per cent.

The house also passed the Ashbrook bill amending the widow's pension law to include widows who have contracted more than one marriage.

It was surely Ohio day for pensions with Congressmen Sherwood and Ashbrook as authors of the bills and in charge of the debate.

LOCAL BOARD WOULD HAVE WILLIAMS FILL OUT QUESTIONNAIRE

Clerk B. O. Evans of the local exemption board sent a telegram to the board at Canton Thursday morning asking that an investigation be made to determine whether Arthur William, colored registrant from here who failed to turn in a questionnaire, was guilty of willful negligence and if not, that he be permitted to fill out another questionnaire.
