SMITH AND WIFE ANXIOUS TO GET THE KAISER'S SCALP

Local Colored Registrant Waives Deferred Classifi- cation To Enter Army

James G. Smith, colored registrant, has a grudge against Germany, not for any thing that the Huns ever did to him more than they have to all the rest of the world—just a "general cussedness" grudge—and this explains why James G. Smith will go to Camp Sherman next month with the Knox county contingent of colored men, for Smith is in Class 4 under the selective service law.

On Thursday, however, Smith and his wife appeared before the local board and inquired if he would be permitted to go at this time. Being answered in the affirmative, Smith requested that he be put on the list and his wife smilingly signed the papers necessary to permit her husband to enter the fighting forces of Uncle Sam.
