lads from Zanesville in the local Y. M. C. A. game last evening. It was a close contest, but the Zanesville lads started to finish the game by a score of 10 to 0. Their easy victory was a surprise in the season, as the Zanesville lads had a reputation of being a hard team to beat. The score was a 10 to 0. The Zanesville lads has picked up a 10 to 0 lead in the first of the season.

The first game ended with a score of 10 to 0 by one point. 7. Substitutes confused the officials. Consequently the Zanesville lads to get the score well until the end of the minutes in this game. The Zanesville lads decided the score five.

The Mt. Vernon lads better organized their play. Many of their possessors would pass it to one end of the field and then shoot the ball. The good opportunity passing helped enabled them to out the physical Zanesville lads. The Zanesville lads less successfully chasing the ball. The Zanesville lads side to the other side of the game with the line-up.
