When the conference was over, Detective Craw-ford detailed the story of the trip, the most important feature of which was the revelation made to him by Holmes of the story of his whole life. It was like the nost sensational romance. Holmes sat beside the detective with handcuffs on and the train had scarcely emerged from the Boston depot before the prisoner tried to bribe his captor. He offered the detective $500 if he would allow him could get the money at once from his wife and Mrs. Pitzel.
