a rich illuminant.

Ruined Roumelia.
VIENNA, OCTOBER 13.—A correspondent has obtained an interview with M. Strausky, leader of the Roumelian revolt, and who acted as head of provisional government at Philippopolis. M. Strausky declares that the revolution was effected in order to get rid of the costly insurrection of the Roumelian people, and to secure the independence of the Balkan peninsula. The expense of maintaining the government had nearly ruined Roumelia, which was a poor country and unable to bear the weight of the organic statute decreed by the Berlin congress administered by Turkish officials.

Trouble in Louisiana.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 13.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Little Rock, Ark., says: Advice has been received here from Bernville Parish, La., to the effect that a reign of terror exists in some parts of the parish. The trouble originated in an old feud dating back several years. Two men of the name of Foster have been dangerously wounded, and others both white and black, have been taken in the woods by armed masked men and whipped nearly to death. Governor McEnry has issued instructions that efforts be made to capture the perpetrators of these acts, and it is reported that several persons have been arrested.

GEN. FORREST'S POKER STORIES.
Winning $47,000 on One Hand—$1,500 from $7.20.
Nashville, American.
I was sitting in a room in the Maxwell House with General N. B. Forrest several years before his death. "General Forrest," I asked, "it has often been said that previous to the war you were a terror at the poker table—how much did you ever win on one hand?"

He replied: "I have played a few heavy games and many a light one. In New Orleans on one hand I won $47,000."

"And what did you hold?"
"Three kings and two nines."

"I have always regretted I didn't ask him what his opponent held, but I did not. He told the following story, his eyes filling with tears during its recital: 'When my wife and I went to Memphis during the close of hostilities we had seven dollars and twenty cents, not a cent more or less. We spent one entire afternoon ransacking an old portfolio hoping to find some old uncanceled account, or I. O. U. which I might realize. There wasn't a thing. I said to my wife: Rhoda, you have always been again me and poker; I never played a game since I first knew you that I didn't lose my money. Now I have been invited to Sneed's to a dinner to-night, and I know there'll be cards. If you'll give me your blessing this once, my dear, I feel mighty sure I can come home a richer man.'"

"Said I, 'Rhoda, we've got along without that, so far as I know, and by the Lord's help we'll still go on without it.'"

"Yes," said I, "but the Lord has been slow of late, and seems to be getting slower; what'd ye say to this one time?" She never consented, but she didn't oppose it very strong, and I promised I wouldn't go over the $7.20. It was just as I expected. Four tables were running at Sneed's, and I won enough fifty cents ante to go in at higher tables later on. Well, sir, as I won—and I won right from the first—I dropped the money into my hat on the floor, and when we broke up at daylight I put my hat on with the money in it, without counting it over, and went home. As I came near to my house I caught a glimpse from the outside of my wife's white figure waiting right where she had waited all night, pale and anxious, and when I went in I just took off my hat and emptied $1,500 in her lap. I felt sorry for her, and she couldn't believe that night's doing, but sir—she was a great relief to me."

The Banner.

PARTING.
You saw me safely up the hill,
(The day was almost spent)
And then you told me you must go;
We parted, and you went away.

But I stood still and watched the woods
Glow with the setting sun,
And gazed upon the little path
That you were winding down.

And there the spirit among the trees,
Still in the sunlight gleamed,
But I turned down the other side,
And oh, how dark it seemed!

In dreams, how many times since then I've parted from you so?
My heart dwells on the hilltop yet,
And gazes down below.

A BRILLIANT MATCH.

Boston Courier.
"I've been to my daughter's wedding."
The mother exclaimed with pride,
"She's married a wealthy husband, Though she was a penniless bride."

"I told her to marry money,
For it's just as easy, I'm sure,
To love a man who has shelves
As to love a man who is poor."

"No, he isn't a railroad magnate,
Who waits for his stock to rise,
But Vanderbilt, they inform me, Looks on him with envious eyes."

"No, he isn't a manufacturer
Who craves a water-power site,
But he's a Niagara lackman
Who earns seven dollars an hour."

THE FALL FASHIONS.

THE SEASON'S BEST EFFORTS IN SILKS, VELVETS AND WOOLS.

THE WEAVES AND COLORS.

Some Elegant Costumes and How They are Made—Suits and Silk Waists—New Lace and Garments—Trimming, etc., as shown by Hoyer & Higbee, Cleveland, O.

[From the Cleveland Sunday Sun.]
The efforts of European manufacturers to produce "something new" in silks, velvets and wools for the fall season, have been crowned with success, for certainly more beautiful things in harmony of colors and peculiarity of weaves have ever been seen in the markets of the world.

From Hoyer & Higbee's exhibit of novelties are taken for description a number of combinations, which illustrate the beauty and elegance of their season's productions, embracing the best productions of twenty-five of the leading manufacturers of Europe. These novelties are exclusive with Hoyer & Higbee, obtained direct and through personal correspondence with the makers.

From the silk department are selected a few combinations for description.
A princess costume is a light brown faux Francaise with buff and black and a front of full frize velvet on a velvet ground.
The wrap to match is made of plain velvet, the flowing sleeves of frize, and is garnished with chevron lace and elegant trimmings.
A calling costume of a rich olive, with a gauzy front waist and princess skirt, beautifully illustrates the effectiveness of the new layette striped pattern for skirts.
The front of this costume is full of frize with plush stripes in inch and a half and a broad band at the bottom running into a fringe.

A rich Bordeaux satin Rhodane costume is shown with a combination of velvet stripes, delicately interlaced with gold.
It is made up with velvet and hand trimming on front, waist and sleeves.
Another handsome costume is a rich brown ottoman made up with a perfect front. This front is of broad velvet in the new neutral lace effect which has been one of the pleasing productions of the season.

A Gros d'Ecosse in a new shade of tan costume is shown with an illuminated broad velvet in scroll designs, and is made with a draped front fastened at the sides with gold fringe to match. A wrap of the brocade completes an elegant costume.

A superb black costume is shown in the new weaves called "Mascotte." The combination is a lace and velvet strip, illuminated in cardinal on a black ground.
The effect is of a lace striped velvet, and is one of the novelties of the season.

A brilliant costume is shown in a rich cream white ottoman with a combination of full frize velvet on an ottoman ground to match. Wide Furrows lace is used for ruffles on the sides, and completes a very elegant and costly costume.

For evening wear one of the most characteristic is shown in a white satin Duchesse with a combination of an elegantly brocade velvet and frize in leaf patterns on a satin Duchesse ground.
The colors of the brocade are delicate tints in pinks, browns and olives. The overskirt is edged with fine oriental lace.

One of the richest costumes of the season is a black faux Francaise of a soft, mellow texture. The front is of full frize velvet in large scroll designs, illuminated in gold.
The beauty of the costume is enhanced by the garnishing of the collar, cuffs and flouncings on one side and end, killing of faux Francaise on the other. The killing runs to narrow plaits, which latter run entirely around the bottom of the skirt.
Scotch plaid and illuminated striped velvets and broad velvets are very popular for garnishing skirts or wool goods and in combination add to the effectiveness of a costume.

A novelty in a cream white silk is an armure, brocade in an essential lace effect.
It is entirely new and very pretty for evening dresses.

There is a great demand this fall for materials for short wraps. Brocade in frize and plain plaids effects, in blacks and colors in leaf and scroll designs, and broad velvets in scroll designs, are the traced with beads, are among the choicest effects of the season. For morning wear Hoyer & Higbee show full frize velvet brocade on ottoman ground.

Among the latest fancies are cashmere and velvet novelties in Hayadee stripes, for dress fronts, hand dresses and wraps.
The cashmere stripes add new beauty in serving to give the velvet an illuminated effect which is very pleasing.

There is a growing demand for black silk, and with this comes a number of new weaves that have become popular. They are called "Mascotte," "Fringes" and "Armure." The mellow finished faux Francaise has stood the test so well and thoroughly as to be a favorite at all times.
The standard "Bonnet" and "Guineet" black silks always hold their price in the lead.

In colored silks the popular weaves are the faux Francaise, satin Rhodane, Duchesse and gros de France.

In wool fabrics the season has produced some of the most charming novelties. In solid colors for full suits, dress fronts and skirts, in crepe, diagonals and wools, with knotted surfaces, and interwoven with long shining hairs that look up as though they lay upon the material. Feather or fur trimmings add a rich effect. They are also made up plain or with broad trimming.
The same weaves are shown in blacks.
For combining with the novelties rough camel's hair and lion cloth are in the lead.

Novelty goods are more striking and elegant in combinations than ever before, the old peculiar weaves combining universal admiration. A few effects are selected for description.

Cherish with borders of Astrachan silk, combined with a solid boucle produces an effective result in a novel way.
Tufted wools are extremely popular and admission in graceful effect with plain serges.

A very nice thing is made of blue and brown boucle with raised lines and crossbars of knotted wools. It makes up well and sturdy and combines particularly fine with lion serges.

An extreme frize is a brown serge with raised lines and frize squares, blending with an ombre effect.

One of the choicest things of the season is shown in smooth cord diagonal, with raised stripes of wavy wools in three shades harmonizing with the ground. It is used in combinations for the skirt, with an overskirt of plain oval.

Pattern suits retain their popularity on account of their exclusiveness, not being imitated in new serges. A stunning thing is a wavy wools combined with a new green with a heavy boucle surface of light shade. They make up either in plain or with broad stripes, the garniture being used on both skirt and overskirt.

One of the most comfortable and elegant appearing costumes is a grayish-brown camel's hair boucle with a combination of a serge and boucle having check, and the complete suit is very choice.

A dark blue cloth made up with boucle stripes in high colors is one of the noticeable things of the season. For con-ple costumes Knickerbocker chevrons are in high favor. They are in dark grounds with brighter colors interspersed irregularly, and in style of draping display the beauty of the goods.

Genuine homespun are popular for full suits. They are in diagonal and checked effects, and made up with feather trimmings, which are especially adapted to them, are very serviceable. Among the Hoyer & Higbee out this season by Hoyer & Higbee, are jackets in wools and colors with natural fur trimmings in a variety of new fancies.

Camels hair French robes maintain their popularity, and some of the year in a variety of new fancies. The fronts are elaborately embroidered in wool and iridescent beads, and they make elegant calling or street costumes. A rich shade of blue, with a wide wool frize brocade in colors to harmonize with dress goods.

In the dress goods department heavy camels hair plaids are shown in new effects, specially adapted for children's cloaks, and make very stylish garments.

Broche broadcloths are an entirely new thing, and are used with good effect for garniture or in combination suits. They are especially adapted for children's wear.

In black goods are found the same novelty and finished effect in weaves as described above. The adaptability of the fabric for making up in full suits or in combinations is perfect.

A rich costume is a tapestry striped camels hair skirt with overskirt of boucle camels hair.

Another very fine effect is shown in a frize striped skirt with overskirt of solid tapestry.

Homespun serges and camels hair are made with frize combinations in black platform and scroll and flower designs.

A very handsome thing is a diagonal cheviot made up with a combination of the same weaves and colors.

A superb thing is a camels hair skirt with a boucle border. The overskirt of solid boucle perfects a combination black suit unequaled in richness and style.

In wraps seal occupies an undisturbed place as the garment for excellence for utility. Hoyer & Higbee's selections embrace dolmans, sequins and jackets in various lengths, and in qualities of choice.

The novelty garments are Astrachan and velvet, and are garnished with ball trimming in natural seal, other lynx and Alaska seal.

In fancy wraps many beautiful things are now being shown. An odd effect is a satin raised flower of a lighter shade. It has a short back and long side panels and short velvet.

Short velvets are shown in combinations of frize and velvet, a very popular brown one having tablier fronts and cheviot trimmings. The popularity of bead trimming on the frize weaves was well illustrated in a frize delicately outlined with gold, gold beads and gold trimming completes the garment. The same styles are also shown in blacks.

Plush and velvet mantles are popular and are shown in different shades with trimmings to match. The frize effect pervades all figured wraps in plush and velvet. Ball for trimming is a new feature which is specially adapted to small wraps.

A handsome visor is shown of uncut lynx in a seal brown, trimmed with natural lynx. A black broadcloth plush on ottoman with narrow tail trimming is another choice garment. A handsome mantle of seal brown plush trimmed with Alaska seal late trimmings. A beautiful visor is shown of a light brown with large tuffed figures of seal and lynx in old gold and darker shades of brown. It is made with long front and garniture with feather trimming. Plush newmarkets with sable and leather trimmings are very handsome garments for footwraps.

Among the new things for heavy cloaks, jackets and newmarkets are rough wools in boucle and boucle effects, novel weaves in Astrachans, and wool and silk plush. These goods are also adapted for trimming garments made of plainer weaves. Corduroys are used for jackets and newmarkets.

For medium-priced garments the boucle and knotted wools found in dress goods frequently made up, and with trimmings of seal, or fur, have a comfortable and stylish appearance.

Newmarkets and jackets of rough wools are shown in a variety of colors, and of brown and black Astrachan are very popular for young ladies.

Laces play an important part in dress garniture this season, the Angora wool and yak novelties being very beautiful and in high favor. Beautiful things are also shown in broad downy velvet and party dresses.

An entirely new thing, and as pretty as any, is a velvet, with delicate fringes with carved wood balls, beads and pendants.
Cheviot trimmings with converted pendants, is also entirely new.

Natural fur and feather trimmings take the lead in trimmings.

The new things in bead and jet trimmings, the subtle in frize effects. These beads are shown in black, brown and red and in combination in sets and single used and may be used with good effect as the taste of the wearer may dictate. Gray beaded fronts are extremely popular for trimming black silks. Sets of molar beads are also in high favor for garniture, and are found in new designs.

Buttons range in size from small to very large, the same effort to harmonize colors and make them important in the completion of a costume being made in in pamentories. Beautiful things are shown in brass metals in open work and fancy designs.

In gloves the tendency is still for lengths, nothing less than a four-finger being popular. Handsome new designs are shown by Hoyer & Higbee in all lengths, from four buttons to thirty buttons.

An Important Discovery.
The most important discovery is that which brings the most good to the greatest number. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, will preserve the health and save life, and is a priceless boon to the afflicted. Not only does it positively cure Consumption, but Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness, and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, yield at once to its wonderful curative powers. If you doubt this, get a Trial Bottle Free, at G. R. Baker's Drug Store.

An End to Bone Scraping.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received some benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would never be cured. I tried every remedy, but nothing helped. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is entirely cured. I feel like a new man." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by G. R. Baker.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Shakers do not use Cosmetics, but whoever has seen them with this comes a number of new

No Wonder.
A MAN WHO WOULD BE MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PRO-CLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that physical agony is combined with it, it is terrible. Such was the condition of Geo.
W. Frampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was suffering from cross-bones—that is, the leg bone at the knee was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three-cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced using Parke's Kidney Pills, and well, I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Dr. Harkman, Columbus, O. I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of pills.

Mr. Edgar Harte, Snelzer P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have used several bottles of your PARKE'S, and find it to be of great benefit. I have given it to some of my friends; they experienced the same relief."

Mr. L. B. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking Parke's Kidney Pills, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one year, and have not found a single one on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PARKE'S. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a simple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Calista Fisher, Malvern, Ohio, writes:
"I take pleasure in recommending the use of Parke's Kidney Pills to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PARKE'S entirely cured me."

Parke's is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles $5.00. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We request you to buy it from your druggist, but if he will not, send for it from us at once, as directed.
