

Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1876

9-1-1876

Mount Vernon Democratic Banner September 1, 1876

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.kenyon.edu/banner1876>

Recommended Citation

"Mount Vernon Democratic Banner September 1, 1876" (1876). Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1876. 33.

<https://digital.kenyon.edu/banner1876/33>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1876 by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

1776. 1076. JULY 4th! THE DAY WE CELEBRATE! GREAT ATTRACTIONS --AT THE-- DRY GOODS HOUSE C. Peterman & Son

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

EAGLE MILLS CHASE & DAWSON NEW AND ELEGANT FLOURING MILLS, JUST COMPLETED WITH ALL THE MODERN IMPROVEMENTS. CUSTOM WORK SOLICITED.

Good Farm for Sale. THE UNDERSIGNED offers to sell at private sale, the Homestead Farm of John Stinemetz, dec'd, situated on the Marietta road, 31 miles East of Mount Vernon, O.

TREES! TREES! 100,000 ORANGE HEDGE PLANTS. 50,000 APPLE TREES. 10,000 ORNAMENTAL AND EVERGREEN TREES.

WANTED! General Agents in every town in the United States for the Adorable Pick, which is a combination of eight tools complete in one.

POSITIVELY CURED. WHEN DEATH was hourly expected from Consumption, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. JAMES was experimenting, he accidentally made a preparation of NITRUS HYDRAZINE, which cured his child, and now gives this recipe free on receipt of two stamps.

WILL ARRIVE. DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS. DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

DR. FISHBLATT, PRACTICING AND CONSULTING PHYSICIAN, AND AUTHOR OF "DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND DIGESTIVE ORGANS."

The Banner

HEWETT'S SPEECH.

War Record of Gov. Tilden.

During the closing hours of Congress, Kasson, of Iowa, delivered a violent and vindictive political speech, in which he indulged in personal attacks upon Gov. Tilden, denouncing him in most flagrant terms as having been a secessionist. This was a row which was engaged in by Clay, Webster, Calhoun or Benton. The house listened with profound attention to every word that fell from his lips, which frequently called forth tremendous applause from the house and from the galleries.

A SUMMARY.

In the night session of Monday in the House, Mr. Hewitt, of New York, replied to Mr. Kasson's attack on Gov. Tilden. He could hardly have believed that that gentleman, with his intellectual endowment, could so far have abdicated his own self-respect as to have indulged in the partisan and malicious statements which he made. He (Mr. Hewitt) approached the subject as he would take hold of a snake, with a desire to get rid of it.

THE NEW POSTMASTER-GENERAL GETTING IN HIS WORK.

The banishment of Mr. Jewell from the Cabinet is at last explained. The Administration had determined upon using the Post-office Department, as it has so often and fruitlessly used the War Office, as part of the Radical machinery of the present campaign, and the honest New Englander declined to be as putty in the hands of Zach Chandler's Committee, and hence was invited to "step down and out."

GENERAL SHERIDAN.

Telegraphed for an order to the Department. When the hour for the execution of the order arrived, the services of a Chaplain. Rev. Harper was only one present. He went to the unfortunate man and talked and prayed with him. And then received from him the money and watches he sent to his mother, who he could not find the Chaplain was to keep them. Soon after the execution Mr. Harper sent for the Chaplain, the Orderly stating that he wanted to see him in regard to the effects of a soldier.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

HAYES' $400 HAUL.

How He Gathered in a Dead Soldier's Money--Another Touching Incident of the Late Civil War.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., July 27. There has been a good deal of talk this country in relation to a war incident in which Governor Hayes is a party in which it seems the Governor got four hundred dollars belonging to a soldier that was executed for desertion. The following letter will explain the matter.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

HAYES' $400 HAUL.

How He Gathered in a Dead Soldier's Money--Another Touching Incident of the Late Civil War.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., July 27. There has been a good deal of talk this country in relation to a war incident in which Governor Hayes is a party in which it seems the Governor got four hundred dollars belonging to a soldier that was executed for desertion. The following letter will explain the matter.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

HAYES' $400 HAUL.

How He Gathered in a Dead Soldier's Money--Another Touching Incident of the Late Civil War.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., July 27. There has been a good deal of talk this country in relation to a war incident in which Governor Hayes is a party in which it seems the Governor got four hundred dollars belonging to a soldier that was executed for desertion. The following letter will explain the matter.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

THE CHARACTER OF THE SETTLEMENT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL PROBLEM NOW BEFORE US, BECOMES EVERY DAY MORE CLEARLY INDICATED.

The character of the settlement of the Presidential problem now before us, becomes every day more clearly indicated. The Republicans, finding the tide of public sentiment running so strongly in a direction opposite to that which in former years has carried them to victory, are, as the time passes, becoming more and more discouraged. The result in Alabama has greatly increased their despondency. They had fully reckoned upon a majority in that State, and now to find that the Democrats are ahead by more than 40,000 votes, appals them, and weakens their confidence in their leaders. The declaration of the President that he would see to it that the South should be found on the right side, caused them to suppose that where there was in any State a doubt as to the assertion of Republican supremacy, the Federal troops would be placed in charge of affairs. Alabama, of all places, should, they think, have been properly looked after. That the first of the State elections after the Presidential nominations had been made, should have been allowed to go Democratic, is to them astounding and an evidence, either of weakness, or a want of foresight in the Republican generals. Great and irreparable harm has been done; the people of the North have been enabled to see that their brethren of the South are not the turbulent, law breaking banditti, that the Administration demagogues had painted them; but that they are valuable citizens--both white and black--who know how to conduct their affairs honestly and peaceably, and who are determined to do what they can to release themselves from the ignominious thralldom in which they have been held by Grant and the Republican party which has upheld and sustained them in all the injuries which he has inflicted upon that choice, but unfortunate section of our country. The moral effect of that victory will be very great, and has already had the influence of drawing to the standard of our great captains of Reform many well-wishers of their land, who before were doubtful upon which side to establish themselves.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

Kilpatrick Gives up the Ship. "A Bloody Shirt Campaign with Money" the only Republican Hope. The Indianapolis Sentinel, of Tuesday, the 22d, published the subjoined letter from General Kilpatrick to Governor Hayes. The Radical ex-trooper has been canvassing Indiana for a week or ten days, and carefully observed things. The Sentinel is in possession of the original draft of the letter, and after investigation and comparison with his signature, and considering the manner in which it got possession of the document, is satisfied of its genuineness, and gives the publication editorial endorsement.

THE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

The Pope was never in better health.

President Grant's address now is Long Branch. Mrs. Ote Bull has rejoined her husband in Norway. The recent census of Montreal places the population at 148,000. The Columbus (Miss.) Index believes that Tweed is living in this city. There are 360 journals in the German language published in this country. It snowed at Pike's Peak the other day. That's the place to go to keep cool. Ann Dickinson's sister Susan is editing a Luzerne county (Pa.) newspaper. The Constitutions of twenty-eight of the States recognize the existence of God. War has been declared by the negroes of Nashville against the Chinese residents. A single fern in New Jersey has sent twelve tons of currants to New York this season. The Sothe finished Abdul Aziz, and softening of the brain is what is carrying off Murad. Mr. George Bancroft, the historian, owns real estate in Newport, R. I., valued at $87,800. Hon. M. C. Kerr was the first Speaker of the House that ever died during his term of office. Six thousand milliners and dress-makers supply London women with head-gear and clothing. Olenbach is writing a book on America, which will be published in New York next month. Charles Francis Adams and Henry Wilson were the successive editors of a Boston daily paper. The United States Fish Commissioners are endeavoring to stock the Kansas river with shad. Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," now in London, has sung through India and Australia. There is a mill at Hingham Harbor, Mass., which was built 1643, and is still in running order. Governor Tilden and Mr. Mantou Marble are visiting the former's brother, at New Lebanon, N. Y. The North Pole? is gravely discussed by Chambers' Journal. A Liverpool lawyer has been compelled to pay damages for having given bad professional advice. Gen. Carter's widow will probably make her permanent home in Monroe, Mich., where she now is. Captain Fitzgerald of the North Infantry was accidentally shot by Lt. Baldwin at Camp Republican. Steamships and vessels taking the northwest passage to Europe lately have passed many vast icebergs. Con Maguire, in prison at St. Louis for defrauding the revenue, was recently married in that institution. Cardinal McCloskey has returned to New York from Europe, where he has been spending the summer. It is one of the economies of nature that the oyster season follows so soon after the end of the camp-meetings. A beggar ate a dinner at a Connecticut farm house, and then inquired where he could buy a bottle of whiskey. The Irish rifle team has been completed by the addition of Mr. Ward, a gentleman residing in New York, who has been spending the summer. Miss Edith May, the lady who was saved at the Mohawk disaster, is the belle at White Sulphur Springs this season. Colonel Nicholas Smith, son-in-law of Horace Greeley, offers an ox for roasting in Mr. Tilden's honor, at Chappaqua. Don Pedro can't enjoy himself over in Europe for the dread of walking off into the ocean before breakfast some morning. A London law compels organ-grinders to cease playing whenever told to do so by a resident of the disturbed neighborhood. The statue of Dr. Livingstone, a favorite of Sir Walter Scott's monument, Edinburgh, was unveiled August 15th. Small-pox is becoming scarce in England. The last annual report gave only 600 cases for the whole of England and Wales. The death is announced in Vienna of Madame Huisenstein, formerly maid of honor to Maria Theresa, at the advanced age of 119. General Butler held quite a lengthy interview with Don Carlos at Newport last week. The Don will take the stump for the General at once. Mrs. Sturgis, the mother of Lieut. Sturgis, who was killed in the Custer massacre, and who was her only son, has become insane from grief. The San Francisco Water Commissioners have been making a trip among the surrounding mountains in search of a water supply for that city. An old army officer suggests that the name of the Seventh Cavalry take the name of "Custer's Cavalry," that the fame of the hero may be perpetuated. Philadelphia is disgracefully dirty. The gutters in some parts of the city are fermenting cesspools of nastiness, and the streets are infested therefrom with sickening stench. In a pamphlet circulated among workmen in Germany, Cain is eulogized as the industrious laborer who, in killing Abel, struck a merited blow at laziness. The Rev. Dr. Hamlin, of Constantinople, says that a suppression of all the Profane and Impure Literature of the world is one of the first results of Russian domination. Mackerel are so abundant near Block Island that the water is said by fishermen to look almost like dry land. The mackerel are very large, too, 100 and 125 making a barrel. The Rev. Arthur Watson, a Protestant clergyman at Killybeg, Ireland, has murdered his wife by shooting her, he being under the influence of drink when he shot her. To guard against fire in Westminster Abbey there is an order forbidding the use of any lights but lanterns and of any matches except those which strike on the box only. The Rev. Dr. T. F. Redhead, an Episcopal minister in Chester, England, got drunk at a social gathering of his congregation. The Bishop of Chester has formally censured him. The priest at the Roman Catholic Church at Cambridgeport, Mass., forbade the use of fans during his services. His congregation disobeyed the order, and two men were ejected. A lawsuit is the result

