MOUNT VERNON, OHIO, OCTOBER 19, 1867.

Reading matter on every page.

Abolition Tyranny.
Elias Boudinot, a well known leader of the Radical disunionists in Morris township, had in his employ before the election a young Democrat named Samuel Patrick. Boudinot used every argument in his power to induce this young man to vote the Negro Suffrage ticket, but without success; and he finally, in an insulting and threatening manner, told Mr. Patrick that if he voted the Democratic ticket, he might consider himself discharged. Patrick, like a true and honest man, voted according to his convictions of right, and he was thereupon discharged by this petty Abolition tyrant. Mr. Patrick is a poor young man, wholly depending upon his daily labor for support. The Democrats at once went to work, and raised a handsome sum of money which they presented to him as a reward for his fidelity to principle. We hope Boudinot will be attended to, as the law directs, at next term of our Court.

"Ohio in the War."
We have felt a great interest in the publication of this work, for it is one in which all classes of our citizens are interested. Its character has become a matter of personal concern to every Ohio soldier, particularly, and in almost an equal degree to every citizen of our noble State. We have examined the advance sheets of this work, and are satisfied that it is one that every patriotic Ohioan will be proud to have in his library.

The work will appear in two volumes, of nearly 2000 pages. The first, giving the history of the State during the war—the administrations of Governors Dennison, Tod and Brough, and biographies of McClellan, Sherman, Sheridan, Cox, Steedman, McDowell, Grant, Meade, Hazen, Leggett, Sill, Schenck, Garfield, Lytle, McCook and many others.

The second will contain the history of every Regiment and other military organizations with Rosters of each. We are glad that so able and popular a writer as Whitelaw Reid has undertaken this work. No pains or expense have been spared by the publishers to make this work complete in all its details, and it will be the only standard and reliable work of the kind that will probably ever be published. The work will be sold only by agents. The General Agent A. M. Fitch is now in town for the purpose of obtaining agents for this and adjoining counties. See advertisement elsewhere.

Melancholy Death.
Charles J. Carnell, a lad 10 years of age, step-son of Mr. H. T. Bryant, of Morris township, came to his death at the residence of Mr. Charles Babbs, in Pike township, on the 27th ult., under the following painful circumstances: It appears that he went to the house of Mr. Babbs, his grandfather, for the purpose of gathering peaches; and while there got on a horse that was harnessed to ride. For some reason the boy lost his balance, and fell off the horse; but one of his feet caught in the harness, and he was dragged some fifty rods, mangled him in a horrible manner, and causing his death. He is said to have been a young lad of high promise.

Death of Alvah Buckingham.
Alvah Buckingham, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of Ohio, died at Putnam on Friday, Oct. 4th. But a few days previous his venerable and beloved wife died at the residence of their son-in-law Hon. S. S. Cox, in N. Y. Mr. R. came with her remains to Ohio, and before the funeral was stricken with the same disease (pneumonia) that caused her death.

Alvah Buckingham emigrated to Ohio in 1800, and settled at Marietta. Soon after moving to Putnam, opposite Zanesville, he became part of the mercantile firm of Ebenezer Buckingham, Jr., & Co., the senior partner being the parent of Gen. C. P. Buckingham, formerly of Mt. Vernon. He leaves a princely fortune, which he bequeathed to his children, and leaves a still nobler one, the heritage of an untarnished name. Full of years, and full of honors, which his character as a successful merchant and a Christian gentleman and a philanthropist gave him, Alvah Buckingham has been gathered to his fathers, leaving many to bless but none to curse his memory.

The original and only "Dampfool" has taken up his abode in Mt. Vernon, and is now employed in writing filthy and disgusting communications for the negro organ, the Republican. His first effort is entitled "Hogs and Democrats." A paper that will publish such communications, and a party that will read and patronize such a newspaper, richly deserves defeat.

Good Advice.

"Brick" Pomeroy gives the following advice to some Wisconsin editors, who have been to La Crosse in the capacity of a "conventionist":
Publish a good paper, but never ask a man to subscribe for it. An editor is never a canvasser. Make a good paper, and folks will take it fast enough. Keep out of rum holes. Employ none but sober, capable workmen. Pay your employees liberally and promptly, not grudgingly, but as a pleasure. Don't beg! Beggars have no influence. Don't make a huckster shop of your santum, and cover your doors with advertisements of wood, eggs, milk, chickens, corn, paper rags, turnips, old clothes, soap grease, medicine, fresh sausage, maple sugar, etc. Waited at this office on subscription, etc. Ask pay for what you do—pay for what you get. Let your word be sacred as your bond. Know what your are doing, or nothing. And do not risk your manhood for some little office, or a free pass over some railroad. Pay for what you have. If you have no money to pay for, stay at home. Do not ask people to support you—support yourself. Make your paper interest somebody, and it will have friends and influence. If the business will not pay, quit it. If you must beg for a living, get a dog and string, and go at it in earnest, but for a dog and string do not dishonor the press. Be something else than a political dog for cold victuals.

Dean, Clyde, large yugers; C. Schneider, Newburg, paint compound; S. C. Talcott, Ashtabula, button hole; D. R. Ayer, Newburg, paint compound; C. Whipple, Detroit, hanging saw; L. Smith, Strongsville, washing machine; R. Bruise, Memphis, Tenn., apple seedling machine.

New Goods received Daily, at Welker & Co's.

The "finest woman in the world" is being exhibited in a booth on the Champs Elysees. Those who visit her are addressed by her in the following modest style: "I am the most beautiful woman in the world. No empress, no queen can compare with me. You are at liberty to touch me, messieurs; you will find that there is no cotton about me." Very few of the visitors, however, avail themselves of this permission.

The only reason which the Radicals give that they will ever recover their ascendancy again in Ohio is, that they did so in 1863, after being beaten in 1862. They forgot that they were restored then by the lay-out, by fraudulent army votes, and by military tyranny. These aids they are not likely to have next year. We beg to assure them that their defeat will prove a Waterloo, and not a Ligny.—Enquirer.

The Benefits of Matrimony.
Corry O'Leary, of the Brooklyn Enquirer, argues the advantages of married life over "boarding house institutions," from the following point:

Single life is not good for a married man of mature years.
He gets alone very well for a little while, until his fortnight's washing is brought home, when he begins to realize the value of matrimony by the absence of shirt buttons.

Man can never be an independent creature until the necessity for buttons can be dispensed with.

In a boarding house a man has considerable control taken out of them.
His interest in the establishment is limited—authority he has none.

The landlady agrees to fuddle him two or three times a day, and stable him at night somewhere on the third floor.

He can't complain of the coffee, or growl if the potatoes are underdone.

If he doesn't like it he can leave it. There are other boarding houses, and he has a choice of evils.

In the evening he has all the world before him.

He has perfect liberty of choice between his bedroom and the street.

There is the parlor to be sure; but the young lady who has steady company is already there.

You go in and the damsel looks daggers.

He is going to look at her as though he would like to punch her head.

If you are possessed of a sensitive and sympathetic nature you can't resist this mute but eloquent appeal.

Especially when it comes home to you, as it does to me, that there was a time when you gave your hand to a young man.

How would you have liked it yourself?

There is no alternative but to suddenly remember that you "have an appointment," seize your hat and rush out into the street.

Ancient Pine Aris.
To the Editor of the New York Herald:

Respecting the relics of porcelain we found in the late excavations at Herculaneum, which have been forwarded to the Society of Antiquaries in London, whereof your correspondent says that the King of Naples, Dr. Bunsen, was undoubtedly placed among the ruins by the agent of Dr. Drake, we desire to state that we are in every respect.

A little was found, but bearing out the legend of the ancient Romans was different from the accepted literature of that day. Our agent has other business than this in Europe, and has not been in Italy as yet. No doubt American agents will be sent to Rome, but trying to impose upon a society of Antiquaries in this way, means quite useless, and we do not appreciate the joke. It is necessary for us to spend money in Europe, and we are glad to see the demand for these celebrated Bitters here.

Respectfully,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

THE GREAT SOLDIERS

GALLANT REGIMENTS OF OHIO

In Reliable History!

All photographed and framed in "beautiful setting" to the admiration of this and coming generations.

Every Buckeye of truly patriotic sympathies will find "ways and means" to purchase, for his own family or himself, at least one copy—perhaps several copies for friends out of the State—of that Splendid Home Book, entitled:

OHIO IN THE WAR:

HER SOLDIERS, STATESMEN & GENERALS.

By WHITELAW REID.

A splendidly illustrated, elegantly written, and handsomely bound book, to be read this Fall, in 2 Royal Octavo Vols., making nearly 2000 pages.

It is superbly printed on fine, toned laid paper, and handsomely bound. These magnificent volumes embody an amount of information scarcely equalled by that usually furnished in a dozen volumes, nominally of the same size.

Great care has been taken to present full histories and Rosters of each of her Regiments, as well as to give thoroughly authentic Biographies of her distinguished Generals, so many of whom have acquired a National reputation and worldwide fame.

Their campaigns are discussed with a fullness and knowledge of details attained by no previous writer, because no one has before had access to like original sources of information. No State or Ohio has brought into line such an array of military leaders as will readily be suggested by the names of Grant, Sherman, McClellan, McDowell, Buell, McClellan, Rosecrans, Mitchell, McPherson, Ethel, Schenck, McCook, Garfield, Cox, Hazen, Gilmore, etc.

The portraits of these were given, with a hundred others of less eminence, whose biographies are also given. These are the lives of the three Kings of the Republic, and the most prominent in the War, make up a work of great importance and interest, which has been in course of preparation for nearly four years. The General Agent, A. M. Fitch is now in town for the purpose of obtaining agents for this and surrounding counties. Persons who desire to canvass for this GREAT WORK, can be acquainted with territory by addressing on calling on him at his room one North of Dr. Russell's office.

The work can only be had of duly authorized Agents, and of whom the agent guarantees the exclusive right of the territory assigned to him.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO'S

SEWING MACHINES,

699 Broadway, New York.
For Families and Manufacturers.
THE HOWE LOCK STITCH

These World-renowned Sewing Machines
WERE AWARDED the highest premium at the World's Fair in London, and six first premiums at the N. Y. State Fair of 1866, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best machines in the world.
These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, Elias Howe, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.
They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols. They work equally well upon silk, linen, woolen and cotton goods with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the articles sewed.
The Stitch invented by Mr. Howe, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by him.

Of change and health to thee.
Office in Cleveland, Ohio, No. 210 St. Clair street, near Bond. Office days in Cleveland each month, on the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 15th, and 16th.
Maxim strictly adhered to—
I give such balm as has no strife
With nature or the laws of life;
With blood my hands I never stain;
Nor poison men to ease their pain.
He is a Physician indeed who Cures.
The Indian Herb Doctor, R. J. LYONS, cures the following complaints in the most obstinate stages of their existence, viz: Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Dropsy in the Chest, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fits or Rolling Sickness, and all other Nervous Derangements. Also, all Diseases of the Blood, such as Scrofula, Erysipelas, Cancer, Fever, Sores, Leprosy, and all other complicated Chronic Complaints.
All forms of Female Difficulties attended to with the happiest results.
It is hoped that no one will despair of a cure until they have given the Indian Herb Doctor's Medicine a fair and faithful trial. During the Doctor's travels in Europe, West Indies, East Indies, South America and the United States, he has been the instrument in God's hand to restore to health and vigor thousands, who were given up and pronounced incurable by the most eminent old school Physicians; nay, more thousands who were on the verge of the grave, and now living monuments to the Doctor's skill and successful treatment, and are daily exclaiming, "Blessed be the day when first we saw and partook of the Indian Herb Doctor's Medicine."
The Doctor pledges his sacred word and honor that he will in no wise, directly or indirectly, induce or cause any individual to take his medicines without the strongest probability of a cure.
Mode of Examination.
Dr. L. discerns diseases by the Eye; he, therefore, asks no questions; neither does he require invalids to explain Symptoms. Let one and call and have their symptoms and the location of their diseases explained free of charge.
Remember, consultation and advice free. The poor shall be liberally considered. The Dr. has just issued a pamphlet containing a brief sketch of his life, study and travels, which can be had free of charge by all who desire one.
Beautiful pictures made of all kinds and sizes, from the smallest up to life size; either plain or beautifully painted in India-ink, oil or water colors; and old pictures copied and enlarged to any required size.
Beautiful picture frames and albums, always on hand. Card photographs and ambrotypes, reduced in price.
