BANNER STORY CAUSE OF MUCH COMMENT

Judge F. O. Levering's Stock Transaction Greatly In... terests Readers

Publication of the story touching recent negotiations for the property of the Knox T. & R. Co., particularly the episode of Judge F. O. Levering's stock transaction, carried exclusively in The Banner last Saturday, appears to have been the cause of not a little comment.

The generality of this comment is in agreement with the opinion expres... ed which, while not charging ulterior or improper motives to the gentlemen who visited Mt. Vernon last week, holds, nevertheless, their propositions, if accepted, would have been profitab... le only to themselves or their comp... pany and not to the stockholders or creditors of the Knox Tire & Rub... ber Co.

J. Frank Turner, who is a member of the firm conducting a pool room in the basement of the building at the corner of West High street and the square, Monday informed the Banner he had been disappointed in not meet... ing J. G. Feist while here. Unlike Judge Levering, his stock dealings in the concerns in which Mr. Feist had been interested had been wholly sat... isfactory. In 1918, Mr. Turner said, he had acquired 60 shares of stock of the National Rubber Co. Subseq... uently this was merged into the Na... tional Rubber Products Co. and still later into the Hydro-United Tire Co.
For his original 60 shares he received 25 shares of the Hydro-United com... pany. This holding has been increas... ed by stock dividends of 25 shares, and he has been notified of an additional dividend coming Oct. 10.

Mr. Turner says he has received each month checks covering his div... dends in the Hydro-United Co.
