CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Charles Foster should enlighten the Republicans, temperance men and Methodist ministers on the Mahone reputation business.

The fact that workmen everywhere are coming out on the Democratic side

this year, carries consternation to the Republican mind.

The Chicago Times asks: "Why is it that Charles Foster is always eating cloves and lemon when he enters a temperance camp meeting?"

The Republican papers are all trembling in their boots, and are making pitiful appeals to their readers to once more stand by the corrupt Charles Foster.

A Democratic victory in Ohio in October would crush the Cameron ring in Pennsylvania in November. Let the better class of Ohio Republicans get in their work.

Rev. A. B. Leonard says the late Republican Dog Tag Legislature was bought up by the saloon keepers. They must have got it cheap for it was not worth much.

St. Clairsville Gazette: The Republican officials at Washington are returning to help C. Foster along with his campaign.

They continue to draw their pay all the same, however.

Manufacturers, who pay but half wages, can afford to sell a little lower than the employer who pays regular wages. Thus it is that contractors at the Penitentiary become wealthy.

A tricky and unscrupulous politician like Charles Foster should be set aside for a time. John Wesley Bookwalter is the man this year. He is not an old political scoundrel like Foster.

Bookwalter's nomination is a strong assurance of success. He has the character, the ability and the energy to make a successful campaign and to satisfactorily execute the duties of Governor.

If it were that C. Foster has subscribed $50,000 to the Republican campaign fund, and assured the State Executive Committee he will expend $200,000 if necessary, he must be alarmed.

C. Foster's organs allude to the pathetic blubbering he makes over the President's wounds. It is possible that John Sherman may have to take instructions from Foster in the crocodile tear business.

The Chicago Times makes a suggestion to C. Foster that ought to be heeded. Its advice to Mr. Foster is: "Don't come in to the prayer meeting wiping your mouth off with your coat sleeve, Mr. Foster."

A Republican paper insinuates that the Democratic party is the party of "free rum." If any political leader in Ohio has done more than Charles Foster in that direction, we would like to know his name.

Senator Hill, of Georgia, remarks that "it is high time for the Democrats to stop making concessions to a party which has assassinated the Constitution, and now seems determined to assassinate itself."

The workmen of Ohio should remember that in six years' service in the Legislature, Rees G. Richards, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, voted three times for convict labor.

The Republican party last year claimed credit for the good crops and consequent prosperity. Now, however, they lay the bad crops at the door of Providence. At least this is John Sherman and Foster's way.

When the preacher got up to pray in the Hamilton County Republican Con-

PEGGY'S TRIALS.

BY JOSEPHINE POLLARD.

Plenty of trials had Peggy,

Who seldom was much inclined

To think of her many comforts

Or bring her blessings to mind,

And never e'er and cheery

Did she on her errands go;

But always as if her shoulders

Were burdened with weight of woe.

Her path to the other country

Was over a bridge of sighs;

There was ever a tear drop ready

To fall from her weeping eyes.

And not for the woes of others

Was grief or sympathy shown,

But over the tribulations

That Peggy herself had known.

It may be an ancient grievance,

A crook that came in her lot

Long years ago, and by others

Than Peggy had been forgot;

Will give her grief its way,

Till, moistened by dew of feeling,

Her troubles revive each day.

And if she dwelt in a dungeon

But for a moment's time

She could be wrapped in darkness

More dismal or more profound

For thought she had no shining,

Its light and cheer to provide,

There are some in the world who'd rather

Go veiled on the shady side.

And Peggy's losses and crosses,

The grief and gloom of the past,

That came by a cheerful smile,

Like snowdrift had melted fast,

Loomed up like a wall before her,

And her brow with furrows pressed,

And a network of wrinkles covered

Her face, to a smile was lost.

One day the parson to Peggy,

The nourner, reproachfully said:

"Why should you be so spoiling

The taste of your life bread?"

And Peggy, with look indignant,

Replied:

"When the Lord sends tribulations

He expects us to tribulate."

—Independent.

Didn't Win the Bet.

The following story was told by Gus

Williams, the well-known German comedian, during his recent visit here. Two friends were discussing the merits of their acquaintances. Said one of the gentlemen: "Talk about mean men, now there's old Strassberger. He's the hardest, driest, meanest old Shlyok that ever lived."

That man? Why? And there he stopped as if words could not do justice to the subject.

"You're mistaken," said his friend.

"He's not bad; even the devil isn't so black as he is painted. Now, I'll bet you

$100 I can borrow $50 of him before night."

"Done!" said the money was put up.

On posted the sanguine book-maker to his intended victim.

"Strassberger, my boy, how are you?"

He slipped him on the back of a faded sentence from the day of the way, and of good-fellowship.

"Well, I was all right. You'd be madder mit you."

"Come here, old fellow, I made a little

LOCAL AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

— Come to the Fair next week.
— Up to date, the campaign has been a very quiet one.
— Mary Ann Wolfe has sold 30 acres of land in Harrison township to Enos Wolfe for $3200.
— A. W. Marviss sold his 27 acre tract of land in Harrison township to Simon Dugdon for $1500.
— Flour has taken an upward tendency and is selling at a dollar more a barrel than it did a month ago.
— Two weeks from next Tuesday is the election. Democrats, stir yourselves and be ready for the contest.
— J. S. Marquis, piano tuner, will be in Mt. Vernon about the 10th of October.
— The Western University, at Delaware, was opened on Wednesday last week with an increased attendance of students.
— The barn of W. H. Marvin, near Cardington, was destroyed by fire, Friday night. The cause is supposed incendiary.
— The wife of Mr. John P. Teeters, died on Friday last after a lingering illness from consumption, and was buried on Sunday.
— Jim Anderson, employed in the yard of the C. M. V. & C. R. R., had two fingers mangled, while coupling cars Tuesday night.
— The next annual meeting of the Ohio Editorial Association is announced to take place at Youngstown after the October election.
— The new stock yards of the Baltimore and Ohio at Clarendon are completed, and all stock arriving at Baltimore by that road is delivered there.
— Judge Jones, of Delaware, has gone to California to make an official report to the government on the agricultural conditions of the west.
— If you are high-toned you will begin to sneeze with fever pretty soon. If you are a mere ordinary scrub, you will have a cold in the head.
— Democrats should commence organizing in every school district in the county immediately. It will be too late after the election which is near at hand.
— Lizzie Koons, six-months old child of Mr. R. P. Koons, died on Wednesday last week at the residence of Collin W. Koons, from cholera infantum.
— If any of our subscribers who are indebted to us have more of the "fifty line" than they are in need of, we could find room for a little of it in our cash-box.
— A one cent fund is being agitated at several places for Mason, who shot at Gettysburg. If he had proven a better marksman the contribution would be large.
— Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson, were thrown from a buggy by a runaway horse on Friday last, while driving North of town, by which they sustained painful bruises.
— The Mitchell family of Mt. Vernon may be Methodists, but they refused to be coerced, and will stand no "snubbing" from the Republican candidate for Representative.
— Gas is furnished at 75 cents per 1000 feet, in London, and even at that low rate the stock yields a profit of 13-15 per cent. profit. Here are facts for the Mt. Vernon Gas Company to consider.
— There was a slight interruption in the wheat boom last week. Farmers, however, for the most part took advantage of the high price at which wheat was selling to push it into the market.
— Major McElroy, one of the Republican nominees for Congress, is now in this district, was born at Gambier, Ohio, Rev. James McElroy, being at that time one of the Professors of Kenyon College.
— Engineer Koons of the steam fire engine, has been granted permission by Council to attend the Fair next week, provided he furnishes a substitute to take his place at such times as he shall be absent from his post.
— Newark Advertiser: The McCarthy flouring mill in Hebron, this county, was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning, together with all its contents. The total loss is in the neighborhood of $3,000. No insurance.
— In view of the death of President Garfield, and the fact that many prayers were offered for his restoration to health, the subject for the morning sermon at the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath will be "Prayer."
— The jury in the Devore murder trial, at Millersburg, brought in, a verdict of manslaughter, on Saturday, and on Monday morning Judge Vorhees sentenced Devore to ten years imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary.
— Gen. Burnside, recently deceased, was the discoverer and inventor of what was known as "Burnside" or "mutton chop" whiskers. Apart from the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham, that was the principal record he leaves behind.
— Wooster Republican: Last week R. S. Newkirk purchased a handsome six year old white Mohawk stallion in Knox county, near Mt. Vernon. He is one of the handsomest horses in Wooster, being gentle and a good driver.
— Next Saturday, Sept. 24th, is Rosh-A-Shone, or Jewish New Year. Monday, October 3rd is Yung-Kepper, or the Day of Atonement. These days will be observed by our Jewish citizens, who will close their places of business.
— Dr. N. S. Toland, of Martinsburg, secured a draft for $100 from the First National Bank of Mt. Vernon, last Monday, and sent it to the Mayor of Port Huron, Mich., being the contribution of the citizens of Martinsburg and vicinity.
— James George, Jr., eldest son of the late James George, died on Thursday last, from consumption. He was about 48 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended.

— There has been quite a number of new private residences built in our city during the past summer.
— Our people ought to be well supplied with milk, judging from the number of persons engaged in selling it.
— The Fredericktown Free Press draws an ugly picture of the drunkenness and lawlessness that prevail in that town, especially among the rising generation, and it is a pity. General Jackson, that it will keep on exposing the business, even if all its subscribers withdraw.
— Luke Curtis positively renounces the authorship of the "side-splitting jokes" (?) that our contemporary, the Republican, boasts of producing in its local columns. Verily, Luke is not the "pun"-illuminous cuss some folks give him credit for. A terrible load is lifted from his shoulders.
— Our best farmers are beginning to learn, and in fact most of them have already, that the time spent in destroying weeds in the autumn is well spent, and that if they would save time in cultivating good crops they must keep the weeds from seeding as much as possible in all parts of the farm.
— Six large boxes of clothing and other supplies, together with $165 in cash, were sent to Michigan on Saturday last by the Relief Committee, being the generous contributions of the citizens of Mt. Vernon for the benefit of the unfortunate people who suffered the ravages of fire in that State, recently.
— On Thursday and Friday last this section was visited by a steady and refreshing rain—the only one since the 6th of August, or the day of the reunion of Pennsylvanians. While the "Heavenly dew" was none the less acceptable, it came too late to be of any service to the famished crops.
— The Holmes county grand jury, at the present term of court, after being in session four days, found nine indictments—four for assault and battery, one for breach of the peace, one for grand larceny, one for horse stealing, one for selling liquor to minors, one for permitting a nuisance and one for adultery.
— A special meeting of Council was called for Tuesday night, but a bare quorum being present an adjournment took place until Wednesday night. The matter under discussion was the condition of the High street arch; it being claimed that the contractor Mr. Floyd has not done his work according to the plans and specifications.
— Messrs. Watson & Cross of the Newark Pen have been "going for" the Mayor and police of that village, which culminated one day last week, in a collision between Watson and Lieutenant Griffith, in which the former was roughly handled and lodged in jail. The officer was subsequently arrested for assault and battery, and bound over to Court.
— Mansfield Liberal: Mary E. McMahon has sued for a divorce from her husband William T. McMahon of Belleville, on the plea of adultery with one Mary E. Tracy, with whom Mrs. McMahon says she has been living unlawfully for the last six years. The parties were married in Knox county in 1865. All parties are well-known about Belleville.
— A special train was run on the C. M. V. & C. R. R. Sunday from Mt. Vernon to Millersburg, to accommodate the Masonic fraternity and others who desired to attend the funeral of Dr. Pomeroy.
— The train was composed of seven coaches, and before arrival at its destination was crowded with passengers. About one hundred people went from this station.
— "Buckeye City Star" is the name of a little paper that comes to us from "Danville or Rossville," J. R. Tilton, editor. It professes to be "An Independent Weekly," and yet the first number is chiefly filled with puff of the Republican candidate and abuse of Mr. Bookwalter. It is a Republican campaign paper without having the honesty or "independence" to say so.
— The Rev. C. L. Work will be installed as pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city, this (Thursday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The following ministers are expected to take part in the exercises: Rev. R. Sutherland, D. D., of Newark; Rev. W. M. Ferguson, of Fredericktown; Rev. D. R. Colner, of Jersey, and Rev. Theo. Crowell, of Zanesville. All are cordially invited to be present.
— The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last publication: John M. Tucker and Edith M. Waldruff; Luman Vernon and Edie Durbin; John H. Mills and Helen Cohen; A. J. Fiddler and Theresa Moore; A. J. Teeters and Nettie Moore; George P. Marshall and Sarah J. Hines; James Scott and Catherine Riley; W. M. Engle and Mollie Colopy; Lyman Wisley and Angeline Burris.
— Charles Leonard, drug clerk for Bigelow & Co., of Mansfield, disappeared suddenly about ten days ago. His friends thought he had gone West, but becoming alarmed at his continued absence, a search was instituted, and his body was found in a state of decomposition, in a strip of woods two miles North of that city on Saturday last. The body showed no marks of violence, and the cause of his death remains a mystery.
— On complaint and affidavit of Alexander Waddle, a county physician named Norman Hull, of Howard, was arrested on Friday last and brought before "Squire" Durbin, charged with practicing medicine without having attended two courses of lectures and receiving a certificate of qualification, as provided by statute. Hull waived examination, and was bound over to the next term of Court, and permitted to go on his own recognizance.
— Through the carelessness or stupidity of the carpenters, who have been engaged in putting a new roof on the Hooker building, that portion over the BANNER office was left unprotected during the rain last Thursday night, and the morning flood the office flooded by water. Some "sympathizing" Republicans suggested that in our dilemma we might get one of Bookwalter's turbine wheels to run our presses with.
— In our issue of last week under the title of "a gay deceiver" we made reference to a young man named W. H. Lewis, which later developments show were exaggerated by over zealous parties interested in the matter. There was nothing in the letters making any improper proposals, and his connection with them was not discovered by a decoy letter. His character as an upright gentleman is vouched for by Mr. Samuel Bishop, with whom he has been associated for years, in the wool trade. We have no desire to do Mr. Lewis any injustice, and cheerfully make the above corrections.

— Squire Doty performed his first marriage ceremony on Saturday afternoon last—the contracting parties being George P. Marshall and Sarah A. Haines. It was difficult to determine, who was the most abashed—the blushing couple or the bashful and modest Justice.

Methodist Conference.

The Northern Ohio Conference of the M. E. Church was held at Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, last week. The Mt. Vernon district, the Rev. F. B. Stoupe, the presiding elder, represented the interests of his ministry. He reports that his "district has nineteen churches and stations. Many of the church buildings are old and poor. Of the fifteen parishes two have been abandoned as unprofitable. He spoke of the need of greater liberality among the people in the support of the ministers and benevolent causes; thought the pastors were somewhat to blame; not that they were unworthy, but that they were not as zealous as they should be. He reported that he had been successful in his many points, and good work done by all the pastors. One man, A. S. Mohr, had been compelled to give up on account of sickness. V. D. Lawrence has died. Chilton Craven lost his wife. A. E. Thomas, S. Barcus and E. Persons have been called to bury children."

Infirmary Statistics.

From the official report of the Infirmary Directors, which has been placed on file in the Auditor's office, we compile the following statistics, for the year ending, August 31st, 1881: Whole number of inmates at the beginning of the year—male 27; female 30; total 57. Number received—male 14; female 14; total 28. Number born—male 12; female 1. Total number inmates for the year, 88—male 43; female 45.

Whole number discharged during the year—

males 11, females 6; total 17. Number of deaths—male 4, female 2; total 6. Bound out—male 5. Total deaths, discharges and removals, 27—male 19, female 8. Whole number remaining—male 24, female 37; total 61. Daily average—male 24, female 35; total 59. Whole number of children under 16 years—males 8, females 5; total 12. Number placed in homes, 5 males. Number of insane persons 1, epileptics 1, idiotic 1, blind 1. Total expenditures for the year, $3,350.02. There is a considerable amount of information that would be highly interesting to the tax-payers in the report, but owing to the crowded condition of our columns we are obliged to omit details in an article of this kind.

Smothered to Death.

Eddie Hess, ten years of age, at Centreburg, on Tuesday, was playing in Smith's elevator, when by some accident he fell into a wheat bin, containing over five hundred bushels of grain. Before he could be extricated he had smothered to death.

The Young America Clothing House.

Notwithstanding the advance in all lines of goods, the Young America Clothing House is able, by their immense purchases, buying for six stores, to offer Fall and Winter Clothing at prices no higher than heretofore. Call and examine for yourselves.

LABORERS' STRIKE.

On Monday last a strike occurred among the laborers engaged in the Taylor Mill improvement. Among the number who participated were twelve quarrymen, sixteen shovelers and four teamsters. Their pay has been $1.25 per day, and they demanded an increase of 25 cents, or $1.50 per day, on the ground of the increased cost of living entailed thereby. Mr. Ben. Martin, who represents Mr. Taylor, after consultation with that gentleman, notified the strikers that an increase of 50 cents per week in wages would be allowed all the hands on the job—this being the amount that many of them claimed their board had been raised. The proposition was accepted, and the men went back to work.

THE DEAD PRESIDENT.

How the News was Received at Mt. Vernon.
The first information received in this city, conveying the sad intelligence of the death of the President, was brought by the Columbus Journal, which arrived here shortly after 5 o'clock, Tuesday morning. The large extra edition of that paper was being cried upon our streets, when the bells began tolling, and the majority of our citizens, who had not yet arisen from their beds, on hearing the death-telling sounds of the mournful bells, knew at once that the President had passed from earth and was no more. Hurried breakfasts were taken and people flocked eagerly down town to read and hear the confirmation of the news, they almost dreaded to learn.

PERSONAL POINTS.

After the first shock was passed our people with one accord began the work of draping their business houses in mourning. The entire fronts of many stores were elaborately trimmed, with draped flags, black muslin and crepe. Lithographs and chromos of the deceased President, surrounded with tokens of mourning were conspicuously displayed. The soldiers' monument, that stands in the centre of the Square, was wound from the top down with black muslin. Many private dwellings throughout the city were tastefully decorated with the emblems of sorrow and grief.

Business was at a complete stand-still throughout the day, and merchants and other citizens gathered in knots upon the streets, and discussed the calamity in suppressed tones. The machine shops shut down and the sorrowing mechanics left their benches and work to mingle their regrets with all other patriotic citizens, in the loss of the President of our whole country. It was throughout a very sad day, and one never to be forgotten.

LABORERS' STRIKE.

The Masonic Lodge room is heavily draped in black. Memorial services will be held in all the churches next Sunday. The Court House and Post-office are heavily draped in mourning. Many of the school rooms of our public schools are appropriately draped. The army of the Vance Cadets, in Woodward Hall is appropriately draped. Several of the engines on the C. M. V. & C. R. R. were trimmed in mourning on Tuesday.

LABORERS' STRIKE.

The residences of Hon. Columbus Delano and Hon. R. C. Kirk, South of the city, display flags at half mast. The Raymond block in which is located the Knights of Pythias Lodge room and Newton Bros. grocery is neatly decorated. Among the noticeable displays on Main street, are Stedler's, Dr. Green's, Ringwald's, Cassil's, Arnold's, Taft & Co's, and First National Bank.

LABORERS' STRIKE.

The BANNER office displays a reversed flag draped in mourning, and the Democratic Central Committee rooms are also appropriately draped in black. Dr. Holbrook, the dentist, has placed between the windows of his office on the outer walls, a shield surrounded with a quotation from General Garfield's speech made in New York at the time President Lincoln was assassinated: "God Reigns, and the Government at Washington Still Lives."
