INNOCENCE.

The culprit had hired the young town lawyer to defend him against the charge of stealing a book cabinet.
After the first conference the young student of law who was just beginning court practice said to his client:

"Now, Bill, I'm convinced that you didn't steal that book cabinet. If I thought you did I'd advise you to plead guilty. However, just leave it to me and I'll prove to the court that you are innocent. In the meantime I'll take a retainer of ten dollars and you can pay the rest when--"

"Ten dollars!" said Bill. "I ain't got no ten dollars."

At this startling news the young lawyer seemed downcast, but suddenly he brightened. "Well, I'll tell you what I'll do," he said. "I'll try to get you out of this scrape and then we'll roll it square if you send the cabinet around to my office. I need one badly."

That's Fixed.

"Pop!"
"Yes, my son."

"Is talking manual labor?"
"Why, no, my boy; talking for most people is not labor at all."

"Well, what is manual labor, pop?"
"Work done with the hands."

"Well, pop, when a Frenchman talks with his hands is that manual labor?"
"No, my son; that's what the elite call calisthenics."

Mary had a little shoe,
And furrrows in her brow,
She couldn't wear a number two,
But tried it anyway.

Excusable.

"That's the first fight that ever made me run," said Broncho Bob.

"I didn't know running was in your line."

SMITH AND WIFE ANXIOUS TO GET THE KAISER'S SCALP

Local Colored Registrant Waives Deferred Classifi- cation To Enter Army

James G. Smith, colored registrant, has a grudge against Germany, not for any thing that the Huns ever did to him more than they have to all the rest of the world--just a "general cussedness" grudge--and this explains why James G. Smith will go to Camp Sherman next month with the Knox county contingent of colored men, for Smith is in Class 4 under the selective service law.

On Thursday, however, Smith and his wife appeared before the local board and inquired if he would be permitted to go at this time. Being answered in the affirmative, Smith requested that he be put on the list and his wife smilingly signed the papers necessary to permit her husband to enter the fighting forces of Uncle Sam.

LAST QUESTIONNAIRES MAILED FRIDAY TO NEW REGISTRANTS

Seven Days Allotted To Fill Out Blanks Under The Draft Law

The last questionnaires were mailed by the local exemption board to the new registrants Friday morning.
The law provides that the questionnaires must be returned within seven days from the date stamped on the cover of each one and the first ones sent out will be returned on or before next Wednesday.

The local board expects to make arrangements to have members of the legal advisory board, which is composed of all the attorneys in the county, on duty at the office of the exemption board daily to aid registrants in correctly answering the questions.

ago in France while serving with the U. S. army. Burial will be made in Bloomfield cemetery.

20 DAYS LEFT FOR PAYING TAXES

With only 20 days left within which taxes will be received by the county treasurer, there are still a large number of taxpayers who have failed to put in their appearance at the little window in the court house, according
