To the People of the United States.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: We congratulate you as patriots, as partners with us in the common destiny of American freemen, upon the results of the October State elections. We rejoice in the victory which the people's ballots have bestowed upon the friends of reform, in the valley of the Ohio where the Republicans have had an overwhelming ascendancy in every Presidential election since 1856. We rejoice in the assurance these elections convey that your ballots will bestow decisive majorities to the allied forces of Democracy and Reform in the November elections throughout the Union. But we rejoice not as partisans; we rejoice with you as fellow-citizens.

And when the decision of this week of one million voters along the valley of the Ohio shall be ratified next month, by the flat of eight million voters throughout the whole Republic, we shall still rejoice, chiefly for the reason that no one of its citizens can miss an equal share with us who are Democrats, in the political peace and good will which will then and there be established among all sections, races, classes and conditions of men, and in the equality of which the Republic will be based on equal rights and fraternal good will, is the first condition.

Upon the three States of West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana, we were concerned at the influence of the Administration, and all their efforts, and all the vast sums of money forced from the one hundred thousand office holders of the party in power.

These were forced, not again to be contented against so concentrated a force in the November elections the contest will be in every one of thirty-eight States upon the same day.

Nevertheless, against these odds the Democrats and Reformers of West Virginia and Indiana have been victorious, and in Ohio they have all but rescued a State hitherto deemed hopeless, and have created an entrance of victory in November. If it falls to our lot as a National Democratic Committee to congratulate the people of the Union upon this victory in the battle of the reform, we are glad, not only because Democrats have been honored to be the leaders of the people in the work of national regeneration.

The victory won, the victory still to be won, will be a deliverance as much to Republicans as to Democrats.

The patriotic masses of the Republican party may be thankful that the misdeeds of their unworthy leaders have been revealed and are to be arrested. The suffering whites of the South may lift up their heads to greet the dawn of a better day, for they as well as the nation at large. The colored citizens of the South may be glad to see he will soon cease to be the stock in trade of corrupt politicians, but shall enjoy his rights and liberties and his equality before the law and universal good will.

As for the Reform Democrats, to whose standards victory has been tied, with all her garlands on, it only remains for them to welcome every ally, every friend, close upon the heels of the victors, and to stand shoulder to shoulder with the banner and with the one watchword.

REFORM.

Fellow-citizens: Peace between all sections, prosperity in all our homes; the substance of peace and good will, these are the things we have been years desiring by the mistaken solitudes of patriotic Republicans, played upon by selfish and corrupt leaders, who have kept fanning the dying embers of civil strife in order to escape inspection of the trusts which they have betrayed.

For eleven years you have had the name of peace. At no time have you had the substance of peace. In fact, therefore, you have had the grinding taxation and wasteful expenditure of war. Just before every election every year you have had the preaching of a new crusade against a section which defied war, and which could only be completely reconciled in peace.

For eleven years the power of the men who have seized away the control of the country from the honest statesmen and founders has been supreme in almost every department of the Federal Government.

Discarding the hope of prolonging their domination by the use of force, and by the use of force, they have created and trafficked upon public calamities. The policy they adopted has been worked out. Its failure has been absolute.

As for the Reform Democrats, to whose standards victory has been tied, with all her garlands on, it only remains for them to welcome every ally, every friend, close upon the heels of the victors, and to stand shoulder to shoulder with the banner and with the one watchword.

MONTHLY REPORT

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

FOR SEPTEMBER, 1876.

In pursuance of an act passed March 18th, 1875, the following is submitted for publication:

Transcript from the Commissioner's Journal, Regular Session, Sept. 4th, 1876.

Sept. 4th, 1876. The Commissioners met this day in regular session, present, John L. Lyle, John C. Levering and Samuel Beaman. A. Cassil, Clerk.

It appearing to the Commissioners that on account of a clerical inadvertency in 1875, Samuel Harris has paid into the county treasury taxes on $200 valuation in 1875, and on $200 valuation in 1876, more than he would have paid had it not been for said error, said tax amounting to $16.94; it was ordered that the Auditor issue to said Harris a check for said amount, and that the necessary correction be made on the duplicate.

It is hereby ordered that Lewis Britton, who was elected Treasurer of Knox county, Ohio, at the annual election held in said county, on the 27th day of October, 1875, be and is hereby ordered to enter into bond, payable to the State of Ohio, in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, to be approved by the County Auditor, for the faithful performance of his duties as Treasurer of said county, for two years, from the first day of September, A. D. 1876, and until his successor is elected and qualified, and the President of the Board of Supervisors, to be approved by the County Auditor, for the faithful performance of his duties as President of the Board of Supervisors, for two years, from the first day of September, A. D. 1876, and until his successor is elected and qualified, and the President of the Board of Supervisors, to be approved by the County Auditor, for the faithful performance of his duties as President of the Board of Supervisors, for two years, from the first day of September, A. D. 1876, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

A petition was this day presented to the Commissioners of Knox county, Ohio, for an alteration in a State and county road, to-wit: The road from the intersection of the road to the south end of North Main street of the village of Jewell, county of Knox and State of Ohio, at the north line of the west half of lot 13 in fourth quarter of Section 10, township 7, and range 10, to the south end of South Main street, as dedicated to the public by said John M. Nyhart, as the said Nyhart is desirous to have the route of said road changed through the lands owned by the County of Knox, and to vacate all of said road between the commencement and terminus of said change. And for the change of State road, and for the change of county road at said south end of North Main street in said village of Jewell, as dedicated to the public by said John M. Nyhart, as the said Nyhart is desirous to have the route of said road changed through the lands owned by the County of Knox, and to vacate all of said road between the commencement and terminus of said change. And for the change of State road, and for the change of county road at said south end of North Main street in said village of Jewell, as dedicated to the public by said John M. Nyhart, as the said Nyhart is desirous to have the route of said road changed through the lands owned by the County of Knox, and to vacate all of said road between the commencement and terminus of said change.

Now if Grant can have his "bull pup" cared for and fed at the public treasury, we expect that Hayes, if elected, will take that $125,000 horse, and those blooded cattle with him to Washington and have them fed at public expense! Morton, while governor of Indiana, had the straw, oats and hay fed his horses, paid for by the State of Indiana! If the people want to pay for the services of Republican office-holders, and feed their dogs, horses, etc., let them elect Hayes.

Death of Francis P. Blair, Sr.

FRANCIS PRESTON BLAIR, Sr., the venerable journalist and politician, died on Wednesday, October 18th, at his residence, Silver Spring, Maryland, aged eighty-five years. Mr. Blair was born at Abington, Va., April 12, 1791. He entered politics at an early age, supporting Clay in 1824, but deserted from his financial views.

His review of Clay's position prompted Jackson to befriend him. The General made him editor of the Washington Globe, which subsequently became the organ of successive Democratic Administrations. In 1845 Mr. Blair retired from the Globe, but refused to accept the mission to Spain proffered him by Jackson, taking up his residence at Silver Spring, Maryland. He supported Van Buren, was active in politics down to the repeal of the Missouri compromise, and then exerted his influence in favor of the Republican party, largely in its organization. He did not participate in public affairs in later years, but he manifested great interest in, and freely criticized governmental affairs. His sons, Montgomery and Francis P. Blair, Jr., distinguished themselves, both in civil and military affairs, and their records are better known to the present generation than the venerable journalist whose demise is recorded here.

CONGRESSMAN SUTLER SAYS: It was Pope who used to swear "God mend me," and swearing the favorite oath of the people in the presence of a little boy, the boy called him a hypocrite, and he happened to be the great poet and said "God mend me, indeed! I think it would be a good deal easier to make a new one." You talk about mending the Republican party, about reforming the Government, about reforming the people of the country must make a new one.

Mathias Romero, when he was in Washington as the Mexican minister, married an American woman. Later she eloped from her home, in Mexico, with a Negro, a journalist, who left a wife behind and took a fortune with him. Romero is a member of the Mexican Congress, and he was informed of his wife's flight just as he was about to deliver an address. He went on with the speech without embarrassment or confusion.

Somebody tried to burn the old Yale College chapel last week, by throwing a powder ball about the size of a man's hat through the window. By accident when the ball exploded the rebound sent it thro' another window to a distance of nearly three feet away from the building. The damage was slight with the exception of the windows, in which every pane of glass was shattered by the explosion.

Bob Ingersoll is born in Dresden, N. Y., 1837, and is the son of a Congregational minister. He was baptised in a city theatre. When he was a Democrat candidate for Congress he wished that God Almighty might, if he supported a certain Statesman, dash him to hell with his thunderbolts. Soon after he joined the Republican party and turned infidel.

A Baltimore eloping pair were a saloon keeper and the daughter of a retired merchant. He moved his saloon next door to her residence, so as to get an opportunity of forming an acquaintance, and the plan succeeded so well that on her father refusing his consent to a marriage, she climbed down from her room at night to fly with her lover.

—The heavy rains of Sunday night and Monday straggled the trees completely of the withered leaves.

—The new Columbus and Toledo Railroad has been opened for travel between Columbus and Marion.

—The treasurer is ready to give you a receipt for your taxes, but don't forget to bring your road receipt.

—Boxes govern the world—the cartilage box, the ballot box, the jury box, the hand box and the pill box.

—Husking bees are now in order. A good old-fashioned Centennial husking wouldn't be a bad place to go.

—The city of Delaware cast 1536 votes at the recent election, which is 329 more than were cast in Mt. Vernon.

—What the housewives of this land are now looking for is a stove with over doors that won't peel their knuckles.

—The orchard of the Rev. W. G. Graham, of Jacktown, Licking county, yielded this season 1,000 bushels of apples.

—No man can become thoroughly acquainted with his family history without running for office or election a newspaper.

—The Pan Handle Railroad is getting up a series of cheap excursions to the Centennial from different towns West of the Ohio river.

—Let every Democrat in Knox county work till the close of the polls on the 7th of November, and a glorious victory will be the result.

—Bayard Taylor has seen every World's Fair ever yet held, and considers the Centennial Exhibition the most interesting and complete of them all.

—Sarah Price, aged 12 years, living near Amity, was kicked by a horse in the face, breaking both jaws and knocking out several teeth, one day last week.

—You may as well begin to fatten your turkeys, as Thanksgiving is come shortly after Tilden's election. It could not come at a more appropriate time.

—Knox county can give honest Sam. Tilden a majority of 590 if every friend of reform and good government turns out to the polls on the 7th of November.

—Mr. John M. Ewald's new house, on Gambier street, bids fair to be the handsomest frame dwelling in the city. Mr. E. deserves great credit for his enterprise.

—H. L. Reed has been chosen President of the Licking County Agricultural Society, having received 561 votes to 358 received by his opponent, James Pittsford.

—Cider is so cheap down East this year that farmers are paying people fifty cents a barrel to drink it, and able-bodied men are making from $1 to $2 a day at this rate.

—Mr. L. B. Ward has just placed a very handsome wrought-iron fence and stone walk in front of his residence on Gambier street, which shows that he is a man of taste and enterprise.

—Capt. A. S. McClure, editor of the Wooster Republican, who styles himself "the Demosthenes of America," is announced to speak in Mt. Vernon on Saturday evening, Oct. 28th.

—Nobody can tell what the fashion is in these hard times, for no two persons, male or female, are dressed alike, and all classes of people seem to be engaged in wearing out their old clothes.

—Martin Purdy and Simon Dudgeon, subjects of severe accidents alluded to in last week's BANNER, are in a fair way to recovery. Both will vote for Tilden, even if they have to be carried to the polls.

—S. A. Lane, Esq., formerly editor of the Akron Beacon, was chosen Sheriff of Summit county, at the late election, by a majority of 500. Mr. Lane is a Republican, but a very deserving man, notwithstanding.

—Norman Winchell, a young man of twenty-two years of age, and very much respected, died of consumption last Monday evening, at his father's residence in Monroe township, about two miles North of Gambier.

—A dusky pair, Jerry Latham and "Elias Washington's wife" left town together on Saturday evening, on $5 of borrowed money, and there is a strong suspicion on the minds of our colored population that the couple have eloped.

—The two banking houses of E. Franklin's Sons & Rider, and Robbins, Wing & Warner, at Newark, have closed their business, and a new concern has been organized in their stead, to be known as the Franklin Bank, of which Messrs. William Franklin, D. C. Wingearner, L. B. Wing and W. A. Robbins, are the proprietors.

—A farmer named John Shrimplin, while under the influence of liquor, attempted to board a moving freight train on the C. Mt. V. & C. Railroad, at Killbuck station, Saturday night last, fell under the cars, and had one of his feet badly mangled.

—"Joe Hooper," Mt. Vernon's favorite trotter, won the free-for-all trot at Wooster, last week, and then came down to Millersburg, where he took second money in another race. Nard Harvold handled the ribbons, and you can bet he's pretty near a driver.

—S. H. Ellis, Master of the Ohio State Grange, will install the officers of Knox County Pomona Grange of Patrons of Husbandry, at Banning's Hall, in Mt. Vernon, on Thursday, the 2d of November, at 1 o'clock p. m. All Fourth Degree members are invited.

—A great many of the old war-worn Democrats of the county came in to hear General Banning speak on Saturday night; but to the surprise of every one, "Uncle" John Sellers, of Morgan township, did not put in an appearance. The general conclusion was that he must have been unwell.

—Mr. John P. Goshall, a few days ago, sold his fine farm of 130 acres, situated one mile South of Mt. Vernon, on the Granville road, to Mr. Isaac Johnson, for $18,000. This may seem to some folks a good price, but the land alone is worth that money, while the improvements cost at least $10,000.

—The Union Temperance Meeting will be held in the Congregational Church next Sunday evening. The address will be delivered by Rev. R. G. Hutchins, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Columbus. Mr. Hutchins is one of the ablest speakers and preachers in the State. He will preach in the Congregational Church Sunday morning.

—The business of the Cleveland, Mt. Vernon and Columbus Railroad for the past fiscal year, is thus reported: Passengers carried, 259,870; tons of freight carried, 218,733; gross earnings, $404,234.02. For the year ending June 30, 1875, passengers carried, 261,810; tons of freight carried, 235,377; gross receipts, $432,042.90. Passenger decrease, 1649; freight decrease, $27,809.88.

—We believe Amity and vicinity can turn out one of the meanest Republicans in the State. Their last crowning act of adulterated "ornaryness" was to take an anger and bore down the Democratic hickory pole in that village on Friday night last. What better could be expected of the followers of a party whose leaders have been sent to the penitentiary for robbing the Government?

—Mr. John Hunt has presented us with a little implement, recently invented and patented by Messrs. Stone & Harris, of Danville, for making beefsteak tender. It is composed of a series of sharp steel points or needles, inserted in a block of wood, which, when pressed upon the steak, cut all the muscular fibers, and render it the more easy of mastication than when pounded in the old way. No "well regulated family" should be without this beefsteak improver.

—Mr. John Horn, aged 66 years, died at his residence in Butler township, on the 6th inst. The deceased was a native of Washington county, Pa., but came to Knox county nearly 40 years ago. He was the father of nine children, four of whom only survive him. He was a member of the Butler Baptist Church, and was highly respected in the community where he resided. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. K. Linebaugh and Rev. Mr. Disney.

Mr. Thayer is one of the College editors of the Gambier Argus, a young man of brilliant attainments, and will no doubt distinguish himself on the occasion.

—We had a pleasant call on Tuesday from Hon. F. W. Merrin, of Mississippi, who was on his return from the Centennial. Mr. Merrin was formerly a citizen of this county, but for over sixteen years past has resided in Mississippi, during most of which time he has been editor of a Democratic paper. He says they are now enjoying peace and good government in Mississippi, and that the State will give Tilden and Hendricks a large majority.

—Toledo Democrat: Keep it constantly before the people, that Rutherford B. Hayes did not return his Toledo 7 per cent. bonds and mortgage notes for taxation, and that he swore his return included all his personal property, moneys and credits, subject to taxation. Is Hayes a perjurer?

—The Republican Congressional majority in Ohio is only about 6,000. Owing to the gerrymandering of the state by a Republican Legislature the 318,000 Republicans have twelve congressmen, while the 311,000 Democrats have only eight.

—Some of the ablest lawyers in the country, among whom may be mentioned Hon. Jeremiah S. Black and Hon. William M. Ervatt, declare most emphatically that Grant's South Carolina Proclamation is unconstitutional.

Housing Democratic Meetings.

The Democracy of Mount Vernon and vicinity turned out on Saturday night last, at Woodward's Opera House, hundreds being unable to gain entrance, to see and hear their former townsman, the talented gentleman and brave soldier, General H. B. Banning. The General was introduced by General Morgan, and was received by the audience with a storm of cheers and the clapping of hands. The General was in splendid trim, and the crowd in good humor, and listened eagerly to his stirring remarks, during the two hours of their duration. He reviewed the labor performed by the last Democratic Congress, the different investigations, and the exposures of the Belknap, Babcock, etc., and clearly demonstrated why the people in the present campaign should support Tilden, Hendricks and Reform. During the course of his remarks, he said this Government was becoming so corrupt that foreigners would soon cease to come to our shores to reside. He was here interrupted by a Methodist clergyman of Hibernian descent, who said that such was not the case. The General promptly retorted:—"No, sir; for the people will elect Tilden and the consequent blessings of a good and pure government will bring them to our country." The hit was very palpable, and the audience cheered loudly. At the conclusion of his remarks, three cheers were given for General Banning, and three more for the next President of the United States—Samuel J. Tilden,—and for Better Times.

Death of Mrs. Ogden J. Smith.

We are called upon this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. OGDEN J. SMITH, which occurred on Friday morning last, October 20th, at the residence of the late Dr. H. W. Smith, on Chestnut street, in the 83d year of her age. She was born in Bristol, Connecticut, June 26, 1793, and was married to the Rev. Walter Smith, April 10th, 1819. Together with her husband she resided in Mt. Vernon in 1840, where she has since resided. She had but recently returned from a visit to the West, when she was attacked with pneumonia, and despite the best of medical aid and the faithful attentions of friends and neighbors, departed this life as above narrated. Mrs. Smith was a woman of more than ordinary mind, an interesting conversationalist, and had the faculty of remembering old faces, and incidents of her early life. She was the mother of three sons, all of whom have distinguished themselves professionally—the late Dr. Harvey W. Smith, Hon. Walter H. Smith, recently Solicitor of Internal Revenue, of Washington, D. C., and M. P. Smith, Esq., of Albion, Iowa. She was a true Christian woman, and had been identified with the church from early childhood. Her funeral took place from the Congregational Church on Sunday last, Rev. E. B. Burrows officiating, and a goodly number of relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the beautiful Cemetery at the head of Main street.

Serenade to General Banning.

Last Saturday night, after the meeting at Woodward's Opera House, had adjourned, about three hundred of our citizens and former comrades in arms of General Banning, headed by the Mt. Vernon Cornet Band, marched up Main street and to the residence of Hon. John D. Thompson, on Sugar street. At the house the band discoursed several of their best pieces, and the crowd called loudly for General Banning, when that gentleman made his appearance on the piazza, and made a few happy remarks of a non-political character, returning his thanks for the honor conferred. Hon. John D. Thompson was called for, and also made a few remarks, inviting the members of the band to enter his house, where he said he could speak to them in a more extended manner. The invitation was accepted, and his accomplished wife did the honors in a most satisfactory manner. While this was going on, General Banning was holding a reception in the parlors, where numbers of his old comrades took him by the hand, and expressed their congratulations on his recent re-election to Congress, and many of them expressed themselves as desirous of a change, and that they proposed voting for Samuel J. Tilden for President.

CENTREBURG ITEMS.

—A new preacher has been secured for the M. E. Church—Rev. Mr. Clark.

—Rev. D. H. Green is holding a revival meeting at the Presbyterian Church, one mile north of here.

—Dr. Wm. Dumbald, formerly of Licking county, has purchased the McClelland property, moved in, and formed a partnership with Dr. Nichols in the practice of medicine.

—Dr. Hess, of Delaware, and Henry Brokaw, of this place, are erecting a very fine two-story business house on the old McClelland corner, which will add greatly to the appearance of the place.

—Mr. Wm. Lyal, son of Commissioner Lyal, on Wednesday, the 18th inst., met with a very serious accident at the cider mill of the Mortley brothers. Mr. Lyal was on the power driving, when one of the teams became partially detached from the mill. While the team was being hitched, Mr. Lyal came down from the platform and was leading the horses by the bits, when in the act of passing over the tumbling shaft, his leg was caught by the ends of some bolts, tearing it in a most frightful manner from the top of the calf to the heel. Drs. Russell and Bradford are doing all they can to save the limb.

Teachers' Certificates.

At the regular examination for school teachers, held on the 14th inst., certificates were issued to seven out of thirteen applicants, the following being the names of the successful ones:

Harvey Ackerman, Leveering,	18 months.
Amelia Dornus, Hartford,	18 "
A. W. Marsh, Mt. Vernon,	18 "
G. W. Tulloss, Urica,	12 "
J. F. Jackson, Mt. Vernon,	12 "
R. G. Hawn, Millwood,	6 "
James Phillips, Mt. Vernon,	6 "

The graduation of the above certificates is under the new rules and regulations of the Board. The salary workings of the new system have met the fullest expectations of the examiners, operating both in considerably decreasing the number of applicants of inferior talent and protecting the Board and the better class of teachers, against fraud during examinations. In completeness of system and thoroughness of examination the Board is second to no other in the State. The next examination will be held at Martinsburg, on Friday, Oct. 27th, at the close of the Teachers' Institute.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer

The Cleveland Plain Dealer nominates General Banning for Governor, and the Columbus Dispatch puts in a claim for William Bell, Jr.

Another Pioneer Goes.

About seven o'clock on the evening of the 18th, George Lybarger, died at his home in Harrison township, two miles East of Gambier, in the 86th year of his age. He was born on the 90th of April, 1791, in Bedford county, Pa., which county he left in October, 1819, for the then wilderness of Ohio, and after an eventful journey reached Knox county, and for a year lived some two miles South of Mt. Vernon, on the Byles place, and from whence he removed to the farm East of and overlooking Gambier, on which he died. Although suffering from the infirmities of age, he was patient and cheerful, and full of anecdotes and remembrances of the early days of this portion of the county, of Gambier and her founder, the pioneer Bishop of Ohio. The old gentleman was buried at Mt. Zion, in sight of his home, and leaves a large family of sons and daughters as well as a numerous acquaintance to mourn his loss.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.

Twelve Ships of the Arctic Whaling Fleet Reported Lost in the Ice.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The whaling bark Florence arrived Saturday from the Arctic Ocean with one hundred and ninety men on board, being part of the crews of the Arctic whaling fleet, twelve of which she reports lost in the ice, with a portion of the crews. The remaining survivors have gone to Honolulu on the bark Three Brothers.

The following is the list of the abandoned vessels: Barks Onward and Clara Bell, of San Francisco; ships, St. George and Marango, and bark Cornelius H. Josiah, of New Bedford; ship Camilla and barkentine Josephine, of Boston; bark Acers Barnes, of New London, and Hawaiian barks Desmond and Arctic. The vessels had on board altogether one thousand barrels of oil, besides a large amount of whalebone and ivory. It is the undivided opinion of every Master that no hope can be entertained of rescue of the ships or those who remain on board of them. All are undoubtedly lost. Carried away in the immense ice pack which closed them in for miles around.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The True Story of the Republican Riot and Murder.

The following special to the Evansville, (Ind.) Courier from Charles H. Simonton, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of South Carolina, is in answer to an inquiry of Wallace's statement charging the Democrats with the Cainboy riot:

"CHARLESTON, S. C., October 21.—The telegram of Marshall Wallace, charging the Democrats with the Cainboy riot, is an unmitigated falsehood. He is a bitter partisan, struggling to keep himself in office and his father in Congress. Pursuant to a settled compact, while he and colored Democrats were in the South, the Republicans, in violence, carried muskets and hid them, and at a signal they seized their guns, opened fire, killing six, and wounding twelve. One of the whites was killed by his own friends. The Rifle Club disbanded. We only want peace, not trouble."

Another Radical Victory—Grantism in the South.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 19.—Six whites returning home from a Democratic mass meeting at Edgeland C. H., near dark last evening, were fired into by colored men in ambush. One was killed instantly and another severely wounded. Major Kline, and other United States officers, at the request of the whites, went to the spot, and while they were viewing the body a white man sent for the Coroner was also shot from ambush and had a leg shattered, and a horse wounded. The meeting had been quiet and orderly.

Mobbing.

Last week several Republicans attempted to organize a mob to destroy the Messenger office. We can say to the mobsters that the Messenger boys are always "at home" and will tender them a warm reception. In fact quite warm. The Messenger will still continue to oppose Hayes and denounce his mob.—Fremont Messenger.

The St. Paul Pioneer

The St. Paul Pioneer (referring to) attacks Governor Tilden "for refusing to aid a crippled soldier or destitute widow." The editor of the St. Paul Pioneer misappropriated, when pension agent, several thousand dollars of the money designed by the government to aid the "crippled soldier and destitute widow," and compelled his successor, the orphan daughter of a crippled soldier, to make good the deficiency.

Mr. August Belmont, who is the American representative of the wealthiest house in Europe (the Rothschilds) gives the lie to the Radical story that the capitalists of Europe dreaded the election of Tilden; and he asserts that the very reverse of this is true, as Tilden's election will restore credit and produce better times, by putting honest men in office.

The Louisville Courier-Journal

exhorts Hayes in the following friendly manner: "Come, now, Rutherford, play old man LeRoy that thousand dollars his poor son gave you for safe keeping, and be done with it. For heaven's sake, and for your own sake, purge your soul of that great sin the political damnation of November overtakes you!"

The number of visitors to the Centennial for the week closing last Saturday was greater than in any previous week of the exhibition, the full-free admissions aggregating 614,725, or more than 102,000 per day.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer

says that every Republican ticket cast in that county on the 10th, were illegal. Wm. Bell should contest the election, and show up the mean acts of the Cleveland Republicans.
